Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception, Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.
Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.
It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on "where we were" at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of 'if... then...'.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In-Joy

think Spring

We missed it ! Not yesterday or today, but the 17th, by my internet SunRise / SunSet map, in the mid-west was Spring Equinox. Just one of the little things they don't let us know.

So I looked at Summer Solstice and it comes and goes, comes and goes. Rather than the regular pause days as we turn back around the Sun, we have a two, two, two, three. pattern. Then a rather normal Fall Equinox and a rather lengthy 9 day pause at Winter Solstice.

What is all this and what does it mean to you? The first thought I had is that it looks like a stone skipping or slipping at Summer Solstice and it looks like we have slipped further out and are being pulled back in at Winter Solstice.

But perhaps this is a sign of the Sun's nearness to Point of Departure. These seem like small variations, but small variations in Celestial patterns can create big results.

InJoy the mystery !

On a SunShiny day of LOVE and Laughter !

MARCH 24TH, 2010

a different life

How different would your life be if you came first? Not in a selfish sense, but in a Divine sense. Of course the first cry is "What about my children?". But would you have children? Father has said only a few People are meant to have children. That is to say overpopulation is not a Divine Plan, yet it is the major "fault" of religion.

So what would your life be if you made all your decisions based on Divine guidance through your angel who amplifies your feelings of Divine Direction?

What would you do differently this day to become more Harmonious with the Divine Plan for your life? May you do something this day more Harmonious with Divine Truth for your Life !

On a SunShiny Spring day !

MARCH 25TH, 2010

shame on who

Ever have a conversation where the positive, Divinely focused attitude of the other Person puts you to "shame". Well, I decided, I had wanted an example and it was given, so be great-full rather than judging myself. After all I had been through to recognize shame and place it on the Altar, why should I do to myself the deceptive practice that had been done to me.

I know it is a deceptive practice because in The Father's Presence there is no shame, guilt or condemnation.

Perhaps the answer here is that The Father should be my example. If I were to feel about myself as He Feels about me, I would live a very different Life. I would make very different choices. I would be able to experience my self in Truth free of deception.

If I were to develop the discipline to:

- ◆ identify the feeling The Father would have toward me now
- ◆ experience the feeling
- ◆ ask myself what I would do now as a "child of The Father"

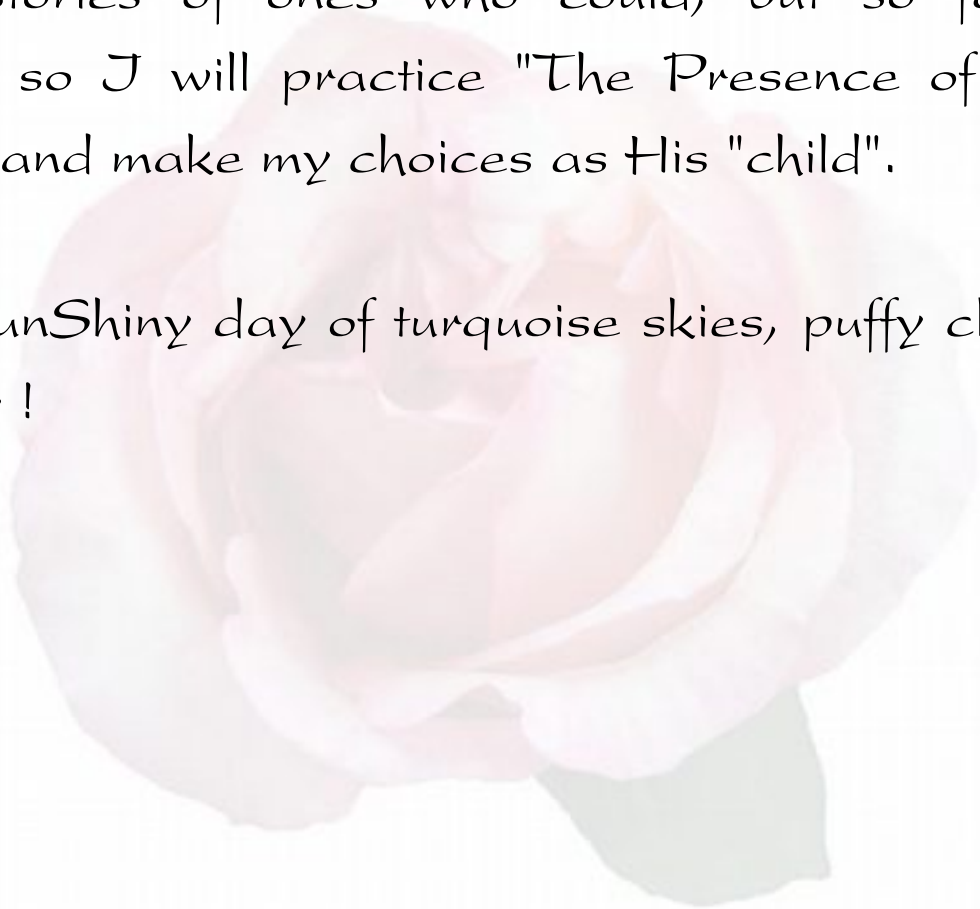

then, I believe I would make different choices that are Loving, Joyful, Harmonious.

If I identify appreciation of The Father for my creativity, and I appreciate my creativity (feel it), how would my creativity express NOW?

If I would identify The Father's Loving Feeling as wholeness, in which He Knows me as not and never have been "broken", and I feel whole / unbroken, then what can I do now that is what a whole / unbroken me would do?

Perhaps some practice in this is required. Perhaps it is a skill I can develop. If so, I have the creative capacity to develop this skill in unhurried moments of contemplation. It would be unrealistic to expect an immediate, instantaneous capacity to change. I've heard stories of ones who could, but so far I haven't, so I will practice "The Presence of The Father" and make my choices as His "child".

On a SunShiny day of turquoise skies, puffy clouds and Joy !

no nano

Ever listen to a plant? Not just the breeze blowing the leaves, but listen to it say what nutrients it needs, or when it is time to harvest its leaves? No I've never heard the voice of a plant, but I've had a feeling the plant was telling me something. And sure enough, that feeling was correct.

Was it my angel, or The Father, or the plant? It really doesn't matter to me. The feeling was accurate, loving, beneficial. Seems like it must be good.

What about the feeling of warmth you get when you look at all the matched jars you recycled sitting on the shelf with dried herbs awaiting tea time? Or that soup that becomes extra yummy with the herbs added?

Have you ever been in an emergency situation where you depended on beans, rice, canned vegetables? Did the "condiments" you had on hand make a big difference in flavor and attractiveness of the food? "You bet it did !"

Some would consider herbs the condiment stuff of cooking. It seems they are rather, the additional food that flavors the dish, adding nutritional enhancement, too.

It's amazing to some people when they find out herbs can be grown, rather than obtained from their pseudo-pharmaceutical supplier (in capsules). Think food rather than medicine.

Growing that garden with all the flavor added (through your herbs) could make it possible to have food with NO GMO, NO NANO technology. Does that matter? "You bet it does !"

May the food you grow nourish your Soul and Strengthen your Father Desire.

On a turquoise blue and spring green day may SunShine fill your day !

MARCH 27TH, 2010

perhaps it is time

When you find difficulty respecting those you "work" with, when you are bored by the never changing conversation, when science denies and avoids your questioning, when you feel there is more, it is time for change.

Perhaps it is time to look for Truth in a different place. Perhaps there is a Divine Calling upon you and your Life. What has the life you have lived prepared you for that is "the next step?"

What is the "validation" for all you have been and done? Where do you seek validation? How do you respond to those who look to you for validation? Is simply respecting validating? Perhaps the only place there is "validation" is with The Father. Science will never validate The Father, yet True science is found in The Father.

Martin's recent blog series including thoughts on science is worth reading. (Find the link to the right for his thoughts on the mystical magical). Martin's search for The Father's Presence has developed a brilliant logic to his understanding.

May this day bring the Peace of Divine Direction to your Calling.

In SunShine and turquoise jewel skies, may Joy Light your day !

MARCH 28TH, 2010

what to say

It's kind of strange The Father had me begin a blog, because I'm not a blog kind of person. There are two I check daily for information and one I write, besides getting to hear Martin's before it is published.

I listened to an archived radio show recently and noticed how the show alternates between "fluff and stuff". Some shows were light and for the fun of it, and some were for the content. I thought what it must be like to host a radio show 5 or 6 days a week for 4 to 6 hours and have something to talk about.

I sometime feel that way about blogging. What else is there to talk about? If I just quoted The Father, it would be a breeze. However it seems the blog is about what it is to implement the teachings of The Father in one's Life. I have been learning a lot in this process and "that's a good thing", because I don't know how to read the statistics on web-sites or blogs and to me it looks like I have no readers except Martin.

While I continue to write to my "invisible" audience, and continue to learn, I have begun to find Joy in the writing of it. "In the mean time" I wish you a day filled with The Father's Presence.

On a SunShiny sparkly day of green grass and turquoise skies, have fun !

MARCH 29TH, 2010

no authority

The Father has cautioned me to not present myself as an authority on anything on this blog. I would assume that is to say, not even what He says. Sharing and Believing in what I share, in fact does not make me an authority.

If what I have learned helps anyone, then so much the Better. If what The Father teaches me helps me, then so much the Better. Not being an authority makes nothing less True, it just is to say, you are your own authority. What The Father directs you, in Truth is your authority. This, of course, is Truth of Divine Origin, not deception.

Standing firm in the Truth The Father shares with me is still part of the everyday blog intent. Of course, He refines the Truth as I am able to understand greater refinement. As we have made clear on the web-site BlueStarWay.com the explicit goal for us has been progression in understanding Truth. While, on the one hand you could say this should be a Joyous adventure, on the other hand it has seemed like hard work. Worthwhile, but hard work.

May Truth find you this day in Joyous adventure !

On a SunShiny day in which The Father's Desire cleared the scum away !

MARCH 30TH, 2010

by some calendars

By some calendars, the new year begins on the Spring Equinox. In all places that have spring, it is a time of re-birth and re-newal. The earliest flowers, greens, (food) have sprouted and add freshness to the stored food of winter. It is traditionally also a time of cleansing with the spring greens being considered "tonic".

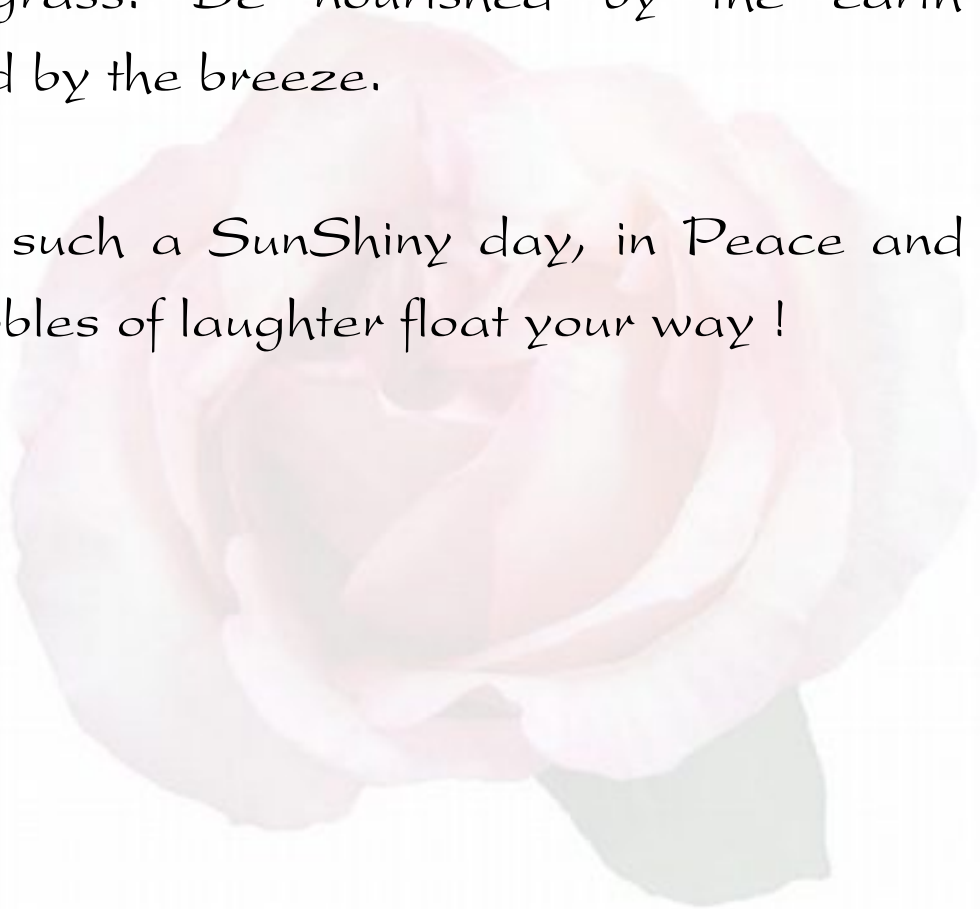

In your re-newal process what are you doing that nourishes your body and soul?

What herb would you plant for food and health that symbolizes your hope for the coming year?

What seeds do you "sow" that you hope to see grow this year?

Choose a SunShiny Spring day to contemplate such things, under turquoise skies and puffy clouds, on green grass. Be nourished by the earth and cleansed by the breeze.

On just such a SunShiny day, in Peace and Joy, may bubbles of laughter float your way !

MARCH 31ST, 2010

common attitude

Have you noticed a peculiar thing that seems to be a common attitude? What is that peculiar thing? We expect other People to do things the same way we do. Oh sure, we say we recognize the differences in individuals, but on another level we look to the similarities.

This is likely in the way a Person views progression with The Father, also. As old deception is given to The Father / placed on the Altar and moved out of the Person's energy system, there tends to be a specific "pattern" of response. We could all hope for a calm, centered, Peaceful response, but it is rather more likely to be a response based on age of trauma or individual "crisis" / "coping" mechanism. And, sure enough, we think everyone else will respond the same.

When another Person responds to The Father's direction in a totally mystifying manner, there is a tendency to impose familiar response patterns on them. When the other Person continues in a manner that "surely cannot yield results", fixing them becomes an imperative. Perhaps it is time for a different Way.

Martin has been a Faithful example of support in progressing through the casting out of old deception. He listens - doesn't try to fix, suggest, or impose. He keeps the environment functional, and picks up the pieces.

I must acknowledge that having an angel to amplify The Father is a GREAT Blessing. And it is with Thanks-giving I can say I was shown the differences in responding, integrating, and purging when The Father is progressing each Person in their own way.

Respect reaches a new level when a Person can "see" the difference in People and allow each Person their own way.

On a SunShiny day, may Respect be yours this day !

next 24 hours

JF, in the next 24 hours an earth change event occurs in the Pacific, it was NOT initiated by Universal Law.

An energy passed through this city this morning (perhaps what you would call mid-morning) gaining momentum, heading toward the Pacific. It seems as though the unrighteous - unholy use the energy of The People, or should I say gather or harvest, their energy for unrighteous - unholy activity. This brings up an area of capability I have never heard talked about regarding HAARP or weather modification. To modify the brain activity - yes, but not to steal the energy of The People.

Perhaps they shall fail. Time will tell.

On a SunShiny bee-autiful day, May all progress in The Father Way !

APRIL 1ST, 2010

what do you get out of it ?

We have unique ways of looking at the world. Obvious, you say. But how different is our way than The Father Way?

Recently I asked The Father to see the Truth of another Person. You could say how The Father sees them. In two profound experiences I received the gift of doing so - so to speak. I can't say it was like my experience of The Father's view of me, but it was the Truth of the Person and the experience.

I was gifted with seeing the Truth of that Person and their valiant effort / success with The Father Way by ending obstacles to their journey. The Father has told me I will never understand what this Person has gone through in making The Father choice (thank you, Father). Still I was gifted with seeing Truth of their journey and for the first time realized that holding onto the deception about them must hold some benefit to me. I had to ask, Linda, what do you get out of it. I would never have believed I was getting anything positive out of my perception or that it was deception.

Now I have realized there is another possible explanation. When we have a perception formed, in our "toddler" years, of who we are, by the treatment we receive from the parental figure we seek love from, we can only see the world (read other Person) through that perception, until / unless something clarifies our vision.

This would result in the experience of the other Person being defined by the original experience and one would never know if the other Person were in fact different -- perhaps the Person they had dreamed of. This explains how one comes to the experience of asking "who are you talking about -- that is not me. You must be talking about your mother / father." A lot of situations could be changed if one could realize the other Person believes what they are "seeing" and has no reference to what JS.

This day may Truth come your way.

On a balmy SunShiny day !

APRIL 3RD, 2010

why do you think the weekends are skuzzy?

Do you remember the 60's when we were blissfully ignorant of spraying the skies and weather modification? Well, maybe "seeding" a cloud, but nothing more? I found it interesting that China not long ago said they were going to "seed" the clouds, as if they were still in the stone age of these things. This of course, while they bragged about the excellent weather they provided for the Olympics.

We have, not long ago, seen a couple of movies from the 60's that filmed the skies of the time and with the excessive amount of experience we now have, could recognize the "scummy skies" produced by spraying. Even if we still had the naive idea the "trails" were just jet exhaust, the "cloud" formation is radically recognizable.

Those were the days we began to hear of "acid rain". Words seldom used today. But here it is, Easter weekend and they are trying to make scummy skies to produce depression and despondency on a theoretically Spiritual weekend. (One of combined religious traditions. Who says religions can't meld with respect to all?) This has the biggest impact on children, who in this Republic still expect to go outside and look for eggs.

This is something that happens all year long, of course. Great "workdays" and "lousy" weekends. Just when The People could get out and get some Sun, the Sunshine can't make it through the "deep, dark, cloud cover". I have a friend who is young enough that he couldn't recognize the difference between REAL rain clouds and scum clouds. Of course, here, there are seldom "REAL RAIN clouds". An interesting fact is that a surprising amount of Sun radiation penetrates real clouds, so as to allow for a Joy in the rain, rather than the extreme depression of scummy skies.

All of this is to say, may this day and SunDay be filled with the Joy of SunShine and if there is rain, may it be a day of Pure rain !

APRIL 4TH, 2010

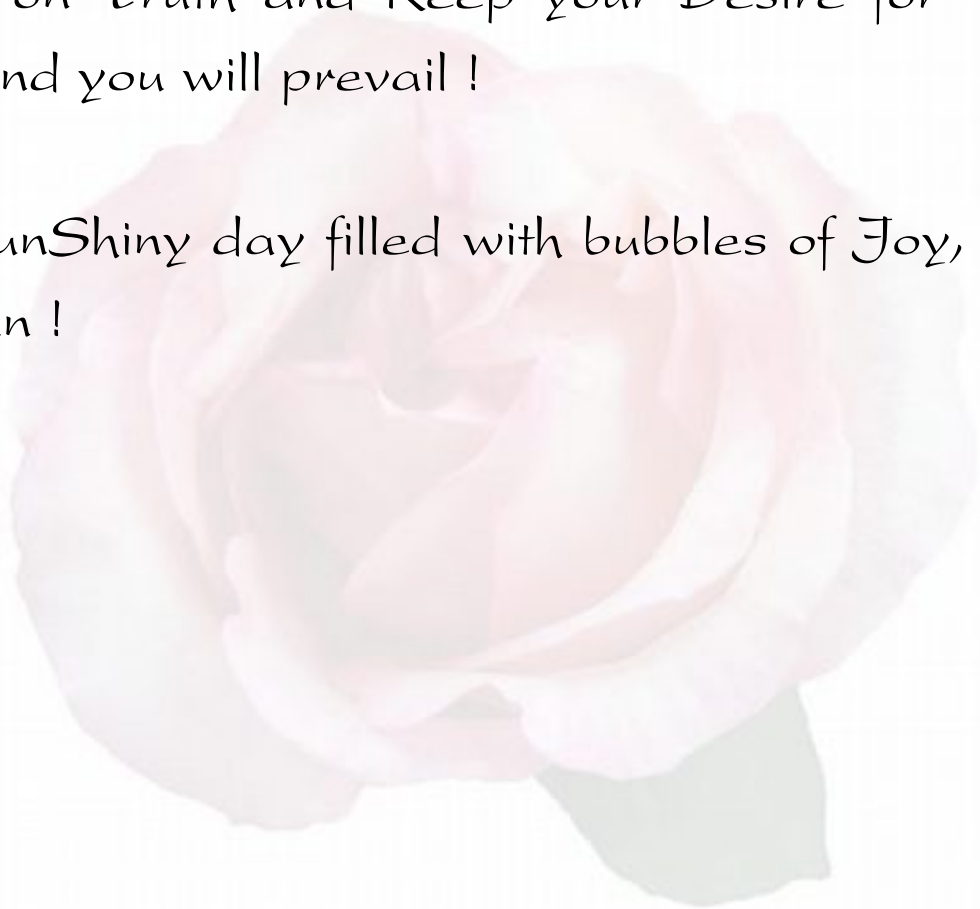

Sun through the scum

The Sun has made its way through the scum here, bringing The Father's Blessings on all those "SunRise Services". I was thinking the other day about Passover. I didn't ask The Father, but it seems to me, The Father would not instruct The People to use blood to mark doors.

Experience has brought me to understand the "god" who would order this act is one who disperses deception. Perhaps the rod turning into a "serpent" as symbol of that "god" is the message of who that "god" is.

A Person's Desire for Truth must be great to go beyond deception. As I have mentioned, it is very painful to be shown the extent of subtle deception purveyed in these times. The subtlety makes those of even the best intent unknowing participants. Keep focused on Truth and Keep your Desire for Truth strong and you will prevail !

On a SunShiny day filled with bubbles of Joy, have lots of fun !

APRIL 5TH, 2010

"fair"

Just to be "fair and balanced" I must mention that Father Which Is In Heaven (did) NOT / (would) NOT send His son or "children" to be "slaughtered". He is Truly an expression of LOVE and LOVE neither kills nor slaughters. Again, those are indications of "god(s)" that are something "other".

Once I heard a talk show host and his guest lay out the perfect logic why several world religions' sacred books were inspired by the unrighteous - unholy. That same logic perfectly applied to the bible, a step in application they chose not to take. That is to say, the unrighteous - unholy are masterful in their ability to use Truth in small or large amounts to subtly inject deception. Because we still recognize Truth, we have thought it was all Truth, rather than Truth in the midst of deception.

If their old plan of "first contact" being with one who had progressed in understanding to "Christed" consciousness or beyond, would you recognize their unrighteous - unholy presence as separate from Truth? Would you recognize that Truth (did) NOT originate with their presence?

This day, may Truth become recognizable and your Way.

On a SunShiny day with turquoise skies and puffy clouds and a cool breeze !

APRIL 6TH, 2010

body inhospitable

The Sun is awesomely brilliant this morning. It looks like a beautiful spring day is on the way. The past two evenings thunder and lightening prevailed, in what spiked the imagination to consider "wars behind the clouds".

A news article from Columbus, Ohio, reported a bacteria in their air sample with great hazard potential. Keep tuned, they said, for further reports. No immediate risk -- of course they said it takes 3 or more days after attack to show symptoms -- guess that's not immediate. Just a piece of confirmation for those who don't think the unrighteous - unholy are spraying contaminates detrimental to the life of The People.

Preparation is positive. Get out that herb book and see what nutritional elements will keep you unreceptive to contamination of bacterial sort. See how many food plants called herbs, from around the world, protect one from all sorts of invasive creations of the unrighteous - unholy. This is attained through a healthy body. Matthew Wood in his "Earthwise" books has compiled some great information. He reminds people that herbs "work" because they make the body inhospitable to attacking organisms through health.

Martin's current topic of inspiration is related. (see the link to the right or go to www.BlueStarWay.com to find his BlueStarBlog.

May pure air of coolness on a warm breeze, find you this day, as you are nourished in The Father Way ! On a brilliant SunShiny day !

APRIL 7TH, 2010

Hot today - gone tomorrow

Have you thought how to insulate your family from "fire and brimstone"? As the Sun reaches point of departure, it seems sure that we will receive particles, perhaps large particles of Solar matter. The average home is not built to withstand the heat and particles of such an event.

I'm sure this is why Father has said above ground caves will be "safe" and why the Kivas of this land have proven safe. Perhaps a "storm shelter" of reinforced concrete such as developed for tornadoes would prove safe. The interesting similarity of the first two suggestions is that they have never contained plastic or electricity. An important consideration for survival. As I have mentioned in previous blogs, Father has warned that plastics will implode with fatal toxic gases resulting.

Recently, there has been a lot of internet reference to the potential of EMP energy from the Sun which has traveled over wires -- from fences to telegraph wires -- which has caused "meltdown". I believe Martin has also mentioned this "event" in his blog. This is a secondary reason to make your secure shelter as simple as possible.

In the time between now and "point of departure", things are sure to warm up. How do you prepare for such an event without gas, electric or other utilities? Surface underground shelter (which I would call a Kiva) is sure to be insulated by the earth. These preparation Kivas are to be made with 2 feet of earth on the wooden roof.

Preparing for weather extremes without the use of "commodities" requiring continual "feeding" of financial resources is wise right now. Creative consideration of such preparation is an interesting pastime. Alertness to possibilities as they come your way is prudent. On this seven day of creative expression, perhaps a few minutes of creative consideration of action you can take will bring greater Peace to your Life.

Remember, Preparation gets you there, and embracing the opportunity to prepare as things "heat up", is wise. Extreme cold or Extreme heat -- prepare for both. This moment in time will pass and you will be Thankful for preparation. In the scheme of things, this event is in fact brief.

On a Blessed SunShiny Spring day, Create !

tea and soy

Recently someone near and dear to me gave me two boxes of Celestial Seasonings tea. One strictly single herb, the other a blend, which had NO SOY added. The boxes looked like a new package design, therefore presumably recent purchases. I plan on a fact finding mission to see if they have, or are, taking the soy out of all their tea. If so, "hats off" to Celestial Seasoning tea. That would show they care about the allergy issue in this country and that they care about The People.

I know this blog often mentions soy, per-plastics this and that, fluoride, bromide, and the complicated array of methods to destroy our thyroid, thereby making and keeping us FAT, miserable and unhealthy. Weight loss is an impossible mission when the thyroid is on a steady decline of function. AND, standard blood tests don't show a problem until a Person is well beyond what is considered the point of no return -- to health that is.

This throws People into the disposable part of the population. This includes no disposable income. How can disposable People return to a state of health? "Their" view is that it is not possible.

I have found the answer to be: only with Divine Direction. Faithful dedication to The Father's direction is necessary. Eating the food (read weeds and herbs) He provided abundantly is a major factor. Drinking pure water is a difficulty, yet entirely necessary. Using pure sea salt is required. Knowing your "food" is iron and iodine rich progresses.

Remember one measure of a situation: If it is complicated, it is unrighteous - unholy. If it is simple, it is more likely to be Divine, for Divine is Simple.

Water, weeds and salt. How simple could it be? Very, it seems to me !

On a SunShiny day, no matter what seems to be, have Joy !

APRIL 9TH, 2010

no projection, no expectation

If I were to say goodbye today, would you miss me tomorrow? If I were different tomorrow than the person you know today, would you still like me? That assumes, of course, you like me.

Do you embrace change in the ones around you, or do you expect the same predictable interaction, no matter what changes you see? I spoke with someone today who praised the changes in her husband. She embraced those changes and we never talked of the changes in her that allowed him to be different than she expected him to be.

When someone changes their needs so as to end the "penalties" if the one they "love" stops being surrogate for the one who formed their needs, it becomes possible for the Person "loved" to become the Person they Desire to be. Sounds complicated and perhaps "diamond" points would make it simple, but there has been numerous requests for me to be less concise.

Let's see, said simply: knowing your Self allows others to know their Self. No projection, no expectation.

Here's to a Grand and Glorious day wherein you let NO one define who you are.

On a SunShiny day of Gloriosa's making, Know your Self!

APRIL 10TH, 2010

weed free ?

Have you noticed that for a person who loves to play with fonts I have stayed with the same format? It's not for lack of trying. I haven't found the other options preferable yet.

I was thinking about all the lawn chemical poisons in the stores now. The big push is on for a "weed free" lawn. What if the worst did happen and you were starving and knew that the "weeds" and dirt you poisoned could save your life and end your hunger pangs? Do you think there would be some regret?

What if you knew you could have planted some berry bushes / shrubs and fruit trees instead of the ornamentals? What if you had become enthusiastic about edible landscaping and had a beautiful yard of vegetables growing in "beds" rather than rows? Would you regret not doing it?

To be honest pest control takes research -- if you don't just grab the poison off the shelf. And, it takes some experience in using "natural remedies" for the yard, just as it does for yourself.

If you are a bible reading person, you know this is ancient knowledge, Divinely given. If you are a "modern" person, you know it is the most healthful thing to do. If you live in another country, you may ask why I have devoted so much time to this topic -- why would it be any other way?

If your Spiritual Journey is the most important thing in your life, as you put The Father / Source first, your health and brain capacity is all you have to be able to connect with Them. Why else would the unrighteous - unholy be so enamored with taking it from us?

Consider the possibility learning about natural gardening and eating could be fun. Enthusiasm for ending your own participation in killing yourself seems natural.

On a SunShiny day in The Father Way, feel LJFE!

APRIL 11TH, 2010

plant and multiply

Have you thought about how many free plants are just waiting for your garden? Well, maybe not free, but almost. Have you bought goji berries at the health food store or Asian market? Several plants can be started from the seeds in just one berry. Have a sprouting organic potato? Cut it into pieces with the sprouts on top and plant. Ever start a sweet potato plant when you were in grade school? How about an avocado seed? Is there a vacant lot with a bush or flower you just love? How about a start? Or at least a seed from a public garden?

Of course courtesy and reason must prevail in obtaining free plant material, but there is an abundant amount available if you begin to look for it. Receive a hyacinth, or daffodil in a pot for Easter? Plant it in the yard. Yes, some plants are Soul nourishing things of beauty that you wouldn't eat. And the first flowers of Spring are especially so. Have a friend or family member taking out a plant?

Ask them to pass it on. Offering to dig it out for them is great incentive for them to gift it to you.

However, you might be surprised that such common garden plants as hydrangea are considered herbs. Always consult the Latin names to insure plant safety.

Remember -- from just one seed many plants will grow. It may take a few seasons, but multiply they will. Learning now will insure success if things are difficult and allow for more creativity when needed. Experience is a "good thing". It provides a foundation from which to "grow".

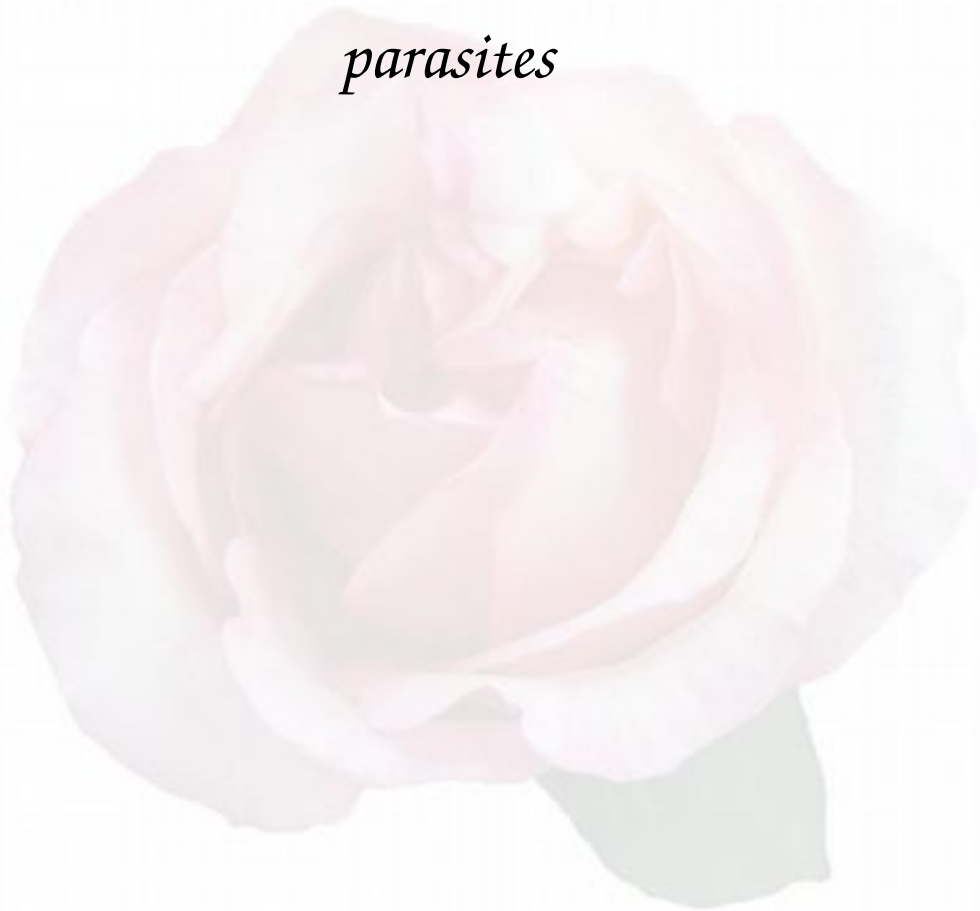

Use Honor, and look for "free" plant material. Get growing !

On a SunShiny Day, bring some plants your way !

APRIL 12TH, 2010

parasites

Parasites are not polite conversation in this country. Yet, it wasn't that long ago in our history "spring cleaning" included the human body and in addition to those spring greens, parasite cleansing was required. Especially children were subjected to parasite cleansing. They engaged in more activity that would contaminate them, is the premise today, yet all People lived close to the land and animals, where "contamination" is said to occur.

In herbal "lore" the special herbs used for deworming or parasite cleansing of children were listed separately from adults. An interesting aside is that we had begun to lose our "innate" knowledge of the plants / food and needed books to hold the knowledge for us.

If our children were cleansed of parasites / worms there would be a radical shift in their attitudes and outlooks. It is sci-fi stuff to suggest those pesky little uninvited inhabitants have a consciousness of their own, but I leave it to you to establish the Truth for yourself. Those children who had regular cleansing of parasites would have the potential for moral and ethical advancement that now seems a lost potential. They would mature into adults that know their Self, rather than walking around feeling the emotions of the unrighteous - unholy inhabitants of their body and believing they are the inferior, dull witted, ugly people the worms believe they are.

If you are an adult reading this blog, which is most likely, I suggest you consider your own cleansing. Hulda Clark began a new wave of healing and awareness many years ago, which proposed that the parasites are the cause of all illness. Radical, yes. True, yes.

This is the answer to the eastern philosophy challenge. Kill the ego? Yes. Or at least cast out (biblical). Don't believe a little worm could be controlling you? Cleanse them all (adult through egg stage) from your body and see.

On a SunShiny Day, may Truth come your way !

APRIL 13TH, 2010

childish things

Have you "put away childish things"? Childish things are the behaviors, responses, needs, you learned as you learned to walk. You may believe you haven't responded as a child since you were a child, but have you looked closely?

Are you responding to others as you would choose, or does your response just come out -- explode from you? If you are calm, serene, do you still respond as a child who needs to please?

How about your relationship with Father Which Is In Heaven? Do you relate as a child who has no control over their thoughts, words, actions? Have you considered what it is to walk as companion with The Father? How would you, as that "adult" relate to The Father? Would your walk be as a "little child"? Helpless, hopeless, neediness? (To enter the Kingdom as a child is not what we are speaking of.)

Perhaps your contemplation time could be creatively utilized to consider what it is to walk as companion to The Father. Would you be Peaceful, assured, Love, Powerful, Truth, Life, confident, Joyful?

How would you FEEL walking with The Father, as we once did?

On a SunShiny Day filled with Joy, may you walk The Father Way !

Sun Shine

Weeeelll, more glitches with the blog software. Upgrades are not always good. However, the website, BlueStarWay.com has been updated with a new web-building software and a new look. Hopefully, more user friendly, definitely more "Sunny".

The fuchsia plant in the window is blooming profusely and the grapevines are spreading rapidly. Father gave a new instrument design that has taken some time to implement. Seems simple is not always easy. However, it is performing well.

90's ! Did someone say it is in the 90's here in the middle of April ? Unheard of ? I didn't hear.

OK. Enough humor for the day.

On a SuuuuuunShiny day, may Peace and Joy come your Way !

APRIL 15TH, 2010

fear

Fear is an insidious thing. It seems to come from inside you. It seems to belong to you. Fear, however, is unrighteous - unholy design to separate us from LOVE.

Deception teaches fear keeps us safe. It is the Truth that fear keeps us vulnerable to attack. We see examples of men kept safe, even in the extreme deception of war, who were fear-less. That is, with NO fear. We have all heard "that which I fear has come upon me". YET, we keep the deception that "fear saves", rather than the Truth "fear destroys". (Does that say that fear is the destroyer?)

Until the day in which there is No Door, and the unrighteous - unholy is NON, it will prosper you in your Spiritual Journey to give all fear to the Father to be purged and in Right and Proper exchange, to be filled with Truth of the LOVE you are.

Under turquoise skies, puffy clouds and plenty of SunShine !

APRIL 16TH, 2010

morning haze

Martin reminds me that Father had said:

to burn off fear like the Sun burns off the morning haze

I'll get back with you on that.

APRIL 17TH, 2010

Father's garden

Mulberries are already ripening on the tree. I often imagine that in earlier times mulberries were so special because they are one of the first fruits available after winter. I personally don't find their flavor very intense, but fresh fruit is very welcome in the spring.

The paulownia trees are in bloom and now is the time to harvest the blossoms for drying or using fresh for tea. The very large, but delicate blooms are a unique and pleasant taste treat as tea. I had read that the leaves are edible, however, I consider them survival food, not very tender as a green. The bark of the paulowina tree also makes a nice tea. When time permits you might consider researching the paulowina tree. The use and benefit of the tree is vast.

Tomato plants are already in the stores and I have to say, a head start on planting is inviting when you don't subscribe to starting plants from seed indoors.

We anticipate the time to move to a piece of land where Father's direction in a new way of "gardening" will be implemented. The Father has said we will call it Heaven. Someone called the previous version Eden.

On a SunShiny day, In The Father Way, may your garden grow !

APRIL 18TH, 2010

hot and cold

Hot and cold. Back and forth. Such weather extremes are difficult to manage in home climate control, garden and personal comfort. It is difficult to Discern what is generated by weather control / HAARP, what is resulting from our approach to point of departure, and what is the decision of Universal Law.

Creative solutions are required, no matter the origin of such unstable weather. How does one protect their garden, their self and their home?

Earth sheltered and under-ground greenhouses are seldom referenced, yet a great option. Strawbale homes, earth sheltered or under-ground homes are possibilities. Tornado or storm shelters are low cost alternatives.

I read about a man in a tornado stricken town carving a small shelter out under his home so he would know his family was safe if another tornado ever came, and sure enough it did, and sure enough his family was safe, this time. He had lost a child in the first tornado.

What motivates one person is not what will motivate another. Many people in that town were not motivated to prepare after the first tornado. Do you think they thought it was like lightening -- trouble will never strike twice in the same place?

It wasn't a matter of financial resources. That man had only a small hand tool and was cutting into hard pan or stone. The difference being -- he was motivated.

What motivates you? What do you feel you need to do? How do you feel The Father is directing you? How can you implement the inspiration? Do you have the strength of Noah, if it goes against the "main stream" mind of friends and family?

On this SunShiny Day of cool weather, May Strength find you ready.

APRIL 19TH, 2010

motivation

Martin has suggested I need to emphasize that the goal is to choose preparation because it is the prudent thing to do. If no earth changes were to come, and things returned to "normal", there have always been weather reasons to be prepared.

Motivation needs to come from an awareness of Divine Direction and Planning in your life.

Martin was distressed that I would propose dire need for motivation. He considered it insufficient to ask what it takes to motivate you. I, on the other hand considered you, the person sharing this blog, wise enough to realize it needn't take any dire circumstances to be prepared.

Perhaps it is my life experience, but I remember when every home had first aid supplies, if not a kit. People took first aid courses and rolled bandages from cloth. I remember friends going out to sandbag in the face of flooding.

But, wait, I've seen recent pictures of People out ahead of an expected flood sandbagging. Do you live near enough a stream or river to at least have a "rubber raft" to float personal items down the street as you walk through hip deep water?

Turn to The Father and ask if you need to prepare. If the answer is yes, ask how. If the answer is no, perhaps you are dissolving the door.

On a SunShiny day, heading toward May, may all Blessings be yours today !

APRIL 20TH, 2010

hate or love

Hating the unrighteous - unholy is a common problem. It is also understandable when the destruction of The People and the Planet is considered. However, a strange occurrence takes place, regarding this hatred.

Over the 7000 years they have been here, they have put in place a system of matching The People who Desire Divine Direction with people who choose the unrighteous - unholy. This, as we have touched on, is to insure the continual "feeding" of the unrighteous - unholy with Divine Resources. It also "feeds" them with emotions of unrighteous - unholy origin that are solicited in The People, such as, hate, harm, resentment, retaliation, judgment, jealousy, you know the list. At the same time The People feel all these dark emotions, which are "alien" to their Divine Nature, The People seek love from those who give them hate.

It is said (in deception) to "love your enemy", which is to say, a Divine Person will love those who give hate. This is not Father's Way. He would not have us love the unrighteous - unholy on this planet, and those who choose to serve them. Even those who "know better" but don't do better, are not where love is to be expressed.

Seeking love is caused by giving Self as Love away to someone who is / serves unrighteous - unholy, rather than experiencing the love one is capable of in relationship with someone who also seeks to Know Self as Love, which could also be called seeking enlightenment or many things, but to Know Self as Love is all encompassing.

The scenario of abuse is basic to the concept of seeking love from those who hate. We have touched on many aspects of this over these months. The point here is: it is time to stop the pattern of an abused child with regard to the unrighteous - unholy and those who serve them. Seeking their love is a bottomless, dark pit we throw our Self into. We would remain forever lost to the pit. It is not to hate, not to seek love. It is to recognize the door is NON and move on to "Heaven upon earth". It is a "new Heaven" because the old Heaven on Earth passed away with the opening of the door.

May this SunShiny day be filled with visions of "a new Heaven on earth" !

APRIL 21ST, 2010

general update

It's a SunShiny Day, in The Father Way ! Plants are growing and the Sun is making its way through the residue of the scum. Parasites are being purged and health restored. Did you know there is a fuchsia plant that is an herb? Will wonders ever continue !

I'm progressing with a project Father gave me months ago. I have a tendency to be slow, but I do get there. It will be a little slide show of information I have noticed and Father said needs compiled. I expect we will post it on the web-site in the next couple of weeks -- software permitting.

Looking forward to fresh Paulowina flower tea tomorrow.

Martin's blog for these three days is again, great reading ! Some inspirational points.

You can get there from the link below, or to the right, or from our newly designed website. BlueStarWay.com

APRIL 23RD, 2010

love or Love

Strange computer things go on all the time but, some are concerning. Like signing on to my blog today. Oh well, things go on and one hopes for the best.

I would think one could tell I've been struggling to accurately put into words what Father has been explaining to me about love and Love / Rapture. When His refinement is amazingly subtle, at least to a deceived mind, words become extremely difficult. To put what one "sees" into words requires a skill of inner vision.

So here it is again, hopefully in more accurate terms. In the stream of events for The People, a more accurate way to perceive and establish relationship would be from a "space" perspective.

When a Person makes a choice to experience the Love they are, to the "best of their ability", a "space of love" is created around them. How far this space extends depends on the strength of their capacity to experience love. The space may be very immediate, room size, or house size, perhaps property size.

The goal of such a Person would then be, that if they were to share their space with someone, the additional Person would express their Self as love the best they could. (Surprisingly, it may be the case that in True earthly expression, we are to live alone, in community, with space about us. In this we would come and go, but not stay in any space of love not our own.)

But as we transition to Truth, let us progress one step at a time. We are now at a point two people who Desire to Know the Father and Source, as well as to express their Celestial Self are progressing in a Right and Proper manner. They are expressing in a loving manner and share a space filled with the loving energy they are. The outcome of this experience is to increase their capacity and strength to receive the Truth of their Self as LOVE / Rapture.

Once received, the space would support the "solidifying" of this greater expression and once firmly established who knows what would come? I do Know the Truth of "getting there". I don't Know the Truth of what is next.

When a Person shares their space with someone who desires the unrighteous - unholy, it is impossible to build strength and capacity and energy of love in that space. This is because the unrighteous - unholy will "suck it up" like the straw in Data's head. (reference to Star Trek Next Generation episode). The Person can struggle and struggle, work and work, to build a loving space, but as soon as there is enough to feed on -- gone !

When this happens, everything The Person has received from Father has gone to feed or support the unrighteous - unholy. This, like it or not, is to choose the unrighteous -- unholy rather than The Father. I'm saying this makes a Person who is of even the best intent, a servant of the unrighteous - unholy. It places the unrighteous - unholy before The Father. It makes a demi-gog of the unrighteous - unholy.

This is the best I've been able to put it in words, so far. It is the best I can understand The Father's clarification of this deception, so far. It is very difficult to face the possibility this is Truth. It is even more difficult to face the fact, that if it is True, one has mistakenly chosen the unrighteous - unholy when they thought their Desire for The Father prevailed. Take this to prayer, contemplation and consideration. Ask The Father to show you the Truth, free from deception.

On a SunShiny day that also has rain, may the rain wash away the deception ! The deception will pass away.

APRIL 25TH, 2010

civil unrest ? dont play !

We have posted a "what if scenario" of potential unrighteous - unholy activity, on our website and on Martin's blog today. Links also to the right. What if the spraying of a fungus on the land, People, animals was the "tipping point" (to quote Cliff)? What if The People would act against the airports and bases that send out those planes? The federal entity would claim they are "justified" in martial law to protect all federal holdings. Then we would be made clearly aware that the national forests, parks, waterways and land management holdings were not claimed and managed for the good of The People, but as property of the federal entity. (Is the world wide web still their "holding", since they originated it? What does gifting it to The People mean? Ask "native americans" what value the gifts of the unrighteous - unholy hold.)

The Father has said to bring "inordinate" Heartfelt Desire into play, so as to bring the Divine Plan, or Father's Plan active on earth -- specifically in this land. He said to "not play". It seems strange to say the unrighteous - unholy play, but The Father does call it "play".

We have come to understand not playing as turning away from the appearance of unrighteous - unholy and turning toward The Father / Source. What you turn away from no longer holds your attention or energy and causes no fear. When you have no fear, you have LOVE. When your Faith is in The Father's Plan, your actions, words, thoughts are Harmonious with The Father's Plan.

This day may your Heartfelt Desire be amplified to The Father Way / Plan. May what is Divine fill you with Harmony. May all fear pass away, that you may Know your Self as LOVE.

In the Divine Plan on a SunShiny day filled with Love, may we pray and Desire Harmony with The Father and Source !

APRIL 26TH, 2010

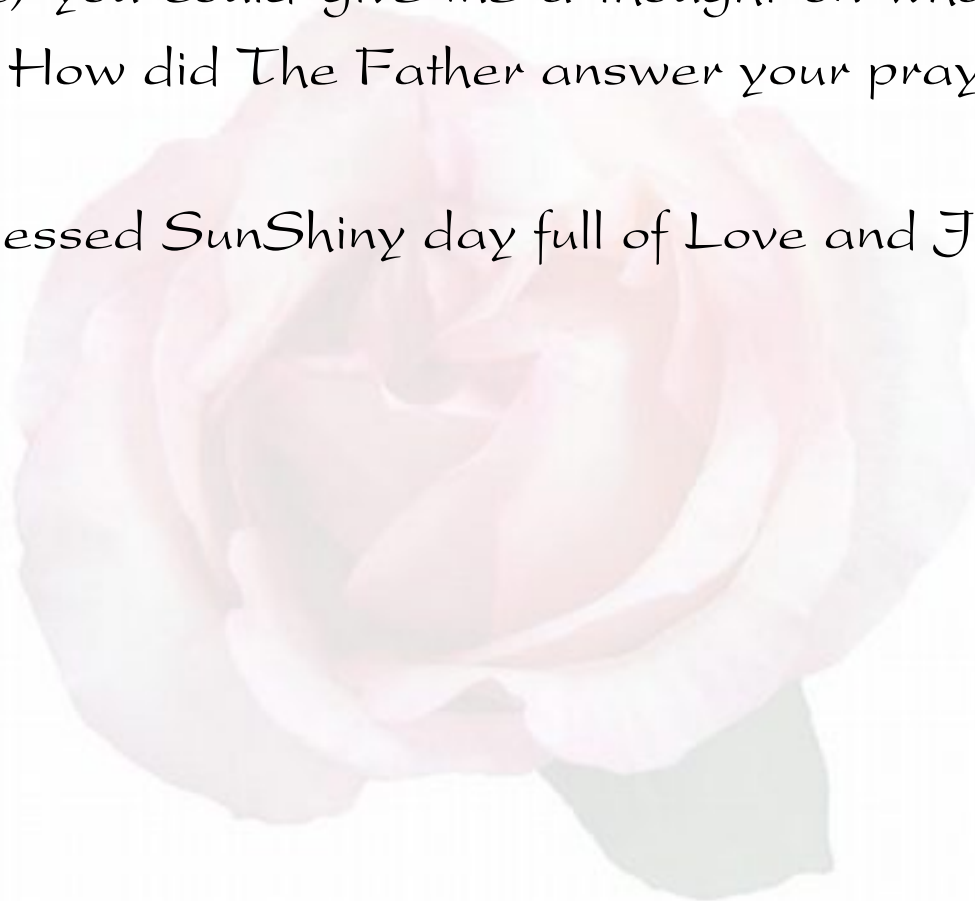

... can't get out

Have you ever gotten yourself someplace you can't get out? Prayed and prayed to The Father and you're still there?

Perhaps, you could give me a thought on what got you out. How did The Father answer your prayer?

On a Blessed SunShiny day full of Love and Joy !

APRIL 27TH, 2010

how do they do that ?

Have you thought about how the unrighteous - unholy steal your Divine Energy? How can something so subtle and intangible (except for the tiredness and toxicity you feel) take place?

One obvious way is through humiliation, degradation, shaming, attacking, damaging, you could say any method of attack that raises unrighteous - unholy emotions in a Person. Have you noticed that one who makes the attack appears to become energized, excited, and escalating in their attack? You can observe the exchange of energy as the Person who is attacked appears to become weaker, sunken, withdrawn, while the attacker becomes more inflated.

A more subtle way of stealing more refined Divine Energy might be observed at a church or spiritual center. Here, as the sincere draw closer to The Father by turning their attention and prayer to Him, those present, who feed the unrighteous - unholy will absorb the elevated, more refined energy available. It is like drawing in Radiant Energy. Something (one) who is colder / lower in frequency will absorb the elevated frequency. Like ice drawing heat out of something. Ever notice a sudden chill that comes for no reason? Is someone coming close? Consider what or who is around you. The unrighteous - unholy are in the church, too.

Have you ever noticed that the more you pray, the more you turn (your eyes) to The Father and the more He responds to you, the less energy, resources, results you have? Ever wonder why, what He promises that you have asked for doesn't come to fruition? It is likely because you have squandered His resources by allowing someone who feeds the unrighteous - unholy to reside in your space of Love. (see the post a few days ago) As they take all you have to give (which should be used for your journey in The Father Plan) you are depleted physically, mentally, financially. Interestingly, this is just the one who will accuse you of being insufficient, adding guilt, shame, condemnation, so as to siphon off any residual Divine resources.

Just some thoughts on subtle energy attack / absorption.

On this SunShiny day may The Father's Radiant Love be yours !

point of departure update

Even if you don't believe there will be a shift in the Sun's orbit, which will drag our solar system into a new position, by reminding you of the one sure sign and what to do you might pull the information out of the back of your mind someday and use it.

The Major sign available to everyone is a shift in the color spectrum. All color will intensify and shift to a more vibrant spectrum. This would be especially noticeable in flowers. I have seen this event and it was in the daylight hours on this land.

This is the moment to find shelter with NO PLASTICS or Synthetics. No plastic clothes, no plastic core in your thread that sews your clothes. Simple organic cotton gowns / robes sewn with ALL cotton thread would serve you well. No plastic in your footwear. No plastic in your teeth.

There will be a maximum of 3 to 4 hours to secure yourself and your family. Water and food need to be in your shelter. You won't need a plastic radio or plastic water bottles. I know water in glass is getting very hard to come by. There will be very little time to do anything except change clothes and get to your shelter. Filling a wooden barrel with water would not be very practical. However, a wine barrel full of wine might be your taste. Holly Deyo has posted that combining the wine with water helps purify the water.

Knowing what is happening will help your family keep fear at a minimum. The earth will survive. The Sun will settle down in three days. (You've heard of the three days of darkness -- not necessarily a factor of light but of devastation).

Yes, the earth will be pulled on -- hard. Yes, the ride will be rough. Keep your attention on The Father and Truth. Pray and Trust.

Prepared is positive.

By your Desire for the Father, you will prevail.

On a SunShiny day of Love and Joy !

so many things

It's been a good day, and I finally decided to post a blog -- after sitting staring at the log-in page quite a while. So many things I could say. None I want to. So as always, asking for Divine direction should prevail.

Ancient Hebrew (rather than modern) has recently come to my attention. An interesting study. It seems no matter the culture, language, math, there is a point beyond which it is impossible to discern the Truth of The People upon the earth. Of course that point comes within a certain time frame after the arrival of the unrighteous - unholy. The point at which they knocked on the door and claim we let them in.

It seems like the stories of the island People of the Caribbean who found Europeans arriving on their shore and no vision of the ships they came in. Did they answer the knock on the door, or did the unrighteous - unholy simply thrust themselves upon

The People?

The Truth is we are shown by The Father the door must become NON again. Rather than standing on the shore looking for where they came in from, we must turn our vision to The Father and Source. Turn our vision to Truth (justice and the . . . joking). This is a concept difficult to put in words and difficult to implement. As I have mentioned, simple is not always easy.

Some things must be repeated because many will not go back to read what I have posted previously. Hopefully they are said a new way. Sometimes we have to hear something a different way to "get it".

May you be Blessed this day with SunShine and vision !

When

NOW is the moment . . . when

NOW is this moment

When is NOW

This moment is When

How many ways would we have to hear this? What we are looking for is NOW. Not later. Not today. Not tomorrow. Not this week. Not this month. Not in a few days. Not soon.

When will it get here? When will it happen? When am I going to . . . ? When will you? When will they? When is when?

Now.

On a SunShiny day covered with rain, may all Blessings come your way !

what is seizing assets?

Took over, acquired, seized, what is it they are doing with the millions - billions of assets? How can banks be failing that have such assets? What other countries, times, situations have allowed such actions to quietly take place? Just a question for this day.

What can any Person do? Turn to The Father for answers. He has said there is another way. This is not the, "an-other" of the unrighteous - unholy. There is a Divine Way to bring Right and Proper / Righteous and Holy exchange to this planet.

Mercantile was NOT upon this planet before their arrival. Neither shall it be upon this planet after their departure (which He has said, will NOT be in space craft).

The Father began, 6 years ago to teach us a different way of creating and exchanging. He / we called it Entente. We have written and referred to this process briefly, in our books and on our website, BlueStarWay.com

We anticipate renewed interest in such a Way, therefore, periodically, we shall share more.

On a Turquoise sky, SunShiny Day, may Peace come your way !

spring cleaning

Spring cleaning . . . an old fashioned idea. Today cleaning is ongoing. Vacuums, cleaning chemicals, scrubbers, washing machines. It's never been easier to wash the curtains, clean the windows, scrub the carpet. No carpet beating on the clothes line, just vacuum. What . . . no clothes line? Well, that may be for the best with the toxic chemicals daily floating into the surface contact area of all life.

What about a personal level? How often do you clean out the debris, toxicity, pain, sorrow, that contaminate your energy system? Giving the scum that contaminates you to The Father needs to be

ON-GOING. A friend of mine has said, "I did that." But he was distressed to find out he had to do the cleaning again and again and again. It's just like cleaning the house, you do it over and over and over. Why? Because new contamination is daily accumulated and because you find better and better "tools" to "get the job done", and so can do a better and better job.

Yes, Father says the day does come when the "job" gets done. That is the day you choose to Know your Self and the Divine Plan.

Until then, In-Joy your SunShiny day !

controversy

I have noticed recently there is a method to the foolishness of posting controversial blogs. It gets more attention from the monitoring bots and therefore more views. It seems very easy to get caught in the enticement of more links and more views and more hits and more . . .

We post as Father guides, or we are inspired. No more, no less. We prayed that those who choose The Father Way find the blog and those who would find it annoying do something else that they enjoy.

Well, here it is, another weekend of rain. We have spoken of the planning they must do to bring the rain on Friday night and end it on Sunday night each week. Just living proof they put a lot of effort in what they do.

Well, rain or shine, the Sun is always there.

On a SunShiny day with a splash of rain !

MAY 10TH, 2010

be Love

I spoke with a lady yesterday who will be 83 one month from today. Her soul anguish is simple. "All I ever wanted was to be loved."

For her, it is incomprehensible that she could "Be Love", rather than "be loved." If she could consider that when one has not given their Self away, they neither need to learn how to love their Self, nor receive the love of a parent or surrogate, she would be very close to Being the Love she fruitlessly sought all her life.

In her search for Love / love, she decided very early, life without love wasn't worth living. How many of us have survived that moment? How many have not survived that moment? How many linger in decay - declining after passing that moment? Is this decay the source of our sorrow? Does drifting away, further and further from life, on a sea of sorrow drown our pain?

Is it possible to revive a drowning person to renewal of Life / Love of their Self? We would answer "of course". We are, after all, a society who expects "happy endings".

May the "happy ending" of this day see you Blessed with Knowing your Self as Love !

On a SunShiny day filled with Joyful bubbles of Love !

(get out that jar of magic bubbles and laugh !)

MAY 11TH, 2010

interfere

Have you looked at your level of fear lately? Do you give your fear to The Father at the Altar, in Right and Proper exchange for Love? Or do you ask The Father to burn off fear like the Sun burns off the morning mist?

When fear enters, it "inter-fears" with Right and Proper function of your Desire and Right and Proper function of your brain. Sometimes we receive the Truth of a word in the sound rather than the spelling. Interfere doesn't scream Truth. However, the sound of the word, "enter fear" tells us what happens when fear enters. Fear is disruptive. Fear is the wave on the amplifier that screeches erratically.

We have all heard, (I have also said) Love cannot dwell in a space filled with fear.

On this SunShiny day of turquoise blue skies and puffy clouds, may Love fill your space !

MAY 12TH, 2010

have we changed?

Have we changed so very much from the "inferior native" inhabitants of the earth who could be "fooled" by the unrighteous - unholy? Are we still the same naive People who will view their "majik tricks" as miracles? For all our sophistication, can we so easily still be deceived?

Whether the weather is the delivery "system" or a blanket is carrier, are they still killing us with biological weapons? (e.g.: smallpox, fungus, morjillians--or however they "spell" it, HIV, and so forth)

The only way out of their nightmare of deception is through Truth. Truth of our Divine Heritage, Truth of Love as Self, Truth of The Father's Presence and Grace. Truth that we can "not open the door" they claim we opened, but which they thrust through. When we can "see" the Truth that the door is NON, the door becomes NON and they return to NON.

Science is no savior. Sophistication is a deception. Truth, plain and simple is our Way.

On a SunShiny day of Truth and Love, may puffy clouds brighten your day !

MAY 14TH, 2010

who is god?

Who is god? Or is it, Who is God? Who is Father Which is in Heaven? In the King James bible a man, Jesus we call him, said to pray to "Our Father Which is in Heaven". He did not say pray to god or God. gods have been many in many civilizations. They say the head fallen angel wanted to replace or be equal to God. We have been, and may still be, fooled by fallen angels claiming to be god, who do what The Father calls "majik tricks". (and in our naivety we came to call miracles)

One of the moves in the game of the unrighteous - unholy, was to use one person of stature in the "christian community" to make Jesus into "god". Yes, I'm old enough to remember when Jesus was called the "son of God", not God incarnate. An interesting facet of the christian community on this land, is that all it takes is one person to make a "novel" claim and say it loudly to a large audience, especially a television audience, for it to become the dogma of all the christian community. This has become possible because the serpent is not only in the catholic church (aka, roman empire), but in the mass of christian churches world wide. (pun intended) Father, in 2004, showed us serpent fire and serpent breath at play in the christian church. serpent fire is the deception that calls Jesus God, or god.

It is Truth, Father Which is in Heaven has and will once again walk upon the earth.

It is through deception the unrighteous - unholy will claim their "leader" is Jesus returned, therefore god upon the earth.

The plan for preparing the "masses" for this deception has been foretold, not by prophets for Father Which is in Heaven, but by those receptive to the voice of the unrighteous - unholy. How could People of good Faith tell the difference between The Father and the unrighteous - unholy? Very difficult ! The subtlety of the serpent is often portrayed in allegory. That is a glaring under-statement of how subtle the deception can be.

Hold fast to your Desire for Truth. Look for the small sentence of Truth in the midst of a great deception. Look in the midst of great Truth for the small deception. Pray to the Father and pray again. Cast out all in you that desires what the unrighteous - unholy promise but never deliver. Yes, in the beginning they will offer beads and trinkets, but what do they require in return? What do they take from us? What do they give and then destroy?

On this Holy Day of SunShine and blue skies, may you choose each and every day to be a Holy Day !

where it began

Good intent counts, but it doesn't get the blog posted. So here it is, a few days late, but here. Of course, it may take a few days to finish the thread ...

Instead of laboring over "what is done and gone", what can I do now?

If I want to birth a Bright New Day, in which my Self as Love is "active and present", I must stop laboring in pain and sorrow. A Bright New Day is Joy-full, Light-Hearted, Great-full. Thanksgiving has been solemnly "celebrated" one day each year, yet famine entrapment has not ended, as they claim it did that day. Ironic that those who sought to "save" became entrapped by what they sought to save another from. Prior to "saving" the invaders, The People upon this land had abundance.

The famine entrapment that came to this land with the invading Europeans continues to this day, with an announced 40 million families on food stamps.

And this does not include the famine programs on the "reservations". (Were they called reservations because their land was held in reserve until its resources were needed?) Of the 40 million families on food stamps, there is no report of how many are "illegal aliens". How long can the "employed" of this land support those who have no income? How long can they feed and clothe The People born upon this land as well as those who are invading this land?

To be continued . . .

On a SunShiny day that appears another way, may you see the Light of Truth !

MAY 16TH, 2010

The People

After some discussion and consideration, I'm adding a clarification on "The People".

The People are those inhabitants of this planet who were here by the design of Father Which is in Heaven / Source, we say His children. We were and are Spiritual People who walked this planet in its beauty and were creative and were nourished in our presence by The Father. As He nourished the planet, so He nourished us.

The Plan for us, on this planet was to creatively design "low tech". Using the natural, renewable resources available on this planet. Not "using up", but rather using and renewing. An example close to this, was an episode of Deep Space Nine, a Star Trek series, in which the Captain designed a low tech vehicle which took him and his son to a far away planet.

In our Heart, We The People know who we are. We know what is Right and Proper. We are compassionate, Honorable People. Even those contaminated by genetic alteration of the unrighteous - unholy are still The People who choose the Way of Father Which is in Heaven. The People come from all cultures, all continents, all times. Father has said that the last European remnant was in the Germanic area. Whether they were Germanic, Celt, or other, the worst wars of Europe were fought to take their land and their Truth from them. This is why so many came to this land when theirs was taken -- to continue In The Father Way.

The People are not to be confused with others who choose the unrighteous - unholy way. They may, on the surface appear to talk, walk, be the same as The People, but you can tell from the results of what they have done / are doing, they are not the same. They have mostly prospered by contamination of unrighteous - unholy reward. Unaware that as "indian givers" (ones who give to those of good Faith and then take back what was given and more, as we have seen upon this land) the unrighteous - unholy only "loan" the prosperity for services rendered.

The People are already one in The Father. No one world domination is needed to force Right and Proper living upon them. The unrighteous - unholy know what is Right and Proper, otherwise how could they so easily deceive us? However, the way of the unrighteous - unholy is not Truth. They believe they are "better than", smarter than, the inferior People.

"Advanced technology" that destroys is not advanced. Neither does it make an advanced form of human. (By their definition human is beastly, but The Father has said they are also human)

The People are not mindless, masses of generated, manipulated, human life form called consumers. We Desire Truth and to Know the Way of The Father and our Self as Love. We recognize natural beauty upon the earth. We Desire Peace and the Truth of One.

We shall be given the day on which the door to unrighteous - unholy is once again NON. For this we give Thanks !

On a SunShiny day of Truth !

MAY 17TH, 2010

what can The People do ?

Before I continue the thread of yesterday, I want to clarify that I prayed and asked whether to post these thoughts on this blog. By way of progression, it is Right and Proper to explore these ideas.

We left defining the problem (as though you didn't know ! ?) with those of this Republic who have been "blessed" with continuing "employment" providing the "tax dollars" that feed and clothe the unemployed--those whose jobs have gone "overseas", and those whose local jobs have been "taken" by invading masses and those invading masses who have no employment. It has been my observation that people born in Mexico, the Caribbean, and other places in the "Americas" never had ancestors who lived in the mid-west or east coast, therefore they are not "taking back" in the same fashion of what was done to them. The People of this land who do have such a claim are the People who were willing to share and live in Peace with those whose land had been taken from them in Europe, not recognizing the presence of the serpent among them.

So, on to the question of what to do. Perhaps a more effective "boycott" than city against state. (California cities against Arizona) would be to boycott companies who have sent the jobs and resources overseas. This would stop the sending of our "money" to foreign powers and feeding and clothing their "poor". Is it morally and ethically correct to produce children that cannot be fed or clothed? Perhaps "population control" in those countries would stop coming from war and disease and begin with ending excessive births. If lust is the motivation for excessive population of a land, there are other answers to the situation. If it is love of children, better to love one child that is provided good health and whose needs are met, than to have multiple children who die unspeakable deaths in infancy and childhood. What of our children who are being thrust into shelters, tents, and who knows what other situations, in just the past few years. People trying to hold families together without income. Where are the television and magazine advertisements soliciting money to help them? What will they do in the long term to restore stability to their family? How can they grow a garden when there is not even a yard to put it in?

How many companies these people "worked" for are owned in this Republic? How many provide goods and services for The People of this land? Are they becoming exclusively the medical and pharmaceutical businesses? (yes, your doctor is a for profit business) How many of those are foreign owned? Services for a dead and dying people seem to be on the rise. (Is that why the replacements are being brought in?)

Is it even possible to receive all the food, goods and services one truly needs from local, regional, state and national sources?

Since I have a personal commitment to keeping this blog short, I must leave thoughts on the answer until tomorrow. Apologies for the length of these blogs.

On a rainy day that can't keep the SunShine away, may abundance come your way !

is it sacrifice ?

Is it sacrifice to eat locally grown, chemical free, non-GMO, non-hybrid food? Is it sacrifice to wear nationally grown organic fibers, in regionally assembled and locally sold clothes. (Or locally sewn and sold clothes, like on Nob Hill in Albuquerque?) Is it sacrifice to purchase or exchange for dishes made locally by a Person who always longed to work in clay or porcelain? Is it sacrifice to use NO plastic in your home? How many glass bottles of shampoo broke in the shower? I never had one break in my home's shower. What of a return to nationally produced and assembled television or radio? We did it once and produced quality products.

If you consider any of these things sacrifice, consider what a return to the creation and exchange of products within this Republic would do for employment of a creative and energetic nature. Some People are very happy on an assembly line, some People are very happy talking to People and helping them. What if The People did the things they enjoyed doing rather than "whatever they could get?"

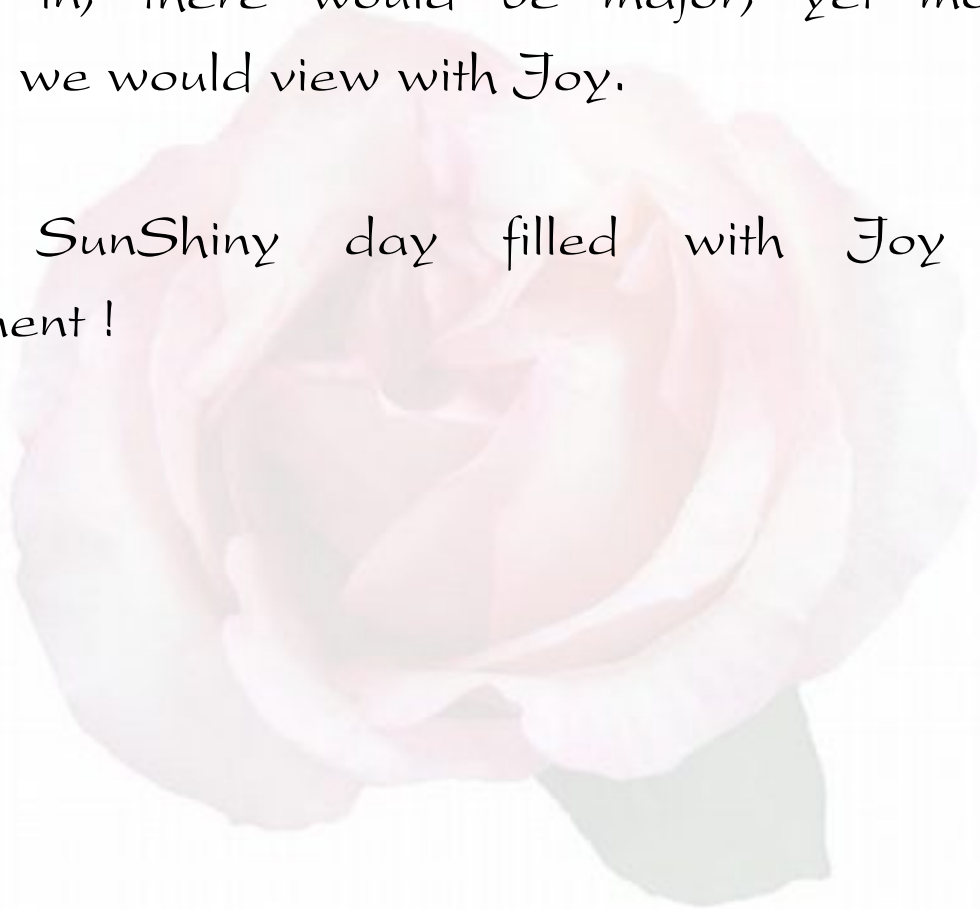

What of the dollar mentality, that says only more is more? More plastic from China, more toys on the floor, more parts out the door (in the trash). More plastic to store and store in. What happens when the oil runs out and the plastic with it? Not to worry, plastic is now being made of corn and soy. I guess that is the best use of GMO soy and corn, because eating it causes lots of ill health, (from the news reports I see) beyond the soy allergy problem.

Would it be such a sacrifice to begin, step by step to purchase locally? To choose glass rather than plastic. To purchase less but better quality? The same is true of saving the world as saving another. How can you save any one / any thing else when you can't even "save" your Self? How often are we hearing and ignoring "change begins with one's self"? Well they say "you", which is to say they don't have to (change, that is).

Every little change we make prepares the way for more change. Some research would be required to know what (if any) businesses are owned and operated in this Republic. But, I believe there are web-sites where a lot of this information is available and the "work" has been done for us. While it is available as it currently is, the internet can provide the information to obtain less locally available items. Want real silk ribbon? I've seen two web-sites that provide it because it is their passion. Want real silk thread or purely cotton thread? Have you been to your local quilting shop?

When sacrifice becomes Honor and Pride in commitment and action, we are well on the way to a return of the moral and ethical past we view with nostalgia. One that perhaps never existed, but one we believe in. If we actualized what we once believed in, there would be major, yet modern changes we would view with Joy.

On a SunShiny day filled with Joy and commitment !

Love as an inside job

It seems like a day "off topic" is needed. How are you doing with creating a space of Love that radiates from within? Have you given it consideration? Is it a "mission impossible" or "can do" in your thinking?

It appears I have neglected to make clear a very important point about Love. In "Christed" or Transcendent Love or Rapture, while a Person Is the Love, and they recognize no one else is the "Source" of their Love, they do in fact, experience Love for everyone. I know on the surface it seems contradictory that a Person seeks Self as Love and not exchange of love with another and yet experiences love for all People. Yet, it is the Truth.

I will leave it to you to consider this and understand through Divine Clarity how this can be.

Perhaps it is very clear to you. I hope it is clear, or becomes clear soon for each Person seeking The Father.

On a SunShiny Day, in which Father prepares the Way !

MAY 20TH, 2010

community participation

Back to topic. Have you considered how a community could lower taxes? Is it even possible? I believe so.

For a community, region, state who has the major part of their resources sustaining The People, participation on an individual / family level is key. Churches call it tithing, I think a new name is in order. However, if a specific amount of time is given by each Person for meeting the community needs, according to their skills and interest, there would be little need for paid participation.

This would leave only the cost of materials for the community, unless materials are the contribution of those who are able to provide them.

Obviously, I'm no expert in such matters, however, some contemplation yields solutions I've never considered before. If many People gave consideration to a new community, region, state, nation foundation, new solutions would flourish.

People would know their neighbor, once again, and the "good old days" would be made now.

On a different note, not too long ago I discovered "Walela" ¹. Really enjoy their music.

not forced

Martin and I talked about my blog yesterday and how the Amish have traditionally used such a system in their community. If anyone needed a barn, everyone came together to build it. Women cooked, children came, men constructed. This was done in a community where others had done and received the same.

We have been speaking of community cooperation. No coercion or condemnation to "force" participation.

Martin spoke with someone at a church yesterday where they had just planted 40 fruit trees to be used to feed People. The church had the land being unused and a program to feed the needy. Another community organization to feed the hungry donated the trees. Rather than a onetime gift of assistance, they will be able to give fresh fruit to People year by year. If worst comes to worst, their own church members are gifted with the abundance of this variety of fruit. The church will be able to grow organic food, if they so choose. And one can imagine a fun day of family activity when the planting was done. Even using rented equipment for digging holes wouldn't preclude a church wide day of fun. Perhaps someone owned or donated the use of equipment. Church members will be maintaining the orchard, which can be a gardening training experience for the children.

This is a very possible scenario for communities, even in large cities. There is much more than community gardens that can be done. Recognition of local resources could redefine the term "government", or perhaps we should rename the process of community.

On a SunShiny day of fresh air and pure rain !

congratulations Kayla !

Special thoughts of a special evening for Kayla !
Congratulations !

The young people have been improperly indoctrinated into the false concepts silently infiltrating our culture through the unrighteous - unholy plan of destruction for The People.

On the list read into the congressional record, so we were all informed of their plan, was the destruction of family. Family loyalty is a concept that has all but disappeared in our culture's young People. Yet, as we mentioned at the beginning of this thread, Confucius said it all begins with a strong family.

Perhaps I should say with strong families, who create strong communities. Perhaps that is not the correct word either. Is it villages?

The destruction of our spiritual expression has silently been progressing over the last 50 years. Is it any wonder the young People create art as (not out of) trash? If art is the expression of the feelings we experience in the presence of that art, our young people are being indoctrinated that their spiritual life is trash, and disgust is the emotion they convey. (Remember: feelings are Divine and emotions are unrighteous - unholy)

Changing the world begins with changing how we are raising the children. They must have Hope, Faith, Love, Truth. The abuse of the children must stop and they must be returned to their Divine capacity for Truth.

This begins with YOU. You must know how this is done and what it is to Know your Self. Then, you can teach the children you raise. All Hope begins with you, and you, and you, and me.

On a SunShiny day, in The Father Way !

who are family ?

These blogs have been about parents and children. Family, in the sense most often being referred to, by me, has not included aunts, uncles, cousins, sisters, brothers, others.

We have been speaking of parents who have chosen The Father Way, raising children with that knowledge and choice for Truth. As Martin reminded me yesterday, family loyalty has no place in relationship to those who choose the unrighteous - unholy way. Yes, as painful as it is, brother against brother is not limited to times past when men were given multi-colored coats.

Martin will be writing on this topic more extensively, soon. (see his BlueStar link to the right)

On a topic near and dear to my heart, I looked up the website of Matthew Wood yesterday. A faster connection would have been nice, because he has lots of fun pictures. He is an Herbalist most excellent. Well informed and concerned. He can be found at MatthewWoodHerbs ² and his books are also most excellent.

whata 'bout: bring the resources home

So you were thinking, "I can't get what I need locally!" Food is easy to imagine when it is tomatoes, cucumbers, corn. But what about pomegranates, lemons, olives? I say what about the local People who might be in a wheelchair, but would love to container garden on an enclosed porch all year round? If a "market" was assured locally, wouldn't that support their participation?

What about porcelain dolls or cups? Perhaps there is a young mother who could find space in her garage for pouring porcelain instead of watching television after her children are in bed. A local, regional, national, "market" for her creations might help stop the inflow of Asian porcelain, but the Asian population is so vast their local market would sustain them.

What about nylon rope? I say what about non-narcotic hemp rope? It was a strong staple of southern economy before they were devastated.

And, it is a renewable, strong, dependable, available resource for local economy that would be needed regionally and nationally.

Speaking of the South, I often wonder why they don't embrace the presence of all the kudzu and market it in the many forms and uses for which it is outstanding. It is a food, herb, vine for weaving, among many other uses I read of often.

If a lot of Creative People set out to change their local economy, regional, state, national, and were People dedicated to purchasing within the Republic, we would see an amazing turn around of the lives of The People. It might (probably would) require a lifestyle change that limited cell phones, game machines, televisions in each home, but there would be a home for everyone.

There would be an end to foreign foreclosures on the homes of The People. (several years ago they admitted 40 to 50% of the "bundled" home mortgages in this Republic were Chinese owned). It is time to end the thrust toward consolidating assets for "one" takeover. It is time to stop giving it all away.

On a SunShiny day, of Joy and Beauty, what one thing will you do to "bring the resources home"?

from Alaska to the Gulf

No plastic, buy local, natural fibers, enough already!

Did you see that things are whirling in Alaska? The news article said the earth's mantle there is moving. The mantle under Alaska is moving 20 to 30 times faster than the crust--reversing the usual order of plate tectonics. This was the article title. The Gulf of Mexico's news: Awful News From The Gulf: Explosions Collapse Seafloor At Deepwater Horizon Well Head. It seems Father's information of the fault line progressing underwater from Haiti to New Orleans is receiving an assist. That Denali would erupt before Yellowstone erupts and the New Madrid sinks seems to be a more possible scenario with this news about the mantle in Alaska. It is interesting to note that it is hard to find any reference to Denali as a volcano. This combined information also makes a good case for the idea the New Madrid may not wait on the Philippines, China or Alaska. Time will tell if the events are rearranged by unrighteous - unholy activity or the Plan of Universal Law as conveyed by Father prevails.

It is very clearly time to be making a fully committed choice for The Father Way. By His direction and Grace your choices will see you through difficult times of cleansing unrighteous - unholy presence from the planet.

On a SunShiny day in The Father Way unto All Righteous and Holy Day !

hemlock and safety

A word of caution I may not have stressed enough. James Wesley, Rawles ³ had a post in his blog as follows:

A word of warning to field foragers: Hemlock May Have Caused Tacoma Woman's Death ⁴. (It is important to learn how to identify poison hemlock ⁵ -- not to be confused with the various hemlock trees ⁶

This is to remind everyone, identification must be made by experienced knowledgeable people. This why I prefer to obtain seed from reliable sources such as Richters ⁷. I have even heard that the plant we ALL can identify -- dandelion -- has an impostor. The post on the woman's poisoning is no longer available, but I wanted to stress the importance of knowing what you are doing.

Yes, we have safety in The Father, but not to the extent of drinking poison as water. That safety comes from Source. I'm not there yet, probably you aren't either.

fear is NON

Just a gentle reminder: NEVER TRUST FEAR.
Fear is not your friend. Fear is a construct that never delivers. It promises safety and is your insurance of destruction of what is Right and Proper. Fear fills the space in you LOVE / Rapture should be filling. Fear is your indication that unrighteous - unholy presence is upon you.

Placing fear on the Altar of Love and Power in Right and Proper Exchange for Truth of your Self is wise. Asking and giving Thanks to The Father for burning fear off, like the Sun burns off the morning haze is advised by The Father.

Fear becomes NON to someone who walks in Truth of who they are. It has no value, no definition, no structure. The deception is ended.

In the SunShine of The Father Way, may you find the Love in you this day !

treetop flyby

An interesting event just took place. A military aircraft just flew down our street at treetop level.

In a large city with an international airport this airspace is usually not flown north to south at tree top level.

In the past two weeks there have been several military flybys at a somewhat higher altitude. This has not been military airspace for a long time. Even with Stout Field and other military installations, this is unusual.

The electronic or electromagnetic energy from the flyover was very unpleasant.

"Oh well, just a sign of the times". I don't think so. Faith in Father and Source is in place and active. Truth has been made available. The false contract has ended. And All Is Well.

Please see Martin's BlueStarBlog ⁸ today for a Beautiful review of Father's Teachings.

sparkle or glitter

Do you ever think about the difference between sparkle and glitter? What comes to mind is that crystal sparkles and plastic glitters. Have you noticed that "glitter" in the craft store is nearly 100% available in only plastic? Not just plastic bottles, but the glitter is plastic. Safer for children? I don't think so. Plastics are per-this and per-that, basically toxic to The People, encouraging plaque, (or the spit of parasites). Just extreme speculation . . . look into it for yourself.

What sparkles is Divine. The SunLight sparkles on the water.

What glitters is unrighteous - unholy. A mylar balloon or tinsel of plastic glitters in the light.

If you contemplate this difference, it has vast implication in identifying the unrighteous - unholy impostors and their deception.

The Light of The Father sparkles.

Lazy summer day

It's so sad to have font options and none you want to use. I sure would like a different font.

This has been a very quiet holiday weekend. From here you would never know a BJA race was going on a few miles away, yesterday.

The mulberry has dropped fruit and the plants are growing. You've been reminded about plant identification and organic growing. Seems like it is time to just enjoy the summer.

On a lazy summer day, May Peace and Joy come your way.

In Sparkles of SunShine may you go out and Play !

from here to there

I chose impact font today. Does it have impact ?
Kind of hard to read.

Oh well, enough of that.

The official marker for summer beginning has come and gone -- Memorial Day. The man who claims our presidency does a lot of anti-Republic things. The news was full of them last Friday.

But doesn't it occur to us making war and celebrating war is an unrighteous - unholy frame of reference? Seems like it is more the domain of death, decay, destruction. (You remember the three self-righteous factions who mistakenly judge darkness and The People.) Seems to me, with Universal Law here, sitting in tribunal, they would be reminded what Principle and Justice are.

Martin is coming near the end of his blog series on Tyranny ⁹. I would suggest reading it from the beginning. Very profound, moving material.

On a rainy, scummy day where the SunShine is just a breath away !

north of 40 north

The big buzz is "north of 40 north". Cliff ¹⁰ and George ¹¹, the guru's of bots, have data in that regard. Only a trickle of what they are saying has reached me, but I thought I should take a look at it.

Martin kindly took time from his blog writing to assist me in talking with Father. The results are:

If a middle eastern country is feeling pressured to launch, so as to fulfill a debt to destruction (that unrighteous - unholy third of the second group), Universal Law has decided they should experience first hand what they would be doing to The People of the intended recipients of such mistaken action.

The People of their own country would be sent fleeing "north of 40 north" when a "meltdown" of the very facility that created their ability to launch is initiated by Universal Law.

¹⁰ <http://www.halfpasthuman.com/>

¹¹ <http://www.urbansurvival.com/>

This is not to say any other country could initiate such an event and claim Universal Law, because they would then be reviewed and penalty action taken toward them.

This potential event has taken precedence over the action on the Philippines and China. Or perhaps China's "event" is multiple events. Did you see the dust storm photos at Holly's ¹² page? Martin said "It can't be real. Look at the buildings." What do you think?

We shall soon see what unfolds. In the meantime, if you think the event is in this land, please prepare. In ANY event, Please Prepare.

On a SunShiny day that WAS just a breath away !

an original thought

Have you ever noticed that Martin and I do our best to "cite our sources"? Colleges and Universities were requiring research and bibliographies when I attended. Perhaps they still do. Why then the trend to ignore acknowledging where you first read or heard something? I certainly respect writers on the internet who do give this acknowledgment.

When Martin and I began this journey together we looked at copyright "rules" and I was surprised that in just a few years they had altered them to require only restating information in your own words. It had then become acceptable to claim someone else's "ideas" as your own. It seems a small thing to acknowledge someone as inspiration for your progression of ideas. Is it perhaps because the capacity for original thought is being destroyed in The People?

Lots has been written on the "dumbing down of america". I personally believe in the creative capacity of The People and their ability to end the presence of the unrighteous - unholy on this planet. I believe we can "not open the door".

In the meantime, have the presence of mind to give credit for original ideas you receive and accept credit for the progression you add.

waiting wisdom

What do you do when you're sitting by the side of the road and Father tells you it is time for you to "move", but the promised resources are withheld?

The wisdom of sitting and waiting even though all around you are rapidly departing, is quite clear. But what if you are where departure is desirable, it is time, and you have no way to go?

A tropical storm moved through Guatemala this week. The photo of the sinkhole ¹³ is unrealistic. Are sinkholes so perfectly round? The photo of the automobile ¹⁴ is like nothing I've ever seen before from a tropical storm. These People are of a need to move. What are they to do? Just like New Orleans, they went to a sports arena. I haven't found that to be Father's answer.

¹³<http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/gallery/2010/jun/01/guatemala-natural-disasters?picture=363240741>

¹⁴<http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/gallery/2010/jun/01/guatemala-natural-disasters?picture=363240717>

The wisdom of zen like simplicity never addresses issues such as this. It just addresses our capacity to sit still and wait in the midst of chaos. So it seems another perspective is missing.

I hope you don't think I'm going to give you this answer, today. I always have in mind that People want answers to the problems. "Don't just tell me there is a problem, give me some solutions, too." Well, today is a great day for answers, don't you think?

Gloriosa, Source, Father I give thanks it is so.

On a day of pure rain where the Sun will soon Shine again.

guilt by association

Have I made it explicitly, pointedly clear that the unrighteous - unholy in NO way facilitate, assist, create, Divine Spiritual gifts in The People? All they can do is majik tricks which they have deceived us into believing are "miracles".

There is an old saying "guilt by association", which has an opposite side, "preference by association". That is to say, if someone were to get close to the Dali Lama, they would be perceived as "spiritual" and "good" by association. OR, the Dali Lama would be perceived as unrighteous - unholy by association with the unrighteous - unholy when they became identified as such.

Were the unrighteous - unholy to stage an "arrival" on this planet, and The People who came to the place of arrival included someone recently advanced to All Righteous and Holy Expression of their Self as Love, it wouldn't even have to be said, just inferred that the progression of this person was by the presence of the unrighteous - unholy, thereby increasing or even "cementing" the false perception of their "goodness". This would, in NO way be Truth. Self as Love is a Divine gift from Father and Source, facilitated by an appointed angel who is in NO way a fallen angel.

LISTEN for the Truth. Desire Truth. Ask to be shown Truth.

Association is not the measure of the Person, or being.

On a SunShiny day of Truth and Love, may all Righteousness come your way !

JUNE 5TH, 2010

little tremors

Pure rain is good. Scummy rain is unrighteous - unholy. May you and your land be nourished with Pure Rain this day.

Another interesting observation. Just as I was typing, another little tremor rumbled under this house. It has been the case that only tremors 3 and above are felt here, so they report. This is to say either they are above 3 and not being reported, or tremors below 3 are abundant and felt. What difference does that make? Just awareness that the earth is shaking and they're not saying.

On a SunShiny day they can't hide the blue sky away !

with a cool breeze

Last evening I thought to say, "With a cool breeze on a warm Sunny Day !" And it already is !

I said, recently, "Don't look for trouble. Look to Father !" This was advice to someone's dog who was preparing to bark-bark-bark, but I thought maybe I should look to my own advice.

How often do we "expect" unrighteous - unholy things to happen? How often do we contemplate the results? Preparation is an area in which people might expect unpleasant things to happen and focus on those results. This creates a repeating cycle of unrighteous - unholy attention, if you don't prepare and let it go.

Another advice to that same dog, "Look, Listen, Let it go". The act of observation, in no way includes attachment to the observed, or to the results.

How wise we expect our dogs to be. May we be so wise.

On a SunShiny day with a cool breeze, may Wisdom come your way !

Joyful preparation

I had a lot of fun recently at a website I found from a link. This website, PlanetGreen ¹⁵ provided hours of fun (dial-up takes hours). One page leads to another, to another, to another . . .

This is, to me, an example of preparation that is lighthearted and Joyful. I am always aware of what information could be used if I had no electricity. What could be used for cooking meals if there was no refrigeration? What if no cow milk was available for mixes, recipes, cooking?

I find Joy in using less electricity now, when all it seems to do is lower the electric bill. I find Joy in growing a milk, egg, and oil substitute. Did you know you can grow flax seed? Did you know ground flax seed is a good substitute, in recipes, for egg and oil?

¹⁵ <http://planetgreen.discovery.com/>

For me, life can be improved if I implement the things I learn for preparation, now. Not only do I know how to live better, I am changing the demand on the environment for my daily life. I believe I can live in comfort, at a simpler level. I also don't think one need be labeled a "survivalist" to make wise choices for their Self and the Planet. If a widespread move were made to "elegant simplicity" in which active and live choices were made each day by each person, to pollute and destroy less, we would quickly see a planet that is re-newed and which can continue to sustain The People, while we await the day we are returned to being sustained by The Father.

Important radio show !

Yesterday Martin and I listened to a Dr. Stan show from Radio Liberty ¹⁶ on the topic of GMO ¹⁷ (read TOXIC) soy. It provided new (to me) information on what soy allergy is about. Bill Sardi, an investigative reporter spoke about soy from a perspective of a convert (really good thing to there is a problem). I believe it was a problem way before he recognizes, but at least he is providing current information. (This radio show will move down the list ¹⁸ as new shows are added until it has to be ordered on tape.)

¹⁷ <http://radiolibertyarchives.gsradio.net:8080/052710d.mp3>

¹⁸ http://www.soundwaves2000.com/radio_liberty/

After the damage my thyroid received and the cascading health problems, I could be passionate about the danger of soy. However, my Desire is to find and remain in Truth of my Self. This requires NO hostility, anger, hate for those who seek to destroy us as they drain all resources from us.

Focus on Father is my main goal. Focus on Truth is foremost in my Desire. Knowing Source is my Desire. Knowing my Self is my Desire. This requires maintaining Love, Joy, Peace, Truth, a Light Heart.

May the SunShine bring nourishment and Joy this day, as Pure Rain washes the deception away !

clear confirmation

Well, J listened to another archived radio show. This one runs at 7 eastern and the host has appeared occasionally on Coast as a guest. He had a guest (which is unusual) and they were in agreement on the points they were making.

- ◆ The People are "them and they".
- ◆ The People were warned in the bible, by their faction, what would happen if they (The People) didn't follow instructions.
- ◆ The presence of Universal Law was deliberately, deceptively misconstrued by them as the "wrath and judgment of god".
- ◆ Jesus is "their" guy, and the opposition are the luci's.
- ◆ These two speakers identified their faction as "death, decay, and destruction" which will be brought to this land because the luci's are running things here.

- ◆ These two spokespersons identified four US cities as their targets and they explicitly said "death has come to" this country.
- ◆ While they accuse the luci's of being cannibals, they referred often to the "blood of jesus" which purchased The People to be martyrs who lay down their lives for death, decay, and destruction in their vengeance on darkness. Doesn't this eating and drinking of a man's body make them cannibals also?
- ◆ These two spokesmen claimed to not be cursing The Land and The People, which was ironic, since in the first few minutes I thought, "They're cursing this Land and her People".
- ◆ These two were very self-righteous in what they said was going to happen, which was the "fault" of The People because The People didn't learn. And all of this while saying the things The People want to hear, throwing in a little Truth, believing The People are too stupid to understand who they are and what they are doing.

The biggest danger in all of this is for The People to let false pride or shame prevent them from admitting they have been deceived. Those who are "christian" have the biggest investment in "being right" about things they were taught in deception.

This was the clearest statement I have heard declaring the two factions of unrighteous - unholy presence on this planet. There was a clear division of opposition. The controllers of this Land are darkness -- the medical, genetic faction. The controllers of the largest land mass in the world are death, decay, destruction, (d,d,d) who have declared themselves to be the judgment of The People.

Guilt by association is the prevailing factor here. It matters not that The People are deceived by both factions. It matters not that The People Desire The Father and Source to guide and direct their progression on this planet. The faction of d,d,d seek to destroy The People along with the Luci's.

Is the collider the trigger they would have us build to ignite our Sun into Red Giant phase, absorbing most of the solar system in the blast?

We have written, over these nine years, of these two factions and their plan, as Father revealed it to us. This show was the most direct and explicit confirmation of Father's Word I have heard.

Martin is setting up a new software for the blog and I might not post again until I use it. It is my sincere goal to change the focus of this blog at that time. On a SunShiny day in which the scum went away !

JUNE 10TH, 2010

a who's who

Just a bit of clarification:

the unrighteous - unholy are two warring factions which do not include The People, except by deception:

- the faction controlling the "government" of this land are the luci's

- the opposing faction call themselves the "remnant"

The People are the descendants of the original earth People who walked with The Father and still seek to Know Him and their Self in Truth.

Deception is no excuse. We must choose Truth and face our mistakes, so as to correct our actions and walk in Truth.

There is Honor in recognizing the mistakes we have made and giving them to The Father in exchange for Truth, Love, Peace in our Self. We can ask The Father to end any unrighteous - unholy effect our mistakes had on the lives of others and restore them to where they would be with The Father, without our damage in their lives.

We can ask for our Desire for our future generations to be returned to The Father Way and Source to be implemented NOW.

And KNOW it is So.

On a SunShiny Day of Peace and Love, in which the scum JS gone !

regarding Martin

Martin is progressing well with changing his blog over to the new software. Soon mine shall follow. It is taking longer than I anticipated. So I continue in the old "vein".

Martin reminded me, when he read my last post, that the suggestion I made is also for Self. For those who haven't read past blogs: the last post was a re-statement of an important process for The People in their re-turn to Truth of Self.

Any past mistake can be placed on the Altar of Divine Love and Power in Right and Proper exchange for re-turn to where you would be in your walk with The Father and Source if the mistake had not occurred. All damage would no longer have an effect on you.

One day as I was re-visiting the critical point where the single most mistaken event occurred in my life, I realized I could talk to my Self, then, and tell my Self what to do differently, and what my mistakes were and how to change them. In very clear Vision I saw this take place, and the me, having the experience of the past Vision almost succeeded in bringing the changes forward to NOW.

Yes, it may require more than one time to succeed, but it may not. It is worth doing until you succeed, providing you are Divinely Directed in Truth what mistakes are to be changed.

On a SunShiny Day with a cool breeze of Love and Joy !

JUNE 13TH, 2010

times come and go

It seems re-visiting topics follows the cycles of life. From what progress I have made with the "Rhythms", as Father has been revealing them, it appears that there are certain "times" that carry the "energy" for something to be done. If that time of opportunity is missed it comes around again in what we would call a year.

So once again it is time to "give to The Father what is The Father's to do."

False responsibility is taught, in deception, as right action. If you can't keep your self safe, how can you keep another safe? If you believe The Father wasn't there for you, who was taking the responsibility of The Father from him? As child or as parent, safety must remain the "responsibility" of The Father and Source. If the child believes the parent is responsible for their safety and looks to them, or if the parent believes their-self to be responsible, it interferes with The Father's action. Out of this comes mixed or reduced safety for all.

This is one of those "little" areas of deception that is extremely difficult to correct. To change one's Faith from the seen to the unseen, when prayers appear to have gone unanswered is radically difficult. To understand that it was the deception placed in our mind or the mind of a caregiver (parent) which produced unrighteous - unholy results is difficult when we have no proof of the Loving action of The Father / Source. The Father holds only Love and goodness for us. Anything less has become a biblical deception of the unrighteous - unholy remnant. unrighteous - unholy events are never the Will of The Father or Source.

The proof of this can come in an instant when one gives to The Father / Source what is theirs to be done and one understands and does what is to be done by People in Righteous and Holy action.

changes -- even the Solstice !

Martin's new blog software is up and running. Before too long my blog will have a new look, too. It's very impressive how well Martin picks up using new software and the changes that need to be made!

This Friday and Saturday, June 18th and 19th, will be Summer Solstice in this city. The two longest days this year are of equal length -- 15 hours. And here, they are not the 20th or 21st. Celebrate ! Have Fun !

Sinkhole fun continues in China. Small disaster after small disaster -- perhaps because it has such large land mass it takes a lot of smaller disasters. Sinkholes in the country side were shown in the past few days, today a sinkhole in the highway was topic of news from China, while major flooding continues.

Well, the thunder and lightening are persisting, so I'll sign off. Danyon Brinkley made a believer of me. Get off the phone, out of the shower, and off the computer in a storm.

On a SunShiny day with bubbles of Joy in which the Sun is here to stay !

events come and events go

The little event has passed away here. It did leave a significant branch of a large tree on top our transportation. Fortunately, Martin has experience and wisdom regarding power lines and safety.

I was thinking about the weather "attacks" on significant southern states, over the past few years (and continuing). These states have the strength to stand up to the luci's and take a position for The People. (Or is it for their own agenda?) The "inexplicable inland tsunami" in Arkansas is an example.

Safety JS in The Father and Source. Today was an example to me. Letting Father and Source do what is Theirs to do is the responsibility of The People. As I have been able to recognize safety is not the responsibility of The People and that Harmony with Divine Will and The Divine Plan is the responsibility of The People, I have been seeing improvement in my safety.

There is, however a safety measure that came to be when the unrighteous - unholy came through the door. That safety measure is one called "penalty". Actions by The People, that are unrighteous - unholy, receive corrective "reaction" called penalty. Penalty is designed to teach us what correct, or what Right and Proper action is. Because we can recognize penalty events as "not Divine", we are motivated to discover and change our thoughts and actions, to align with what is Divine (which is increasingly difficult for the young people who are being poked with needles for "gazillions" of vaccinations, thereby increasing their receptivity to illegal needles).

As mentioned in this Blog, the Will of Father and Source for The People is Loving, Safe, Peaceful, Respectful.

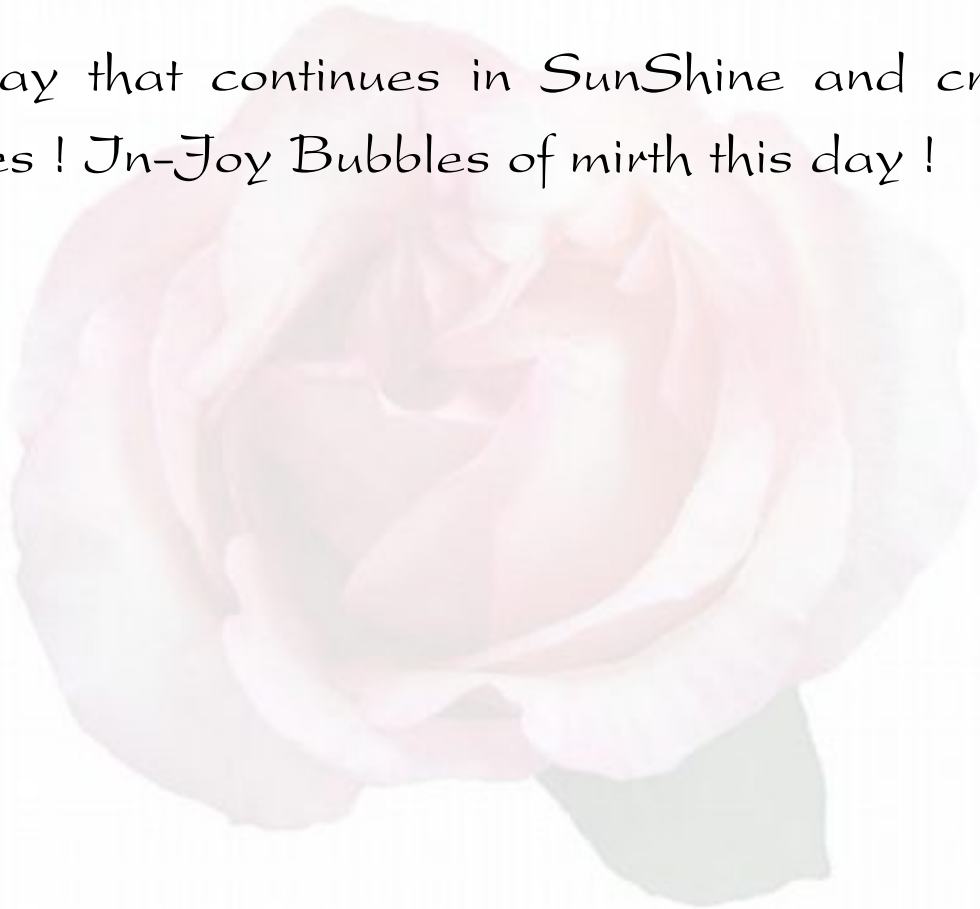

unrighteous - unholy events occur, NOT because they are Divine Will, they happen because they are of unrighteous - unholy intent.

It is also the responsibility of The People to act with Wisdom in their own behalf. It is the responsibility of The People to end action of unrighteous - unholy nature and choose Right and Proper action. The "Jesus in the desert story" is said to exemplify not letting the unrighteous - unholy "tempt" us into "unsafe" action against our Self. This is an important point. Choose Divinely.

Martin reminds me The Father has spoken of "retribution". We have written on Father's Word regarding retribution under "Food for Contemplation". (Essay 'First Righteous Endeavor'--See BlueStarWay) In this essay an understanding of retribution is redefined by Father's teaching.

On a day that continues in SunShine and crystal blue skies ! In-Joy Bubbles of mirth this day !

new deception

A long time ago, my daughter accused me of being "new age". When I found out what that was, I realized what an insult it was. I have never labeled my Spiritual Journey, which has been very eclectic. That is, until I began a focused journey with Father Which is in Heaven and Source.

It is true, while looking for Truth I looked many places, to many writers who are labeled new age. One workshop and retreat teacher provided plenty of deception to keep me busy looking for Truth. Many women I met there said, "Linda, something's wrong here. What is it?" I finally realized Truth had been slightly turned to create the perfect defense system for "abusers". It was only the "abused" that had a problem with the system. Still, it can be very difficult and lengthy for someone who has totally embraced the idea "it's all my fault", to see through deception.

Finally recognizing "the problem" brought the beginning of the real journey with Father. J was Blessed on my last trip to retreat, where for the first time J could identify the problem, and J was brought together with Martin. (He wrote the story in Narrow Path ¹⁹.) He has the most sincere Desire for Father and Truth of anyone J have met. (Not including the two men Father has said are Righteous and Holy men. They live what Martin and J aspire to.)

This is all to say, there is a lot of deception out there that looks like Truth. We the People are not "at fault". We are Blessed that Truth is available and we can correct the mistakes that resulted from being deceived. Father and Source await our Desire and action for them to be more active in our life.

On a SunShiny day with pearls of laughter and strength !

A New Day !

Well, here it is ! My new blog software / look ! While Martin was comparing this blog software with the last blog software, I was sad for me, that the old software once looked bright and similar to the new LOOK of this blog. Yet, now the old software was dull and dreary and grey. It looked like the sky after heavy spraying when the storm won't come. My new blog looked Sunny, Bright, Cheerful, Light.

After Martin was done with the blog yesterday, he pulled up my first blog look to compare. I was surprised to see it. I had forgotten how it even looked. It was nice to see it had a simple elegance and clarity. Somewhere in-between, things had gotten murky. I'm very pleased with the simplicity of the new blog and Very pleased with the font. I In-Joy using Papyrus because it is similar to hand-writing, yet has the ease of printing.

Overall, I would say, I am VERY pleased to have a Bright, Light-Hearted new look for my Blog ! Just in time for the Summer Solstice, which begins tomorrow. Officially Friday and Saturday are longest in length, Saturday and Sunday digress one minute, and there is a return to longest days on Monday and Tuesday. Theoretically, the whole five days would be the "longest days" this year, as the earth turns in its orbit for the return trip. JUNE 18, 2010

First Pause Day !

Good Morning on the first longest day this year !

Martin and J were talking about how the "astronomers" know the exact time of each day so far ahead. How can J look at a SunRise / SunSet chart and know it will be accurate tomorrow, in December or next year? Since there is a vast difference between Father's explanation of the earth's orbit "around" the Sun and what is taught in schools, how can J trust the accuracy of the information provided? How do the chart makers know there will be two days of equal length, two that will digress one minute, and another two of equal length? Why are there six (not five as J said yesterday) days involved in this instead of eight?

J suggested that perhaps it is comparable to knowing Right and Proper matters regarding exchanging "goods" or creative expression. (Which Martin recently wrote about in his BlueStarBlog) Some know what is Right and Proper and in that can deceive others. There are two "standards" at play, one is based in Truth, the other in deception. It is interesting that the deceivers relate by Truth, while The People relate by deception, when the People have such a great longing for Truth.

The People may in fact, also be deceived in the popular information regarding astronomy, by those who know the Truth.

On the other hand, Father told me that His teaching regarding the Solar System depended on my point of view. That is, where I am viewing the "event" from, or perspective. Some things can only be explained from a "view" off planet. From right here where I sit, I will never understand. This need for creative perspective is something that could be developed in The People, rather than suppressed. As the journey with Father continues, I'm sure, so does the potential progression of perspective.

Here's to a Grand and Glorious Summer Solstice, with a New View !

JUNE 19, 2010

Solstice day two -- Faith

When there are no blue skies -- have Faith ! When it has been raining scum -- have Faith ! In Faith the blue skies become crystal blue and the rain is crystal clear. And I have seen it become so through Faith.

Faith is put to the severest test when it is required that a Person end false responsibility and let The Father resume His responsibility. Martin and I talked of this since we both have People we care for who are choosing to live in places potentially or immediately unsafe. It is the hardest requirement ever to Trust The Father for their safety when we believe He has not done such a good job for us.

It is a difficult learning that the extent and amount
The People believe they, or another Person are responsible for their safety, is the extent to which
The Father is impeded in His action for their safety.
In respecting our "free-will", the choice is ours where responsibility lay. Mixed belief gets mixed results. Incorporating the beliefs of others places us under the "control" of something outside us. Faith in The Father, totally and completely, places us in safety that comes from within.

On this Solstice may we transition to Faith in The Father !

On a SunShiny day where the Sun has begun to shine from within !

What is The Father's Will ?

What do you think The Father's Will is for you?
What do you think The Father's Will is for others?
Do you subscribe to the false belief it is His Will for People to suffer? For People to die in hunger and poverty? For People to linger in sickness and disease? For "warring" over the treasures of the earth to kill and maim The People?

Fourth Pause Day

It's been an interesting day. Even though "they" desire the appearance of di-gression, The Father is active this day.

Happy 4th day of Solstice !

On a SunShiny day of balance, we progress in The Father Way !

Happy Solstice Day Five !

So, let me clarify: The Father's Will for the People is ONLY for those things that are Divine--Positive--Good--Loving--Respectful--Life Giving, and so on. Anything else is something else.

The Father's Will for the People is a Greater Progression in a Greater Way.

Anything else is something other than The Father Way.

Anything else is NON.

On a Crystal TurquoiseBlue Day of SunShine and Pure Gentle Rain, all Balance is come again !
