Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception,
Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.

Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction
shall Penalty pay,

for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.

It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces

perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth

oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on “where we were” at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of ‘if... then...’.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God,' 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

Liberty to choose

062212

In correcting our perception of money we must also realize there has to be liberty to choose what medium of exchange is best suited for the occasion. Perhaps it is seed, perhaps it is silver, perhaps it is weeding, perhaps it is something not immediately needed but that can be used for a future trade.

There can be no monopoly of currency. Neither can there be any system that mandates any kind of payments to it as way to allow this exchange. The unrighteous - unholy would tell us that this would lead to chaos and confusion and hinder commerce, but would it? Perhaps all it would do is make it impossible for the unrighteous - unholy to control and profit from us, the People.

Perhaps it is time for each of us to begin contemplating what such a Life would look like. In this, we would allow the Father to bring to us unique and simple ways to InJoy a Peaceful and Harmonious Life in total and complete Wealth / Abundance.

Inflation

062412

A Life very every single being Lives in complete and total Wealth and Abundance? Is that possible? Wouldn't that lead unto massive inflation? Well, no.

The unrighteous - unholy have dubbed us into thinking inflation is the natural outcome of too much money being in circulation. They tell us that if everyone would be given excess money, the market would react by increasing prices until it self destructs. In fact, their deception depends so much on this bogus concept, that they have even gone to the trouble of writing all sorts of fictional stories and theories in this matter which are then espoused by "teachers" in schools and "experts" on TV.

In reality, inflation is nothing more than unrighteous - unholy manipulation / greed in action. It is a deception designed to suck our wealth / life force away and keep us entrapped slaboring for them in utmost poverty. In Truth, they are behind the so called "invisible hand" that is blamed for every single event that has resulted in the pilfering and destruction of People's Wealth.

In Truth, when the unrighteous - unholy and their ways are cast out of this Earth, so will inflation. Money and greed will no longer be a controlling factor because we will have free and complete access to our Wealth. Free of this false need for money, we would no longer slabor our lives away nor work in meaningless / mindless jobs. Instead, we would begin focusing on the things that really matter to us.

Free of hunger, Free of the lust for financial superiority, Free of greed, us the People would simply do things a Different Way.

Equal value

062612

In contemplating alternatives that would allow us to Live Life a Different Way, it is important to recognize that there is another aspect of uneven exchange which must be identified and recognized: the notion of profit.

Father has explained to us that, rather than assigning an exchange value based on His Will and Intent for all parties to benefit, we have been tricked into believing it is desirable to make a buck at someone else's expense. This way of thinking fuels greed and deception.

There is of course a significant difference between being at the receiving or giving end of this unequal exchange. Having had several years of meager income, has certainly given me the opportunity to experience what it means to be the one at whose expense others seek to profit. I don't know if you have noticed, but the mercantile game is really geared toward skimming whatever little money low income People have... after all, the bible says "from the poor it shall be taken"... so why not be faithful to the bible teachings and be the one doing the taking, right?

Some years ago, I came across a supplier who quoted, over the phone, a price of lets say 20 dollars for the scrap copper I needed. Later that day I visited the shop to check what they had, but rather than identifying myself, I decided to see if I could get a better price "in person" ¹. After talking for a while with one of the representatives, I mentioned that I only had 40 dollars to complete my project. He looked at me with a smirk and asked me to wait while he talked to his supervisors. Needless to say, when he came back, he began bragging about how he succeeded in convincing his supervisor to give me the "contractor" price of 40 dollars for the scrap and how fortunate I was that he was there to help me. He was so proud of his sale's tactic and so sure I would swallow the line, hook and all... but of course, he didn't know I had been given a quote of 20 dollars for the same amount of scrap earlier...

It would indeed be a loss if us People would continue to implement this kind of "thievery mentality" toward each other after the unrighteous - unholy are cast out of this Earth.

Divine Increase

062812

Father has explained that there is a very Desirable alternative to profiteering. He calls this Divine Increase.

In a nutshell, per Father's explanation, Divine Increase is an interplay, movement, dance between tangible and intangible increase and multiplication of Father's Presence on Earth and therefore Divine Feelings.

Notice two aspects:

1. the increase and multiplication of Father's Presence
2. the increase and multiplication of Divine Feelings

When we create a way of Life that is Harmonious with this, everything changes for the better.

In my search for the copper, I visited another plumbing supply store. This time, I was greeted by a man slightly younger than myself and we quickly established a good rapport. I loosely explained to him my project and what I needed and he quickly helped me identify and pick many of the needed parts. Thereafter, he took me to the scrap section, picked up just the type of pipe I needed, cut it to length, and then give it all to me for free.

What made the difference? First of all, I conducted myself more honorably. Second, this man recognized the value of what I was trying to accomplish, and he was obviously receptive to Father's Good Will and Intent in this matter, which as He had explained much earlier, was for me to reach a point in which I could receive it all for free.

The point of this story is not about getting things for free, but about reaching a point where People can interact with each other in such way as to allow Father's Will and Intent to be manifest and solidified upon Earth.

perception of deception or The Language of Father ?

062912

Like little rooster, who speaks not the language of farmer,
I call and call
asking my needs be met.
"I need water,
I need feed,
I need (no) worms or bugs,
I need a nest,
I need to roam free..."

But while the rooster crows and the farmer hears, farmer does not understand little rooster's language and he meets only what he sees of little rooster's needs.

Because little rooster crows not the language of farmer,
he fathoms not the random nature of his provision.

There is a valiant dog called Mister who receives all his needs.
He asks for pepperoni and he receives pepperoni.
He asks for summer sausage on bread and butter and he receives.
He says his body is missing salt and he receives.
He says it is time for iodine and he receives.
Farmer joked that the iodine nourishes Mister's supply,
when in reality
because Mister speaks a language farmer's wife can hear, farmer can know what Mister perceives his needs to be.
A walk ...
a cool dark napping spot ...
all abundantly flow to Mister.

When Mister talks the language farmer's wife can hear, all is well and farmer lovingly, graciously provides Mister all.

The idea that we speak not the language of the Father, and therefore, the Father can provide only what He sees of our needs when we crow and crow, or bark and bark — annoyingly and in frenzied supplication — goes against all indoctrination of religion of a worldly perception.

Somehow it escapes our attention that we have been like the dog or the rooster, loudly pronouncing our need in a language "alien" to the Father. Somehow, in our depth of submersion in the deception, it has never crossed our mind that we are speaking to the Father in the language of deception and crying that our "prayers" go unheard. We ask why the People who embrace deception receive all they need and we are so lacking — when the answer has been obviously simple — directly and immediately available.

Those who speak the language of deception and ask the unrighteous - unholy for all they desire, are being heard completely and accurately, and rewarded according to their participation / subjugation to the unrighteous - unholy.

When speaking to the Father in the language of deception, rather than Divine Nomenclature, perhaps the Father can hear our call, but not understand it, thus He provides only to the extent of His Perception of our need. Just like the farmer, if he sees a need for water, he fills the bowl. If he sees an empty feed plate he fills the bowl.

When we have moments like the valiant dog who ends his barking (equivalent to talking the language of deception) and begins silently speaking the language farmer's wife can hear (equivalent to Divine Nomenclature), then our needs are met Joyfully by the Father.

This whole concept would be considered heresy in the worldly perception of "father / god". However, what if the notion of "an all knowing all seeing god who can encompass all languages of all People" is a false witness presented by the unrighteous

- unholy to keep us stuck in the deception? What if, because Father has no perception of deception, He does not answer the call (bark, crow) of deception?

Father has Said to us that all languages being spoken at this time by the People are of unrighteous - unholy origin.

Why would we think that Father speaks or is versed in the language of the unrighteous – unholy?

If Father is Love,
why would He speak or be versed in the language of hate?

Just a thought ...

Linda and Martin

Father's Presence

063012

In the Unconventional Faith Series, I explored the notion that that which is tangible and physical is an expression of Father's Desire. That is to say, we are here on Earth to experience Father through the physical manifestation of His Desire.

In Divine Increase then, we would conduct our Lives and Commerce in a way that supports and increases this physical manifestation of Father's Desire. In this all are Blessed.

This is in contradistinction to the mercantile game of poverty indebtedness which is based on the production of that which is artificial and insidious to Life at the expense of Father's Desire, Earth, Nature, and People's Well Being.

Divine Feelings

070212

Linda and I have conveyed in many ways that we distinguish between Feelings and emotions. Feelings are constructive and therefore conducive to Health and Well Being. Emotions are destructive and therefore conducive to illness and malfunction.

In Divine Increase then, we would conduct our Lives and Commerce in a way that supports and increases our capacity to experience Divine Feelings of Joy, Love as Self, Peace, Contempt, Harmony, and so on.

This is in contradistinction to the mercantile game of poverty indebtedness which is based on the destruction of Feelings and the generation of stress, greed, lust, anger, resentment, competition, and so on.

How would?

070412

How then, would our friends in the four farms conduct their lives differently if rather than being driven by the need for money and profit, they would welcome Father's Way of Divine Increase?

How would you conduct your life differently if rather than being driven by the need for money and profit, you were to welcome Father's Way of Divine Increase?

In contemplating the answer to these two questions, you may find it beneficial to re-read the following entry:

Entente

Sunday, September 19 2010

So here you have it, my visit to the creamery provided the basis from which I was able to lay out the understanding upon which Entente rests. What is Entente you may ask?

In a simple way, Entente is the coming together of individuals who Desire "Right Action, Right Expression, Right Thinking, and Right Manifestation of the Father's Good Will to do" so as to "receive and make manifest the Kingdom" in all they do. In other words, it is the coming together of individuals who Desire to give expression to their "Creative Desire of that which is in Heaven".

Said differently, Entente is the coming together of individuals who Desire Right and Proper Function of their individual and unique Divine Expression, in recognition of their Heritage as children of the Father Which Is in Heaven and thus befitted with all that is Right and Proper to them: their Divine Inheritance, Heritage, and Birthright "in a Kingly 'Right-forward' manner".

It is not however, your unique individual expression of wanton glory.

Through Entente, individuals come together to give Creative Expression to that which supports their Divine Nature and thus facilitates their potential "to return to the stars as energetic Being[s] of Divine Origin".²

In this coming together of individuals for a common Pure-Pose (see previous postings), there needs be a shift in perception from the current notion that humans are some kind of aberration of nature and thus destructive, unless some conscious effort is taken to reduce carbon footprint, live in a sustainable way, "green up" the world, and "do good".

Incline not your Heart to biodiversity, seek instead your Father's Good Will to do.

"Restore earth" is insufficient desire.

Father has explained to Linda and I many times, and we both have written about it in many ways, that it is not we the People who are destructive consumers. Thus, Father's Answer to what needs to be done at this time and age is:

Right & Proper would be your Father's Good Will to do to bring Heaven to Earth.

There is a big difference between people who go back to nature with the idea that they are some destructive, disruptive presence upon the Earth that must minimize the damage it does to nature, versus People who go back to nature in full awareness of their Divine Inheritance, Heritage, and Birthright as children of the Father and thus as an integral part of Nature.

It is indeed / instead when walk you upon the land of your Endeavor in Heartfelt Gratitude for Grand Juncture / re-union of your Endeavor, you shall see resplendent Glory.

² This is different than building a spaceship and going into space

A slight shift

070612

It is a common perception that it is impossible to have all inhabitants of the Earth live in complete Abundance and Wealth. This is indeed accurate when based on a way of life founded upon the mercantile game of poverty indebtedness which requires the consumption / destruction of Resources and Wealth. Success in this "game" equals desolation of Earth and People.

However, this perception is inaccurate in the Father Way / Divine Increase. How so? Because Divine Increase is founded on the principle of increasing the physical manifestation of Father's Desire for us People and Earth. Therefore, success in this Way of Life, translates into increasing levels of Resources and Wealth.

In the mercantile game, the unrighteous / unholy "prosper" at the expense of People and Earth.

In Divine Increase, the People Prosper at no one's expense.

Divine Increase and dogs

070812

As shared earlier, our friends in the first farm sell dogs to "raise" the money needed to stay afloat. This of course works (sometimes) in the mercantile game of poverty indebtedness where the norm is to profit at the expense of another, but would such activity be considered Desirable when viewed under Divine Increase?

One way to answer this almost self evident question is by "raising" the following two questions: One, does a puppy mill support and increase Father's Good Will and Intent on Earth? Two, does a puppy mill increase Divine Feelings in both owners and dogs? Of course not.

What if our friends actually enjoy raising dogs and would want to continue doing so for the "fun" of it? Well, then it could be a matter of providing an environment that would create Divine Increase for both our friends and dogs.

As you may see, Divine Increase not only requires we rethink our interactions with each other, but also with animals and ultimately our environment. After all, to go around thinking that People are justified in "using / exploiting / abusing" animals due to their "inferior" status, is not unlike how the unrighteous / unholy justify their actions against us, "inferior" People.

A pillar of freedom or enslavement?

Giving the notion of farms some additional thought, one may notice, at least in western society, that the concept of a farm automatically carries the connotation of fenced and therefore well defined boundaries. What is inside the boundaries belongs to the owner of the farm and what is outside belongs to someone else. We call this concept private property.

This concept of private property purports that someone can own land to the exclusion of others and that this capacity to "own" land is not only desirable but actually a "pillar of freedom" and economic independence. But is it?

Perhaps

071212

To be very clear about this, Linda and I have yet to ask Father for his Wisdom on private property. What I say about private property is based on my own observations.

Perhaps, the first thing to recognize about private property is that this notion is unnatural to us People on Earth. Traditional People inherently recognize that land cannot be owned and therefore sold.

Perhaps, the second thing to recognize about private property is that to establish this way of life upon the land, thousands upon thousands of indigenous People, forests, rivers, and animals had to be killed, destroyed, conquered, enslaved, or tamed. In other words, private property as we know it this day is founded on the principles of greed, thievery, destruction, oppression, murder, and therefore complete disregard for Father's Good Will and Intent for both People and Earth.

Perhaps, the third thing to recognize about private property is that the system that makes it possible to own land today, is the very same system that was used to thief, destroy, kill, conquer, enslave, or tame People into abiding by the rules of private property. This recognition is easily overlooked, because the brutality of this system is mostly kept at bay by the obedient payment of yearly property taxes, which in my opinion, is not unlike the offerings "pagans" would make to avoid the "wrath of their gods".

I ponder...

If thieves are not able to convey good title with the property they steal, I ponder... why do we pretend the system that thieved all the land from the traditional People can convey good title with the land they stole?

Did you know there is at least one history book that makes it clear that back in the times before the establishment of colonies in North America, People in England were in agreement that they did not have the right to take the land from others?

A clear distinction

In reality the unrighteous - unholy never intended the system of oppression they imposed upon us to protect any of us or to give us any rights - including the "right" to "own" property. Instead, what the system does is provide protection to those who are willing to pilfer People's Wealth and Life.

You can look at it this way. A rancher who shoots down a pack of wolves that threatens his cows doesn't do it to protect the cows. He does it to protect his "right" to be the one who milks or kills the cows for the money.

There is a clear distinction here. Us People would do well to recognize that in the eyes of the unrighteous - unholy, we are the cows...

Speaking of cows...

Have you noticed that within the confines of private property exists the notion that every "domesticated" animal that is brought into the property becomes property of the owner? You have? Have you ever questioned the morality of this practice?

What gives us the right to domesticate / enslave animals? What gives us the right to take away their freedom to roam free upon the land? What gives us the right to buy and sell animals? What gives us the right to presume that every single animal born on our property is automatically "ours" and that we have the right to use / dispose / sell it willy-nilly?

What if a cow doesn't want to become ground beef? What if a horse does not want to be a draft horse? What if a puppy does not want to be sold to a particular stranger? You say who cares? Why do you think it does not matter what animals Desire? You say blasphemy? Who told you so? You say the bible says "god" gave man dominion over all animals? Where did you get the idea that dominion equals confinement / enslavement / forced labor / slaughter?

If it is accurate that "god" gave man dominion over all animals and that this includes permission to confine / enslave, abuse, and slaughter, then I ask, what kind of "god" is it that would institute such abuse to its creation? And why is it that we follow such insanity?

I ask

072012

It may or may not go without saying that besides skewing our perception of how we act toward animals, private property also distorts our walk upon the Earth. Why? Because to acquire property one must first buy it. This of course necessitates a loan which in turn requires a "job" in the mercantile game of poverty indebtedness. Ever heard of voluntary (or is it really involuntary) slavery?

This enslavement in the mercantile game is further perpetuated by the need to pay the "system" for the "privilege" to live upon the very property that is being purchased.

But I ask, how can anyone be Free to pursue their Walk with Father when one must first purchase the right to live upon the land?

Restating the question

072212

In the entry "Transition", I listed the following characteristics as identifiers of a Harmonious Life with Creation:

- Respect of Life
- Unadulterated Hearts
- Movement without restriction
- Universal Law, Universal Truth, and Universal Love (as Self)
- Nourishment of the Soul
- Respect, Joy, Happiness, Health, Harmony, Contentment, Balance
- Responsibility for our-Self

With a little introspection, it is possible to recognize that the concept of private property interferes with each one of these characteristics.

For example, one cannot Respect Life, when one holds to the idea that is acceptable to enslave / domesticate / confine / slaughter animals and nature - all of which is allowed within the confines of "private property". One cannot move without restriction when all the land is fenced off and one is stuck repaying mortgages and having to make money to pay the "system" for the "privilege" to live upon the land.

Every owner I met during my visits to the farms was to a greater or lesser degree affected by having to come up with the money needed to stay upon "their own private property". Thus, none of them were completely free to follow their Heart / Walk with Father.

Thus, one must ask, is private property really a pillar of freedom and economic independence? Or is it really a pillar of enslavement and economic dependence?

The other end

072412

If we toss the concept of private property down the drain, does that then mean everything belongs to everyone and everyone can trespass anyone's living quarters and take anyone's belongings? No, not really. The notion that we need worldly laws and private property to protect ourselves, our belongings, and our privacy, stems from the thief mentality that was inculcated in us by the unrighteous - unholy. They tell us that if it wasn't for their laws, we would just be stealing and abusing each other without care or concern.

This is of course a deception, for indeed, as it is becoming more and more apparent with each passing day, it is their very laws that make it possible for all the thievery to occur.

Respect

Early in our journey, Linda raised the question: "how can you know when you are being disrespected if you don't know what it is to be Respected?" Point well taken. So let's take a look at the concept of 'Respect' using the Dreams and Days method developed by Linda. I will be using "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" published in 1971. As usual, its use is for educational purposes...

The first thing I noticed when reading the various definitions for respect is that, as is the case with many words, these definitions contain both the answer and the problem. Or said differently, a Right and Proper Way to be Respectful and an improper way. As I have done with other words for clarifications purposes, I will use lower case "r" to reference the improper way of respect and upper case "R" to reference a Right and Proper Way of Respect.

I will begin exploring the improper way of respect so as to facilitate the "clearing of the table" so to speak. As Father has made it clear many times and is well recognized by many traditions, to receive Truth one must first toss out deception.

Be ready for some interesting eye openers...

respect - the improper way

072812

respect:

- to have deferential regard for
- syn., see admire
- honor and esteem
- conformity to duty or obligation
- compliance
- undue inclination or bias of mind

First, notice the improper association between honor and respect. Based on what Father has taught us, Honor is one step above Respect. That is to say, one needs not Honor a person to Respect him / her. As we will learn later, Respect does not have to be earned.

Let's continue with this in mind.

deference:

- submission or yielding to the will, opinion, etc. of another

In the synonym clarification for the word deference, it is explained that "deference, respect, and regard characterize our attitude toward a person whom we honor".

Once again, notice the false premise that one must honor a person first before respect is shown to that person. This is opposite to how it actually should be.

Let's continue.

This dictionary further explains that "we give deference to one we consider to be superior in position, ability, or attainment", while "respect is shown to those who are felt to be worthy, and regards to those who are admirable".

Since the first definition in this dictionary defines respect as "deferential regard" it is now possible to recognize that when the unrighteous - unholy speak of respect, they are really telling us to be submissive and yielding to their perceived superiority while demanding we do so with an energy of admiration toward them - hence the undue inclination or bias of mind.

I find it an even greater eye opener to read the synonym clarification found under the word "defer": "defer, submit, and yield agree in referring to the setting aside of our own views or wishes in favor of those of another. We defer to those whom we respect, and submit to those who have superior power and authority. We may yield for any reason, as from affection, persuasion, or compulsion."

In my opinion, the above definition reads as if it was taken from some instructional book written to indoctrinate People into becoming "the perfect slave / victim". This is the kind of behavior most People are taught. It is the kind of respect parents demand of their children. It is the kind of respect the school system demands of children. It is the kind of respect religions demand of their followers. It is the kind of respect government demands of their subjects.

Of course, in this deception, those of us who are strong willed and refuse to submit / yield to another / the unrighteous - unholy and elevate them into "godhood" are branded as "rebellious" and "disrespectful" to say the least, but are we?

A conversation

073012

Remember the improper association found in the dictionary between honor and respect? Some time ago, I had the following conversation with one of my parents who was upset because I was being "disrespectful" in their perception.

Parent: "the bible says that children must honor (respect) their parents."

Me: "what about parents respecting their children?"

Parent: "that's not in the bible."

I make reference to this conversation to point out the unspoken assumption that respect is supposed to be a one way road - from the inferior to the superior, but never from the superior to the inferior.

This one way street then generates the need in People to develop whatever sense of superiority they can so as to justify their need to do unto others as it is done unto them by their perceived superiors. No one likes to be at the short end of the stick all the time... Thus we have the educated who scoff at the uneducated, the wealthy at the poor, the beautiful at the ugly, the elite at the masses, the pure at the impure, the strong at the weak, the techies at the primitives, the ones who wear name brand clothing at those who don't, humans at animals, parents at children, the unrighteous - unholy at People, and the list goes on and on at nausea.

This kind of mentality of course, is to the benefit of those who want to control and abuse us, for it creates a false sense of inequality and therefore division / separation and self-justification.

Respect - a Right and Proper Way

080212

Having identified the false witness of lower case "r" respect, let's continue the exploration of what upper case "R" Respect is. I say continue because I have touched on the concept of Respect before when I wrote about Father's Teaching that a strong Foundation is based on Truth, Integrity, and Honor ("More on Foundation" ³).

Respect:

- to treat with propriety and consideration
- to regard as inviolable
- avoid intruding upon

First, let's recognize that in these definitions there is no hint whatsoever of having to submit or yield to anyone, regardless of their perceived status. Neither is there a hint whatsoever as to the need to determine whether someone is or is not worthy of admiration and therefore Respect.

In reality, to be Respectful is to recognize the inviolable Nature of Creation and thus People, Earth, and Nature and to conduct ourselves in a way that is non intruding upon Creation and each other.

Imagine how different things would be if we reawakened to this basic principle of Creation...

³ Published 091210 and available in BlueStar Blog Book ??

Inviolable

080412

As determined in the last entry, to be Respectful is to regard someone or something as inviolable. What does that mean? Let's find out.

Inviolable:

- not to be profaned, defiled
- sacrosanct
- not to be violated and broken

sacrosanct:

- sacred
- holy

This is to say, that to Respect Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature is to recognize the sacred and holy nature of Life and to act in a manner that does not profane, defile, violate or break this Truth.

sacred:

- entitled to respect

holy:

- having a divine nature or origin
- spiritually pure
- having great spiritual and moral worth
- completely devoted to the service of God

Life, and therefore People, Earth, and Nature are all of Divine Origin - a fact that all societies across the Earth recognize. What has been lost to many however, is the fact that this very Divine Origin or Nature not only entitles Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature to Respect, but also establishes the spiritual and moral worth of Life. This is a fundamental recognition. Respect does not have to be earned by anyone. Worthiness does not have to be proven or gained by anyone.

entitle:

- to give the right to receive

The very fact that animals are of Divine Origin entitles them to Respect. The very fact that Nature is of Divine Origin entitles it to Respect. The very fact that the Earth is of Divine Origin entitles her to Respect. The very fact that us People are of Divine Origin entitles us to Respect. It is that simple.

I don't think I would be stretching it to end this entry by saying that this right to be Respected is Universal Law.

Observation

080612

In contemplating the knowledge that has been coming forward regarding Respect, it became apparent why the unrighteous - unholy are so adamant about eradicating all perception of the Divine Origin of People, Earth, and Nature. On one hand they have science telling us that People, Earth, and Nature are nothing more than a - far from Divine - chance event resulting from some explosion and random interactions. On the other hand, they have religion doctrine telling us that after the fall of Adam and Eve, not even "god" considers us to be of "Divine Origin" and therefore worthy of Respect.

As long as us People loose sight of the Divine Nature / Origin of Life, we loose sight that by Universal Law, we are entitled to Respect and therefore to not be violated nor intruded upon by anyone, including the unrighteous - unholy. We also loose sight that is it improper for us to violate or intrude upon others.

This serves only the unrighteous - unholy.

Of course, their claims are false and are therefore a fraud perpetuated against Creation. To paraphrase a line in a movie Linda and I like very much: "Us People are Divine in Nature / Origin and all the shit of the world cannot change that."

We are Divine in Origin, the Earth is Divine in Origin, animals are Divine in Origin, Nature is Divine in Origin.

To violate and intrude upon People, Earth, and Nature is a transgression of Universal Law. We have a Divinely given right for this transgression against Life to end. It is time to re-claim our True Inheritance as Divine and behave once again with Respect toward Self and others.

Inviolable - part 2

080812

It has been established in previous entries that Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature (including animals) are entitled to Respect by their very Divine Origin or Nature. No ifs, ands, or buts. It's just the way it is.

Inviolable:

- not to be profaned, defiled
- sacrosanct
- not to be violated and broken

Let's take a brief look at the words that describe disrespectful behavior toward Life:

profane:

- to treat (something sacred) with irreverence or abuse
- desecrate: to diver from a sacred to a common [vulgar - obscene (lust), indecent] use
- pollute

defile:

- to make foul or dirty
- corrupt the purity of
- violate the chastity of

break:

- to destroy the order
- to reduce in spirit or health, as by toil
- to make bankrupt or short of money
- to part the surface of; pierce or wound: to break ground
- to change from one quality of tone to another [as in Love to fear] violate:

- to break or infringe
- to treat irreverently
- profane
- to do violence to
- to treat roughly [violent action, brutal]; abuse
- to ravish; rape

Inviolable - part 3

081012

Holding Life as inviolable conveys the knowledge that Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature are of Divine Origin and therefore sacred and holy. It conveys the knowledge that Life is Pure and of great "spiritual and moral worth" and that Life is entitled by its very Nature to Respect.

Additionally, this concept also conveys the understanding that to be Respectful by holding Life as inviolable is:

- not being abusive
- not diverting Life to obscene, lustful, indecent behavior
- not polluting and contaminating
- not corrupting the purity and innocence
- not being offensive and evil in principle and practice
- not being mischievous or causing trouble, petty vexation, disturbance, or irritation under the pretense of playful conduct
- not being noxious or causing "injury to health or morals"
- not destroying, injuring, killing, or hurting
- not altering the True Natural Order of Life as established by Creator (not to be confused with what the unrighteous / unholy have taught us or turned things into)
- not toiling, laboring, and working hard or causing such unto others
- not being weak of spirit and health or causing such weakness unto others
- not taking money and resources, not bankrupting, not shorting, not living in poverty
- not breaking ground or digging into the Earth
- not changing the natural harmonic music of Life into disruptive noise

I don't know about you, but what I was taught as a child and had come to consider as "normal" and therefore "respectful" behavior was sure out of alignment...

To avoid intruding upon

081212

Let's now take a look at what it means to "intrude" so way may know what it is to be Respectful by "not intruding upon".

intrude:

- to thrust or force in
- to come in without leave or invitation

thrust:

- to pierce or stab
- to put (a person) forcibly into some condition or situation
- a vigorous attack.

force:

- power or energy
- coercion
- the quality of anything that tends to produce an effect on the mind or will
- any moral, social, or political power or influence
- a body of individuals belonging to or comprising one of a nation's military, naval, or air divisions: the armed forces
- any body of individuals organized for some specific work or action: police force
- Law: binding effect: the force of a contract forced, forcing:

- to compel to do something
- to assault and capture
- to rape
- to stimulate the growth of artificially

attack

- to begin battle or conflict with
- to assail with hostile words; criticize; censure: hostile criticism; reprimand; condemn; blame

Putting it together

081412

As done before, let's put what we have learned together.

To not intrude upon is, among other things:

- to not harm or wound (self or others)
- to not pierce or damage (self or others)
- to not compel, assault, capture, or rape
- to not misuse power and energy
- to not alter the mind or will
- to not use coercion, moral / social / political power or influence, armed forces, police forces, or binding contracts
- to not engage in battle or conflict
- to not assail with hostile words (self or others)
- to not criticize (as in passing judgment), reprimand, condemn, or blame (self or others)
- to not stimulate artificial growth (for example, as is generated by genetic engineering, hormone altering products, cancer inducing products / pollution)
- to not trespass (body / mind / soul / spirit / personal space / Universal Law / Earth / Nature)

How much of the above behavior have we been taught to perceive as a normal and perhaps even desirable / necessary part of life?

In perspective

081612

Many years ago, Father explained to Linda and I how to establish a personal "buffer zone" of safety (see "if it quacks like a duck"). His instructions included the following Knowledge:

It is a simple matter to Discern.

*Is this matter / material of Source, or is it opposite / unlike All That Is?
When it is so, you of course Know,
as a matter of hand, its origin.*

Anything unlike Source belongs not in your mind or unto you.

This simple tool of Discernment can be very effectively used together with what we have been learning about Respect to establish the origin of what we experience. Does this Respect Life or does it violate and intrude upon it? Is this of Source or opposite / unlike All That Is? What would the answer be if you were to apply this test of Discernment to:

- friends
- family members
- society
- school system
- government
- armed forces / police
- current business model
- current monetary system
- religion
- sports

- entertainment
 - science
 - conventional farming / agriculture
 - conventional medicine
 - current legal system
 - your perception of how life should be
 - what you were taught is right and wrong
 - your daily conduct toward Self
 - your daily conduct toward others

Now you know...

To recount

081812

The false witness of Respect, namely little "r" respect or the false teaching purveyed by the unrighteous - unholy, would have us believe that Respect is shown by yielding or submitting to another's will / beliefs and by holding a sense of admiration or worship attitude toward a "superior" person / entity.

This false witness of Respect is based on inequality or unequal standing between the parties where the "inferior" bows to the wishes of the "superior" and the "superior" is justified thus in violating and intruding against those deemed "inferior" or undeserving of respect.

However, as we have uncovered, a more Proper understanding of capital "R" Respect for / of Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature conveys knowledge of the sacred and holy nature of Life, Life's entitlement to Respect, and Life's inherent great spiritual and moral worth. In this exploration it was also uncovered that to be Respectful is to act in a manner that does not profane, defile, violate or break the holy and sacred nature of that which was Created by Creator or All That Is.

Capital "R" Respect is based on equality or equal standing.

As Father once Said:

*It is neither a small matter,
nor a great matter.
It is just matter.*

One step further

082012

So we know that Respect entails recognizing the sacred and holy nature of Life. We know that it entails behaving in such a manner that supports and facilitates this inherent Truth. We recognized that Respect is based on an equal standing within Creation and that therefore, there is no superior nor inferior, no oppressor nor oppressed, no predator nor consumer. Just equal to equal or as Father has Said a few times here and there "mano a mano" (hand to hand). I have also gone as far as saying that capital "R" Respect is a most basic principle of Universal Law if not an Universal Law itself.

If one were to fully and completely understand the implications of the basic principle of Respect, it would bring a total and complete change in one's perspective of Life. But before I attempt to give a few hints in this regard, I would like to dedicate some time to defining Respectful behavior in terms of what it is (so far we mostly have long lists of what not to do).

While I thought this would be an easy task, I quickly realized that was not the case. As Linda noted when I began reading her the definitions of selected words and I'm paraphrasing here: "there is a lot of misdirection into conveying the notion that Respectful behavior is dependent upon dressing nicely, speaking nicely, and being beautiful. This is not what Respect is about".

So, as Linda suggested, rather than getting diverted writing volumes about the deception, I will just focus on what brings us closer to a Truer understanding of Respect.

Ending vulnerability

082212

Recently, Father explained to Linda that in addition to leaning (or making someone else more important than Self), there are three kinds of behaviors that make us vulnerable to the unrighteous - unholy. These behaviors are:

- attack
- defense
- imposing one's will on someone else

These three actions actually summarize very nicely all the behaviors identified as being part of violating and intruding upon someone or in other words, being dis-Respectful of Life.

This is a key understanding: being dis-Respectful makes People vulnerable to the unrighteous - unholy.⁴

Concurrently, being Respectful makes the unrighteous - unholy null and void for it ends People's participation in the deception.

⁴ Note though, that this is not to say that the reason People fell prey to the unrighteous - unholy in the first place was because People were dis-Respectful toward them.

Clearing some confusion

082412

In seeking to identify how to end my vulnerability to the unrighteous - unholy, I realized there was plenty of room for confusion in me. Why? Because I was trying to find the answer by determining what is the opposite behavior of attacking, defending, and imposing.

If I'm to stop attacking, does that mean then I need to surrender to the unrighteous - unholy or befriend them? No. Does that mean I just run away and hide from them? No. Does that mean I support them? No.

If I'm to stop defending (myself or others), does that then mean I let them prevail against me? No. Does it mean I need to yield and submit to them? No. Does that mean I need to resign myself? No. Does it mean that I need to abandon mySelf and let them take over? No. Does that mean I need to become the attacker? No.

If I'm to stop imposing my will on others, does that mean I need to ignore another's transgression? No. Does that mean that I have to condone another's behaviors? No. Does that mean I have to excuse another's behavior? No. Does that mean I have to support another's choices? No.

So what does it mean?

What does it mean?

082612

So what does it mean to stop attacking, defending, and imposing our will upon others?

It means that we stand in Truth and affirm this Truth. Truth of who we are, Truth of Creation, Truth of the Father, Truth of Universal Law. It means that we act to the best of our ability based on this KNowledge. We look neither to the left nor to the right, but rather straight ahead.

It also means that we clear our table from all the emotions and distortions that would justify attack, defense, and imposing, so we may welcome Truth of our True Nature and therefore Respect.

For example, fear, anger, abhorrence, loathing, pain, revenge, vengeance, "honor", competition, parasites, mold, malnourishment, toxicity, and the perception someone needs to be defeated for us to "win / be safe", all incite or justify attack.

Fear, malnourishment, frailty, toxicity, sense of disconnection / separation from Self and Father, parasites, mold, perception that we are vulnerable and mortal, the notion that the unrighteous - unholy can do whatever they want, and the belief that someone else can injure / harm / kill us at will, all justify or incite the need for defense.

The idea that we know better than Creator, that we can't Trust in the Father, that it is our responsibility to tell others what to do (if Father doesn't then we must), and that without government / control / education / religion we would be savages or self destruct, all incite or justify imposing our will upon others. Lust and greed, parasites, mold, hunger, the need for control, the need to be right and save others, dependence on others, the current economic models, the perception that we need to be productive and active, and the need for money, love, and approval also incite and justify imposing our will on others.

All this stuff interferes with our capacity to be Respectful because it clouds our Vision and no longer lets us see Truth. Clearing the table makes it possible for Respect to become, once again, a natural way of Life.

A precious Gift

083012

Now that we have a better idea of some of the things that interfere with our Vision, let's take a look at what supports our capacity to Live in Truth.

When it comes to Respect, we already know that:

- Respect is to recognize the sacred and holy nature of Life
- Respect conveys the knowledge that Life is Pure and of great "spiritual and moral worth"
- Respect is based on an equal standing within Creation
- Life is entitled by its very Nature to Respect

From the dictionary definition, we also know that Respect is to treat with propriety and consideration. Let's explore this.

propriety:

- the character or quality of being proper

Proper:

- specially suited or adapted for some end

The first thing to recognize is that being Respectful is a quality that is specially suited and adapted for supporting our own capacity to Live in Truth.

Proper:

- naturally belonging to a particular person

Also noteworthy is the fact that to be Respectful or to treat with propriety (whether Self or other) is a behavior or way of Life that is natural. It is a way of Life that belongs to us.

Could it be perhaps said that... Respect is a precious Gift, the value of which we would be wise to once again awaken to?

There is more

090112

The definition of the word Proper also provides some insight into the qualities of a Respectful person and therefore Respectful behavior. Said differently, it provides insight into the qualities that allow our Vision and capacity to Live in Truth to function correctly.

Proper:

- modest

modest:

- pure in speech, manner, dress, etc.
- having an unexaggerated regard for oneself or one's abilities

The exploration of the word "pure" was already undertaken in the "Mystical and Magical" Series, specifically in the entry titled "Pure-Pose" ⁵ Here is its definition:

Pure:

- free from mixture or contact with that which weakens, impairs, or pollutes
- containing no foreign or vitiating material
- free from moral defilement
- Syn. Pure suggests the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential

From this it can be concluded that that which weakens, impairs, pollutes, defiles, or, said differently, that which is vitiating, foreign, and alien, all interfere with our capacity to be Respectful. In other words, we cannot be Respectful and hold on to the very way of life that is designed to destroy the very capacity to be Respectful.

⁵ Published on March 17, 2010 and available in BlueStarBlog Book 1.

This is one of the reasons many Europeans who fled Europe in search for freedom in the Americas have failed. Rather than changing their focus and leaving the deception behind, they brought with them the very way of life that was imposed on them to destroy them. In this, they facilitated the destruction and enslavement of the native People.

We have got to break the curse put upon us by the unrighteous - unholy.

If we are to succeed in restoring ourselves to a way of Life that is Respectful, we must of a necessity recognize the deception for what it is, turn away from it, and re-focus on Truth. It is this re-alignment that restores the Gift of Respect to its Right and Proper Function.

The capacity to be Respectful is facilitated by that which strengthens us, heals us, cleanses us, improves us, supports our True Nature as sacred and holy, and returns us to a natural way of Life. This shift in perception includes letting go of the false perception that being "civilized and educated" in the way of the unrighteous - unholy somehow makes us superior to "those" who embrace their native / aboriginal nature. Contrary to popular scientific doctrine, the answer to our problems cannot ever be ascertained within our "gray matter".

A few quick notes

After hearing my last entry, Linda recognized that just because someone puts a curse on a person, this person does not have to accept the curse. When one does not accept the curse, there is no contract and it cannot enter into effect. Had Adam and Eve recognized this, they would have turned their back to this "god" that cursed them, return their focus to Father, and move on with life in paradise.

It is indeed a mistake to assume that just because someone curses us, we have no other choice than to allow it to become binding upon us, just as Adam and Eve did.

More notes

090512

In a recent conversation, Linda and I realized that Respect should not be confused with Trust. While Respect does not have to be earned, Trust has.

Just because one is Respected, does not mean one should be Trusted.

A good day

090912

Fortunately, there is more to be learned from the definitions of "Proper" as it pertains to our exploration of what it means to be Respectful and act with Respect. KNowing this, facilitates not only recognizing what supports our Vision and capacity to Live in Truth, but also our Injoyment of Creation.

As always, all dictionary quotes are for educational purposes only.

Proper

- good, excellent, pleasant

Good:

- virtuous
- righteous
- genuine

Lots of loaded words, so let's take a look at them.

The word "virtue" is perhaps best defined by the word "rectitude" which conveys a Love of that which is Right and a conscious Desire to live by this.

The word "righteous" has its origin in two words: right + wise

That is to say, to be Respectful is to do what is Right in a Wise manner.

The word "wise" speaks of sound judgment, practical knowledge, mystery, and the capacity to clearly see what is right and just.

Right:

- conformable to truth or fact
- most desirable or preferable; also fortunate
- sound in mind or body
- healthy, well

I have to admit it never ceases to amaze me how much information is available by following such simple steps as revealed to Linda and recorded in her Ph. D. dissertation Dreams and Days: Diamonds of your Desire.

Through the definition of the word "right" we are being shown several things.

- First, that to know what is Right one must first know Truth. It is the Knowledge and experience of Universal Truth, not the false witness within the deception, that allows us to know what is Right action.
- Second, being able to do what is Right requires a sound and healthy mind, body, (and Soul I would add).
- Third, one who succeeds in doing what is Right is actually considered to be a fortunate individual. To be fortunate is to have good fortune. To have good fortune is not only to be favored but also prosperous. We speak of True Wealth.

Respect is actually a most Desirable thing.

The word "genuine" comes from the word "innate", which is to say, Respect and all the qualities associated with Respect are an inherent part of People's nature ⁶.

genuine:

- authentic; real
- not adulterated or counterfeit
- not affected or hypocritical
- frank; sincere

⁶ Vaccination of newborns is designed to interfere with this.

sincere: [without + decay]

frank:

- completely honest
- free
- to obtain immunity for

One cannot be Respectful when one seeks to become someone or something else. That is to say, People who reject their True Nature and "aboriginal / barbarian ancestry and way of life" become deceivers and pretenders. Yes, perhaps the unrighteous - unholy are more sophisticated than we are, perhaps they are more technologically advanced than we are, perhaps they are even more knowledgeable than we are. Yet, their way is NOT our way, and the moment we seek to become like them or identify ourselves with them, we transgress against ourSelves. In so doing we loose sight of Universal Truth and we loose our immunity to them and therefore our Freedom. Adulterated, affected, and counterfeited, all we can do is see ourselves decay with every passing year until our impoverished and ransacked body and mind can no longer sustain life.

I don't know about you, but I think that today is a good day to end little "p" playing in the deception and begin capital "P" Playing in Universal Truth unto a Different Way.

As Mister is so fond of reminding me:

"A Different Way is a Better Way"

Movie time

091112

Many People have a lot of (programmed) attachment to the need to be superior to their "primitive" nature or ancestral origins and way of life ⁷. Schooling and society in general make sure to inculcate such thinking and need to distance ourselves from our "roots". For after all, we are told, that is where the "root of all evil resides" and it is only "culture and education" that allows us to "rise" above it.

The movie "ThunderHeart" with Val Kilmer and Graham Greene is a fun way to take a look at this.

⁷ Note that even "whites" descent from aboriginals and "barbarians" that lived of one a-chord with the Earth.

Humanity

091312

Now that we know what else it means to be Respectful as uncovered by the word "good", let's take a look at another word, namely "excellent".

excellent:

- the very best quality
- exceptionally good quality:

- that which makes something such as it is
- distinguishing element or characteristic
- the basic or essential character, nature, etc, of something

That is to say, Respect is the very best distinguishing characteristic that establishes our essential character and nature. This is an exceptionally good thing.

Many People have pondered, debated, and theorized what makes humans "human". Well, based on this exploration, I would say what makes humans "human" is the inherent and natural gift of Respect bestowed upon us by All That Is. It is that simple.

Contrary to common doctrine, the word inhuman is not descriptive of animals, but rather of those who are dis-respectful. It is descriptive of those who willingly and purposefully inflict pain, hardship, and mental suffering on others (or self) and those who enjoy seeing others (or self) suffer whether for entertainment, pleasure, or profit.

Perhaps the most important point about this entry is to recognize that to be Respectful includes the ability to welcome and accept not only our own humanity, but that of other living beings as well.

What's music got to do with it...?

091512

Apparently quite some important part. It turns out that "quality" is also a reference to the timbre of a voice or musical instrument.

Timbre is tone and tone is sound. Whose sound you may ask?

Your sound. My sound. The sound of Creation. The music that we are. As Linda says "the music, the melody, the rhapsody we are".

A way of...

In contemplating the relation between Respect and our own sound or Feeling Tone, it follows that because each person's Feeling Tone is unique to that person, the Gift of Respect is also expressed and experienced uniquely by each individual.

The Gift of Respect is part of experiencing who we are. That is to say, Respect is not an intellectual pursuit founded on the overcoming or suppression of "our dark side" or on false pretense. Instead, Respect is a "hands on" experience of our True Nature.

Respect is a way of Life, a way of Living, a way of Being.

Key understanding

091912

A Gift... the sound of our very own Being... a way of Life... a way of Being... a most excellent and desirable thing... what am I referring to? Respect of course. But this is not all, there is more to understand...

There is another word that defines "Proper" and therefore "Respect", namely the word "pleasant".

pleasant:

- merry
- welcome

The word "welcome" is defined as "producing satisfaction", "made free to use or enjoy", and being "under no obligation". That is to say, the Gift of Respect is / has been freely given to us by All That Is for our enjoyment and satisfaction. Acceptance and enjoyment of this Gift does not create any kind of obligations or binding contracts. No tricks, no traps, no bondage, no subservience to All That Is.

This is a key understanding and recognition, for it is common misperception that if we were to align or harmonize with the Divine, we would somehow lose our individuality and become some kind of subservient borgs.

satisfaction: see satisfy satisfy:

- to supply fully with what is desired, expected, or needed
- cause to have enough

Isn't that interesting? It is in being Respectful that we find our capacity to Live in Abundance fully met. Respect and True Wealth go hand in hand. One cannot receive Abundance without being Respectful and experiencing the merriment that such way of Life brings.

A distinction

092112

One thing to keep in mind when speaking of the relationship between Respect and Abundance is that we speak of inner Wealth. This inner Wealth then translates into external Abundance.

This is different than worldly opulence derived from the mercantile game. In this system there is no inner wealth, but, as we have explored previously, only increasing levels of inner famine. This inner famine is then represented by the ever increasing consumption, destruction, and pilfering of the external environment.

This is a key distinction.

When we reawaken and learn to live once again in the True Knowledge of inner Wealth, the unrighteous - unholy will no longer be able to consume, destroy, or pilfer our internal / external environment. They can't take away what we don't give away... and this includes our Life.
