Father Which Is in Heaven:

“In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception,
Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.
Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction
shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.
It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material.”

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In-Joy

This is a sci-fiction story.
Any similarity with reality is a Pure matter of perception.

A CHANGING HORIZON

It was a cold humid winter day. The clouds had been hovering for weeks hiding HelioStella from Terra, making it difficult to maintain a sense of well being. Showay felt uneasy and he did not know why. As he looked outside his window, he wondered if his feeling was related to the new year that had just begun and had already brought with it major disturbing events.

First, a larger than usual earthquake shook the west coast. The reports indicated no damage was caused by it, yet, he knew the news was being censored, because he had actually heard reports of at least one collapsed hospital roof in the area from a local radio station host he was listening to right after the quake had occurred. Then came the failed attempt to blow up an airplane. Because the attempt was unsuccessful, the news media was forced to report on the failure by airport security to prevent the young man accused of carrying the bomb from boarding a plane without a passport and without having been inspected through scanners which would have picked up the bomb he was wearing. Once again, all tyrannically enforced security measures that had been implemented to prevent such events, somehow seemed to “fail” at all the key moments. He knew this was not a coincidence.

The last and most recent event, was a major earthquake on the west gulf which devastated the infrastructure of an island causing major casualties and misery.

Aurora had taught Showay many years ago that he had to learn to be at Peace with what was to unfold in the coming years upon Terra. “The casualties of what is to come,” she had explained, “will be the people who have already died within – the spark of life gone because they had given up all hope of a better future. It is for each one to learn to Respect the choices that are made during these times and to allow oneself to be at Peace even when people dear to you pass away.”

“Easy to say”, he had thought, “but difficult to accomplish when you are in the midst of entangled relationships.”

“That is why you are learning to un-entangle yourself from all who would tie you down and have you sink with them,” she had explained, “it is time to learn to relate anew with one another, in Respect and Honor.”

The noise of a flying airplane slowly hovering above his house, as it was preparing for landing in the nearby airport, brought Showay back to the present moment. The feeling something was wrong was still present. Breye-yendez who had remained faithfully with him, came to his presence and reminded him it was time for a walk.

As he opened the door to the backyard, Showay saw Aurora sitting on a chair waiting for him. Without much delay she began to answer his concern.

“While you could indeed say, that is not the way, you could also say there are another fracture / split along the ocean floor. While not of your Endeavor, you could accurately foresee the split will indeed come to be.”

As usual, her words were accompanied by imagery that reminded him this time, of a little article he had read which showed a satellite image of the island that had been struck by the recent earthquake. It was an older picture of the island, but the image clearly revealed the fault running along the ocean floor. The imagery also showed him that this fault had begun to open toward his continental land. Each passing earthquake facilitating its spread toward the continent.

To his surprise, the fault was moving right toward the mouth of a big river where a few years ago major flooding had forced many port dwellers to relocate and abandon the city. At that time, he had been given to know that the flooding was allowed to occur so it would “encourage” the relocation of the people who would have otherwise not taken action to prepare for a future event.

“Is this the event then?”

“Accurately you could wish it was not so,” responded Aurora, “but it is so. Those who ignored the warning may perish by their own choice. It was not Divine Will and Intent by which the city was re-established. Wiser it would have been, to recognize the danger that lay ahead and let the past be washed away.”

The imagery Aurora had shared with Showay conveyed no information regarding the two major volcanoes foretold to go active during this time. He was aware though, that this ocean floor ridge would be responsible for creating the “silver sea”, a sea that would divide his nation in two.

Father had asked him to foretell this event a few years ago on national radio during their yearly prediction show. When the event had not come to pass as predicted, Father explained to him Grace had been given because many had listened and had begun preparation.

“Extra time was given to them and so to everyone else.”

As Showay continued to contemplate the imagery given by Aurora, he became aware that certain underwater installations were rendered inoperative by the recent earthquake on the gulf. One in particular was considered to be of extreme strategic importance. “Is this understanding accurate?”

“Accurately you do indeed say. Unto All Righteous and Holy Way you could indeed say an event better left not unto another day.”

"It would appear that they camouflaged their activity under the guise of an oil refinery... yet I do not see they were load carrying missiles... it looks more like a rocket... some sort of escape rocket... can that be?"

"Accurately you do indeed say." Aurora was pleased with Showay's progress in his capacity to accurately discern what she would convey to him.

"Is that to say then, this was the reason our previous ruler happened to be on the gulf coast during the big terrorist attack? So that he would be close to his escape route?"

"Accurately you do indeed say."

Showay had heard many theories about the governmental involvement in those events, but this knowledge certainly topped them all. What was even more amazing was his awareness that their current leader also "happened" to be close to the ocean when this recent failed attempt at bombing an airplane took place. "Is this accurate too?"

"Accurately you do indeed say."

"Was it then Divine Intervention that rendered the escape rocket silo useless?"

"While you do not say that could indeed be the way All Righteous and Holy Activity would see it no other way."

Showay quickly understood that Universal Law had begun to take action. The Tribunal had been conducted and it was determined the unrighteous-unholy were not justified in their actions against Terra's People.

"Their routes of escape are being rendered useless to prevent them from running away, seeking to avoid the penalty for their actions. Their game is over. Was it then the case that Divine Intervention prevented the airplane bombing through the unexpected action taken by those aboard who so quickly and efficiently took control of the situation?"

"While you would not say that could indeed be the way, a faction fraction did indeed come into play."

Showay did not understand. "Would you clarify this?"

"Accurately while you do not say that could indeed be the way, All Righteous and Holy Opportunity were not at Play," explained Aurora, "It was indeed action of a faction of The People who do indeed come into play."

"If I get this right, you are saying that there is a small force of The People who consider it their sacred duty to protect and uphold the safety of The People in a militaristic way. This seems to be an ancient tradition of "warriors" who, while not believing in violence as the answer, can see it no other way. Is that accurate?"

"Accurately you do indeed see / say."

Feeling complete with this understanding, Showay became aware something still seemed out of place. "I have seen a lot of activity in the gulf, less severe although extensive activity at the Park of the Wolley Stone, and practically no sign of activity at Ila-Ned... does this mean then, that the events will occur in a reverse order than what was foretold?"

"Accurately you do not say. You could indeed say foretold events will indeed come into Play. Righteous and Holy Opportunity would lay await were it not to be that way."

"That is to say, first Ila-Ned will erupt, followed by the Park of the Wolley Stone, followed by the earthquake at the fault. Just as I was given in the past. Is that accurate?"

"You could indeed say were you to not come out and Play, all future forecast would pass away into all destruction, death, decay."

There was no confusion in Showay's mind about what Aurora had conveyed. The events had to occur as foretold to allow those who follow the Father's Way final Opportunity to reposition themselves into safety. Otherwise, the scenario that had been planned by death, decay, and destruction would play itself out.

"Is that to say this will be allowed to occur to prevent the activities planned by death, decay, and destruction which would surpass all three events put together?"

"While you do not believe it," confirmed Aurora, "that is indeed the way. All Righteous and Holy Opportunity await not, were you to delay. The time is at hand to proceed as Father Instructs."

Showay was aware of the immediacy of Aurora's words. "What kind of time frame are we expecting for Ila-Ned to awaken?"

"You could indeed say fear factor shall cause no delay."

Once again, the imagery that accompanied Aurora's words carried more information than the words themselves.

"If I understand what I saw," began Showay, "it appears there are certain factors around the eastern ocean that are like a slot machine. Once the lever is pulled down, each number or factor falls into its slot and position. Ila-Ned will awaken when all these factors fall into position. Is that accurate?"

“Accurately you do indeed say.”

Pausing briefly to take a few deep breaths, Showay asked about the other signs that will fall into position before Ila-Ned.

“You could not call it Aisa’s devastation, but Philip’s Pines shall be second. The third shall be modern disaster of Esin-iahc along the way.”

Showay was surprised to hear the path of events to come. Sensing his distress Aurora reassured him that there was the possibility for his good friend who had accompanied him through so many nights, and was now living in Philip’s Pines, to make a last minute choice to escape with his daughter even if his wife chooses to stay. “As I have explained to you before, Showay, it is time for each one to untangle oneself from all those who would have you sink with them. This is his Opportunity to do so. What good would it be for him and his daughter to sink just to meet his wife’s needs? Wouldn’t it be a wiser choice for his wife to untangle herself and choose Life? And if she did not make such a choice, wouldn’t it still be better for those who Desire Life to allow themselves to live? It is not selfish to choose Life and to let those who wish death to meet death. Selfish is to choose death and demand everyone else to make the same choice. Sinking with the ship is a trap of the unrighteous-unholy. It is a way to ensure many good people will perish in their choice to faithfully stand by their “loved” ones. A wiser choice would be to Faithfully choose Father’s Way or Life.”

No matter how many times he heard this explanation before, Showay could not help but feel the pervasiveness of the deception. He had been strongly indoctrinated in the idea it was not only noble but a sign of spiritual progression for good people to sacrifice themselves for others. From this perspective the idea of doing it different sounded almost like a sacrilege – a sign of uncompassionate behavior.

After taking some time to place the deception on the Altar of Divine Love and Power in Exchange for Universal Truth, Showay continued. "With the extent of geological and atmospheric turbulence that Philip's Pines is experiencing, this second event seems fairly imminent. Is that accurate?"

"You could indeed say a few months along the way."

"This means then that the catastrophic event in Esin-iahc is further out than two to three months. Is that accurate?"

"That is indeed accurate. Ila-Ned shall spew its head not an hour or a day thereafter, but several catastrophic events along the way."

Showay saw a chain of eruptions culminating in the awakening of Ila-Ned. "Is it accurate to say then that Ila-Ned's eruption is several years down the road?"

"Accurately you do not say," corrected Aurora as she began to dissipate in the rainy mist. "All Righteous and Holy Opportunity await not, were you to delay. The time is at hand to proceed as Father Instructs."

As Showay saw her image dissolve he gave thanks to Father for His forewarning, aware of the need to begin relocation preparations to a safe place with sufficient food and water to support his journey during the changes that would lead to a new horizon.
