Divine Law carries restorative Power and compense.

What is Created by Divine Authority is Protected by Divine Authority.

We leave it to Divine Law to balance any transgressions.

restorative: give back, put back to former state, return

compense: remuneration, counterbalance

Translation Notice: In Divine Service

Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception,
Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.

Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.

It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on "where we were" at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of 'if... then...'.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

This material is freely shared by us.

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In the flow of creation

12/26/09

In the flow of creation there comes a time of physical manifestation. The time has presented itself for the first post on this blog.

Which Way is Father Way?

12/30/09

And so it comes the time to define the direction of Father Way and therefore the information that will be provided in this blog. We can't embrace Father Way as long as we believe in the arbitrary divisions that have been forced upon us to pit us against each other. For while we fight against each other, the real problem goes unnoticed and no real solution can ever be implemented.

The Way of the Father is one that restores the unity of individual spiritual expression. The Way of the Father is one that recognizes the time has come to take responsibility for your own freedom without demanding the sacrifice of men, women, and children. The Way of the Father is one that restores Universal Truth and Law to your life. The Way of the Father is one that recognizes it is an individual journey that each one has to willingly choose.

The Way of the Father is one that recognizes the need to stop demanding religious institutions, corporations, and governments clean up their acts. It requires that one stops participating in the game of the unholy-unrighteous.

Who are the unholy-unrighteous you ask?

The unholy-unrighteous are the ones that brought to earth

- civilization and war
- scarcity and famine
- lust and greed
- consumption, destruction, and enslavement of the land and its people
- hate toward the Father Which is in Heaven
- deceit, ridicule, and abuse

The unholy-unrighteous are the ones that

- tilted the earth and caused it to wobble
- brought the darkness of the night

- punctured the atmosphere to cause the flood and altered its climate to bring "ice ages"
- genetically manipulated people of this earth to hamper their capacity to live in Harmony with Creation and make it easier to feed upon us
- infested us with entities, viruses, parasites, and bacteria of their very creation that bring misery and cause deviate behavior and then shamed us into believing it was our own "sinfulness", "flesh", and "animalistic / violent / brute nature" that causes this behavior.
- called their actions against humanity the "wrath / punishment of God" befallen upon us for our "sinful nature"
- act behind the "scenes" and are responsible for causing and instigating all destructive, deviant, insane behavior upon earth

What is the Way of the Father? It is the Way that restores our Birthright of Abundance, Peace, and Joy. It is the one that empowers each one of us to speak with Authority and demand that the unrighteous-unholy no longer walk upon Earth - that there be no door through which they can affect us.

Yet you must understand that in the Father Way, empty words are not enough to stand in Authority. You can't say "well let them be non" while holding on to the need to live in the deception they have created.

This is then the purpose of this blog, to share from my point of view what it means to "walk the talk" of Father Way and follow the Visionary who against all odds, has found Father Way and has been sharing her Wisdom with me.

No place for deception

01/06/10

One thing that Father has made clear to me again and again is that He cannot be deceived. While the unrighteous / unholy think that they are so smart and slick that no one notices what they are doing, it is the case that Father always sees through deceptive practices. You cannot fool the Father.

When someone begins his Journey with the Father, the need arises to clearly understand this. You cannot fool the Father. You can't say "Father your Way be done" with one hand and with the other hold on to the ways of the unrighteous / unholy - even if it is occasionally and for just a moment or in little ways that "don't matter".

As you Journey with Father, He will give you Grace. He understands that due to the current circumstances upon Earth, immediate shifts in perception or spiritual progression are difficult to achieve. He recognizes and has even suggested several times to me that it would be easier if I would just allow myself to transition step by step rather than holding on to the expectation of awakening overnight.

It is during this time of Grace that the unrighteous / unholy will whisper in your ears that the Father does not notice tricky behavior. "Hey," they will say, "you followed our ways and nothing happened. See? You can fool the Father and the People. You are getting away with it."

The unrighteous / unholy are indeed mistaken. Father has called it every single time I have engaged in tricky behavior, even when I was not consciously aware I was doing it.

It is during this time of Grace you must stand steady in your choice for Father. It is during this time of Grace you must stand steady in your choice for Truth. Ask to be shown Universal Truth of your actions and motives. When you are shown you have engaged in improper behavior, simply make the choice to do it differently and do so. Make your choice for Father Way a reality one step at a time.

'if... then' part 1

01/08/10

If the unrighteous-unholy are the originators of wars, then it follows that war is not the Way of the Father.

How can it be then that there is this concept of battles between "light" and "darkness"? Where does this concept of warring "gods", so well exemplified in the Bible, come from?

The answer is simple as explained by Father. These battles are between different factions of the unrighteous-unholy. They have been at each other for thousands of years and have brought their battles to this earth. One side is the originator of unrighteous / unholy activity (geneticist and his 200 or so followers) - referred to by Father as darkness. The other side is made up of those who chased after them seeking to destroy them. Not recognizing that what you focus upon is what you become, this group became what it sought to destroy. This group is referred to by Father as death, decay, and destruction. When Father Speaks of the unrighteous-unholy, He refers to both groups, so do Linda and I.

Father has explained to us that darkness came to Earth and separated themselves into three groups of four leaders which are engaged in a "friendly battle" to rule over the world. To play a board game one must choose a game piece, so did darkness. Their "game pieces" are the different ethnic groups on earth, who coincidentally happen to have different colored skin. The "master plan" of darkness is to create a false spiritual enlightenment that will fool people into thinking they are living a spiritual life without realizing they have been deceived and enslaved. Revelation is their plan.

Father has explained to us that death, decay, and destruction followed darkness. They are engaged in killing those of darkness and everyone who has become contaminated by darkness. But first, they give them the option to "repent" from their "sins". Sound religious? A coincidence? The "master plan" of death, decay, and destruction has been to blow up Earth just as they have done with other planets. This is "judgment day" through which they hope to end the existence of all contaminated people - except themselves of course.

The Bible speaks in revelation of the final battle between "good" and "evil" or "light" and "darkness". If Father does not engage in battle, then it follows this prophecy cannot be a Divine Plan of Divine Origin. It is an outline of the unrighteous-unholy plan. A false prophet that will destroy a false prophet and thus install himself as the "christ / savior." Give the people 1,000 years of "peaceful enslavement" and then let it all begin again. This is not Divine.

Native Americans were told in prophecy to prepare for the coming of the white men. They welcomed them and opened the door to destruction and enslavement. Black Africans were told in prophecy to prepare for the coming of the white men. They welcomed them and opened the door to destruction and enslavement. The Aztecs were told about the return of Quetzalcoatl or the bearded man. They welcomed him and opened the door to destruction and enslavement. Now we are being told about the return of Jesus... have you noticed Jesus is white?

Have you seen the sci-fi series Babylon 5 ? Vorlons (sp?) and the shadows - the fight of light against darkness? Well, in the end, Sheridan discovers both sides are the same - none represents Creator.

So what is one to do amidst all of this? Do we need to organize ourselves and fight against the unrighteous-unholy? NO. Do we need to go out and fight against each other to see "whose god is the god"? NO. Do we need to go out and save the world or the people? NO. Do we need to go out and convert as many as we can to Father Way? NO. Do we need to go out and save the planet? NO.

In the essay on Father's Homily, Father Speaks about allowing ourselves to do it differently. To welcome a different way. If there is no one to fight, no one to save... if there are no enemies and no heathens or infidels to convert... then what is there left to do? Father Way. Father Way is about returning to the Truth of Self as Divine Expression free of deception.

Father has told us to "stop playing the game of the unrighteous-unholy." He has been patiently teaching us to allow each one to make his / her own choices and to be at Peace with it. He has told us to focus on Universal Truth and to learn to discern Truth from deception so we can live in Truth.

When the unrighteous-unholy come our way, Father has suggested we say "I choose not to play. Get thee away. Get thee away ends your play." Father has taught us to recognize there is no door and to allow things to be as if the door had never been opened. Father has asked us to imagine a world free of the unrighteous-unholy in which each individual expresses Self as Love in the Abundance of the Father and that we ask it be so. All it takes for this nightmare to end is one person to succeed in this. Just one person. Too simple? That is the Father Way.

Is Jesus white?

01/10/10

This question is not about the ethnic origin of one known by the name of Jesus. It is rather a question designed to bring to your awareness the need for Spiritual Discernment.

In my previous post I made a list of well known historical events in which prophecy was used to prepare the people to welcome some potentially beneficial event which in every case turned out deadly destructive.

In our current time and space we have two main "prophecies". One is the return of a messiah or savior and the other one is the arrival of a "new kid on the block" so to speak, or "aliens".

If history serves us well, we would recognize the pattern. We have been prepared to welcome something that is being presented as potentially beneficial... yet is it so? History would say no.

History shows that prophecy has been used by the unrighteous-unholy to present their destructive actions as being Divinely Ordained and thus something that cannot or should not be prevented or avoided, something that cannot be changed and perhaps even something that should be happily expected and actively facilitated. They foretell their plans in the form of prophecy to impart the idea that we have no choice in the matter but to just ride the tide and make the best out of it and to solicit the support of the People in the fulfillment of the prophecy. With the support of the People then they can claim nothing was done against their will - never mind the deception of course.

Should any of these prophesied events come to pass... how will you know if you are being deceived or not? How will you know if he who presents himself as Jesus is really him?

- Will it be by the looks? We believe we have some idea of what he looked like, but look at the Aztecs. According to history, the Aztecs determined Quetzalcoatl had returned based on the looks of the Spaniards - a white man with beard coming from the right direction... yet they were fooled. Obviously looks alone is not sufficient.

- Will it be his smile, charm, or "sweet" words that hide the deception and tell you everything you want to hear? Sounds like what politicians do. Smile, be charming and tell the People what they want to hear... and sure enough, they get a great following that is willing to ignore all the "ugly" stuff.
- Will it be by the tricks he performs? With the proper knowledge all sorts of "miracles" can be performed... yet are they really miracles? Raising the dead, walking on water, healing the sick it all can be done with the proper spiritual knowledge. The question as we have explained in our books is not whether someone is spiritual or not, whether someone can do tricks or not, but rather how is this knowledge used. What is the ulterior motive? Does it support Universal Truth and the Father Way or is it designed to support the unrighteous-unholy agenda to enslave us and pit us against the Father?

What about the "aliens"? How would you know if they are beneficial or not? I sure used to think it would be so cool to meet aliens and be taken to a spaceship... that is until Father began unveiling the deception and I began hearing about what aliens do with abductees.

It is through the Father that we can receive the Knowledge and capacity needed to discern Truth from deception. There is no question that both Linda and I would have been fooled was it not for Father who answered our Love for Him and for Truth. Father is available to all who Desire to be restored to their Birthright and Inheritance as His children and who are willing to face and let go of the "stuff" that surfaces as He brings Truth. Ask for the Gift of Spiritual Discernment to be made active and present in you. If it is determined that your request is sincere and will be used in a Respectful manner, it will be given to you.

And the Father is...

After reading a few postings in which I talk of the Father, you may be wondering who exactly the Father I speak of is. In any case, it feels like it is time to provide some clarification in this matter.

When we first started our journey and even before that, Linda and I would pray to God. Before long, we received a refinement through which whom we called "God" asked us to refer to Him as the Father Which is In Heaven. It took us a while to recognize the difference and reason for such refinement... but slowly it became apparent.

If you have read the Bible or even have heard of it, you may be aware that there are many stories of warring "gods" each with followers who would tell each other how their "god" was better and would bring destruction upon the other. If you are aware of the many world religions, you probably have seen this outlook of warring gods expressed in contemporary history. People fighting and killing each other for the "glory of their god". By now, if you have been reading my previous postings, this pattern of behavior should begin to sound recognizable and identifiable.

It is then the case the word "god" is too generic. When you hear someone use the word "god", how do you really know which "god" that person speaks of? Naturally, at least it was to me, one tends to assume this person refers to the same "god" one believes in or the "god" of the Bible. But which one?

When one prays to "god" and "god" answers, how do you know which one answered?

As Father brought this understanding to us, we recognized the need and value for a way to differentiate who we speak of and Pray to so as to ensure there is no confusion. The Father Which is In Heaven Who has been Guiding us and sharing Truth with us is the same Father to Whom Jesus taught us to Pray in the Lord's Prayer. Father has explained to us there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and that would be Him. When you ask in Truth, no one can falsely identify himself as the Father -

Universal Law requires entities to identify themselves Truthfully. Father has also explained to us that He can also be called "Living God" by his children who feel safety in using the word "God". By using the term "Living God" one also ensures no other "gods" can answer to that prayer or request.

While there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven, He does manifest and is experienced differently by different cultures. Father has explained to us that each culture, and even each individual, has its own way of viewing and understanding Him and that it is for each culture and individual to Respect each other's way of relating to Him. Yet within these variations of expression, there are commonalities: Respect for Life, Joy, Love, Peace, Harmony with Creation and Mother Earth, Abundance and Freedom. Any culture or individual who claims to Honor God thinking of God as the Father would naturally seek to express in this Harmonious Way of Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will.

This is what Father had to say several years ago to His children who seek to Honor His Ways as Christians:

*The time is at hand for all good Christians to stop fighting each other, denying and condemning their brother as if they serve different gods.(1)
Ask who you serve.
It is either black or white,
no halfway.
If you serve other than the one True, Living God,
you serve darkness.
To walk in Divine Authority,
you must cast out all darkness.
Condemn not another until, unless you are as Pure as "driven snow"(2) and I might add, used to be.(3)
Press forward with urgency toward Freedom in all your Endeavor.*

- (1) Reference to warring factions in the Bible who wanted to establish the power of their god.
 - (2) Press forward, vapor as crystal (ice)
 - (3) As we know snow is no longer pure and safe to eat or drink when melted, unless filtered.

The fulfillment of prophecy

01/11/10

Prophecy is a touchy topic. Many have prophesied and those events have not come to pass. For most, this is a sign of false prophets. The claim is that the only way to know "real" prophets from fake ones is if every single prophesy they speak of comes to pass. This is how the claim is then made that prophecies of the Bible are of "god" - because they all have, are, or will come to pass. Slight contemplation of such a belief system would reveal that if all prophecy comes to pass, there is no choice by the People in this matter. Yet even in the Bible there are stories that show the People can make a choice and that their choices affect their future and the fulfillment of prophecy. The story of Nineveh is such a story. A prophet was sent, people listened and changed their way, the prophecy was not fulfilled.

Father has confirmed to us that the People do have a choice and that their choices do change the outcome of events. Linda has written more about this in her blog - RoseNoel Blog ¹.

While Father has never told us to prophesy the future, He has explained to us certain events that will occur as a result of the coming shift of the Sun into a new orbit and how to prepare for it. He has also warned us of events the unrighteous-unholy had planned so we could take proper action to not play. When we listen to Him and prepare accordingly there is Grace. Much Earth activity has been delayed so as to give those who have listened to Him time to prepare. Many events planned by the unrighteous-unholy have not come to pass because of choices made by the People.

In Father Way, events are not written in stone because He allows for the People to make choices that can change the outcome of an event. This is why so many "prophecies" do not come to pass. The People can change the course of action and direction at any given time.

This is to say that if we prepare and individually make the choice to embrace our Divine Self once again free of deception, the Sun's progression into new orbit will be facilitated. This will reduce the impact it will have on Earth and her inhabitants. As explained by Father, the Sun's shift into new orbit should have already occurred, but because of the dedicated and sincere Desire of many who seek the Father Way, this event has been delayed. We have been given Grace.

In Father Way all would survive this coming progression, but He Respects the choice each one of us makes - thus, many will not survive the shift because of their very own choices. Father does not judge nor condemn. People live or die by their very own choices.

'if... then' part 2

01/12/10

If Father engages in no wars or battles, then it follows as He has explained to us that in His Eyes, there are no enemies. He has no enemies. To Walk in Father Way one must learn to recognize there are no enemies.

When you have no enemies, there is no need to wage battles against anyone. No need to defeat, no need to compete against, no need to prove your superiority over anyone. When someone comes to engage you in battle, you do not play. You stay focused on Father and recognize there are no enemies.

This is not as difficult as it seems, neither as ridiculous as you are being told it is. I can tell you that once you begin to live by this understanding your life becomes significantly more Peaceful. It does not mean that the unrighteous-unholy will immediately stop their actions toward you, but since you no longer see them as enemies and you no longer need to engage them in battle, you can simply let it go. The stress of fighting disappears, you no longer waste energy and they no longer can feed on you.

The unrighteous-unholy feed on your energy and use your energy against you. It is just like with wrestling or any martial arts - you use the motion of the opponent against him. Whoever takes the first move loses.

When the unrighteous-unholy come after you they are teasing you or bullying you into taking the first move. Don't. Just let it go and there is no battle. As the saying goes, "it takes two to tango". If you don't tango, so can't they. The best way to stop it is to never start it. The best way to end what has already started is to stop playing: "I made a mistake, I recognize there are no enemies". Stop what you are doing, focus on Father and ask to be shown how to do it differently.

A common misperception I had to struggle with regarding this knowledge of no enemies, is the false idea that if one does not fight then one must allow them to walk all over you. Not so. That would be playing the "weak and helpless" or "victim" role.

This is the other side of the coin. A coin does have two sides but it is still the same coin. What you do is "toss the coin away". You are neither the hero who fights against injustices nor the victim who endures them. You just don't play.

A life without enemies – what a Blessing that is.

No enemies - a refinement

01/13/10

I have spoken about the knowledge that in Father's Eyes there are no enemies and that to walk in His Way one must learn to live by this knowledge.

It felt necessary to explain that living by this knowledge may not be easy initially. The greater the pain, hurt, loneliness, sorrow, and yes, brain malnourishment the more difficult it is to be able to not play.

John Gray, PhD. and Dr. Amen both clearly document in their books how brain malnourishment affects perception and makes one more dependent upon others as well as more easily "hurt" by what others have to say. This makes it more difficult to stand in Truth and to not play. To support your Walk with Father then, you need to give special consideration to how to nourish your brain and help it repair itself.

With regards to the pain, hurt, loneliness, and sorrow, whenever these emotions surface, you lay them on the Altar in Exchange for Truth or Peace or Knowledge of your Self as Love. In your head, there is a place which Father calls an "Altar" where you can take things by your intent and have them transmuted in Exchange for what you Desire. Because in your head there is also a false altar or alter, it is important to clearly identify to which Altar it is you take things. Taking something to the alter would not solve the problem.

Thus when you experience some kind of hurt, you would say something like "I lay this ... on the Altar of Divine Love and Divine Power in Right and Proper Exchange for Knowledge of Self as Love / or for Peace / Truth / etc." This is done as many times as necessary for as long as necessary. Linda and I can both attest that this works and is even more successful with proper nourishment of your head.

Tossing the coin

When I spoke of "tossing the coin" in my last posting you may have thought this to be an undesirable act. "What do you mean toss my coin?" "Coins are money!" "Money is valuable, you just don't go about tossing away your money!"

Well, that is exactly how we think of the various deceptions from the unrighteous-unholy we have embraced in our way of life. We think that they are valuable and needed, that they should not be tossed away because they keep us safe or give us worth or define who we are and thus separate us from those "less evolved" creatures.

But what if the coins you are holding are fake? What if they have no real value? Wouldn't it make sense to toss them away in exchange for something of real value? So it is with the deceptions. What if their perceived value is fake? What if deception has no value? Wouldn't it make sense to toss it away to embrace Truth?

Father sure Knows it does. In my journey with Him, He has asked me repeatedly to toss away "my" fake coins, to let go of the deceptions that hindered my journey so that I could live in the Truth He shared with me. Some coins were easy to let go off, but others sure have been difficult - I was too attached / charmed by their reflective nature which made me believe they had more worth and power and thus were more desirable than the sublime Light of the Divine. Yet in the end, I'm most great-full for Trusting Father and having tossed those fake coins away. The Joy, Love, Peace, and Laughter that Truth has surfaced in my life has been well worth it.

Father's Plan

One of the reasons it has taken Linda and I several years to reach a point in which we could consider doing Father's Plan His Way has been our difficulty in receiving His Guidance and Direction without attaching to it our perception of how it is to be accomplished. Father has been teaching us for these past 8 years how to be free of these preconceptions that in His Eyes would hinder His Plan. He has been taking us from a point in which we would say "ok, this is how I will implement Your Plan" to a place in which we could say "Your Will be done without any need on my part to limit it or improve it or pre-establish how it is to be done."

Worldly conditioning is such that this has proven to be a most difficult task. How do we do everything the Father would have for us in His Plan without becoming a servant devoid of free will? The answer is that the choice of how we would implement His Plan and what part of His Plan we would do was made before we came to this Earth. Now it is for us to Honor this agreement made with the Father. The difficulty arises in how the world, through severe indoctrination, distorts our perception to make us believe that what the world teaches and offers in the ways of education, religion, and spiritual movements is sufficient to Honor our agreement with Father.

We did not come to this Earth to promote the teachings of the world or of the unrighteous-unholy, but rather to bring the Wisdom of the Father once again to the Earth that we may Live Harmoniously with Him. It has been very painful for us each time the Father would show us that what we had done or wanted to do with our utmost sincere Desire to implement His Plan was indeed not of His Direction. Yet each time we layed the pain and sorrow on the Altar and choose Truth and Freedom in Exchange. Step by step we are moving out of the worldly construct and into Father Way.

Perhaps if you can allow yourself to consider that it is possible for Father Way and Desire to manifest in a Greater Capacity than what is imaginable by us based on our life experiences and the world construct imposed upon us, you may come to recognize how He would have His Plan implemented.

When the laughter returns

01/16/10

Today, while I was focusing on the smile as Father Instructed us, I realized that, as the energy of the smile - the energy of Peace, Joy, Love - begins to expand in the head, it brings laughter with it. This was the first time since I have started the smile that my brain was able to laugh / smile once again.

As I allowed the smile energy to move down my body with the awareness of feeling the laughter of my body, images of a very disturbing movie I had seen many years ago surfaced. As I contemplated in laughter with my focus on the smile it became apparent that traumatic, disturbing, or troubling events in our life take the laughter away from whichever part of the body they are stored in.

When we go through such an event, whether it is from watching a movie, reading a book, or from a "real" experience and we do not know how to handle the negative emotional load of the event in such a way as to dispose of it, this energy becomes lodged in our being. When that happens, the laughter ends and disturbance begins. Where there is no laughter, the unrighteous-unholy can take a foothold and disease can set in.

The smile as Father instructed is so Powerful because it restores the laughter of Life in us. When every single part of your being is smiling once again, you become Free. Free of that which troubles or disturbs you, you can Know yourSelf.

As you smile, remember to remain focused on the energy of the smile. When disturbance surfaces, remain focused on the energy of the smile, let go of the need to "address" the issue. Smile and in thanksgiving recognize the disturbance is being washed away. Feel the laughter return.

Thank You Father for the Laughter of Life.

Father Way does not equal stagnation

01/17/10

It is a common perception when one grows up in a religious environment, as I did, to acquire the perception that "God" is never changing, always the same. This leads to a great deal of stiffness and inflexibility. Without any room for growth, there is no room for the possibility that Father's Teachings of millennia past could be expanded and perhaps even superseded by Greater Knowledge He would make available.

Father has taught us that His Teachings and the way these teachings are Conveyed to various cultures, are culture specific as well as time specific. What was appropriate to know and understand 2000 years ago is no longer sufficient for this time and age. Many changes have occurred since then. The society we live in today is far removed from that of the past. The "logical" conclusion would be to think we are more "evolved" than the people of the past, yet in reality, upon careful consideration, you may recognize that we have been on a devolutionary path since the arrival of the unrighteous-unholy. We are 2000 years further away from Right Living, Right Thinking, and Right Manifestation of Father's Will and Intent.

At this point in this time and space, there is a need to grow in our Spiritual Knowledge and Expression while at the same time having to re-awaken to the Knowledge that we as the People once had. This can be perceived as very threatening to someone who feels safe in the stiffness and inflexibility of a "never changing God" whose instructions have been written down thousands of years ago to be lived by unto eternity.

To this Father would Say "you need not fear". He provides a strong foundation upon which to take each and every step. Father has explained to us that He does not expect anyone to step into the unknown in "blind faith". Father provides the Knowledge and Guidance needed to make sure we succeed in our walk with Him. He does not ask us to blindly / "faithfully" step into an abyss like Indiana Jones did in his search for the holy grail.

To step into the unknown in blind faith is the way of the unrighteous-unholy. This is what allows them to take us downhill even though we can see the peril of their ways.

They tell us to believe in their false promises of paradise restored. "Have faith and embrace what we have for you, it is the progress needed to solve all the problems of the world" - chemical fertilizers and pesticides, industrialization, plastics, technology, nuclear power, genetic manipulation and enhancement, chip implants...

The fear / hesitation that surfaces upon consideration of what such future might hold is not an indication of "lack of faith or spirituality" or of a "backward mentality" as they would tell us, but rather a clear recognition that the direction in which we are being taken is not of the Father. Many can sense that civilization is stampeding us is toward a cliff. Recognizing death and destruction await at the end of the cliff is to have the eyes to see. Recognizing you do not want to be led to your death is not "backward thinking" or to be "primitive" in nature.

What will you do now that you can see? Continue toward the cliff while shouting "treason"? Look to the unrighteous-unholy for the next panacea / false promise? Look to their teachings and ways to find a way out? If their ways led to a devolutionary path in the past, why would that suddenly change? Hope a savior / alien shows up to save us?

Anyone who has seen a stampede knows that once it has started there is not much that can be done except to step aside.

Once you realize you are being led to the cliff and recognize you want to do it differently, the first thing to do is to stop and get out of the way. That is to say: step out of the madness. Calm down and, as Father has told us, "sit and pun". Ask the Father Which Is in Heaven to show you the Way and wait until the answer is clear. Then proceed in Peace.

Respect in the Father Way

01/18/10

Respect is one of these concepts upon which much confusion rests. It is a concept I did not understand until Father began to show me what it is to be a Respectful man.

How do you know if you are being disrespected when you do not know what Respect is? I sure could not establish this for I lacked the foundation. What I called "normal" interaction between people was indeed a disrespectful interaction based on the perceived "value" that could be obtained from each person. If the person had the money or what I wanted or was socially above me, I was taught to treat them with an external display of respect while internally envying them and belittling them. In some cases lusting all over them greedily wishing to be like them and wanting to "earn" their attention and "favor" so as to gain some sense of self worth was warranted - "look whom I befriend, I must be important". If they had nothing to offer or were below my social status - like many believe natives of this Earth are - then I was taught to trample over them and to not even show any signs of external respect - after all, servants are to be ordered and regulated, not respected. In some cases, when the self worth was low, then a tyrannical display would be warranted to "show them who is the boss".

In the world this is a typical display of what is considered "respectful" behavior and many would not even recognize there is a problem with such a perspective. Yet in the Father Way, the perception that you respect those who earn it and ridicule, mistreat those who don't, is simply unrighteous-unholy activity enveloped in the false pretense of civilized behavior.

In Father Way, Respect is a natural Way of Life. You Respect Life - humans, animals, nature, plants, trees, stones and crystals, Earth and water. That is to say, you do not take advantage of Life, you do not abuse it, you do not ridicule it, you do not lust it or envy it, you do not seek to deceive, entrap, and enslave it, you do not seduce it, you do not manipulate it (psychologically or genetically), you do not destroy it or control it. In Father Way, Respect needs not be earned by anyone, nor is it given based on social standing or value.

Respect is to allow people to be the beautiful, Peaceful, gentle, Loving expressions they are. It is to allow them to make the choices they need to make and allow them to live with the consequences of such choices. It is to not let them abuse you and to not let them turn you into their abuser. It is to not play the unrighteous-unholy game with them but to seek the Father Way in all you do, say, and speak. It is to say: "I Desire not to play, get thee away. Get thee away ends your play" to those who would come to harm you. It is to speak gently, free of fear and insecurity.

Respect is a natural Way of Life because it is the Father Way.

Father Way does not feed unrighteous-unholy

01/21/10

Father has explained that He does not sustain nor support the unrighteous-unholy. This is a literal statement. The unrighteous-unholy would have quickly ceased to exist had they not found a way to feed on individuals who can receive the sustenance and nourishment from the Father.

Ever since their arrival to Earth, the unrighteous-unholy have been altering and conditioning us into behavior that facilitates their capacity to feed on us. It always starts as a small change - "what difference does it make? Just a small little deviation... no one will notice." Yet when you look back in your life, you can clearly see that each little step brought you further away from the innocence you once had. The so called "normal" and "accepted" behavior of our society would alarm even the most "liberal" people 500 years ago. Yet here we are: unhappy, broken, enslaved, seduced, indebted, malnourished, malfunctioning, ill and angry, sad and lonely, looking for some kind of savior that will undo all the damage. Our Earth is being destroyed by mining, deforestation, pollution, grazing, agriculture, and progress. Our minds are being poisoned by the food we eat and by what we hear, read, and see - all of which we call entertainment. We are being used against each other, women seducing men, men seducing women, adults abusing children, children abusing each other. Do you think that anyone 6,000 years ago would have been able to envision such catastrophe would fall upon Earth and her People just because of accepting the first little deviation / deception they presented? I doubt it.

The unrighteous-unholy came to this Earth for the purpose of using their vast spiritual knowledge and advanced technology to enslave us. That was their intent from the beginning. If you know a little about law you will know that any contract that is made with ill will and intent and for the purpose of taking advantage of someone is illegal.

We have to come to recognize that all contracts that they have imposed upon us (even the ones we have entered into voluntarily) have no legal validity or standing because they have all been made under deceit. There is no need to fight against their laws and contracts for they are invalid from inception. All it takes is to simply drop the false beliefs and walk away. There are no enemies, not battles to fight, no one to defeat.

Universal Law has arrived on Earth and has found it accurate that the actions of the unrighteous-unholy are not justifiable at any level. The unrighteous-unholy thought that they would be able to deceive Universal Law with their smooth talking and great oratory skills just like lawyers have learned to do in court. They thought they could twist Universal Law in their favor. Well, they were mistaken. The unrighteous-unholy will be purged from this Earth and from each one of us. All we have to do until then is be willing to let go of the false contracts and the improper behavior we have accepted. All we have to do is seek with an honest Heart to be restored to the Father Way.

Universal Law is here to ensure that our choices to "not play" are not transgressed.

In her blog Linda has conveyed that Father has provided an intermediary step we can take to facilitate our choice to "not play". This step is to request every day that the unrighteous-unholy be cast away and that the door which they made into your being be sealed. Go to her posting "There is a Way"³ for a more detailed explanation.

Stepping aside to choose Father Way

Many talk about the need for a revolution. A revolution that will take down the corrupt people in power and re-establish the essence of the American constitution. This sounds enticing, but has it ever worked? Have you noticed that while revolutions allow for change in "leadership" all new "leaders" still believe in a system of the few directing the many? Have you noticed that these systems have a rather brutal way of dealing with those who do not wish to embrace the change? Do you think it is a coincidence that those who are behind the planning of revolutions happen to be the ones who "know" how the many are to be directed and taxed and are oh so willing to assume power?

Father Way is a Way of Peace in which we the People live in Abundance. Father Way would have us wake up from the illusion that death, decay, and destruction will protect us from the oppression of darkness. Father Way would have us wake up from the illusion that the unrighteous-unholy have anything to offer except enslavement and slow death. Father Way would have us stop fighting each other to promote the agenda of darkness or of death, decay, and destruction and their need to eradicate each other. Father Way would have us stop playing the game of the unrighteous-unholy.

Something has to change if the results are to be different. That change begins with each one who makes a choice for Father Way and steps aside to Live in Peace, Abundance and Respect for each other.

Rather than allowing yourself to get caught up by the stampede, step aside and seek Father Way. He would have you be in Abundance, Peace, and Joy even during such turbulent times as are to come. Trial and tribulation are not of the Father. If you seek the way of the world, you will die by the way of the world - you live by the sword you die by the sword, goes the saying.

In Father Way, there is no death. Neither is there decay, destruction, or darkness.

If there are no enemies, no one to fight, no one to defeat, no one to save, no one to convert, what is left to do? Father Way. To succeed in Father Way one must learn to be at Peace with one's choice for Life and Abundance even when the world allows itself to be engulfed by trial and tribulation.

Father Way would have no one experience anything less than perfect Health, Joy, Abundance, Peace, Life. This choice is available to everyone, even to the unrighteous-unholy. Not one bullet need leave a gun for this to become a reality. It is however a choice that is made on an individual basis. It must be freely and willingly made by each individual.

An "utopical" wish you may say? Yes as long as we welcome the unrighteous - unholy upon Earth and in our lives. No, if we can wake up and in our choice for Father Way ask each day:

- that the unrighteous - unholy be cast out / away
- that the door which they implanted in each one of us be sealed
- that the door they used to enter Earth be sealed

Universal Law is on Earth to ensure the choice for Father Way is upheld.

And the Father is ... part 2

01/24/10

It would not surprise me if, as you have been reading Linda's and my blogs about Father Way, you have been aware of a certain amount of resistance and perhaps even dislike of the idea of a Father Which Is in Heaven.

The knowledge of the Father Which Is in Heaven or Father for short, appears for many to be backward thinking. The logic for this dislike could be summarized as follows:

"We have progressed so far from the male theocracy and inferiority / suppression of women by men, and now you say that God is this male figure that sits up there in heaven? What about a woman's spirituality?" This perception which requires the obliteration of a "male figure" as God is especially held by many "new ager's" who believe God is actually feminine rather than masculine or perhaps both.

Father has explained to us there is a lot of deception that has been introduced to generate confusion and hate or dislike of His Presence and Participation in our Lives. These deceptions are widely spread and can be loosely encompassed in the following list.

- Misunderstanding regarding who / what God is
- Misunderstanding regarding who Father is
- Your personal relationship with your biological father and / or other male figures
- Your personal beliefs regarding the Pope who calls himself the Holy Father
- All sorts of religious or new age beliefs that cloud your Vision

Having been raised Catholic, the idea of a Father Which Is in Heaven was certainly nothing new. However, as Father made it very clear from the beginning, I was carrying a lot of baggage that was interfering with my capacity to Commune with Him and be of one a-chord with Him. Without perceiving Father in the Proper Light, my expectations of Him were certainly inaccurate.

I will be sharing on future blogs how Father has helped me recognize this garbage and what He has suggested I do to begin receiving His Blessing in His Way and to begin my Walk with Him.

In the meantime, you can take a look at the above list, ask Father for Guidance, and begin recognizing how each of these deceptions may be affecting your perception of Father and your view of Creation. There is a lot of emotional stuff that will surface in this exploration so we will progress one step at a time.

There is a difference

01/26/10

It is common practice in the “spiritual field” for people to say that they decided to teach something so that they can learn what they are teaching. Somehow we think that this is an acceptable practice, and don’t recognize the fact that this kind of attitude does not work. If you were in college, would you go to a senior level class taught by a freshman who says he is teaching the class so that he can learn the topic? Of course you wouldn’t. The expectation would be that whoever teaches the class is well versed in the topic. Yes he may have greater insights during the teaching but this person already has the knowledge and understanding needed to teach the class.

Father has been teaching me a new way of doing business which Linda and I call entente: the coming together of individuals for a common purpose – which is to generate Divine Increase in Father Way. What is interesting in this training is the way it is structured. Father trains me on a certain aspect and then has me apply what I have learned. The application of the training I have received then gives the person with whom I apply it, the opportunity to learn a new way of doing business.

At no point am I going out with the purpose of teaching (to learn), but rather to succeed in applying what I have learned from Father. Yet as I’m being trained in Father Way, others are too.

Can you see the difference? Subtleties make all the difference.

Improper "door etiquette"

Linda has mentioned in her blog the understanding Father shared with her of how our Soul is entrapped by an image projection which causes us to believe we are stuck in a box. She has also mentioned a door which is kept open to divert all the resources Father would have for our Soul away and to allow the unrighteous - unholy the ability to manipulate and influence the Soul.

The solution to this, as Father has explained, is to recognize there is no door because there is no box. It is an illusion. As an intermediary step, Father suggested we Pray and ask that the unrighteous - unholy be cast out / away and the door which they have implanted in our being be sealed. This intermediary step would give us enough "room" so to speak to recognize the illusion and to let it be dissolved by a simple shift in our perception to the Father.

As I was contemplating this situation, being in the intermediary step where the unrighteous - unholy have been cast out / away and the door sealed - at least for some periods of time. I recognized that there is a lot of "door etiquette" indoctrination that we have received. Think about how you use doors in every day life.

This deceitful indoctrinated "door etiquette" is as follows

- To stay safe from the "outdoors" and those who want to hurt you, you close the door.
- If "friends" show up at your door, you open the door and invite them in. You enter-ta-in them in your house and give them of your food and sustenance to eat. You may even call out to them to invite them in. Have a little party kind of thing... so you don't feel so lonely.
- If "authority" shows up at your door, you obediently submit to it and let it in - they need to tell you what to do and you need to obey / follow their orders.
- As a gentleman, if you are accompanied by a woman, you are supposed to be the one that opens the door.

- In a "macho" mentality, or just plain lustful / unhealthy outlook of life, if a seductive woman / man shows up at your door, you are supposed to open the door and invite her / him in. Quite a desirable situation to be in, or so we are told.

Have you began to recognize how this "door etiquette" facilitates the unrighteous - unholy deception? If you close the door, you actually trap yourself in the image projection. When the unrighteous - unholy show up at the door as "friends", you invite them in because you are lonely. If they show up as "authority", you invite them in because you are obedient. If a woman shows up, you are supposed to open the door. If a chance for sex appears, you are supposed to engage in it. When those you let in ask for food or water, you freely give it away to them.

Can you recognize all the different ways in which you are tricked to open the door so as to feed the unrighteous - unholy? It is time to end this. Have a talk to yourself at the level in which you are trapped in this illusion and teach yourself to do it differently. Ask the Father to bring Truth of YourSelf to that level. Ask Father to return you to sanity at that level. Let the unrighteous - unholy be cast out / away, let the door be sealed.

When they come back to knock, let their call remain unanswered. It is OK to not answer. When they show up asking for food and water, let their call remain unanswered. It is OK to let them remain hungry and thirsty. It is not your responsibility to "feed the world" at your expense. Let them seek the Father for their daily sustenance, rather than supporting them in stealing what the Father brings to you for your own and sole In-Joyment / Nourishment. When they show up inviting you to engage in sex or when you hear darkness' call / the siren's call, recognize that this just another way to drain your energy away. Let their call remain unanswered. Remind yourself that you Desire to Know a Higher Expression of Love.

Teach yourself at this level to heal your loneliness by seeking the Father and asking Him for restoration to your True Nature, your True Self - Love as Self free of another.

Facilitate your success in this matter with Proper nutrition of your head. Clean air, clean food, clean water, and a healthy expression of your Creative Nature. Dr. Blaylock and Dr. Fletchas are both good sources of information regarding nutrition.

It is time for their call to remain unanswered forever more.

A warning ignored

02/01/10

Recently, I was reminded of an event that occurred 151 years ago. This event is known as the Solar Superstorm or the Carrington Event and occurred in 1859, less than 20 years after the establishment of the telegraph.

What is significant about this event is not that it was the largest solar storm ever recorded, but rather that it was a warning that was not heeded. This solar storm was Father's warning of what is to come when the Sun arrives at point of departure. This solar storm made it clear that the technological direction in which we were heading was not compatible with the natural cycles of the Sun. How so? Because it shorted telegraph wires (the high tech means of communication at that time) both in the USA and in Europe causing several fires.

This solar storm was Father Way to provide a strong message. A message meant to make it clear during the early stages of "modern" technological advance, that there was a need to change the type of technology used. We were meant to recognize the need to follow a different path, a path that was Harmonious with the Earth and the Sun.

What was done instead? We ignored the warning and continued full steam ahead in a technological direction that is destructive. 151 years later, most industrialized countries are completely dependent upon a system of technology that is absolutely inharmonious with the cycles of the Sun and Earth and that is therefore destined to go up in flames at point of departure - causing great havoc, misery, and death. Is this how Father would have had it? Of course not.

Have there been any other warnings that this direction was inharmonious? Of course. The toxic waste that came from its manufacture. The dependence / enslavement that it brought with it - the bills to pay. Its disruptive nature on the human body and psyche. The distancing from the natural environment that ensued.

When the Sun reaches point of departure and the solar storms begin, let it not be the Sun and the Father who are blamed for the catastrophes that will occur upon Earth. We were forewarned. Had we had the Wisdom, we would have prepared and changed our course as many communities around the world had the Wisdom to do.

So what do we do now? We step aside from the stampede. Aware of the destructiveness of "modern age" technology, we begin to make ourselves less dependent upon it. We exclude plastics and electronics from our shelters. We store sufficient food, water, supplies to be able to transition through point of departure until conditions allow food to be grown again.

As a creative person, you could begin to think in new terms. What would a technology that is Harmonious with the Sun and the Earth look like? Without plastics and electronics, how would we have energy or communication? What would a technology that supports our Spiritual Nature as Children of the Father look like? Believe it or not, this kind of technology was being explored during the early 1900's.

The time has come to make a change. A change on an individual basis - nothing more, nothing less. When the creative ideas come to you, keep them away from the patent office. Many are fearful to implement these creative solutions because of the repercussions they think may come their way. Choose the Father Way and you will be safe. Remember there is no one to save and that includes the world. Rather than implementing your ideas with the mind of the world and in the ways of the world, do it differently - do it Father Way.

What will make the difference this time? Universal Law is here to ensure our individual choices for Father Way are no longer suppressed.

Love as Self

02/03/10

In contemplation this day, I realized that the idea and even possibility of someone being, knowing, and expressing Love as Self is a concept that oddly enough is completely "alien" to Christianity and Catholicism, as well as many other mainstream religions.

Religion expounds love as being something that is given away to others. Religion teaches Love is not something you are, but something you give away. God's love for us being so great that he killed his very own son to "pay for our sins", a mother's "pure and natural" love for her child which somehow is an attribute attached only to mothers, Jesus' love for us that was so great he allowed himself to be sacrificed. And then somewhere down the road is the love of a man for his wife.

Religion teaches that if you do not unselfishly give away your love to all equally, even to your "enemies" it is because of your imperfect and selfish nature. You are supposed to give it all away and expect nothing in return - that is what makes a good Christian, catholic, etc. "See? I'm not a selfish sinner, I'm giving all my love away! I'm a good person. I even give my money/ energy away to charities." Well, not quite.

From the very beginning of my journey with Father, He spoke to me of how I would squander away the resources He would make available to me and how it was imperative to stop giving away what was mine to have. It took me many years to come to a point in which I could understand and actually begin to live in such a way. After all, I was taught to be the good child who gives away his love to his parents, the good catholic who gives away his love to everyone he meets and sees. The good man who seeks a woman to whom to give all his greatest love away. Always needing to find someone to give it away to, so life would have a meaning.

In Father's Eye, giving away who you are is indeed squandering His resources. In Father Way, you are not a selfish sinner who can only redeem himself by giving it all away. In Father Way, He would have you know yourSelf as Love and keep that experience for yourself. In Father Way, you are Love and you express Love as Self. If someone else wants to know Love, then they must learn to know themselves as Love. Love is not something you give away to another. Love is who and what you are.

"But - we are sinners! Imperfect in nature, in bondage to the flesh of the body, a body that is selfish for it would keep it all for itself!" Really?

Raised catholic, this was of course a difficult perception and way of life to change. This Knowledge of Love as Self made sense on a intellectual level, but the religious expounding of love went beyond that. For those who are raised in such deception, it becomes a way of life. This capacity to give it all away is what "elevated" me from the "sinful nature" of the flesh, it was what made people "like and want" to be with me, it was my ticket to Heaven.

And here is Father Which Is in Heaven, the Living God who I Love and have sought with all my Heart, Saying: "No, no. Giving it all away is what keeps you from Heaven and My Ways."

So how does one make the change from giving it all away to no longer squandering what is Given by the Father? Contemplation, Desire for Truth, and willingness to Exchange all ways in which one expresses this deception, for Truth of Father Way. Ask Father for His Grace, to Show you the Way, to make it easy for you to let go of the deception and to welcome His Way. Nourish your Soul through healthy creative expression of who you are. Nourish your head through Proper nutrition.

In Father's Eye you are indeed a good person. Not because you give away everything you receive from Him, but rather because you are His Child. It is Right and Proper to keep that which the Father gives to you for your sole use. It is Right and Proper to Know yourSelf as Love and keep that experience just for yourself. It is Right and Proper to Be who you are in Truth.

"seven" days

02/06/10

A few weeks ago, Father shared some knowledge about the "seven" days. He indicated that during each month, the "seven" days are to be days of creativity and introspection.

What are "seven" days? "Seven" days are, in the flow of each month: 7, 16 ($1+6 = 7$), and 25 ($2+5 = 7$).

Do we set aside "seven" days for creativity and introspection because "seven" is a sacred number? No. As Father has explained to us, even though "seven" is not an unrighteous - unholy number, it is the number chosen by the unrighteous - unholy. This means that their activity is increased during "seven" days. This is why, on a "seven" day, we make a choice to not play in their ways - no contracts, no agreements, no technical stuff, no stress, no purchases, no selling, no problem resolution, no meetings. We step out of the stampede.

Instead, we dedicate the day to Light Hearted Creativity, Light Hearted introspection, rest and nourishment. This is one way in which we choose to "not play".

Have healthy Light Hearted fun and be Blessed each "seven" day.

Feeling lonely lately?

02/07/10

Feeling lonely lately? Rather than turning unto your friends, spouse, children, or that magic "one" for relief, make a different choice. Do it Father Way.

Father would have you know that the reason you feel lonely is because you have given away who you are unto another. Father's suggestion? Stop giving away who you are and stop looking in the wrong places to be fulfilled. Instead, allow yourself to be filled with the energy and nourishment Father makes available to you for your sole use and in fullness of who you are, know yourSelf as Love.

When I began in earnest my journey with Father many years before I met Linda, it began as a journey of self awareness. But then, came the "false prophets" which spoke of the "magic one" awaiting me and for whom I needed to prepare spiritually. Having been in an increasing state of loneliness their "promise" seemed to be the answer, the hope, that which would make a difference in my life. Falling head over heels for this deception, I turned my spiritual journey of self awareness with Father into a journey of preparation for that "magic one".

At that time, I did not have the benefit of recognizing the need for Discernment - after all, "everyone is Love and all spiritual writings are beneficial, right?" I was not aware I was giving myself away unto another who had set herself in the background of my consciousness, neither did I have the understanding that malnourishment of the head could cause an altered perception of reality and a sense of loneliness. After all, I was doing everything I had been taught to do and eating that which I had been taught to eat and this couldn't possibly lead to dysfunction and malnourishment - could it? In that empty state of being, the idea of being filled by someone else sure seemed appealing.

Looking back with the Knowledge Father has given me, I see what I could have done differently. Recognizing that loneliness stems from giving myself away unto another, I would have stopped that behavior. Recognizing that loneliness is augmented by malnourishment of the head, I would have sought out to remedy this through proper nutrition. Recognizing that Father would not have us lean unto another to "save our day" or "fulfill our needs" I would have recognized the idea of the "magic one" as a deception, and would have continued my journey of self awareness with the Father.

That is to say rather than preparing myself spiritually for the arrival of another, I would have continued to prepare myself for that moment in which I could Know myself as Love and begin my Divinely Appointed Endeavor for the Father.

We all have a Divinely Appointed Endeavor for the Father. This Endeavor does not lead unto another, neither does it require another's presence. It is a walk in solitude, for you lean not unto anyone for Knowledge of who you are, for identity, nor for love. It is a walk in the sovereignty of Self Expression as a child of the Father Which Is in Heaven where all there is, is Love as Self, Abundance, Joy, and Peace.

In a simple and Grand Design

Father gave Linda and I this contemplation Prayer many years ago. We use italics to convey the Words given by Father.

Gloriosa

In a simple and Grand Design

Where would I fit this moment in time?

Whenever in your Greater Endeavor it seems that you are failing remember that your Endeavor is rightly manifest when you cease to stand still.

*Motion is not always equal to movement.
Find your point of balance
so you may step out into a whole new world.
Replacing doubt with the calm assurance of Knowing
Is Faith.*

Faith that your Prayers Are answered Insures that they are.

Divine answers Respect all living things

And the Father is ... step 1

02/14/10

In my journey with Father, He made it clear that there was a need to cleanse myself from that which obstructed having a healthy perception and relation with Him. He explained to both Linda and I that He cannot Bless and Guide anyone in His Wisdom as long as we have hidden "grudges" against Him. These grudges literally limit one's capacity to receive the Abundance of the Father and thus, in a way perpetuate whatever sense of the Father one has.

For example, lets say you need Guidance and seek the Father for it and He responds generously. However, because how your grudges affect your perception and function of your being, you can't receive it. This means that even though the Father answered your request, to your perception He didn't. The tendency in this situation would be to project whatever grudges you have unto the Father and say, "see, you are... and didn't...and left me..." Never recognizing that it is not Him but rather you who needs to make changes.

One way Father suggested I become aware of the grudges I had with Him and free myself from them, was to evaluate my relationship with my biological father. Father explained to us that a biological father is meant to be His representative on Earth. A biological father is meant to teach us of the Father and provide the Guidance the Father would have for us until we reach an age in which we can begin our own walk with the Father. This is how it is meant to be. As a representative of the Father, your biological father would live in Abundance and behave with Respect and Integrity, Peace and Joy, Strength and Safety toward each of his children, just as the Father Which Is in Heaven would and does. This is why children are naturally trusting of their parents and cannot conceive of the idea that their parents would do something to hurt them. As children we inherently know Father Which Is in Heaven would never hurt and misguide us, and so we expect the same of our biological father.

Yet, life as we know it, is far removed from this. A child who sees his / her own biological father behave in ways that are destructive and abusive may eventually reach the conclusion that this behavior is indicative of who the Father Which Is in Heaven is and what can be expected of Him. That is to say, how your biological father behaves toward you, becomes your basis / expectation of how you will relate to the Father.

How was your relationship to your biological father? How did he behave toward you as a child? How does he behave toward you now? Do you Respect (which is not the same as obey) (1) your father? Does he Respect you? As you recognize each distorted behavior and interaction you had or have with your biological father, two opportunities present themselves.

One, is to begin making choices to no longer participate in an unhealthy relationship. Gently expect to be treated with Respect, as equals. You are not the eternal child that has to obey / please his biological father to obtain love and approval. Choose to not play. If your father persists in unhealthy behavior, you remove yourself from the situation. "Oh, got to go." "Seems this is not a good time to talk, good bye." Change the topic of conversation, ask for Divine Intervention. When all the pain, sorrow, and so on surfaces, lay them on the Altar of Divine Love and Divine Power in Exchange for Peace and Knowledge of who you are as Love. Remember, there are no enemies, no one to defeat, no one to convert and that includes your biological father. The goal is to reach a point in which each one can Respect each others choices and be at Peace with each other. If this is not possible, then that is ok. You behave with Respect, allow yourself to be at Peace with your biological father's choices and remove yourself from the situation.

The other opportunity is to free your perception and relation with the Father Which Is in Heaven from the unhealthy behavior you learned from your biological father. "Oh, I see, my biological father behaved in such and such way and I was expecting the same from the Father. Now that I recognize this, I can choose to do it differently. Thank you Father for showing me Your Way."

Step by step. Some take longer than others, just remain focused on the goal: To Know yourSelf as Love so as to begin your journey in the Father Way.

(1) Refer to "Respect in the Father Way" (page 22) to read more about Respect.

If...then... a finale

02/20/10

In several posts I have shared with you what Father Said to us many times in many ways:

"There is no one to fight, no one to defeat, no one to save... there are no enemies and no heathens or infidels to convert."

If this is Truth, have you recognized that this includes yourSelf? You need not fight against / for yourself, you need not save yourself or be saved, you are not "your worst enemy" as many espouse, you are not a heathen or infidel who needs converted, defeated, or killed.

Just because water turned into ice in a freezer does not mean the water ceased to be water. It does not mean there is something "wrong" with the water that needs "fixed". Neither will the water return to its liquid state as long as it is left in the freezer - no matter what it does. Again this is not because there is something "wrong" with the ice that needs "fixed". Take the ice out of the freezer and naturally, without any effort, it returns to its liquid state.

Just because your experience of life turned into a nightmare when placed in the box of the image projection, it does not mean you have ceased to be a child of the Father, Love as Self. It does not mean there is something "wrong" with you that needs "fixed". Neither will you return to your True Self as Love as long as you remain in the image projection - no matter what you do. Again, this is not because there is something "wrong" with you that needs "fixed". Allow the image projection to vanish and naturally, without any effort, you return to your Divine Self as Love.

How do you allow the image projection to vanish? Smile with your eyes and simply be - there is nothing to fix, no one to fight, no one to resist, no one to convert, and that includes yourself. Self as Love seeks no love / approval, nor gives love / approval away. Self as Love simply Is. In this, all your needs are met. Ask the Father and it shall be done.

In the meantime, for it does take some time for the ice to melt into water, make it easier on yourself by nourishing your head through proper nutrition and nourishing your Soul through healthy, Light-Hearted creative expression. That is to say eat what nourishes you and be under the Sun. What you receive from the Father keep it for yourself to support your creativity. Remember, if there is no one to save, no one to fix, no one to fight, no one to convert then what need is there to give your resources away to such activities? If there is no need to please for love / approval, what need is there to give yourSelf away?

As Father has Said:

*It is in the wonderment of a single moment wherein you are free of debt ⁵, sorrow, fear.
All that remains is pure Peace of Joy.*

⁵ To be free of debt refers in this instance to allow yourself to be free from the perceived need to owe any favors or loyalty to any individual, institution, unrighteous - unholy, and so on.

Immediate action required: Call to preparation in Birmingham, Alabama.

02/23/10

Call to preparation in Birmingham, Alabama. Immediate Action required.

Father has requested we issue a call to the Faithful who Desire Truth in the Father Way, specifically in Birmingham, to ask for Direction to safety in the event of a red herring radiation disaster that may come to pass.

Father has not given a time for the event but people need not to delay. They need to take immediate action. Action needs to start today.

Father has indicated that it is of the utmost importance to secure an individual water supply (bottled water or any kind of container filled with water) and then seek a storage place to protect the water from radiation. All of available resources would be used to secure the water. Jars, pots, cans and all available money should be used for this.

(Martin's note: This could include iodine and mineral clay or bentonite clay. If necessary, radioactive water can be decontaminated by slurring it with mineral clay. Clays like bentonite can absorb radioactivity in the body. Iodine tablets can be taken to saturate thyroid with iodine and prevent its radioactive contamination.)

Father indicates once again: first and foremost is securing a water supply, even though people might get hungry as they stretch their food as necessary.

Most important note for those who would pray to prevent this event:

Father has indicated that to pray for the safety of the greater / city water supply and / or to "be spared" from the red herring event is to diffuse / waste His Energy. It is better instead to Pray and prepare individually for availability and inspiration. His Grace and Protection is available on an individual basis for those who ask and prepare.

Please note:

We are not prophets and cannot say this event is immediately pending, however Father did share this with us today and asked us not to delay unto another day in making this information available on our website. Read Linda's Blog posting "events re: Birmingham, AL" ⁶ written this day for additional information.

Birmingham update

02/25/10

It appears that in Father's Grace, the People have made choices that changed the course of history for the Better. The red herring did not come to pass.

Read what Linda said about this in her posting "Amazing Grace" ⁷.

For additional clarification read my posting "The fulfillment of prophecy" (page 12).

Have a Blessed "7" day.

Mystical and Magical

02/26/10

Early in our journey with Father, He explained to us that His Way allows awareness and participation in the Mystical and Magical. He Said that by closing the door to this, we lost the capacity to nourish our Soul and thus degradation ensued easily.

Such statement may bring two conflicting responses. On one side many people will recognize the Truth of such statement and yet at the same time, they will be aware of all this fear associated with such an idea. After all, in all our experiences of the mystical and magical - which come from the books, movies, TV, and perhaps some participation in it - it is all about the misuse of such "powers" for some evil purposes or perhaps such "benevolent" uses as putting love spells on people. This of course is by unrighteous - unholy design.

By closing the door to the natural, healthy, simple expression of the Mystical and Magical a situation was created in which many people who feel intuitively drawn to this aspect of life, have no other option but to explore it through unrighteous - unholy means.

The Mystical and Magical is not about casting spells and curses unto people, it is not about misusing stones, crystals, metals, herbs to promote unrighteous - unholy activity or goals.

The Mystical and Magical is a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leaf, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

Life on Earth is about experiencing and participating in such Mysticism and Magic.

"The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" (copyrighted 1966, 1968, 1971) explains:

Mysticism:

- the doctrine and belief that through contemplation and love man can achieve a direct and immediate consciousness of God or of the Divine truth, etc., without the use of reason or of any of the ordinary senses.

Contemplation, love, direct and immediate consciousness of God and Divine Truth. These are under the category of Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will. The only refinements that need made to the above definition are replacing "love" for Love as Self and "God" for Father Which Is in Heaven.

Let's look now at "magic". When you take a look at the definition of "magic" in this same dictionary, you will find that there is only a faint hint as to a Right and Proper use of this natural expression of Creation. That is to say, you will need to do a little detective work to get a glimpse of what this means other than its corrupted expression which seeks to "coerce nature by the use of certain rites, formulas, actions, etc.".

Magic:

- mysteriously impressive; beautiful
- [< magikos of the Magi]

Magi:

- The three "wise men from the east" who came to Bethlehem to pay homage to the infant Jesus

Now we are getting somewhere. We have the word "wise" and the indication of Respect and Reverence to the Father. The gifts these Magi brought were frankincense, myrrh, and gold. All natural substances that are very healing and which support a Spiritual Journey with the Father.

Wise:

- seeing clearly what is right and just.
- having sound judgment

Sound:

- having all the organs or faculties complete and in normal action and relation; healthy
- founded in truth; valid; legal

The picture has become clear enough now to give us some Guidance and Direction as to what a Magical experience of Life and Creation is. It is an experience that includes mystery and beauty and allows one to see clearly what is Right and Proper, Respectful behavior. It is an experience that facilitates, sustains, and requires health - that is having all organs and faculties in utmost state of nourishment and function. It is an experience founded on Truth, therefore it is legal, which is to say it is of one a-chord with Universal Law.

When the door to the Mystical and Magical was closed, we lost our capacity to know the Father directly through our experiences. We lost our health and no longer could see clearly what is right and just. Our lives no longer were founded in Truth and Universal Law.

Can you see what great disservice it is to cut yourself from this aspect of Life? Can you now recognize in which direction Father Way of a Mystical Magical Life would take you?

Mystery and Beauty

02/27/10

We have established yesterday that Mystery and Beauty is part of the Mystical and Magical experience of Creation. It is then worth at this time to take a closer look at these two aspects that we may know in greater clarity what Father Way is. For this purpose, I refer to the same "Readers Digest Great Encyclopedia Dictionary".

Before I begin with this process, it seems appropriate at this time to acknowledge that this method of understanding Truth through the use of a dictionary was revealed to Linda many years ago and is expounded in her book "Dreams and Days: Diamonds of your Design". I have found this method a most outstanding way of expanding my understanding of Father's Conveyances.

Father has consistently confirmed that the knowledge unveiled by this method is appropriate and accurate and has provided further refinement when asked. This is to say, bring that which you read to the Father and ask for further refinement and clarification. What I post here is many times simply a springboard to greater Knowledge available to those who Desire it. It is easier to reach the Desired Goal of Walking in Father Way, of one a-chord with Universal Law, Universal Truth, Universal Love, when you are pointing in the right direction.

I will also add that since Linda wrote her doctoral dissertation in 1995, we have realized that words which contain contradictory definitions actually contain both, the problem / distortion as well as the solution. One set of definitions will tell you the unrighteous - unholy use of the word or how they have twisted its meaning. The other will tell you the solution - that is to say the answer as to how to do it differently. A case in point is the word "magic" which we explored in yesterday's posting. This word contains both the explanation of how Magic has been twisted by the unrighteous - unholy into an unrighteous - unholy expression as well as what Magic used to be before the distortion and what it will be once again. Sometimes more detective work is needed than others, but much Truth can be unveiled this way.

So apparently, even though I thought I would speak of Mystery and Beauty this day, it seems appropriate to take the time to exemplify the extent of Knowledge that can be revealed through this method by reviewing the word "magic". I will do this in my next posting.

In yesterday's posting, I said it would be beneficial to apply Linda's method of using the dictionary to unveil greater understanding, to the word "magic".

Before I start, let's recap. Greater understanding of words can be received by using the dictionary to evaluate the various meanings of chosen words that describe an event. When words have contradictory definitions it indicates both the problem and the solution can be ascertained. In my post "Mystical and Magical" (page 49) I provided a definition for the word "Magic" that is of one a-chord with Father Way. How do I know it is of one a-chord with Father Way? Because it contains Father's Attributes or Characteristics if you will: Respect, Life, Truth, Love, Knowledge, Peace. Anything different is an indication of contamination by the unrighteous - unholy.

So let's begin looking at the word "magic" as defined by "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" copyrighted in 1966, 1968, 1971. This will certainly not be an exhaustive expounding but it shall suffice. There is only so much one needs to know before getting the picture.

I will underline words that I consider key in this process. I will also not expound on definitions 3 and 4 since I already did this in "Mystical and Magical," but will say that 3 and 4 contain the information that give us a hint of Father Way.

magic:

1. seeming control over or foresight of natural events, forces, etc. by the ritual of invocation of supernatural agencies; also the practice of this control
2. an overpowering influence
3. mysteriously impressive; beautiful
4. [...<magikos of the Magi]

What is even more interesting than the above, is the explanation that follows these definitions, of which I quote for informational purposes only:

" - Syn. (noun) 1. Magic, sorcery, witchcraft, voodoo, divination, and necromancy refer to powers that are considered supernatural. Magic involves the belief that man can coerce nature by use of certain rites, formulas, actions, etc.; it can be found as an element in all primitive religions.

"The study of natural phenomena, called white or natural magic, developed into the modern natural sciences.

"Distinguished from this was black magic or sorcery, the attempt to use or invoke supernatural powers for personal or sinister purposes. Witchcraft was sorcery as practiced by a woman possessed by a demon. Voodoo is one of many primitive cults, combining elements of religion, sorcery, and witchcraft...."

End of quote.

There is more but this shall suffice. Now comes the fun part. What you will read next is simply my interpretation of what I can see from this.

First, notice the definition of "black magic" or "sorcery". It involves using supernatural powers for "personal or sinister purposes". Now take a look at the words I underlined in the definition of "magic": "control over", "overpowering influence", and "coerce nature". To me, all of these words convey an undercurrent of "personal or sinister purposes". You wouldn't seek control over something unless you had a personal or sinister purpose to do so. You wouldn't seek to overpower someone / something unless you had a personal or sinister purpose to do so. You wouldn't seek to coerce nature unless you had a personal or sinister purpose to do so.

What does this mean? Simple. The definition you are being given for the word "magic" is really just the definition for "black magic" or "sorcery", "witchcraft", and "voodoo". So it should not be surprising that when people hear of the word "magic" they do indeed think about "black magic" or someone creating illusions - a deceiver.

What I found quite interesting too was the indication that "natural science" developed from the practice of "white / natural magic" which is defined as the observation of natural phenomena. Note that in this brief definition there is no indication of manipulation of phenomena, just observation. However, if you take a look at science as we know it today, it is all about the manipulation, coercion, and control of nature or natural phenomena.

Do you see the connection that was just unveiled? If the purpose of "magic" or "majik" as Father calls it, is the control and coercion of nature / natural phenomena, and if the purpose of science is indeed as many would say the "triumph of man over nature", then it most certainly would follow that science and "black magic" are interchangeable words.

Isn't that something? If coercion of nature is practiced by the superstitious, then it is called "black magic". If coercion of nature is practiced by the educated then it is called "science". Yet each are a side of the same coin.

Of course this has very wide implications in everyday life. We will explore some of these in my next posting.

Look around you

03/02/10

Yesterday, we established that "magic" and "black magic / sorcery" are interchangeable since both are based on the idea of the coercion of nature through rites, formulas, and actions, where coercion naturally indicates an ulterior motive that is against the free will if you want of nature. This led to the realization that since science seeks to control nature and it does so through the use of formulas and actions, it is indeed the practice of "black magic".

The next step in this unveiling is to recognize that since the coercion of nature by rites, formulas, and actions is magic / black magic and that this is an element of religion, then it follows that science is indeed religious in nature. Quite a statement, yet something that many have already recognized.

For clarification purposes, Father refers to this "magic / black magic" as "majik" and I will use this term from now on.

With this in mind, I will go even further and take a look at the definition of "coerce". I use the same dictionary as before.

Coerce:

- to compel by force, law, authority, or fear
- to restrain or repress by superior force

To say then that majik is based on the idea that man can coerce nature, is to say that majik is based on the idea that man can compel / restrain / repress nature by force, law, authority, fear, and superior (supernatural?) force.

Let's go even further and find out what "nature" is.

Nature:

- the basic character or disposition of a person or animal; heart
- bodily functions, activities, or powers essential to life
- the entire material universe and its phenomena

This is to say then that the practice of majik is the use of force, law, authority, fear, and superior (supernatural) force so as to compel / restrain / repress:

1. Your basic disposition or character - your heart
2. your bodily functions, activities, and powers essential to life
3. your surroundings

To compel is to "urge irresistibly, to force to yield". To restrain is to "keep in check, to deprive of freedom or liberty". To repress is to "keep under restraint or control."

Having demystified majik, look around you. Is it any coincidence your heart has been seduced, your body is falling apart, your energy is weak, you are full of fear, your surroundings are being destroyed and poisoned?

It is time to stop falling prey to majik.

It is time to stop your participation in the unrighteous - unholy play of majik and to think that any of its ways will solve any problem / provides a viable solution that sustains Life.

It is time to embrace Father Way once again.

One step further

03/02/10

That was quite an unveiling, wouldn't you say? What? You say too simple and easy? Well that is Father Way. If we could just be at Peace with Simple and Easy, life would just be so much easier and simpler. Hard work never wins the day.

Let's take a step further with this majik thing which, as we unveiled in the past few days is the coercion of nature through rites, formulas, actions, and so on. That is to say whenever someone uses force, law, authority, fear, or even a superior (supernatural) force to deprive nature of freedom, to force it to yield, and to control it, that someone is practicing majik. You could say he is a majikian.

Of course this goes against everything we hold as true - after all, according to the movies and books, majikians make potions in kettles, talk to crows, put spells upon people, and use stones and crystals, not technology. Technology such as weapons and guns are used by the "good guys" who try to defend / protect themselves from these "primitive superstitious" people.

Well lets see. Scientist cook their potions in laboratories and silica or glass is the main crystal they use to hold their potions. You are right, they don't talk to crows for the answer, but they sure torture animals for it. When their secret formulas go into production, they are actually cooked in big large kettles called reactors. What about spells? Scientists don't put spells on people, right? Well, perhaps you are right. We do live in a very compartmentalized world. They leave that to politicians and marketers. Did you ever buy into the idea that pesticides and fertilizers are good for us? That drinking poisoned water is safe? That nuclear power is the answer? That we should believe in them because they know what is best for us? And what about their latest spells? Lets see, genetic engineering will save the world. Or what about implanting chips on people will make them smarter. Or what about the promise of eternal life downloaded in a robot?

How many people have been spelled by these false promises of glitter? Don't you think it is strange people can't seem to realize non of their promises have solved any problems but rather made life so much more miserable for everyone who implements their solutions? Have you noticed that everyone who is a proponent of such marvels always quotes research done by scientists and that somehow the fact that some scientist is behind the study validates the claim in people's mind? Have you noticed that the potions, I means formulas, scientist come up with affect people's life and have ruined and destroyed many of them? Isn't that what spells are all about? So perhaps, after all, scientist are in the business of spelling.

So what about the technology? Doesn't their use of "cutting edge" technology set them apart from the majikians, just like in the movies? Not really, they still believe in and practice the basic premise of coercion of nature. Remember the unrighteous - unholy are comprised of several groups that fight each other, each with their own way, so to speak, to do their coercion of nature, and in this process destruction / enslavement of the People.

Pause

We have come a long way. When we began looking at the word "magic" we believed we lived in a wonderful non-primitive civilization that had left behind its "religious superstitious" and lived its life based on "f-acts". Now, the study of one single word has revealed that this wonderful "civilization" is founded on the principles of majik: the use of force, law, authority, and fear to coerce our hearts and our surroundings into surrendering to their control. We see now, perhaps in disbelief, that the scientific world is an integral part of this majik, and that it actually is an element of religion. Which one? Certainly not Father's, because Father Way is not religious in nature.

We have come indeed a long way. If you feel troubled by this, as if your foundation is failing, you feel weak in your knees perhaps, I would suggest that you take a pause and give yourself some time before continuing. Also, do re-read my posting "Mystical Magical" (page 49) to remind yourself of Father Way. In so doing you will help yourself recognize that unveiling deception does not need to leave you empty handed, but rather give you an Opportunity to welcome Universal Truth in its place. This is an important aspect of cleansing - what you let go of needs to be replaced with Love, Peace, Joy, Truth or any other Divine Attribute of your Divine Nature / Father Way. At the Altar of Love and Power you Exchange deception for Truth. That which you receive in Exchange fills the area previously occupied by the deception.

The problem with focusing on how the unrighteous - unholy manifest and affect our lives is that it diverts our focus from Truth. Father has suggested many times that we let go of the need to understand the unrighteous - unholy and focus instead solely in Knowing and Living Truth. This is what many People have been able to do to a lesser or greater extent by keeping themselves separate from civilization. What you focus on is what you become. Yet, for those living in civilization, it seems as though sometimes we are so enchanted by the spell of unrighteous - unholy that we can't even recognize there is a problem. In such cases, when we are so enchanted by majik, the tendency is to ignore Father's Guidance and brush aside any suggestions that there might be a problem. Those who step aside and don't participate are considered "weird" to put it mildly. I remember the first time someone brought to my attention that perhaps my perception of Earth as a rock in space to be exploited was in need of correction. He showed me an article which spoke of a living Earth... I thought he was nuts.

Many voices have come and gone which have raised concern about what has been happening to the People, only to be laughed at and branded as "backward misfits" or as some kind of "religious freaks" who believe in evil. Perhaps after all, they were / are not that out of place. Perhaps it has been "us" who have not been able to see through the illusion.

What you have read in my previous postings is not simply a made up opinion, but rather a simple interpretation of what is clearly stated in the dictionary. I did not make up those definitions and explanations. Just followed Father's Guidance through my intuition.

As you can see, there is more than meets the eye in the meaning of words. We tend to assign meanings to words and sentences, based on the definitions we know of these words. Considering that many words have several opposite meanings, we must question the real intent of what is being conveyed. It is very possible for someone to stealthily convey that they will destroy us by using wonderful words which to our perception speak of good intentions. Then, when we realize we have been had, they can claim they spoke in truth - it was us who misunderstood their true intention. Believe it or not, it is possible that politicians are not necessarily liars, they just take advantage of our preconceived ideas and use it to convey their true intentions in a way they know we will not be able to hear. Masters of illusion. Who do you think taught them?

Things are not what they appear to be. When you recognize this, then the possibility presents itself for a different way. Father Way is available to those who Desire it.

Another step

03/05/10

After this brief pause, it feels it is time to make one last posting regarding the unveiling of majik practices against our lives.

As you may remember, majik is based on the concept of coercion of nature, where coercion is the use of force, law, authority, and fear, and nature is understood as our hearts, our bodily functions, and that which surrounds us. I have to admit that when I looked up the definition of nature, I was not expecting to find us, the People, as an integral part of nature. In my mind, humans and nature somehow seemed separate things. I guess this has something to do with the dehumanization of humans. Many, like I had, have drifted so far away from nature / their natural state of being, that they no longer see themselves as being part of nature. To them, nature is out there, where you go when you leave the city and those who live in farms are just strange people that don't know how to have fun in life.

In which other ways then, does this coercion of nature manifest?

1. When we focus on nature as our surroundings, we speak of Mother Earth. In which ways is Mother Earth being coerced through "superior / supernatural" force to yield its bounty? I will give you a hint: mining / drilling, agriculture, and deforestation to name a few. Is it a surprise that law, authority, and (military) force go hand in hand with these practices? It shouldn't by now, for all are an integral part of majik. Of these practices implemented by the unrighteous - unholy, mining is considered by Father to be worse than any other crime the unrighteous - unholy have / are committing against humanity. This is why, Father has explained, there has been little to no intervention to improve the lives of miners.

It is difficult to the western mind to grasp or understand the possibility that mining / tunneling of Mother Earth is such a crime, especially when you are raised to believe Mother Earth is just a piece of rock floating in space to which "god" gave us full right to exploit and destroy at will.

A hint of why mining / tunneling is so destructive, can actually be grasped by the study of the word "environ-mental". This is indeed a study that will be the content of future postings and will lead to a most amazing knowledge of reality and wealth. It is likely though, that the fact I separated the word "environmental" into two parts "environ" and "mental" did not go unnoticed by you. Having already been getting an understanding of how this study of words works, you may have already recognized the implications of such a choice. The word "environ-mental" tells us that our environment is an external expression of our mental state. Thus, when we live in an environment that has been mined and tunneled to exhaustion it follows this is an indication of the internal conditions of our mental state. Don't believe our minds / brains look like gruyere cheese or worse? Then I invite you to explore the brain scan photography made available by Dr. Amen and others ⁸.

2. Lets move on to the next aspect. When we focus on nature as bodily functions, activities, and powers essential to life, we speak of humans, as well as animals, and plant / ocean life. In which way is law, authority, "superior / supernatural" force, and fear being used to deprive us of our freedoms and liberty? In which way is coercion being used to keep us under restraint and control? I'm sure much of this is self evident, however there are a few ways of majik that may go unnoticed in this respect.

First, the restraint of animals, forcing them to yield their genetic material to create superior strands, forcing them into competition or labor, the belief that we humans are superior to them and that this gives us a right to exploit them. What about aquariums or zoos? Isn't this restricting the freedom of ocean life and of animals? Capturing and training dolphins, whales, horses, dogs, and so on to entertain us by acting in ways that are completely unnatural to them? We are doing to them, what the unrighteous - unholy do to us. We must indeed stop participating in this play.

Second, the restraint of the People through viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, parasites, and yes, pollution. Doesn't medicine present these as "superior forces" that can take over your body at any time and even take your life away?

⁸ Note that this is not an endorsement of their ways of solving this problem.

Unhealthy people are indeed deprived of their freedom and liberty and kept under restraint and control. Have you ever had diarrhea or the flu? Who was in control? You or whatever was causing this health issue? Have you ever been checked into an hospital? Did you notice you are not quite in control there? What about pollution? Well, by now it is very well recognize that heavy metal contamination can impair one's ability to live life in many ways. What does this mean? It means that viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, parasites, and yes pollution are but different types of "superior / supernatural" forces that have been created and are used by the unrighteous - unholy so as to coerce / seduce us into their ways. Who needs a doctor when one is healthy and happy? But when one is sick, doesn't the advice and poisons, I mean chemical formulas, doctors offer suddenly seem so appealing and necessary? We must indeed stop participating in this play.

3. The last aspect of coercion of nature I will unveil is next. When we focus on nature as the basic character or disposition of a person or animal, the heart, we speak of who we are / become in life. The question we must ask then is how is majik used to mold us and to seduce our hearts into unrighteous - unholy behavior. What aspects of every day life we take for granted as natural part of civilization are really manifestations of majik designed to control us and take our liberties and freedom away? I will name but a few. Seduction / lust / sex is one. How many people have ruined their lives because of being influenced by this "irresistible urge that forced them to yield"? Alcohol / drugs is another one. How many people have ruined their lives because of being influenced by this "irresistible urge that forced them to yield" and does not let them free? What about education, and entertainment? Doesn't education teach us how to be good slaves, I mean productive workers or purveyors of majik? Doesn't entertainment show us ever more insane, degenerate behavior that alienates us from each other and Mother Earth? What about technology? Aren't we spelled by it! Yet, doesn't technology create an every increasing consumption of energy which needs met with an equal destruction of natural resources? Doesn't technology also alienate us from each other and nature and require our continued enslavement so we can pay the financial burden it brings into our lives? Have you looked lately at all the health warnings that accompany your latest electronic gadgets?

Look around. What do you see?

Now that you can see through the glitter of deception, we will turn our focus to Father Way.

Mystical and Magical

03/07/10

It is time then to redirect our focus to Father Way of the Mystical and Magical expression of Life. To do so, we will refresh our minds with some of the initial observations made in my posting Mystical and Magical (page 49).

The Mystical and Magical is a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leaf, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

Life on Earth is about experiencing and participating in such Mysticism and Magic.

From "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" (copyrighted 1966, 1968, 1971) we obtained the following definition of Mysticism:

Mysticism:

- the doctrine and belief that through contemplation and love man can achieve a direct and immediate consciousness of God or of the Divine truth, etc., without the use of reason or of any of the ordinary senses.

Contemplation, love, direct and immediate consciousness of God and Divine Truth. These are under the category of Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will. The only refinements that need made to the above definition are replacing "love" for Love as Self and "God" for Father Which Is in Heaven.

Through some detective work, a clearer understanding of Magic was revealed.

Magic:

- mysteriously impressive; beautiful
- [< magikos of the Magi]

Magi:

- The three "wise men from the east" who came to Bethlehem to pay homage to the infant Jesus

Wise:

- seeing clearly what is right and just
- having sound judgment

Sound:

- having all the organs or faculties complete and in normal action and relation; healthy
- founded in truth; valid; legal

By following these definitions it became clear that Magic is an experience which includes mystery and beauty and allows one to see clearly what is Right and Proper, Respectful behavior. It is an experience that facilitates, sustains, and requires health - that is having all organs and faculties in utmost state of nourishment and function. It is an experience founded on Truth, therefore it is legal, which is to say it is of one a-chord with Universal Law.

When we live a Mystical and Magical Life, the capacity to directly Know the Father Which Is in Heaven and Universal Truth is available through our capacity to contemplate and to express Self as Love. It is an individual experience. A Mystical and Magical Life is lived in the Wisdom that such experience brings - it makes it possible to know what is Right and Just, or as Father would say, Righteous and Holy. In this experience, there is Health - that is to say all organs and faculties are normal and fully nourished. Clean air, clean water, clean soil, and nourishing food are an integral part of a Mystical and Magical Life - these are the basic necessities that support Health.

Having refreshed the mind and gladdened the Heart I shall continue exploration of Father Way in future postings.

Mystery and Beauty

03/10/10

Focused on Father Way of the Mystical and Magical experience of Life, we came to recognize that Mystery and Beauty are a part of such experience. Let's now do some exploration of what this means and how it would express in our lives.

Again, using the same dictionary, "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary", we gather the following information.

Mystery:

- any action, affair, or thing that arouses curiosity or suspense because it is not fully revealed or explained
- a truth that can be known only by Divine Revelation
- Syn. A mysterious occurrence contains something unknown but not necessarily unknowable.

In a Mystical and Magical Life, we would each individually experience certain events which would arouse our curiosity. We would naturally feel drawn to investigate and discover, such as children do when they explore their environment. In this, a Greater Truth would become available to us, a Truth that would come from our direct Knowing of the Father.

It is important to recognize that Mystery is a Truth that can be known by Divine Revelation / Knowledge of the Father. That is to say Mystery leads to Greater Truth of Creation and our Selves. As each one receives answers to the Mysteries of Life, each one receives a greater Understanding of Love as Self, Peace, Joy, Harmony, Respect, Honor.

In Father Way, Mystery is about Life and how to expand our capacity to experience this Life in its fullest. It is a Playful way to discover the Beauty of Creation.

Let's explore then the word Beauty:

Beauty:

- that quality of objects, sounds, ideas, attitudes, etc, that pleases or gratifies as by their harmony, pattern, excellence, or truth

Notice the words in this definition. Harmony, Excellence, Truth. Can you recognize the Pattern of Father Way?

When we Playfully discover the Beauty of Creation, we are exploring the Harmony, Excellence, Truth of Creation. This experience of course brings pleasure and gratification. This is Father Way. Are you in need of Pleasure and Gratification? Then perhaps you should consider Father Way of a Mystical and Magical Life.

Gratification:

- a recompense or reward

Gratify:

- to reward
- see Satisfy

Satisfy:

- to supply fully with what is desired, expected, or needed
- to free from doubt and anxiety

When we speak of Beauty, we speak of that which rewards and satisfies us. That which fully supplies all that is Desired, Expected, or Needed.

Can you see the relationship between Beauty and Abundance? When you live in the Abundance of the Father you are fully supplied, your needs are met - or better said, you no longer have needs for there is nothing lacking in your life. Think of the lilies of the valley who toil not and the Father nourishes and sustains.

When we speak of Beauty, we speak of that which frees us from doubt and anxiety.

Can you see the relationship between Beauty and Peace? Where there is Peace, there is no doubt and anxiety. That is to say Beauty brings Peace to us. It calms us and comforts us. Think of a sunset or a serene landscape.

Pleasure:

- an agreeable sensation
- something that gives a feeling of enjoyment, delight, or satisfaction
- Ant. Displeasure, pain, sorrow

When we speak of Beauty, we speak of a state in which pain and sorrow are non. It is a state of wellbeing.

Can you now better recognize Father Way of Beauty and distinguish it from the world's distortion?

Attitude:

- position of the body
- state of mind, behavior, or conduct
- Syn. Attitude, position, posture, and pose refer to the physical aspect of a body, and by extension, to a mental outlook. Attitude is a position of body assumed consciously or unconsciously, expressing a feeling of mind; hence it may refer to the feeling itself.

From the dictionary, we learned Beauty is the quality of attitude that pleases or gratifies by its harmony, pattern, excellence, or truth.

So when we speak of Beauty, we speak of a position of the body, a state of mind / behavior / conduct, a mental outlook or feeling that brings the rewards of Abundance and freedom from anxiety, pain, doubt, and sorrow. We speak of an attitude that brings feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, fulfillment because it is Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful.

In Father Way, Beauty is indeed a most wonderful state of being and of Creation. Abundance, Joy, Peace, Delight, Nourishment all available not through another, but through the attitude we choose.

From the dictionary we also learned that Beauty is the quality of objects and sound that please or gratify by their harmony, excellence, or truth.

Sound, as we discovered in my last posting is to have all organs / faculties complete and in normal action and relation. This is to say then that Beauty is also a state of health that brings the rewards of Abundance and freedom from anxiety, pain, doubt, and sorrow. It is a state of health that brings forth feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, fulfillment because it is based on Harmony, Excellence, and Truth.

Sound can also be found in music and in our surroundings. When we speak of music, think of your inner music, the music you Play. Does the music you Play reward you with a state of Abundance and Peace? Is it Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful? Does it evoke feelings of enjoyment, delight, and satisfaction? Or does it tell you it all depends on that "special someone"? What about your surroundings? What kind of sounds are you surrounded by? What is the sound of progress and civilization?

Let's look at the word "object".

Object:

- One who or that which is the focus or center of thought, action, etc.

When we speak of Beauty, we also speak of the nature of that which is our focus or center of thought. In a Mystical and Magical Life, our focus and center of thought would be Harmonious and based on Truth. The suspense and curiosity the Mysteries of Life would arouse, would certainly make this Lightheartedly easy. Mystery would help us focus on that which evokes feelings of enjoyment, delight, and satisfaction. It would bring Abundance and Peace.

Creation makes it easy and fun to grow in our Spiritual Journey.

As you can see, Beauty is not something / someone you lust or something / someone that is used to seduce / entice you. Instead, Beauty is something you are. It is a state of Being and experience.

Can you see now why we the People are so attracted to Mystery and Beauty? It is an integral part of our Mystical and Magical Spiritual Journey upon Earth.

Rather than seeking Mystery and Beauty through its adulteration of murder / action / violence and lust (the cookie cutter recipe used by the unrighteous - unholy), it is time to wake up from the false promise and return our focus to Father Way.

Where do we begin?

03/12/10

So here we have it. Father Way of a Mystical and Magical Life. Who would have thought a Spiritual Journey lived in Truth, Excellence, Harmony, and Peace could actually be fun and enjoyable?

From the perspective of the western mind this is quite a realization to make. I know I was indoctrinated to believe people that live close to nature are boring. In the western mind, fun is what you have when you are not in church performing your Sunday duty as a "Catholic / Christian / your religion here" and enduring the weekly reminder of your sinful, weak nature.

What can I say? When you compare the religious version of a "good life" which is all about repressing your needs, sacrificing yourself, and giving it all away to others with the enticement of the world - "gadgets", money, nightclubs, alcohol, sex, disrespect, theatre and operas, concerts, movies, and drugs. Is it any surprise most get engulfed by the false promises of the world? Yet neither is the answer.

By the time most recognize the deception (midlife crises anyone?), most of the damage has already been done. And the worst part is that even when we recognize this, there has not been any real answers. Some go to therapy to get over their mistakes, some try to relive their teenage years by divorcing and hooking up with someone younger, others just sink their sorrows in drugs and alcohol, others get the save the world complex and go out as good Samaritans, and others try a simpler more meaningful life by returning to the land.

Granted, returning to the land for a simpler more meaningful life is by far the wisest choice, but even then, for most people, we speak of a life based on the principle that hard work earns the day and puts food on your table.

Where is there room in this way of life for the Mystical and Magical which indicates all it takes to Live in Abundance, Joy, Self as Love, and Peace is simply holding the proper posture or attitude - that is to say FEELING?

All this is to say, that there is a need to recognize the need to do things differently. There is a need to change the approach we take on life. To embrace Father Way and begin this Mystical and Magical experience of Life, we need to begin with our feelings. As Linda pondered in her post "Daily Tone" ⁹:

"What if my experience of this day is formed by what I say as I begin the day? Perhaps this is why The Father has suggested to begin each day with prayer, choosing my feelings, and thanksgiving.

An interesting thing about choosing my feelings is that this is to bring the feeling forward and experience it. Love--feel it. Joy--feel it. Peace--feel it. To do this upon awaking is the easiest time of day, before events come crowding in and when proper prayer to your guardian angel for protection and direction in your dreams has made arising the most opportune moment of the day.

Make the most of this day. Choose your Way.

On a SunShiny day of abundant resources!"

Feelings are where we begin

03/14/10

If feelings are where we begin and Beauty is a feeling then perhaps Beauty is indeed part of the answer to restoration of Self as Love. Beauty is a feeling that brings enjoyment and delight. It is a feeling that facilitates Abundance and fills our supplies.

Is it then a surprise that we the People naturally recognize the value of Beauty? Is it then a surprise that one of the first things that the unrighteous - unholy do is destroy our sense of Beauty and impose upon us a standard of beauty which many recognize as unattainable?

What makes this standard of beauty unattainable is not, as most think, that the "average" People cannot measure up to the "perfection" of body presented as this standard of beauty. What makes this standard of beauty unattainable is the fact that it is based upon the opposite of what Beauty actually is. When this state of "perfection" is achieved there is no Beauty left. How can you be in Beauty when all the ways that you seek to attain it separate you from Beauty - the feeling that brings enjoyment, delight, Abundance, and Peace?

When you look at a body that is kept slender through starvation or drugs, you are not looking at real Beauty. Beauty as we have seen brings Abundance and a state of well being or Health. A body that is starved lives in famine. When you look at self imposed starvation / famine, you are looking at someone who has chosen to cut themselves from the Abundance of the Father and thus at someone who is in an unnatural state of being - you are looking at a malfunctioning being. There is no Beauty in famine and malfunction.

Incapable or unwilling to receive the Abundance of the Father and have all needs met, a starved body seeks to satiate its hunger by feeding on the energy of others. It is constantly looking for someone to entice and seduce into lust, for lust is a way to trick someone into giving energy away. Yet, lustful feeding leaves everyone involved hungrier, emptier, and with a false sense of Self. When someone has a false sense of Self, that person does not live in Truth and Harmony. If there is no Truth and Harmony, there is no Beauty.

When you look at a body that is used to seduce and entice, you are not looking at real Beauty. Beauty is a bodily posture or attitude that brings feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, and fulfillment because it is Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful. Beauty is free of pain, sorrow, doubt, and anxiety. A body that is used to seduce and entice is full of pain and sorrow. The pain of fitting in shoes that are most uncomfortable, the pain of being strapped in clothing that does not allow it to breath, the pain of being surgically modified, the sorrow of being chemically laced, the pain and sorrow of starvation and malnourishment. The pain and sorrow of not being allowed to be Harmonious with the Father. It is filled with the anxiety and doubt of not being lustable enough, of being overshadowed by a more "perfect" body. It is in constant competition for "food" and in constant fear of loosing its source of "food". Where there is sorrow and doubt, anxiety, fear, and competition, there is no Peace. If there is no Peace, there can be no Beauty.

Is it then any surprise that those who seek to live by worldly standards of beauty actually live miserable lives and make the lives of those around them miserable too? Have you noticed that many who meet this worldly standard of beauty have severe attitude problems? They are irrational, angry, vindictive, and manipulative. Do you know why? Because their brains are malnourished and thus can no longer function normally. While by French standards these traits add the "I don't know what" that makes someone irresistible, they are truly signs of a malnourished and therefore, malfunctioning brain. To allow oneself to be seduced by such behavior is insane - another sign of a malnourished / malfunctioning brain.

Can you see now that the worldly standard of beauty is a coercion of that which is a natural state of Being? Can you recall what the coercion of nature through rites is? What are the rites of worldly beauty? Starvation, pining, self flagellation, exercise, enticement, lust, competition. Can you recognize worldly pursue of beauty is majik? It is time to wake up from the spell of majik and return to what is natural to us.

Beauty certainly has great Value, but we must stop seeking it in all the wrong places and in all the wrong ways.

How is it done?

03/15/10

We know now that feelings are where it begins, but how do we actually transition to the Mystical and Magical Life of Father Way? The first steps have already been taken. They were the recognition that our perception of Reality needed to be re-fined and re-tuned and a willingness to embrace the possibility of restoration to our True Nature.

As we continue this individual journey of discovery and restoration to the Father Way, we focus on the Mystical and Magical as a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leave, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

Step by step we progress in this journey in which we awaken once again to a way of Life that is conducive to Joy, Peace, Abundance, and Harmony, for we re-learn to be Love as Self free of another and free of the intrusion / presence of the unrighteous - unholy.

Each morning we sit and Pray and set our feeling tone for the day. We greet the Sun rise and welcome the Abundance and Joy that Father makes available to us through him. We make a choice by saying the following Prayer:

I give not away my Righteous and Holy Desire through untoward / unwarranted activity and play.
I choose this day to beleaguer no more.
I seek instead all Righteous and Holy Play.

Not sure what the words in the Prayer mean? A Mystery to be solved! Perhaps your dictionary may help.

How do we progress in the Mystical aspect of Life? By seeking a direct and immediate Knowing of the Father Which Is in Heaven and of Universal Truth. We do this through contemplation and Love as Self and by recognizing that this is something available to us right here upon this Earth while we are alive - there is no need to go to Heaven. Instead, through our contemplation¹⁰ and expression of Love as Self, we solidify Heaven on Earth.

As we welcome Knowledge of the Father in us, we remind ourselves of the Attributes or Qualities of the Father. Universal Truth - no room for deception or deceitful behavior. Peace - no enemies to defeat or battles to win. Joy - sorrow and pain are not of the Father. Abundance - lack and famine are not of the Father. Respect - each is allowed to live by the consequences of their own choices, no one to convert or save. Harmony - no room for competition. Love as Self - that which you are and receive from the Father is for your sole use.

Mysticism is a quiet internal process based upon Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will.

So, how do we progress in the Magical aspect of Life? By nurturing and developing the various attributes of Magic. As we have learned from previous postings these attributes are:

- Wisdom - the capacity to see what is Right and Just because it is founded on Universal Truth and Universal Law
- Health - having all the organs or faculties complete and in normal action and relation
- Mystery - an individual experiences that arouses our curiosity and invites us to playfully explore the Beauty of Creation with the innocence of a child, that we may receive Knowledge of Universal Truths through Divine Revelation

¹⁰ You can read Linda's direction for Right and Proper use of our faculty of contemplation by reading the Contemplation Guide posted under our Daily Inspirational (it is the last one on the page).

- Beauty - an inner experience that rewards us with freedom from anxiety and doubt and which fills our store with Abundance. A most wonderful state of Being or feeling which can be nourished and sustained by:
 - ◆ That which you focus upon
 - ◆ The music you Play
 - ◆ Posture of the body
 - ◆ Mental outlook / conduct

As we change that which we focus upon to the Father, to Universal Truth, to the Mysteries of Creation, as we change the music that we Play to Harmony, as we change our bodily posture and mental outlook / conduct to an upright position, we begin to experience the feeling of Inner Beauty. A feeling of delight and enjoyment that allows the Abundance of the Father to be received once again in us. We begin to fill fulfilled and satisfied, no longer in need of love and approval.

This feeling of Inner Beauty is facilitated by / conducive to a state of Health in which our organs and faculties are restored to normal function, with our Head, Heart, and Soul being high on the list.

In a Magical Life, we make choices that support our inner Beauty and Health, not so that we can seduce and entice others into giving us their energy and resources, but rather so that we can directly receive the Abundance of the Father which He makes available for our sole use.

In a Magical Life, we seek Right and Proper nourishment of our Head, Heart, and Soul through the food we eat, the air we breathe, the liquid we drink, and the Creative Endeavors / Expressions we Light Heartedly undertake.

In a Magical Life, we apply the Wisdom obtained to recognize what is Right and Proper action / direction for our lives. The Magi could be used as an example here. To visit Jesus they had to use their Wisdom to recognize the signs of change, to know when to begin the journey (perhaps months or years ahead of Jesus' birth), to know where to go and how to get there, to sustain themselves during the time of travel, and to know what gifts would support Jesus in his Spiritual Journey: frankincense, myrrh, and gold. That is to say a Magical Life lived in Wisdom includes knowledge of the plant / herbal / mineral kingdoms. It includes Right and Proper interpretation of the signs of change that are made available. It includes Right and Proper preparation and planning for what lays ahead.

As you will find, a Mystical and Magical Life is conducive to finding your purpose in Life.

Your Purpose in Life

03/16/10

I indicated in my last post that a Mystical and Magical Life can lead one to find his / her Purpose in Life. How can that be? Let's follow this Mystery by first recognizing that perhaps Pur-pose is a combination of two words: Pure + Pose.

Using the same dictionary as before we shall explore what Divine Revelation can unveil through our Desire for the Father,

Pure:

- free from mixture or contact with that which weakens, impairs, or pollutes
- containing no foreign or vitiating material
- free from moral defilement
- Syn. Pure suggests the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential

Pose:

- the position of the whole or part of the body
- Syn. See attitude

So here you have it again, just as with Beauty, when we speak of Purpose in Life, we speak of a body position, an attitude, a mental outlook, a feeling. Contrary to worldly doctrine which tells us that a purposeful life is lived by doing something called "your calling", I would suggest that to find one's Purpose in Life is to return to a state of Being that frees one from foreign or vitiating material, pollution, defilement, and from that which is alien or nonessential.

It is a shift in perception that restores us to the Truth of Who We Are. It is a shift in perception that can be obtained through shifting our body position and mental outlook. It is a fine tuning of our head back to what Father Calls Righteous and Holy Opportunity of our head. And yes, when we find our Pure-Pose, Abundance of the Father follows.

To find your Purpose in Life is then to return to your Innocence. Wouldn't that be nice?

To return to the Innocence and Purity you had as a child, before the world descended upon you and began its process of deceiving you into believing you are dirty, impure, and worthless, is indeed a Noble Cause. Yet this is not the end goal of Life. In a way, this could be likened to washing laundry. Washing laundry is not the end goal. The end goal is to do things while wearing the clean clothes you washed, and thus feeling comfortable and good. Purpose in Life is then what you get after you do your washing. The end goal is not the return to your Innocence, but rather to go and do things in a state of Innocence, feeling once again clean and comfortable about yourself.

While the idea of a simple shift in perception that will restore us to our Innocence is quite appealing, it is the case that we have drifted so far away, that a time of transition and preparation has become a necessity. Before we can receive this shift in perception and actually keep it, we must make adjustments / corrections to our perception, we must regain our spiritual and physical strength through Right and Proper nutrition and nourishment of our body and Soul, and we must let go of our attachment to the false promises of the world. These false promises include the false perception that our happiness and joy is found through a "special someone", through family and friends, through success in the worldly way.

We cannot be lifted from the murk and mire as long as we remained weighted down by others. Neither can someone else be lifted as long as you weigh them down. That is to say, we must learn to let go of the attachments others have put upon us as well as the attachments that we have put upon others. What we Desire, is to reestablish our connection to our Source and become fully responsible for our own well being, health, and happiness.

Much of this can significantly be facilitated by Right and Proper nutrition. How your head works, affects how you feel and what your perceived needs are. Dr. Blaylock and Dr. Fletchas provide good information on this. John Gray, in his book, "The Mars and Venus diet and exercise solution" provides very interesting information that will support you in this process of restoration. I must however strongly caution you to the fact that his books, as well as many others he makes reference to, are written from the worldly perspective - that is to say: life is about being married, making love, raising children, sacrificing oneself for others, giving yourself / love away to others, and being a productive worker, and therefore, any self improvement is directed toward being better at doing those things. As you read his book(s), keep in mind that Father Way would have us move past this and step into a Mystical and Magical Life.

Pure-Pose

03/17/10

In my last posting, I proposed that the word purpose could actually be seen as the combination of two words: pure + pose. The combination of different words to form new words is something that Father uses quite frequently. You will read many times in Linda's blog and mine certain words that appear to be misspelled or misused. That is indeed a purpose-full choice.

What I would like to do today is to focus a little bit on the qualities of Pur-Pose, which is mainly determined through the exploration of the word pure.

Pure:

- free from mixture or contact with that which weakens, impairs, or pollutes
- containing no foreign or vitiating material
- free from moral defilement
- Syn. Pure suggests the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential

It is interesting to note that in this definition we are given to know that 'pure' is the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential. This is to say then, that that which is foreign, vitiating, and defiling is alien or / (and) nonessential to us on Earth. It also says that, that which is weakening, impairing, or polluting is also alien or / (and) nonessential to us on Earth.

As established from the same dictionary I have been using, 'The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary', when we speak of that which weakens, we speak of that which

- drains our physical strength, energy, and vigor
- drains our mental and moral strength, causing us to err or fail

When we speak of that which impairs, we speak of that which

- makes us worse
- reduces our power, quality, value

When we speak of that which pollutes, we speak of that which

- corrupts and defiles
- makes impure and dirty

When we speak of foreign material, we speak of

- that which affects the body and sensual appetites in a way that is not normal or common
- alien

When we speak of that which vitiates, we speak of that which

- impairs the use of
- corrupts

When we speak of moral defilement, we speak of that which

- corrupts our capacity to distinguish between right and wrong

When we speak of that which corrupts, we speak of that which

- contaminates
- perverts
- changes from the original

When we speak of that which perverts, we speak of that which

- turns to an improper use or purpose
- distorts the meaning of
- leads astray
- turns you away

When we speak of that which is alien, we speak of that which is

- unnatural
- contrary to the laws of nature
- inhuman
- artificial

The reword the above. That which drains our physical and moral strength, that which causes us to err and make mistakes, that which makes us worse, that which affects the body and sensual appetites in an abnormal way, that which corrupts our capacity to distinguish between right and wrong, that which contaminates, distorts Truth and turns that which was intended for our good into an improper use, that which leads us astray and turns us away from our True Nature is unnatural, it is contrary to the laws of nature, it is inhuman, it is artificial. If all of this is unnatural and against the laws of nature, and majik is the coercion of nature which is action taken against the laws of nature, then it follows that when we speak of returning to our Pur-Pose in Life, we speak of stopping our participation in the ways of majik.

Of course, scientists, experts, and perhaps even our own conclusions based on what we see of "human nature" would tell us that this kind of behavior is natural to humans, that we are destructive, aggressive, perverse, lustful, and oppressive. They tell us that pollution, sickness, famine, viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, death, decay, destruction, darkness are a normal part of life, and that we just have to learn to cope with this. Yet Father would Say this assessment is inaccurate.

Pollution, sickness, famine, viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, death, decay, destruction, darkness are unnatural to this Earth and to Creation. We the People are naturally Peaceful, naturally expressive of Self as Love, naturally kind to each other. All spiritual seekers and travelers who have taken the time to talk to the People in various cultures have come to the same conclusion: we all Desire the same - Peace, Abundance, and the Opportunity to Live Life. We the People stand united in our Desire for Father Way.

It is time that we the People, united, ask in Prayer to the Father and to Universal Law that majik and those who force / purvey majik upon us be cast out from this Earth. That the door that was opened by the unrighteous - unholy to contaminate us with their ways be sealed until the day it can be forever dissolved. Not one gun needs fired for this to become a reality. They are not our enemies, we seek not to defeat them in battle, to see who is stronger in will, or to change their ways. We seek instead our restoration to the Father Way and in Prayer we ask that we be allowed to do so in the Safety and Protection of the Father and Universal Law. We show our Desire is Genuine and Honest by withdrawing our participation in their game. We show our Desire is Genuine and Honest by returning to our Pur-Pose in Life that we may InJoy the Mystical and Magical Life of Father Way.

Unto a Bright New Day, we the People shall prevail in Father Way.

About the Authors

Linda Diane Mead was born and raised in these United States of America. She obtained an under-graduate degree in Psychology with a minor in Philosophy and a PhD in Metaphysics from a Theological School.

Martin Riedel was born in Argentina, South America, and lived in Uruguay and Mexico as he grew up. After beginning college in Mexico he came to these United States of America, where he graduated with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

Upon meeting, they embarked on a memorable journey of self discovery that took them across the States. This book is one of the many fruits of their 'Labour of Love.'

Linda left the material plane in 2014.
