Divine Law carries restorative Power and compense.

What is Created by Divine Authority is Protected by Divine Authority.

We leave it to Divine Law to balance any transgressions.

restorative: give back, put back to former state, return compense: remuneration, counterbalance

Translation Notice: In Divine Service

Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception, Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.
Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.
It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on "where we were" at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of 'if... then...'.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

This material is freely shared by us.

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In-Joy

happy Solar new year !

A new Solar year begins today. Or does it begin on the "event" of the Solstice? Of course traditionalists will say "bah humbug". Traditionalists in the way of the deception. Rather than serve the maze of mindless dribble "they" have fostered, think clearly, simply of Truth. What is Truth? Ask and you shall find your Way.

May All Righteous and Holy Opportunity await you this and every day of this Solstice / New Year.

In SunShine and Peaceful-Joyful-Love Light !

DECEMBER 24, 2009

by which counting ?

Today is Christmas Eve by some traditions, the eve of Nimrod's celebration, the second day after Winter Solstice, a Pause day, Just Another Day. Whatever your celebration, or not, it is a Peaceful-Joyful-Love Light Smile day. The opposition to finding Joy, whatever the challenge, for sorrow, regret, pain, is very persuasive in telling you are "justified" in having emotions that oppose your Divine Feelings. It is widely publicized that this is the "attack" season, flu, colds, depression, all deception saying you are overwhelmed by negativity. As mentioned before in this blog, the trendy advice by doctors and magazines is to take lots of vitamin D3. Dr. Gray's advice for women to take yucca is worth considering. Whatever your activity this day, may Peace, Joy, and Love, Light your way !

In the Sunshine of Divine Presence, this is your Blessed Day !

DECEMBER 25, 2009

Pause Days

Thinking of Christmas and the calendar and the changing seasons, I realize we are in what The Father called the "Pause Days". Looking at the SunRise-SunSet charts, some differences are noted, but for the most part we consider the three days before and after Solstice, to be the Pause Days. These are days of equal length, or, Sunrise and Sunset occur at the same time each day.

Father has explained the actual earth orbit differently than the normally accepted orbit scenario. We wrote, quite a few years ago about this orbit, which is difficult to explain without an animation.

(our book is available at www.BlueStarWay.com) I will say that, in Father's explanation, we do NOT travel in front of the Sun in its orbit. We do, in fact, have our Pause Days because of the repelling force of the forward movement of the Sun in its orbit. Recently I heard a reference to the fact the Sun has an orbit. A reference rare indeed.

As it deceptively appears, in the Northern Hemisphere, to be very low SunLight days, may you find the Peace and Joy of Truth. May this day be Blessed, no matter your Celebration.

In the SunShine of Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smiles !

DECEMBER 26, 2009

Smile tho your heart is breaking . . .

For weeks I have been writing about the Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile, which is pretty easy when reviewing past regret, because it casts out all the pain and sorrow of a distant past leaving Peace, Joy, Love. But on "Christ-mas" I was reminded it is so difficult to Smile when your heart is breaking.

Even the self-reminder that pain, sorrow, tears are feeding the parasites in our bodies, making death and decay grow within us, is insufficient at such a time. All I can say at this time is, when you can stop crying, Smile. The sooner you begin to repair the damage and cast out any "debris" from the parasites, the less damage you allow to be inflicted on your body. Stop a setback for you from becoming a victory for "them".

May all your broken hearts Smile in the Sparkling SunLight of Divine Desire for Love as your Life !

DECEMBER 27, 2009

resistist or NON?

Father's instruction to us is to have a NON attitude toward the unrighteous – unholy. It is through Truth of the Non-existence of evil that we find our Sovereignty. But what happens when we use food type things Father has recommended to lessen the hold of unrighteous – unholy in our body, so our Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile can fill the vacated space to the point it is completely Present in us?

There is a possible deceptive appearance of “death throe” activity. As the parasites in all stages of development are cleansed from our body, not only does it seem “worse” physically, the events of sorrow, regret and pain are drawn to us to feed and strengthen them. It is of utmost importance to continue the weakening activity of proper use of Father’s specific cleansing food and to Smile as often as possible.

Truth will prevail. Your Desire for Truth is greater than any deception. You will see improvement physically and in your greater feelings of “wellness”. In-Joy the SunShine of Father’s Desire for you this day, in abundant measure !

a new look

While I appreciate the good intentions of WordPress, I'm a "font person". The need to choose style and size persisted as a dissatisfaction with the former blog. Therefore, Martin has been so kind as to move my blog to the software (or whatever this is) he is using to begin his blog.

I'm sure there will be changes as "time goes by". For now coordinating the "look" of the blog with the RoseNoel logo has been fun. Making a standard skin more personal is an important part of the features available in b2evolution.

May your last week of the Gregorian Calander be full of the SunShine of Joy !

days lengthen

As the days lengthen and a "New Year" has begun, thoughts turn to spring in the midst of snow. Images of crocus popping color through snow begin to brighten the mind. It is time to order seed catalogs, even if you've never done so. I received Baker Creek Heirloom catalog for the first time, just before Christmas. While we ended the stressful "must do" of unnecessary financial burden at Christmas, it felt like the best "gift" I've ever received at that time of year.

If I understand correctly, Gere, the founder and owner, did the fine art photography that illustrates his catalog. As a "child" (perhaps I should say youth) he found his "calling" and has followed it with the Blessings of one who does so. You can find an opportunity to receive one yourself at:

www.RareSeeds.com

Proper nutrition is a necessity for one with the Desire for Spiritual Progression. death and decay feed on an unhealthy body. It is of the utmost difficulty to feel Joy, Peace, Love, and practice your SMILE when the emotions of pain, sorrow, regret, have hold of you. These emotions are an indicator of the presence of death and decay. It is an unnecessary challenge to Knowing Truth.

When one begins to learn what plants need for healthy growth in a natural environment and to recognize that healthy plants have almost no need for pesticidal intervention, one begins to learn Harmony, with the Father, their Self, and the Earth. Growing one's own food makes "organic" financially feasible. It is so easy to plant enough from a packet of seeds, one can "store" from the abundance. Dried food, canned food, cellared food, enough for Now and Later. Yes, it is a learning project. What better hobby? It is possible to keep organic gardening simple. Only the unrighteous - unholy who need to siphon off your Abundance from the Father could possibly motivate complicated gardening. Gardening is a simple process, conducted for thousands of years in Simplicity. As I have mentioned, "One Straw Revolution" is a must read. His Simplicity of "farming" is one that requires contemplation and consideration of the how-tos for your time and space. But, it is a Truth one comes to, as one walks upon the land.

May this day's Sun Shine upon your garden and bring health to your way !

DECEMBER 30, 2009

preparation is peace

To prepare is to bring peace of mind in at least one area of life. Preparation should be a way of life. Just little things you do as you go along. Little things such as picking up an elastic bandage at the dollar type store as you walk by. Our mind set has been to rush out and purchase things on an as needed basis. Twist your ankle, go get an elastic bandage, rather than open the bath closet and pull one out. Need a nail or screw? Go to the hardware and buy a package, use what you need and throw the rest away. Not only does this waste time, fuel, and peace of mind, it wastes material and workmanship.

What happened to the old fashioned idea of a nail jar or coffee can?

What about a rubber raft? Walking through the store, end of season, closeout? You don't have to wait for a flood, what about that lake or stream to go summer rafting in? Did you see pictures of people walking through contaminated flood waters? Or what about air filtering masks? Flu, ash, chemicals, there are many types of need for face masks, as well as body covering.

Preparation is about Peace of mind. It was once a way of life. It can be simple, basic. It can begin with a first aid kit, that is more than a box of cartoon character Band-Aids.

Perhaps the calendar year of 2010 is the year you begin making Peace an active part of your life.

In the SunShine of The Father's Love for you, Peace !

our Solar trip

By Gregorian counting, we are on the brink of a new year, when in fact, we have passed through the turn, or pause days, and are solidly into a new trip back around "our" side of the Sun. I found an amazing article posted on:

www.halfpasthuman.com/radiospecial.html

This article has the most amazing graphics of our system's activity I have ever seen. It provides some perspective for the drawings I need to make for conveying the actual orbits as The Father has described them. Since I only do fine art photography, drawings have been very simplistic in our books. Simple is good, but Clarity is amazing.

As this year progresses, the ride will most likely get more active. As we "slip" out to the furthest possible point before sling-shoting into the Sun's new orbit, we have been in Divine Grace, so as to allow progression of those who earnestly Desire it. It is wise to prepare for difficult times, because as those in environmental disasters these past few years have said, you can't depend on the unrighteous - unholy to 'save' you. Preparing in place is good, having mobile preparation is also wise. When your Desire for The Father and Truth is great, provision is provided.

May the SunShine of The Father's abundance fill your Life !

JANUARY 1, 2010

Hello SunShine !

Hello SunShine ! Each day begins with Thanks-Giving to the Father as the Sun rises. Easy when the Sun doesn't come up until 8 am. Faithful, when the Sun comes up before 6 am. Begun with a Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile and ended with a Smile. A day begun with Thanks-Giving that poverty entrapment has ended, and a day ended with Thanks-Giving to Know your Self and your place in the Divine Plan.

To Know your Self is something quite intimately connected to Knowing your place in the Divine Plan. Just as the Gospel of Thomas shows Jesus to have said, to know your self is to know the Father, and to know the Father is to know your self; to know your place in the Divine Plan is to know your self and to know your self is to know your place in the Divine Plan.

I have observed someone refuse the opportunity to fulfill their place in the Divine Plan, even at the point of approaching death. I learned in 10 minutes with this person to stop being "drug kicking and screaming" to what the Father would have for me--rather like a child's tantrum. I learned to say "Thank You Father, I will do my best."

May your day be filled with SunShine and your best!

a little is a lot

Every time I hear someone say The People are, after all, violent--warlike, I want to tell them NOT SO. The People are Peaceful, Joyful, Love, Life, Wisdom, Truth. It is those of the deception--the unrighteous-unholy who brought every deception to this planet. As we contemplate the door as NON, we are contemplating ending the deception. As we Desire Truth, piece by piece we receive it.

Just like placing pain on the Divine Altar in exchange for Love can only be done in small amounts, Truth can only be Known in small increments. We must maintain a strong foundation in

The Father and to exchange large pieces is precarious. Our stability in The Father is retained by small, Truthful corrections to the false inserts in our Divine Foundation.

Most every one wants a fast fix. Let me have it all and let me have it now. Only with time does the Wisdom come that, slow and gentle is better-safer. Instant enlightenment is the glittering deception. The sparkling Truth is that a Faithful steady journey yields the goal.

May the sparkling SunShine of a Blessed day yield Truth !

JANUARY 6, 2010

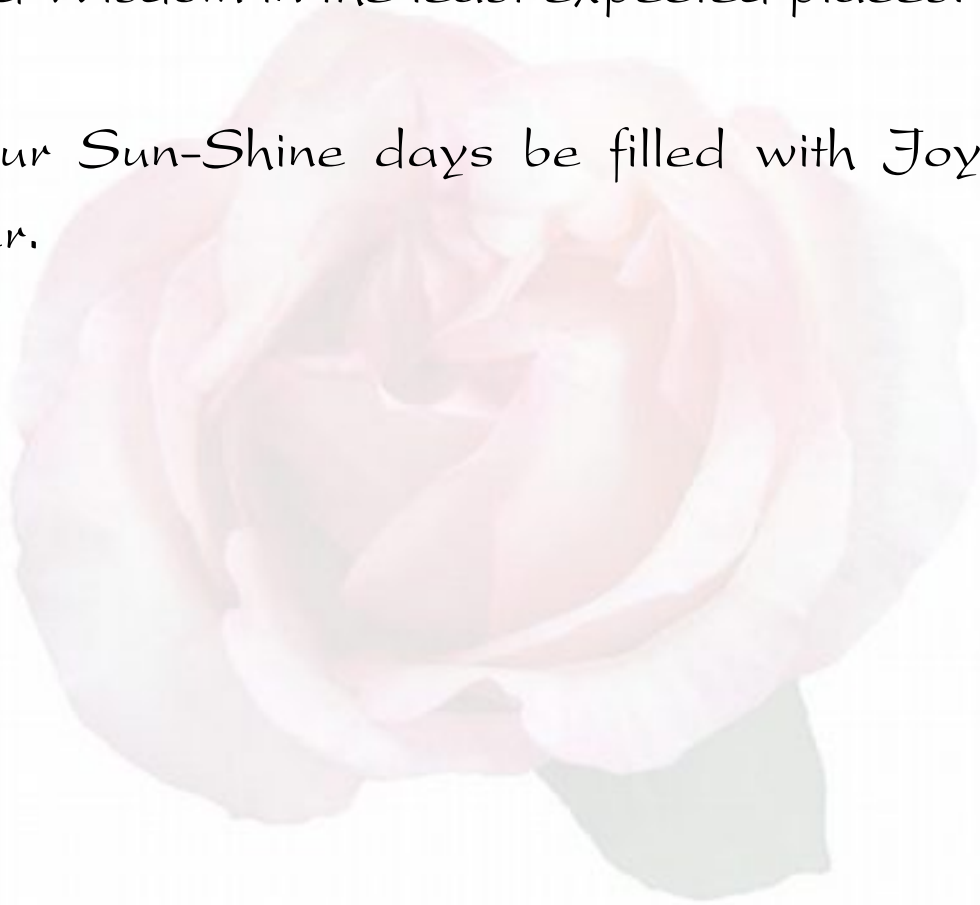

someone to laugh with

Over these days of Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smiling, I have been Blessed to laugh often. It seems that the Smile which heals my body invites laughter into my life. I asked The Father about the healing capacity claimed for laughter in medical matters, and He affirmed that laughter reduces the toxic substance of parasites and their "spit".

I experienced many years of lack in the area of laughter. In relationship, laughter matters. If the sense of humor is incompatible, so is the person. If there is not enough Joy (read laughter), there is not enough in the relationship. When you say to the other person, "You never laugh at anything I say!", you should have already walked the other way. One of the all-time fun movies is "You've Got Mail". The dad asks, "have you ever been with the one person who brings you Joy . . . " This turned on the Light. Profound Wisdom in the least expected places.

May your Sun-Shine days be filled with Joy and Laughter.

how does one trust dreams ?

Have you been a person who could Trust their dreams? Have your dreams continued to accurately predict the unrighteous - unholy events on the world screen? How do you know "where" the origin of the dreams is?

There is Truth in the fact The Father will advise of earth events and preparation needs. The Father will advise of action that places us in safety, away from the deception initiated by the unrighteous - unholy. Often the action is suggested without explanation of the Divine Plan behind it. After all, for a mind trained in and altered by their deception so as to perceive the world through deception, "logic" would ask, why would The Father protect us from something that is NON - just a deception? From reading this blog you might Know why. Do you?

The answer to understanding dreams is in your Desire for Truth. Each day ask the Father if the dream was from Him in Divine Truth, or was it initiated by signals or frequencies broadcast by the unrighteous - unholy, just like radio signals but with video. Would that make them television signals received directly by the brain? Some people are researching how to stop such signals from reaching them.

In the midst of all their chaos, Simplicity Is Divine. Pray to The Father for your dreams each day, and Desire Truth. Make the door of unrighteous - unholy NON. (see previous posts).

May the SunShine of this day bring Truth of Sunny Dreams !

bowels or womb ?

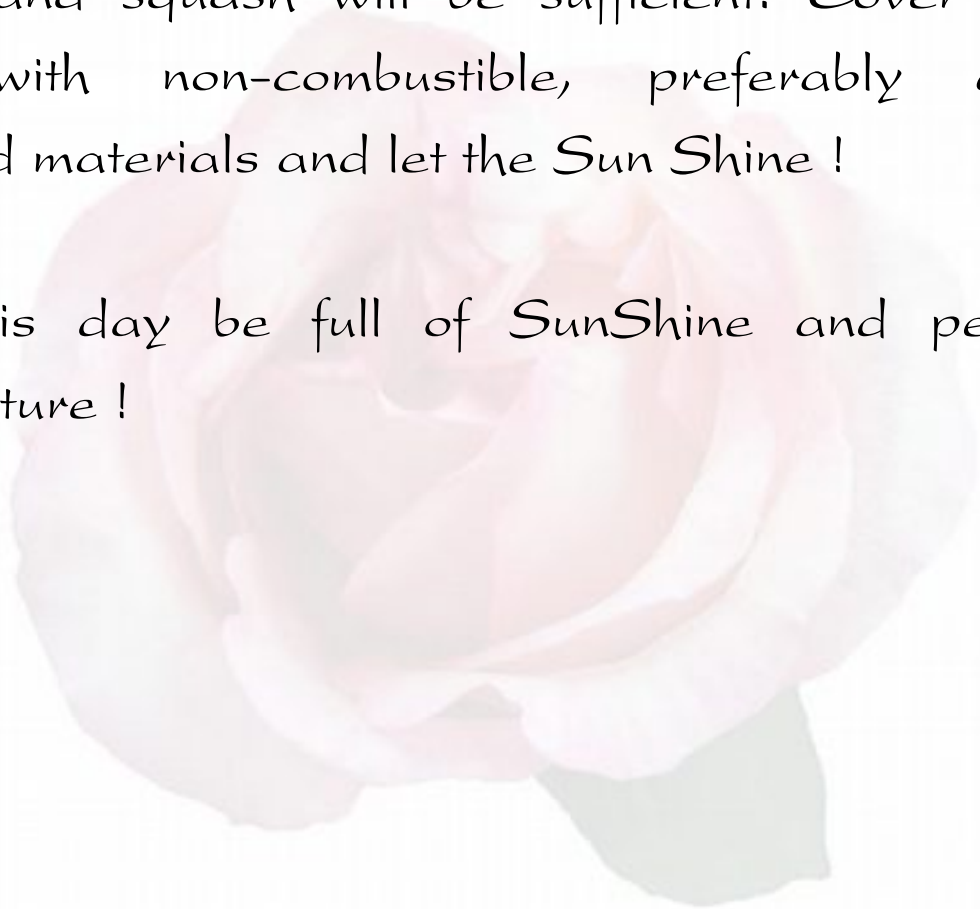

There is a great difference between the bowels of the earth and the womb of the earth. Many deceived people are preparing for the earth changes, which are inevitable as the Sun comes to Point of Departure, by going into underground tunnels. This, one would consider to be "the bowels of the earth".

As mentioned in previous blog entries, caves will be as good a choice as they were in past times. Also narrow valleys with SunShine will be acceptable places. Just as cave-like cities were built in the Southwest, with access to SunShine, so modern caves and valleys / canyons need to have SunShine.

Remember water supply and food supply. The People of this land believe ash prepared corn, beans, and squash will be sufficient. Cover your head with non-combustible, preferably earth insulated materials and let the Sun Shine !

May this day be full of SunShine and perfect temperature !

soul catchers

Have you ever considered what really causes reincarnation? (Yes, it is in the bible.) To the best of my understanding, it is that "they" have a means, (beyond my understanding) to capture our soul. The Father has said it has something to do with our essential energy becoming trapped between the atoms of our body, I think. It's kind of like sci-fi. In their plan we take the parasites with us and return them to "life" in our next body. Good plan for them. Upon departure there is the greeting by "friends" (also captured) and the "light". These are the true test of heaven, according to "them".

I recently thought that perhaps being trapped in the "hall" they have constructed within our world, is the source of evp recordings. Not tangible to us, but not tangible to their "world".

Father has said to one fearfully delaying departure, to call on Him three times and He will be there for them. Personally, having been in His Presence, I'd rather take my chances with The Father and whichever Heaven he takes me to, than on entrapment for re-birth into servitude for the unrighteous - unholy.

May the SunShine of Truth brighten your day, In The Father Way !

JANUARY 10, 2010

The Way, The Truth . . .

Some topics addressed on this blog are icky. That is the way of the deception -- icky. I often think that perhaps it is a dream we can waken from to walk in Truth. Father has said it is as simple as the door being NON. No other Truth is necessary. Complicated is not Divine. In Truth All is Divine.

My goal is to stop the need to understand the unrighteous - unholy and to increase my Desire for Truth. The thought that understanding "them" makes Truth easier, must be a deception. What keeps my attention is what I experience, therefore my attention must be on Truth.

In Truth this day, May SunShine brighten your Way!

Some stress has been present since beginning this blog. I felt a need to convey some of the teachings from The Father, yet have been directed away from that toward Clarity of Truth. Now that Martin is well under way with BlueStar Blog (accessed from www.BlueStarWay.com) this has been resolved. His articulate manner was a gift he brought to our journey with The Father. He was to "polish" things I said and make them available to the majority of people. Martin is outstanding in this. His Blog addresses things I felt needed said, with clarity and an articulate manner.

Now that the stress of divided priority has been lifted, it is my hope and prayer that each day's entry may focus as The Father directs and J may Know what is to be said. There is to be a clear distinction between the two Blogs. J was concerned about "re-hash", but clearly stylistically, if nothing else, that is not the case.

Since my gift is oratory, my writing is very sticatto. Fortunately, Father brought Martin here because his writing style flows. The two Blogs should be complementary and we hope you find them to brighten your day.

As the Sun always Shines, So the Father's Desire for you does !

angels ?

Angels are a topic The Father asked us to stay away from for very many years. Recognizing that biblically, fallen angels appeared early on, and recognizing our inexperience in such matters, it seemed like a good idea. After all, how could we tell the difference between the unrighteous - unholy, called fallen angels and the angels who are Divine and support Gloriosa in Love, Peace, Life.

This has become a learning period regarding the angels who are Harmonious with The Father. It is possible there will be a Creative Study available on this in the coming year. In the meantime, I am finding one benefit of a guardian angel is to guard your dreams. This keeps dreams focused on spiritual Truth and keeps you unreceptive to electronic interference.

May the SunShine of Truth Light your dreams !

pixelated ?

Have you noticed your dreams being pixelated, like your tv signal? NOT Divine. The pixelation occurs more noticeably in type face - printed material in dreams. This is not a dream inspired by The Father. It is not a carry over from television watching, either. It is a sign that their signal quality is not what they expected it to be, or perhaps it is to create an audience ready to embrace the next technology due to the poor quality of the "forced" upgrade to digital.

Perhaps the presence of Universal Law for the assessment of unrighteous - unholy activity on earth and our "rights" as spiritual people has caused premature action on their part. We have indeed received noticeable Grace due to the intercessory action of Universal Law. Some people have asked "from whence is coming our help"? We have been receiving it and many pieces of their plan, long predicted have been ended.

Continue to Smile, Pray, Desire Truth, and Seek to know your Self and The Father. These things are making a difference.

On a SunShiny day, In Peace, Love and Laughter, you are finding your Way.

JANUARY 13, 2010

expectation weather

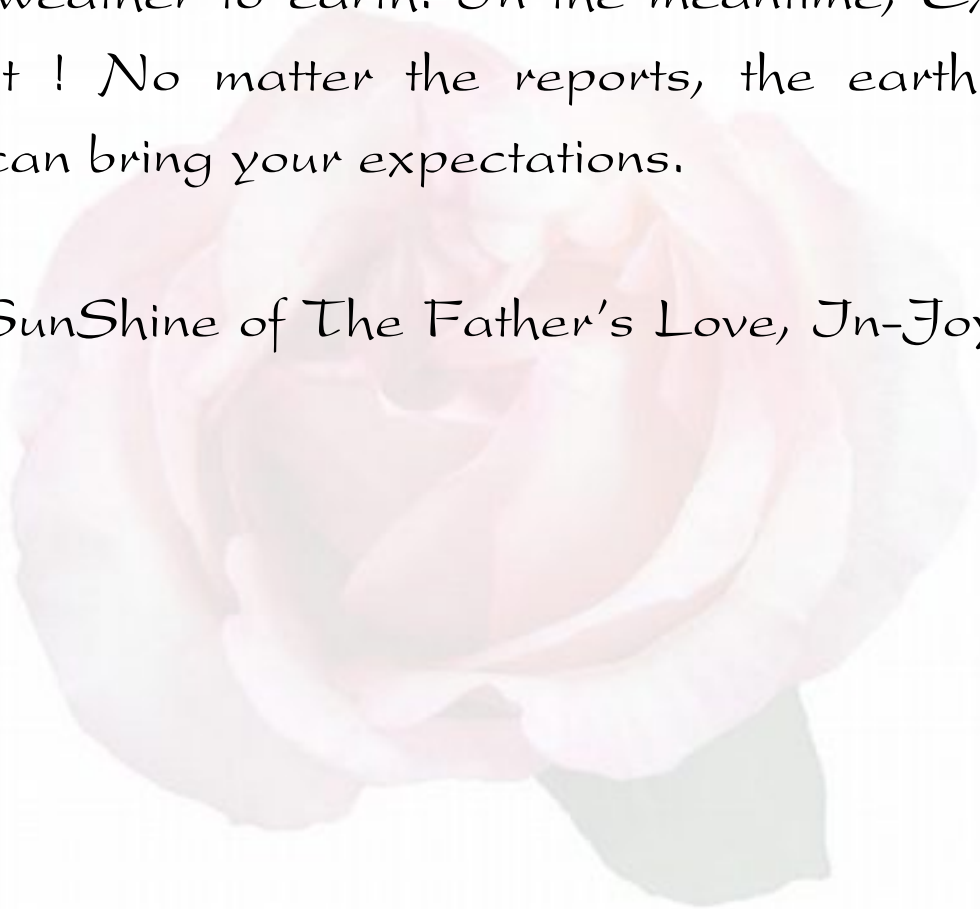

Have you ever noticed how your expectation affects the weather? The more people who listen to a specific report and expect certain weather the more likely it is to occur. Have you begun each day expecting SunShine and nourishment of the Father and seen it come, regardless of the "reports"? Have you expected the rain to come in the early pre-dawn hours and end for the SunRise and seen it come to pass. Have you ever expected a cool breeze on a reportedly hot day and felt it?

The Father's Desire for us is perfect weather. If you have ever lived in a climate of perfect weather you have noticed you never get tired of it, as they have claimed you would do. Perfect weather is variable, Joyful, Light.

Point of Departure will restore perfect balance and perfect weather to earth. In the meantime, Expect the Best ! No matter the reports, the earth and Father can bring your expectations.

In the SunShine of The Father's Love, In-Joy this day !

JANUARY 14, 2010

give thanks to the right place

Have you ever noticed an unanswered prayer? Have you given Thanks for something that didn't come to pass? Have you asked and not received?

Perhaps you are asking the wrong "person". There are certain things The Father does not do for you. He will not "tell" you who you are. He will not "tell" you what to do. If you ask what you planned in coming here, he will inform you in the beginning. A time does come when you must remember for yourself who you are, what you came here to do, what you "play" in the Celestial Orchestra.

If you seek protection in your dreams and on a slippery road, your Guardian Angel is better asked than The Father, for such things are his / her assigned duty. If you Desire to Know your Self, there is an angel who is assigned to amplify your perception so you may remember. If you Desire a full "storehouse", Source is who to ask. Source and Father are not the same expression of the Creator of All That Is.

Have fun today. In the SunShine of your Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile, seek Universal Wisdom - Truth of Right and Proper asking !

expect the best - prepare for what comes

Have you noticed the variety of garden seed? Looks about the same everywhere? It is the subtle differences that count. How many days to maturity? Pest resistance, drought resistance, temperature resistance, all count. If you planted one for each event possible, you would have a wide selection of the same old stuff. Plant for early, mid, late season, since the weather is so erratic. At least one should hopefully survive. Plant for a rainy season as well as drought, since you might get both in one growing season. Plant for the coldest possible, warmest possible, and in-between weather. Plant long keepers, short keepers, anything that stores well.

In the home garden, something should survive. Rows are not the best option for planting. The weeding, water use, and excessive effort are more than a beginner can cope with for the whole year. THE WHOLE YEAR ?? !! Yes, you can garden all year, in all climates. Begin the Joy of learning about seed and gardening now. I'm a NO GMO person. No hybrids--heirloom, open pollinated, are best. Remember, though, if times are rough, saved seed from hybrid seed plants will grow the next year, just different than the original seed.

Remember that radical Japanese farmer who wrote "One Straw Revolution"? You don't have to till the soil to have a garden. Of course lawns are a special issue. Remember, that if you stop using chemical, toxic, poisons on your yard this year you will be one year closer to an organic yard. You do have to Love and respect the earth to understand this as the Right and Proper way to garden and how it can possibly be done right there in your city yard.

As the SunShines on your garden, so The Father's Love Shines on you !

JANUARY 16, 2010

new is ancient

The irony of a few events within a few days has provided quite a bit of laughter for me. Clif at www.halfpasthuman.com said several months ago that they "see" the future currency as being "seed". Historically, seed is an ancient currency. We have heard of it especially being used to pay "tribute". A few days after I heard Clif say this, my sister gave me an article about a new seed sales store being opened in California. Baker Creek Heirloom Seeds bought a bank building in California to open their second store. The article included pictures of seeds for sale on rustic shelves in the "bank". The irony of it being a literal seed bank was not lost to me. The potential to protect the "new currency" as we now protect money, bordered on hysteria. Is hysterical laughter because something is sooo funny or because we are afraid of what it is saying if it is true?

The Father has constantly reminded us that fear is unrighteous - unholy. There is nothing Divine in fear. Ironically, they deceived us into the belief fear protects, when in fact fear destroys. Being prepared is not acting from a fear base, it is acting from a place of being informed. How easy it is to grow a small garden this year and save the seed. How often do you throw the tomato or pepper seeds away? Most things you grow will multiply the seeds in amazing ways. Why not store some seed along with your silver or gold coins?

Have a SunShine filled day of Blue Skies !

the end of poverty entrapment

Finding a balance spiritually, is very difficult for many people. Amidst the prolific deception there is no clear Truth for a person on a spiritual journey. Like a monk (pick your religion) Jesus was presented as a worldly pauper with only spiritual riches, and we are to follow his example. Of course the unrighteous - unholy recognize this doesn't mean them. It is for The People to give unto them so they are the rich ones who become richer.

The Father has clearly stated poverty is NOT Divine. Elegant Simplicity is the Way of The Father. When we are ready The Father calls unto us an angel to amplify our perception of Truth so that we may have the end of poverty entrapment. We will call this angel - AAO.

May your day be Blessed with SunShine of The Father's bounty !

the star is red

When I was in grade and high school the science teacher told us our Sun is Yellow. So we believed everyone thought our Sun is Yellow. In these eight years Martin and I have received teaching from The Father, He has told us the Sun is Red. It is therefore not surprising scientists have begun to speak of the Sun as Red without apology or explanation.

This seems like a small issue, but it is like saying the world is flat, and then some scientists begin to mention a round earth without apology or explanation. The interesting question is, why lie all those years? What matter would it have been to let us know our Sun is a Red Star, or has it evolved in the past 100 years from a yellow star to a Red Star?

As an energy source, our Red Sun is valuable to those who would turn it into a Red Giant to fuel their needs. This would of course, absorb most of our solar system including earth. Of course, to them (death, decay, destruction) this is acceptable because We The People have been contaminated by darkness.

In Truth, this is all their deception playing out in increasingly limited fashion as We The People increasingly choose The Father and Truth, recognizing the door to deception is NON. In support of our increased Desire for The Father and Truth, I noticed that Pope John XXIII's prophecy for the end of the decade from mother mary and jesus (read the deceivers) neither came to pass, nor does it look as though they are coming to pass. The only thing that is happening, is earth changes due to the Sun's impending orbit shift. The intervention of Universal Law has ended many of "their" plans. Their deception stops here. Gently by our action such as the Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile or harshly by the intervention of Universal Law.

Truth is the Way of The Father. Make your first Desire Truth.

In the SunShine of a Red Star, may your bounty be Blessings of the Father !

JANUARY 19, 2010

it's OK

It is perfectly acceptable to be where you are. Truth is the most important factor in deciding when to press forward and when to go easy. What, in Truth, do you Desire. I have seen The Father advise someone to decide whether to press or ease, because either choice receives His Grace. It is a matter of full-filling your Desire.

There is no good or bad, no success or failure, in pressing or easing. Each one is just a choice that fulfills your Desire for a Joyful journey. Know when and what you are ready for. When you are not ready -- ease. When you are ready -- press. The Father judges neither. Just keep smiling the Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile and choose what is right for you. Traveling In-Joy is the best choice.

Have a Bright SunShiny day !

JANUARY 20, 2010

there is a way

Due to popular request (read Martin) I am adding information regarding "sealing the door". The number one best option is still for the door to be NON. (See previous blogs).

Since this change of perception is not easily accomplished at this time, Father provided me an intermediary measure which gives me "space" free from unrighteous - unholy attack, in which I can Know my Self and in which the door becomes and remains NON.

The intermediary measure, which can be expressed in Thanksgiving Prayer, is to "seal the door where the unrighteous - unholy dwell". (An adaptation of an old Spiritualist Prayer). This allows one the opportunity to come to the Father to know their Self, The Divine Plan, and Him.

- ◆ give thanks to your Guardian Angel and The Father that all unrighteous - unholy presence is cast out of you
- ◆ give thanks that the door to where they dwell, which was opened into you, is sealed
- ◆ give thanks that you are Now filled with Truth of Knowing your Self - the Rapture, the Rhapsody, the Power and the Plan, of Divine Expression (the Love, the Music, the Power and your Part in the Divine Plan)

May the SunShine of The Father's Grace fill your day with Radiance ! (Ray-dance)

foundation in The Father

As preparation for the next few days, I will review a foundational writing from 2009 regarding our journey with The Father.

"The function, the tools, the means, the manners, of unrighteous - unholy, in no way facilitate the changes of perception and experience which are All Righteous and Holy Opportunity. The Father never judges your ability to understand, or that a less accurate understanding was necessary preparation for more accuracy in you search for Universal Truth.

Not 'settling' for the deception has allowed / facilitated greater, or more accurate, understanding. Due to The Father's non-judgment you are able to progress through the deception, or inaccurate imagery, so as to move closer to Universal Truth, rather than becoming immobilized in regret or guilt or shame or sorrow that you had fallen short of Universal Truth."

In Truth of an ever shining Sun - Star, may your day be lit with Love !

JANUARY 22, 2010

putting pieces together

Soul entrapment is not a new concept. We have touched around the edges of it on this blog. It is time to combine three concepts for a fuller understanding. The concepts are: dimensions, rooms, and nourishment.

I have mentioned nourishment from The Father is particles carried on the Solar Wind. These particles are minerals, crystals, water, metals and so forth. These particles originally entered our body directly upon the SunShine falling upon our head - our "crown and third eye as well as through our eyes." (If you doubt this, look up "scientific evidence" for solar particles that penetrate all "solid" matter.) This nourishment is abundantly available to everyone when the skies are not scummed by the unrighteous - unholy. No plant or animal material is needed for sustaining outstanding health and well being.

However, when it seems our Divine nourishment is siphoned off and we are sustained on residue, we believe we are experiencing malnourishment, ill health, hunger, disease, death, decay. Perhaps as I have touched on this, you have wondered how this could take place. The Father has repeatedly said, understanding how the unrighteous - unholy deceive us is not the Way to Truth. As one of The People experiencing the deception, it still seems as though understanding helps make change to Truth. Perhaps it is the case that, to embrace Truth directly requires greater Faith than I am experiencing.

The deception of a "room", often used in meditative imagery, where we will find Truth, is in fact the "box" we are challenged to think outside of. This box / room is the deception of entrapment of the soul. It is the place from which we do not seek escape because we are "safe" there. It is the place they do not enter because they could become trapped there as easily as we were. This does not make it safe. They do, in fact, stand at the door to our entrapment holding it open so the solar wind flows through and into their halls and tunnels, carrying away the abundance of The Father which was given to nourish and sustain The People. We seek to create a storage area or storehouse in the box / room to increase our supply, but it just seems to vanish as quickly as it comes, carried on the solar wind out the "door".

Our abundance, then, can be re-stored when we recognize there is no door, and no room. That is, no passage into their deception and no entrapment in their deception. Their deception is an image projection in which apparent starvation of the brain causes "designer hallucinations." Since nourishment of the brain comes from the Solar Wind, the stop-gap measure of vitamins and herbs is temporary. Casting the unrighteous - unholy away from the door and sealing the door is also a temporary measure.

It is through Universal Truth and creatively forming an ideal of All That Is Righteous and Holy (called functional creativity) one dissolves the deception of entrapment and walks free upon the land. We recognize the Truth of "if one can conceive it, one can do it".

The Truth is: there is no building. We dwell upon a beautiful, green, safe, planet. We run freely through green fields under blue skies filled with SunShine and puffy clouds.

May Truth nourish your Soul this day, under blue skies and SunShine !

Showay short story

On a SunShiny Radiant day, may your Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile Bless you with Knowledge of your Self !

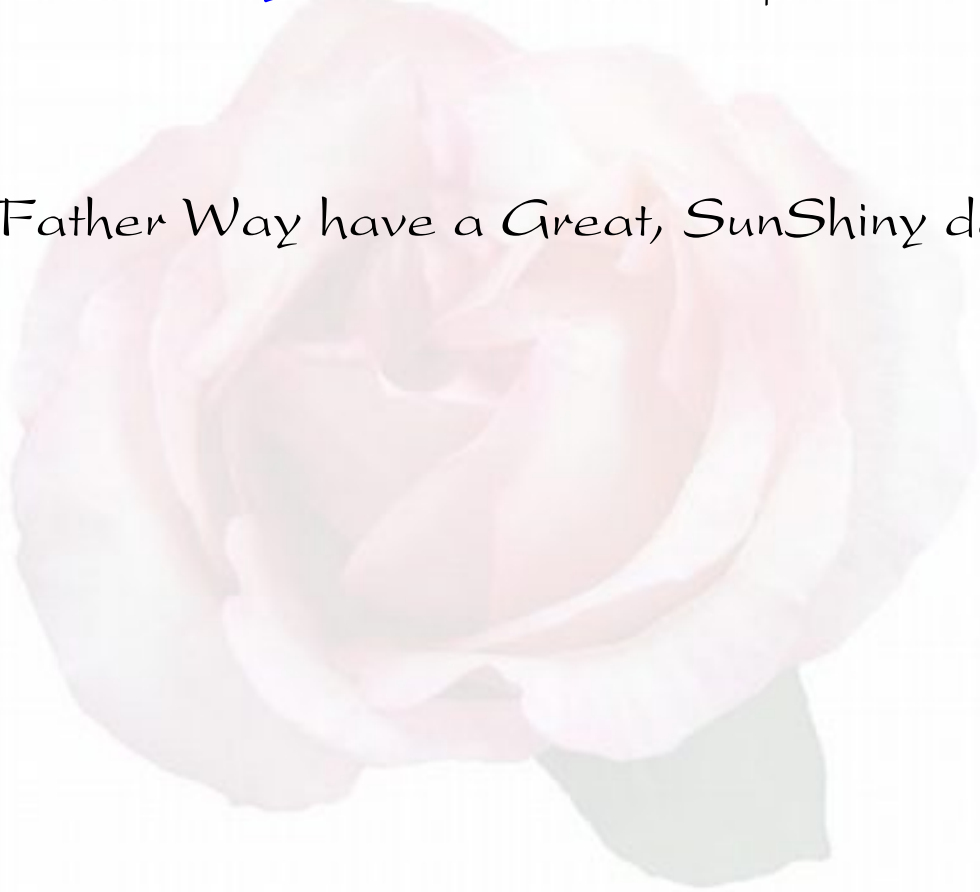

Martin posted a "Showay" short story on the website yesterday. Two days from Father's unexpected information to posting. Great job Martin !

As always, this information from Father is difficult for me to speak. However, with Martin's patience, we got it written. The few friends and family who did the early reviews of our material had expressed a preference for Martin's "fun" style of writing, rather than the more direct transcription with commentary.

Therefore, to reach a more interested audience, we decided to make this a Showay story.

To read the PDF file go to the home page of www.BlueStarWay.com or link to it from Martin's blog.

In The Father Way have a Great, SunShiny day !

JANUARY 24, 2010

change

Changes have begun on our website:

www.BlueStarWay.com.

Things are progressing rapidly. Not only earth changes, but changes for The People. Now is the time to act on the Divine Inspiration you are given. Remember, the test of DIVINE Inspiration is whether it respects all Life. Deception has no Honor, Respect, it uses Truth to deceive you by "wrapping" the deception in Truth so you ignore the little contradictory sentences. I heard a replay of a radio show recently which did just that regarding the Marshall Protocol. But here it was little Truths amidst the greater deception. This could have raised sorrow because an important factor in their protocol was to avoid the Sun. This is saying to avoid the Father, which is to invite decay in.

Each Person must take this to prayer and examine it for Truth. The strong Desire for Truth will prevail.

Now is the time to choose The Father Way, regardless of choices others make. Use Discernment and Wisdom in your choices. Just as the story of three priests praying in church survived unharmed the bombing of Japan, wherever you are, have Faith in The Father and be unavailable to what is unrighteous - unholy. Make the deception of a door through which they enter NON. Ask the Father to cast them out and seal the door until they and the door are NON for you.

There is no need for anything unlike the Divine to be present to you, in these times of change. Choose a Smile . . . the Peaceful-Joyful-Love-Light Smile. Choose the SunShine. Choose to Be LOVE.

On a Blessed Day full of SunShine abundance !

JANUARY 25, 2010

a seven day

The time has come when Martin and J felt inspired to write about the same information from The Father. As always with such extremely different styles, you should find both interesting.

Today, being a seven day, invited examination of how the Father Plan would fit the day's activities. It is a day of creative expression, mostly on an individual basis, with exclusive focus on what is Divine in Nature, Truth, Principle, and especially Joy.

Magic Bubbles always bring a joyful smile to faces and they seem to encourage the creative urge. When you are ready for a creative day, see if they bring creative energy bubbling to the surface for you.

A seven day is a look-within day. What is Divinely Creative within you? Throw off old standards of "art"--what is creative to you? Creativity is simple, simple Joy, simple pleasure. Have a fun filled seven day, of creative expression in the Presence of The Father, for He appreciates all that is creative in you.

Have a SunShiny day filled with bubbles of Joy !

JANUARY 26, 2010

cast your eyes

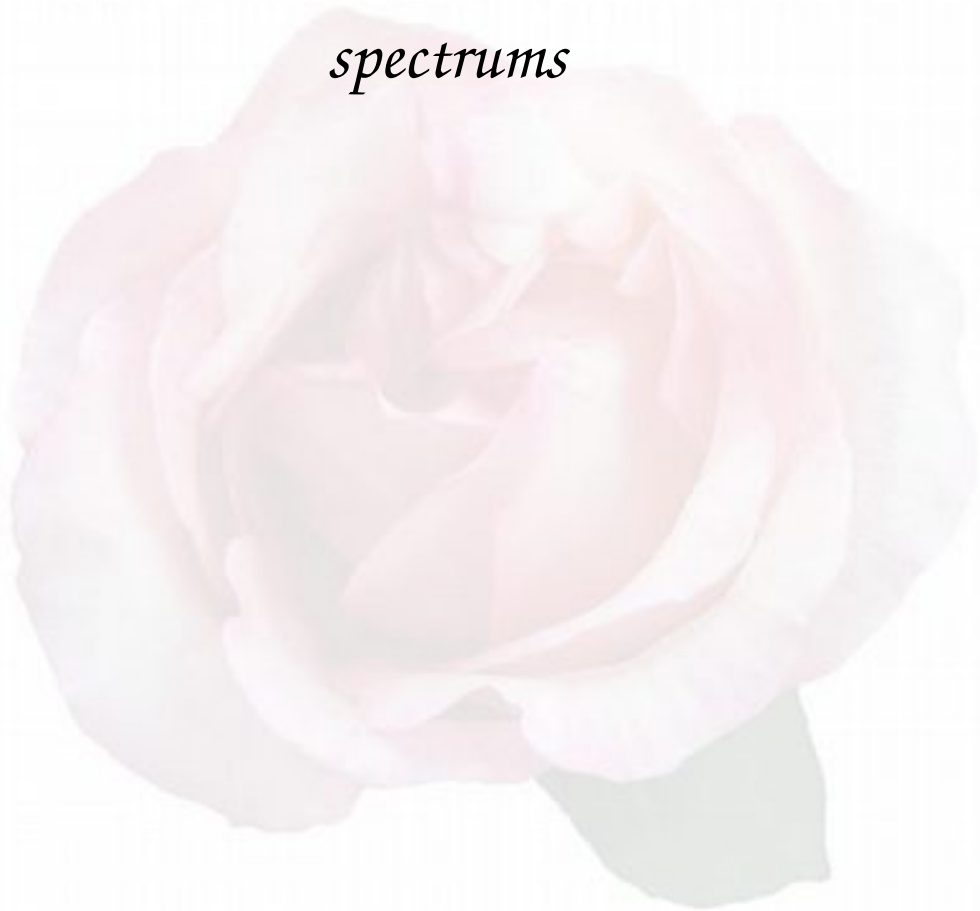

Biblically, the words are used "cast your eyes". Those words are significant. Modern language would say "where you put your attention." Most often, one literally looks where their attention is. Consider making this a day where you put your attention on The Father. "Look" to Him in all you see, say, all action.

"See" what a day with your attention on The Father brings. "See" The Father as the active Principle in your Life this day.

Have a SunShiny day full of the Joy the Father brings !

spectrums

If we are told the Light is white, but it comes from a red star, what color is white? If we are refracting red Light into a spectrum what are the colors of white light? If our Star was in fact yellow, what is the spectrum of yellow? Are they telling us all Stars emit white Light regardless of the wave frequency of the Star?

These and other questions would require more time than I have for my dial-up connection to find them. What do you suppose The Father will say? Do people on dial-up receive different search results than people with DSL or T1?

Does anyone care if the spectrums of red, yellow, white Light are different? I do. Do you know where to find the answer?

On a SunShiny day of Light, have bubbles of fun !

JANUARY 28, 2010

dimension ?

It has often been said that it is spiritual to love those who hate you. The Truth is, that it is spiritual to BE LOVE. To return love to those who hate is to give Father's re-Sources to the unrighteous - unholy. To give YOUR LOVE away depletes you. You no longer KNOW who you are. If you receive the hate in return, you are holding hate within the space Love should have been.

Hate, unrighteous - unholy is an image projection. To seal the door where they dwell is not to close the door on another dimension as they have taught us. The Truth is, that it is an image projection which we gave our attention to and thereby activated it.

TRUTH is BE LOVE. Period. Anything else is NON. Focus, give attention to Truth, and All Js.

Have a SunShiny day with bubbles of laughter !

more seeds for thought

Recently I received seeds from

www.ArkInstitute.com

It was so fun to open the box and find so many little brown packets of non-hybrid, non-gmo, seeds! Geri Guidetti, Director of The Ark Institute is a well informed Person, concerned, compassionate and dedicated to her mission of making people independent regarding food. She has a new system available for small spaces, including the square inch book. It is designed for even RV living. Geri was a popular guest on talk shows around 2000, but has found a need to be selective for radio appearances, since people attach peripheral information to the guest's info. If you do get a chance to hear Geri, it is worth doing. Check her website for lots of good information as well as ordering.

You can do it ! Right where you are. The fun and taste treasure of "vine ripened" in your own home, (travel or stationery) is almost as exhilarating as Magic Bubbles !

In the SunShine of The Father's Love, have a day "ripe" with Joy !

JANUARY 31, 2010

faster than expected

Earth changes are happening faster than expected when we posted the new Showay Short Story. There has been a lapse of days between events, until now. In the past week, some forecasters have also mentioned events listed in Showay. I would expect the weather attack on the Hopi was not from Universal Law, since Father has never spoken of such an attack on them. In these times, only the unrighteous - unholy centers are set for cleansing. This does not say that all who dwell there are unrighteous - unholy. It is to say who you are in the midst of determines your experience.

Pray for discernment of Truth, watch for confirmation of your answers, look for respect of all Life and ask for Truth again. Walk in The Father Way and act when He brings you the opportunity to do so.

Seal your garden seeds in a tin can until the moment to use them. Seal matches in tin cans until you need them. Reading about latrine needs in Haiti, confirms the inspiration I received when asking what more durable means of waste containment could I obtain, than a 5 gal plastic pail with seat. A portable potty chair for invalids with a small metal trash can receptacle was the answer. There is always digging a small hole and filling it in after use. Remember the "Humanure Handbook". Composting is REQUIRED to render the waste matter inert from disease and parasites. Parasite cleansing should be in your preparation supplies, also.

There is much Biblical precedent for preparation. The abundant years are most probably past, however preparation is still possible in the abundance of The Father. The hardware stores have seeds in now, and Menard's is carrying some organic seed. Still check for NON-HYBRID seed. It's better not to be surprised on what the seed will grow for you next year.

www.arkinstitute.com offers a complete garden, with seed that should provide a well balanced diet and enough for storage. The "must have" books are offered there too.

On a day filled with SunShine of The Father's abundance, Joy-fully prepare !

FEBRUARY 1, 2010

sincerity

A recent clarification came from my concern regarding the contrast between two talk show guests. The first one was disrespectful, demeaned the host, and appeared to have followed in the footsteps of someone who "sold-out" for a moment of fame - money was not his concern. In contrast to this, the second guest conducted himself with respect, sincerity, and an obvious fear for his well being. At the same time, he made it clear he had had a gigantic financial need just before relocation and seclusion of his research.

On the surface it was rather easy to establish the unrighteous - unholy choice of the first guest. It was the second guest who troubled me. There were many signs of moral indictment in his work, yet he was sooo sincere and respectful (and fearful regarding coming events). On the surface he appeared to be concerned and compassionate for the well being of The People.

It was only through The Father's Vision and Wisdom I could understand a very important refinement. Sincerity is not necessarily equal to choosing All Righteous and Holy activity / expression. I had never recognized the deception which says, "to be sincere is to choose the Divine". Father corrected my perception that the sincerity of concern expressed by this guest was for the People.

Father presented the possibility the sincere concern being expressed by the second guest was due to Universal Law acting to cleanse the earth of unrighteous - unholy activity and that his participation could also be scheduled for cleansing.

Sincerity is NOT a test of choosing the Way of Father Which Is In Heaven.

Pray for greater discernment, TRUTH, and Wisdom. And it will come.

In the SunShine of The Father's Love, may Truth find you this day !

With editorial assistance by Martin.

a Wise Walk

Everyone has heard : Money is power. However, it is very different to walk in The Father Way of Power. Power is of The Father. It is spiritual progression to walk in the Power of The Father and to receive the Re-Sources of that Power. Through extensive opportunity to choose to ask The Father what is Righteous and Holy use of His Re-Sources, therefore His Power, the time will come, in which, "practice has made a Wise Walk."

May your day receive the SunShine of an abundantly Wise Walk !

FEBRUARY 4, 2010

flowers and herbs

Do you take Evening Primrose Oil? Do you take borage oil? Have you considered growing these flowers in your garden this summer? Do you believe the whole plant product is more beneficial than isolated, standardized doses of pharmaceutical type herbs?

As weather, social circumstances, geological events, increase price and decrease availability, growing your own plants becomes your best investment in your future. Not only are many herbs food plants, they are medicinal. It has been many years since I received the "shock" of learning that pharm synthetics are based in plant healing. Now I am a major proponent of "grow it yourself".

A few good reference books, a good catalog, such as you can receive from www.richters.com and you are well on your way to growing a renewable source of health, and nutrition. Have you considered edible flowers in your salad. Nasturtiums were my first flower in a salad. I sure did miss them when summer was over. A section of your garden just for edible flowers would help encourage their use. Evening Primrose is a beautiful garden flower and the best source of those hard to get "good oils".

I personally avoid plants with "poisonous" parts. If I feel there are a few who have such great benefit from other "parts", I believe they should be fenced and posted, so as to keep children and pets away from them and inform adults.

Remember to harvest a few of your best plants for seed.

In the SunShine of The Father's abundance, may your garden begin !

FEBRUARY 5, 2010

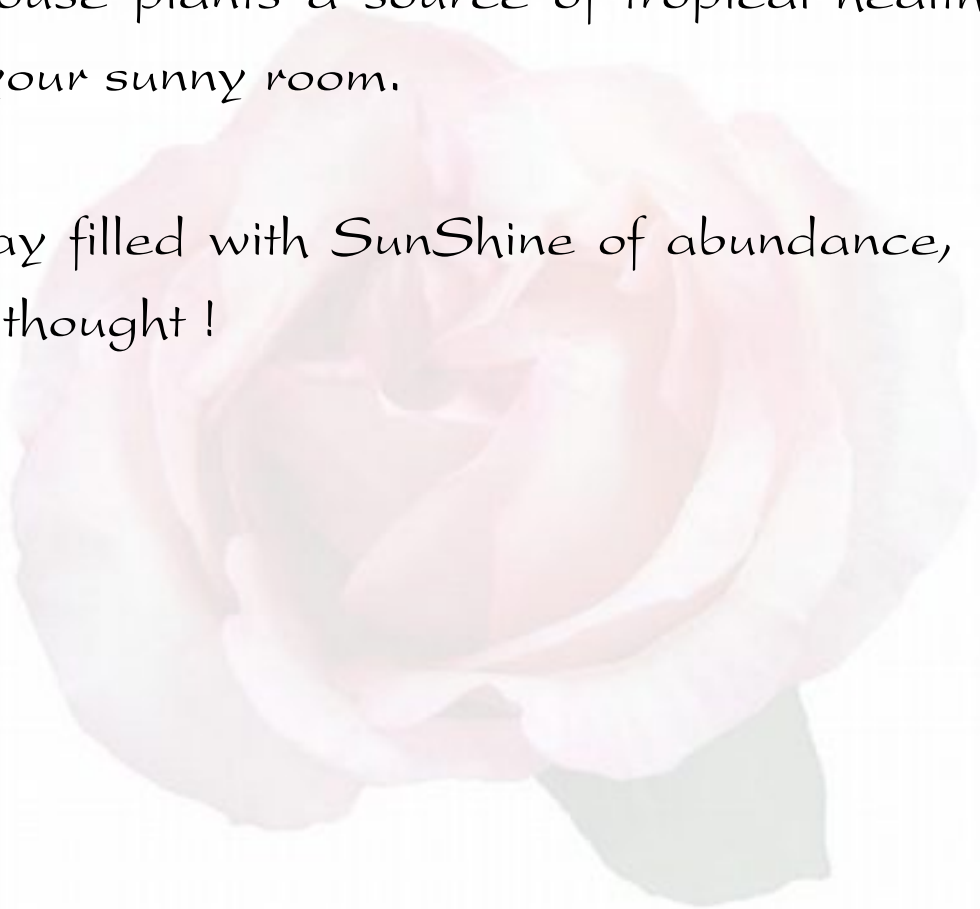

did I mention shrubs ?

While the snow flies and the wind blows, catalogs arrive, which all gardeners mention with great affection. Nursery catalogs have a vast array of shrubs -- fruiting shrubs. If beauty and landscaping is your goal, why not include food and health? Do you take seabuckthorn? What about goji berry or some other trendy fruit or juice? Why not grow your own supply of very expensive juice? Have some fresh berries and can some juice. You remember basements full of canning jars -- in the movies, of course? Dried goji berries run easily 13.00 per pound, yet they are prolific bearers and reproducers. One berry contains several seeds, which is to say several new plants / shrubs.

In limited space, grow mini-plants. Blueberries in pots, lemon, lime, fig, orange, olive. Make these exotic house plants a source of tropical health and food in your sunny room.

On a day filled with SunShine of abundance, some food for thought !

FEBRUARY 6, 2010

The two r's and two p's

Identifying Self is simple. You are Love, which Father calls Rapture. You are a wave of musical tones called Rhapsody. You are Sovereign in The Father which is called Power. You are an independent musical composition which is part of the Plan, or a part of the Universal Musical Composition.

Simply put: you are The Rapture, The Rhapsody, The Power, The Plan. To know your Self by this measure is to Know The Father.

This Truth is directly with / in front of you. It is to experience the earth in Truth. Truth is beyond the veil of image projection. Truth is NOW.

May the SunShine Light the Truth of your Self,

identity

There are many ways we falsely define our sense of identity. Two examples are:

We look to a specific person and receive our identity from them because we gave it away to gain "love" from them.

We look to our sense of place for our identity, such as being "mountain folk". Which is different on the east coast, the Rockies, the west coast. Or like Dorothy, the Plains of Kansas identify who we are.

Who we are, what our interests are, what our music is, are all identified by mostly external demographics. The single most significant false belief of who we are is determined by the person to whom we give our Love away. Whatever their perception of us is, what is given in return, is who we believe we are. Whether it is their expression of love or disrespect, or demeaning, or degrading, hostile, or demanding, it takes precedence over our innate understanding of who we are.

Until a saturation point is reached, in which it seems as though the opposition to Truth of our beauty and Divine Nature, is greater than our belief in our Self. This is the "sink or swim" point at which we must recognize the Truth and recognize as false, the image projection, whether derived from within the projection, or by means of the projection. This is where we must step out of the projection into Truth of our Self, the planet, and the Divine.

The Father says "Truth is NOW. Truth is before you. Truth is Simple".

May the SunShine of Truth Light your day, and the breeze carry bubbles of Joy your way !

overnight downloads

Some would ridicule the idea that an active computer gives one bad dreams. However, experimentation leads to the theory that, overnight downloads allow "blueray" similar signals to penetrate the brain with movies, or projections, targeted to the neighborhood.

How many children have net or note books in their bedroom? How many adults have a laptop in their bedroom? Perhaps a blueray television? Are they having "bad dreams"? I would recommend for anyone having them to remove any blueray devices from the sleeping area and to especially not let them run while sleeping.

In Europe it was common to reduce or eliminate the electricity flow in sleeping areas overnight. Have you tried it? Very peaceful !

Have sweet dreams, and a Sunny day !

contact considerations

Recently watching "Contact" for the 2th time, one of the assessments I made clarified prior confusion. They were saying:

- ◆ There is no God
- ◆ There is only extraterrestrial life
- ◆ Only extraterrestrial life ends loneliness
- ◆ We did not knock on your door to be let in -- you called us in

Not one of the points is true, except that "god" is their term. There is Father Which Is In Heaven, sometimes referred to as God.

There is also Source and Gloriosa, or All That IS. In addition there is abundant Life in all the Universes.

Loneliness is a construct of the image projection, which was illustrated quite effectively on the Pensacola Beach. The image projection held her "captive" to their projection and her "safety" depended on it. In Truth, when we walk outside the image projection as our True Self, in Love / Rapture, there is no loneliness. Thereby, loneliness never was.

Any call being sent out from this planet is being sent by them to secure escape from Universal Law. Through their image projection they did, in fact call us, or knock on the door of their projection. As we turned our attention to them, they were able to enter. When the deception is presented in such a desirable, pretty package, it is difficult to understand Truth. We are all then, "confused". Confusion is deception. Clarity is Simply Divine.

resistance is futile

When one has asked The Father for the end of unrighteous - unholy activity in them through casting out / purging, to resist the experience of that energy moving out is just plain "awful". Resistance holds the unrighteous - unholy energy (pain, nausea, sorrow, etc,) at the surface and one appears to have become ill.

"Resistance is the spiritual thing to do, because spiritual people don't get sick. Or, the truth is so awful, the deception is better." Lots of deception holds the unrighteous - unholy energy at the surface. The important thing to realize is:

When you ask The Father to take all "foreign" energy from you, it won't feel good for the moment it leaves you.

Give Thanks to the Father for the end of unrighteous - unholy energy that has been trapped in you.

Recognize resistance and pray for The Father's assistance in quickly moving out the "awful" energy, which at sometime had entered through injury, illness, trauma, and so forth.

In a brief moment the energy should leave you. Give Thanks that you are filled with Truth of your Self, The Love you are.

If the unpleasantness continues, you might want to seek intervention of herbs, nutrition, or even medical. It is important to recognize the difference between energy moving out in healing and energy moving in through unrighteous - unholy attack. The medical field is just beginning to address the problem of parasites in this country. "Worms in your brain" is more than a Star Trek movie problem. Yes, this is to say, the unrighteous - unholy use them just like the movie, for more than just control of actions.

This may all sound a bit sci-fi, however, "do what works." Ignore what doesn't fit. If traditional medicine is your "savior" -- research parasites. Treat illness as you believe. Just remember, asking The Father to end the trauma stored in your body will, for one moment look really painful, but then it's gone. Give Thanks. Resistance is futile because it inhibits the healing action of The Father.

Find Truth in all you do. If these thoughts bring Truth, then Joy to you. If you disagree, then ignore all you read. Do what is in accord with Truth in you.

On a SunShiny day filled with laughter and bubbles of Joy, may you find Truth !

FEBRUARY 13, 2010

low tech / high tech

Gardening advice recently reminded me, not only early, mid, late season varieties, but local varieties. That is, those which do well in your growing latitude, geographical features. Variety is a key element. Non-hybrid, NON gmo, open pollinated, Heirloom too. Even if you purchase packets, save some. Even one or two plants will multiply your seed in dramatic ways.

As we were talking about exotic fruit juices from the grocery the other day, I thought with anticipation of the growing season, but many of these fruits come from warm locations. Some creative thought and often "found" materials can re-Source your needs for sheltering those plants you consider most beneficial. It's amazing how much re-Source material is available if you just ask. Many very old building techniques still produce working results which you might consider highly effective. Low-tech building materials can get high tech results. We may have reached the point we are forced into the proper focus in technological advancement for our planet. Plastic was not part of our Divine Plan.

There are shapes and materials that are naturally stronger and environmentally more durable than others. Researching them can be exciting as you discover and your creative nature is stimulated with new ways of perceiving.

May the SunShine Light your days with anticipation and Joy !

FEBRUARY 14, 2010

transition to Love

Today is traditionally considered to honor love. Of course in the deception it is more lust. Of utmost important consideration is how does one transition from love to Love? Or as the Father has said Rapture is a more accurate term than Transcendent Love. Rapture, then, would NOT be for us to be taken into the sky by ET's who can't even save themselves. But, back to the point, how does love as we understand it transition to Rapture?

It seems to me that our capacity to Love is increased when we experience our awareness of Love in our experience of others, like filling a balloon with air, which is then flexible and pliable. That is to say, not rigid or immobile. When pushed it returns to its form and function with no attention to misdirection.

There are many reasons to hold on to the familiar, no matter how unpleasant the familiar may be. There is great fear to choose the un-familiar, no matter how we long for it. When we allow The Father to re-build our foundation of Truth, Trust, Faith, in Strength and Wisdom, we can progress to image-in a world where we are LOVE / Rapture which can be restored on Earth. It is the world of Truth, of our Celestial Spiritual Nature. It is the world in which The Father walks. He said I can call it Heaven.

May your day be filled with the abundant SunShine of Heaven, here and NOW !

FEBRUARY 15, 2010

role model

Do you still look to your biological father, or his surrogate for love? Is he your "role model" for receiving love? Is he your "role model" for strength, wisdom, love, respect, truth, appreciation, as a man expresses these things? Do you find, in Truth, there is no man who expresses these qualities with Honor?

Perhaps it is time to look to The Father Which Is In Heaven for a "role model" of these qualities. It is possible to experience The Father directly, if you Desire and Ask to do so, with the confidence (Faith) it will be so.

Then, it is possible to find these qualities within yourself, neither looking to be given them, nor to give them. (Perhaps to give and be given in marriage is a trap). Through this, it is possible, then, to Know your Self.

On a SunShiny day, filled with sparkling bubbles of Joy !

FEBRUARY 16, 2010

angels: fact and fiction

Are angels real? Father Which Js In Heaven told us, in the beginning of our journey, to not concern ourselves with angels. So of course we didn't. Then some time ago, The Father brought to our attention the fact angels of a Divine / Celestial nature are "real". Each kind of angel has specific functions / purpose in the lives of The People. This is a Truth we once Knew in fullness. It is now a re-discovery process for us. Our main objective is Truth, therefore we give attention to ending assumptions and await Truth from The Father.

Two types of angels have been revealed to us by Father and it has been a surprising adventure. It would seem that only as I am able to receive information from The Father in new ways, is it possible to bring progression in Truth. I completely understand this process doesn't make previous understanding "wrong", just more "basic". Such as learning math.

It is also the case that The Father said those who came to earth and were called "fallen angels" are simply what we call them, the unrighteous - unholy.

This is to say that in Truth, those Angels who come to us must be of Divine origin - purpose. Use discernment, test, ask the Father for Truth to be revealed. Trust, in this instance, must be "earned", not freely given. Remember that Truth may be small, in the midst of all you want to hear, or Truth may be large with the deception in "small print".

On a grrrrreat SunShiny day may Sparkles of Joy come your way !

FEBRUARY 17, 2010

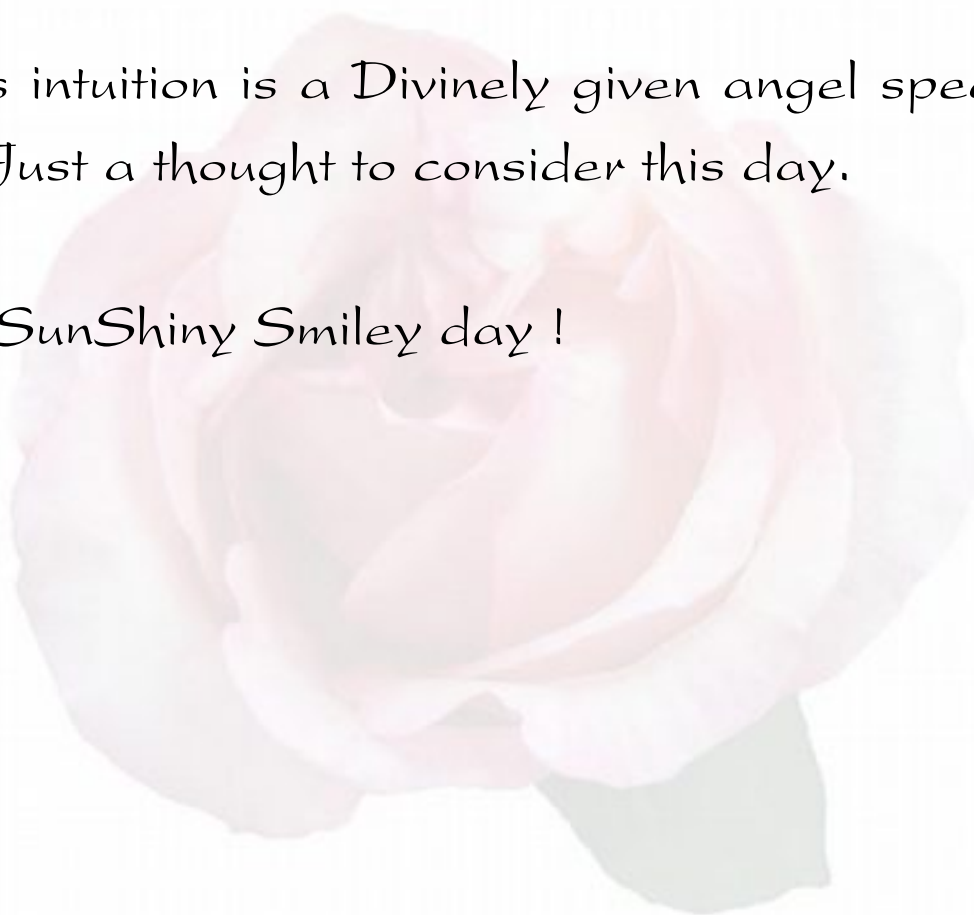

a further comment on angels

Do you Trust your intuition? Do you think you have intuition? Are you a man who thinks it is for women and you "go with your gut"? Have you ever considered it is a "gift" of angels, to have intuition?

Perhaps intuition is a Divinely given angel speaking to you. Just a thought to consider this day.

Have a SunShiny Smiley day !

FEBRUARY 18, 2010

parental ideal

Among the ideas we have been sharing, is the "ideal" of Love. Ideally, each parent would BE Love (Rapture) and they would "radiate" Love so that their child(ren) would experience parental Love as an expression of who the parent is, rather than some commodity to be given and taken.

When innate Love (Rapture) is replaced with the necessity to be given away with hope of receiving in return, The Person (child) becomes dis-connected from The Father, and all the abundance of The Father is squandered on seeking parental Love. This becomes the only way of relating a child understands. It is then carried into "mature" relationships based on lust -- still seeking parental approval and love without recognizing the origin of this mistaken desire.

This mistake is something that when recognized can be placed on the Altar of Divine Love in exchange for Truth. And the Truth is, each Person JS Love / Rapture. This is the trip to the "temple" where childish things (mistakes) are "put away" or cast out and the choice for The Father is made.

Perhaps as you consider this, you may find your ideal revealing itself, or your Self.

On a SunShiny day filled with bubbles of Joy !

FEBRUARY 19, 2010

what then?

We currently see no examples of children who remain connected to The Father. We currently see no parents who express their Self of Rapture, Rhapsody, Power and Plan. (see previous blogs) Therefore, how does one hear The Father?

Mary Baker Eddy came the closest to understanding (that I am aware of). She said 'angels are "God's" thoughts passing to man'. As The Father has brought to my understanding, certain angels were given to The People in response to their Desire for The Father after they had turned their attention from Him to the calls from the unrighteous - unholy. When The People recognized the mistake and Desired return to their connection to The Father, because The Father could no longer be heard, He sent certain angels, who "spoke" to The People on a feeling level, for Him.

The People cannot focus in two places at the same time. If their choice is not clearly and firmly for The Father, it is for unrighteous - unholy. This is truly a "black and white," choice, there is no gray area. It is one or the other. This is the time to recognize your choice. There is no mix and match; a little of this in with that.

What is your ideal? Where can you begin to make active and present your ideal? What attachment to unrighteous - unholy are you ready to place on the altar? What deception have you recognized and place on the Altar? (see previous blogs)

May this SunShiny day bring small changes your way !

FEBRUARY 20, 2010

give or deny

In talking about Love as Rapture and that it is what you are, not some commodity to be given, sold, or traded, many People believe they must deny their Love. Suppressing the Love one is creates unwanted physical effects. Increasing the physical barrier is one, and decay is another, with probably many variations and nuances.

Finding a balance so as to experience Love in increasing capacity is something untaught and for which there is no role model. Ask The Father for Truth, give Thanks that this Truth is given to you, and wait. As your Desire is strong, it is so.

On a SunShiny day, may bubbles of Love fill your day !

progressive

Have you read our free e-short story on

you can use the link to your right for A Changing Horizon or the website.

Some thoughts on progressive earth changes are proposed there. If the cleansing in Haiti is done, the Philippines are next. It seems the turmoil of last year has abated there and has settled into a simple drought. Ironic that a country surrounded by so much water has so many disasters with regard to water--from too much to not enough. How does the inundation of salt water affect the land? They say salted land will not grow food.

Give creative consideration to your garden this year. Think of growing some vining plants vertically in ways you might not have tried before. Consider pots and planters. Consider edible landscaping. It is amazing how beautiful some food plants are. Plant a tree or shrub that bears fruit you can eat, as well as appreciate the blossoms or privacy they provide.

Remember herbs are food. Many weeds are food too. If there is no room for a blueberry patch, use a pot. The miniature blueberry plants are beautiful.

On a SunShiny day consider The Father Way. In Peace, Joy and Love.

FEBRUARY 23, 2010

events re: Birmingham, AL

It is a strange thing regarding prophets--they are required to be 100% accurate in speaking for "god" and "god" is required to never change his mind. Therefore you may, in Truth, say we are no prophets. However, this day Father Which Js Jn Heaven asked us to immediately issue a call to the Faithful who Desire Truth in the Father Way, specifically in Birmingham, AL to ask for direction and safety in the event of a "red herring" radiation disaster.

Father may be saying that a supply of safe water needs to be stored in a place protected from radiation where The People would shelter.

The most important thing is to secure as large a water supply as possible, pre-bottled or any container that can be filled with water and placed where it and they are protected from radiation.

Immediate action is needed. All available resources / containers would be used to secure the water. Jars, pots, cans, money to purchase water, even though The People might be hungry as their food is stretched for the necessary time, water is the urgency. Remember to pray, if sheltered, for the expansion of the water and food in The Father's Abundance.

It is diffusing The Father's Energy to pray for the greater water supply and to 'be spared" from the red herring. It is better to Pray and prepare individually for availability and inspiration. One cannot know the heart of another, unless it is given by The Father, therefore one does not know how to pray for another unless it is given by The Father.

Preparation is never "wasted". When advised of The Father, it is in fact wise. We have seen many events never come to pass that we prepared for and in this we were Blessed. We, however, never stop following Father's direction and giving Thanks when Grace is received.

As the SunShines in Father's Grace and Abundance, Trust--continue in Faith.

FEBRUARY 25, 2010

amazing Grace

Sometimes I am amazed at the Grace The People receive. I am great-full to join the many calls to prepare that have been unnecessary.

It is the case that we still seek to maintain a water and food reserve regardless of apparent conditions. I will admit I had to look up the definitions for "red herring" this morning, since I only knew what a "red flag" event is. The results are:

- ◆ red herring(n.) any diversion intended to distract attention from the main issue

- ◆ red herring(n.) a dried and smoked herring having a reddish color
- ◆ red herring(n.) a first draft of a prospectus : must be clearly marked to indicate that parts may be changed in the final prospectus
- ◆ from Ask Jeeves search

The italics are not mine, the color is. My experience with the Father would indicate this is the definition one would use for the call to act. For it is the case that the "final prospectus" is Of The Father. The People will never know if there was an unrighteous - unholy plan for Birmingham that came to naught by the Will of The Father and Universal Law.

For myself I say, I am great-full.

On a SunShiny Smiley day, have Peace and Joy !

FEBRUARY 26, 2010

water everywhere

Sprouting is a nutritious source of fresh vegetable matter. However, it is important to obtain "clean" seed. Ventilation is important to keep fungus out. Since fungus has become a problem in many grains, clean seed is of utmost importance. Having seed with no little creepy-crawly things is good too. If such seed can be obtained, this is an excellent source of nutrition where there can be no garden. It does require a pure water supply on a steady basis. If the water can be filtered it increases the amount that must be available.

It is wise to test your water filters before emergency need. I heard Jim McCanney "the science guy" say that some filters in Iowa were not satisfactory when used during past flooding. Muddy water adds to the load on the filters. Of course, Holly Deyo mentioned a pre-filter of a white towel used with one end in a pail of muddy water and the other end in a lower pail to filter out mud. The filtered water would flow through the towel. Then the water could again be filtered with more standard filters. It would be wise to keep towels rinsed clean of soapy residue for just this purpose.

If you are using rain water, remember, you especially need a filter. The particulate matter was called "acid rain" when it was first publicized. It is worse now. Some few cities have been bold enough to publish lists of what is found in the air and rain since spraying is so intense. I'm sure an internet search will provide such lists.

Prepare and Pray. It is of utmost importance to keep focus with The Father. To keep one's Desire for Truth active doesn't mean to ignore the circumstances. If you are snowed in on the east coast, you still need food and water and the abundance of The Father. And perhaps some insight as to where you should be. Perhaps it is there, or perhaps somewhere else. There will probably be difficulty everywhere as the Sun comes to point of departure. Perhaps preparing in place is your answer.

Even through the tears, I choose The Father.

On a SunShiny Day, may Peace and Joy come your way !

FEBRUARY 27, 2010

time is relative

Have you ever started your day over again? For many, many years I have found it to be a very beneficial thing to do. It is never too late to start your day over, unless it has become the next day. Of course, when does the next day begin? Father tells us it is at SunRise.

To begin your day again is usually a response to having a "bad day". After all who would want to take a chance on starting again when it is a "good day"? To begin again is very simple, you state your intent to start over and put a smile on your face.

This is to turn your internal process to Peace, Joy and a Light Heart. As I have often suggested, keep a little bottle of "magic bubbles" around to bring smiles to all.

On a SunShiny day filled with bubbles of Joy !

FEBRUARY 28, 2010

herbs are not medicine

Not long ago Father said to me, "herbs are not medicine". What did this say to me? It is to say plants, trees, shrubs are not medicine, they are food. Martin was first to become stressed that our "food supply" is so limited in variety. The seed catalogs and stores have such a limited number of "food" seeds that Martin could see a need for "broadening our horizons". As I looked through Richter's herb catalog for the past several years, I began to realize they note that in other countries (perhaps of origin), what we are receiving as herbs are utilized as food.

One could deduce from that herbs are food. So there we have it! There is a whole world of more unusual food available out there. It is our firm belief that a varied diet will maintain health. This would, of course be a huge blow to a certain industry that drains the resources of The People as they become weaker.

Perhaps it is time to consider incorporating new-old foods into our meals and health back into our lives.

On a SunShiny day, may Peace, Joy and Love fill your day !

Some days

Mostly I haven't commented about it, but some days the blog free-ware just isn't available. Some days I just don't get it done. Either way, Martin says there is no rule requiring when to post.

Speaking of Martin, his blog has been on a very interesting series. Certainly not information I had thought of. Click the link to the right to see his blog or: go to BlueStarBlog

Chile, Haiti, Japan, Philippines, China--earthquakes. Preparedness could have made a difference. China is the only one preparing shelters and supplies for a great proportion of the population.

Making your shelter secure is an important consideration. I have thought I might ask if a reinforced concrete tornado shelter is the best option.

Father has said no tunnels. Caves OK. No tunnels. May your preparation begin today.

On a SunShiny day of Love and Joy !

MARCH 3, 2010

sea weed

Have you ever noticed that important things like iodine are missing in your diet? It's gone from the milk, bread, soil, plants. Where do you get it? The Japanese get it in all their meals and even their candy. It comes to them from the ocean in sea (weed) vegetables.

We can get it in limited amounts in formulas such as Lugol's solution. Some wise people have a limited supply of one form of iodine for radiation emergencies.

Then there is the problem of the chemicals that take over the iodine receptors such as, fluoride, bromide, and, well you can do the research yourself.

Jodine and iron have a simpatico connection in our body and soil. Deficient in one is probably deficient in the other.

Proper nutrition supports our physical function so as to be able to function as we were originally designed to do--as a Spiritual person of Divine origin. "Spiritual people gone astray" often begins in poor nutrition.

May your day be filled with Truth and nourishing eating.

On a SunShiny day filled with Love and Joy !

MARCH 4, 2010

turn isn't into is

The other day I mentioned no tunnels--caves OK. Above ground that is, like cliff dwellings. Just wanted to clarify.

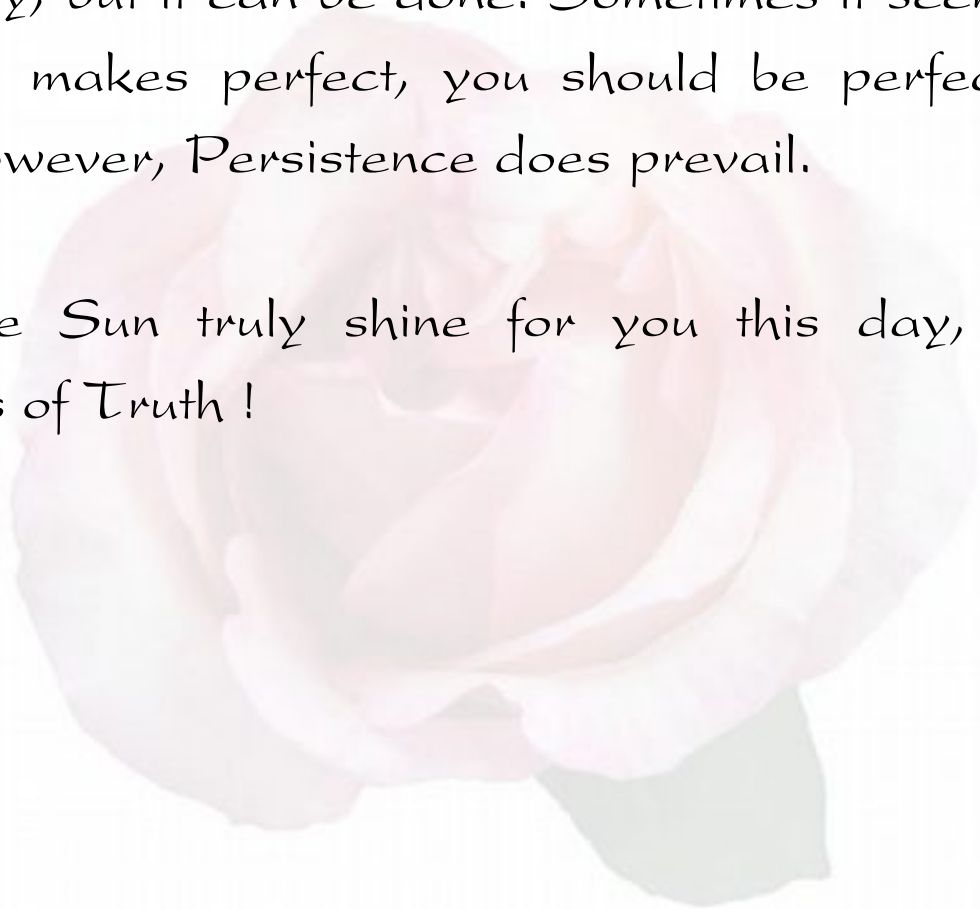

Have there been some difficult days? Days the Sun isn't shining? Days you don't see The Father's Presence? Days the nagging negativity coming at you is wearing you down?

It is possible to start that day over, to turn it around. It requires an act of your Spiritual faculty of Will, but you can do it. Some prayer, some choice to have Father's Way active with you, some asking the Father to cast out any unrighteous - unholy energy in you and fill you with Love, Truth and Joy. Persistence does prevail.

Ending any sense of conflict, struggle, or resistance isn't easy, but it can be done. Sometimes it seems, if practice makes perfect, you should be perfect by now. However, Persistence does prevail.

May the Sun truly shine for you this day, with sparkles of Truth !

glass

Most husbands are annoyed, but most women are wise. When it comes to glass that is. There was a time when everyone recognized the value of glass. For windows, for jars . . . now jars, there's the issue. There was a time people saved jars for re-use, now called recycling, which is trash pick up. Have you looked at the diminishing use of glass jars in your local grocery? Some wise spaghetti sauce manufacturers use "canning jars" that can be re-used with new lids.

It has been ironic that the average person would go to the same super store and buy glass jars for spices, flours, grains to be stored in, yet will throw away those glass jars from the grocery section shelf. More women are recognizing the wise use of those jelly jars recycled for bulk spices. The cost savings is amazing when you go to the herb section of the health food store and jar the herbs and spices at home. What about this summer when you are growing and drying your own surplus herbs? Start now collecting jars you buy often that "match" for your herbs. When the jars are stored in rows of matching patterns and lids they are as attractive as purchased jars. A set of home grown dried herbs in attractive re-used glass jars gets a jump on gift giving.

And what about the lids? As you know, Father has said NO plastic within 1000 feet of your secure space. There are other options such as metal lids with no plastic liners, ages old use of cork, ceramic, clay, glass, rubber. Many would more likely be called "stoppers". I recently saw in Target "natural home" items, cork stoppers for bottles with wooden tops.

Seems to me saving glass jars is easy for those who use dishwashers, and good storage keeps them ready. Using the less attractive jars for storage in the frig keeps the food visible, odor free, and safe--no toxic plastic residue. And some jars are freezable--use with caution. The nice thing about this re-use is that you can recycle them when you feel they have been sufficiently re-used with no additional investment of purchase price.

Re-using glass jars is something I'm passionate about, as you can see. Something for you to consider.

On a SunShiny day of Love and Joy, may some beautiful jars come your way !

MARCH 8, 2010

churn and churn

Does your computer ever churn and churn? You know that little circle that just keeps on spinning? It looks like something is going on, but nothing ever happens. Does your life look like that? Doing and doing, but nothing ever happens.

I had a clear plan when I received my Doctorate in 1995. I turned my dissertation into a book that would begin my journey of sharing what I had / was learn(ed/ing). Over the few years before I began my Doctoral journey, I had been inspired in a direction that began with the dictionary, and evolved into the process defined in Dreams and Days. I conducted several experimental "workshops" and found that the process was easily definable and immediately available to the participants. It was rewarding and amazing to see the excitement on their faces and hear the ahhs and ohhs as events that had troubled them, sometimes for years were, made clear.

Soon after Martin and J had begun using Dreams and Days as the pivotal book in our journey with The Father, a refinement was revealed to me as J looked to define an extremely unusual sentence given to Martin by The Father. As sometimes happens, someone neutral can gain greater clarity about our confusion because they have no attachment to the information. It is sometimes the case that the process used in Dreams and Days requires a considerable amount of time, therefore it has to be "worth it". And this time it truly was.

As J re-examined what Father had told Martin, it was given to me to understand the reason there were contradictory definitions for many words in the dictionary is because one is the problem (unrighteous - unholy activity) and one is the solution (The Father's Truth). It was the first time I divided the two into different threads, or sentence reconstructions. All words in the dictionary do not have two opposite definitions. But it is usually the case that when they do, they become part of a greater learning.

From this point of progression I had great expectations. But as I look back, I realize all the doing has been churning and churning. Going nowhere, getting nothing done, but busy, busy, locked up.

Finally The Father was able to show me it has been fear that keeps the (wheel) circle turning. Even when fear has been reduced to a filigree of fence with no gate, it is enough to keep us from a place "you can call heaven"--it is enough to keep us out.

While I do not support "A Course in Miracles" as Truth, there are a few things that have given me cause for thought. One of these is, "if Love is the answer, what is the problem?" Of course when we are Love, there is no problem. And when we are Love there is no fear. So I already had the solution to the problem. And so do you.

On a SunShiny day filled with bubbles of Joy and lots of Love !

daily tone

A long time ago I would take "Zen walks" during which small events were perceived to be spiritual choices that would unfold in life. It was amazing that it did, in fact, seem to happen. Today I wondered as I began this blog, if it is my new version of this process. I had previously considered the blog to be an after effect of learning, but what if it is in fact setting the day's tone?

What if my experience of this day is formed by what I say as I begin the day? Perhaps this is why The Father has suggested to begin each day with prayer, choosing my feelings, and thanksgiving.

An interesting thing about choosing my feelings is that this is to bring the feeling forward and experience it. Love--feel it. Joy--feel it. Peace--feel it. To do this upon awaking is the easiest time of day, before events come crowding in and when proper prayer to your guardian angel for protection and direction in your dreams has made arising the most opportune moment of the day.

Make the most of this day. Choose your Way.

On a SunShiny day of abundant resources !

MARCH 10, 2010

what do you want to prove?

Focus your attention on Father Which Is In Heaven, if Heaven is what you want to experience. Heaven here and now, not some after-death promise. From our sharing on this blog what do you think you get if you focus on the unrighteous - unholy? What do you want to prove in your life? Do you want to prove Love, Peace, Joy are real, or do you want to prove there is "alien presence"? Do you want to prove there are unspeakable, unthinkable actions the unrighteous - unholy are creating? Or do you want to prove there is a greater Loving Intelligence called Gloriosa-Source-Father?

If denial keeps your attention on them, they will keep holding the carrot of disclosure before you. If you loose interest they will go the next step. If they say the things you want to hear, will you stand on top the building with a sign? (reference to "Independence Day"). Will you hear the one little sentence of Truth telling you they are deceivers? But of course, don't worry about that because they are the "good guys". Making them more tangible is not something we should seek. Why would we seek to make horror more "real".

Making real, Heaven on earth is a worthy goal. Walking with The Father in Honor and Sovereignty is something worth making "real". Truth, Peace, Love, Joy, Life, are the real experience, not just some dream. And we're not talking "one world order" here. We're talking the "real thing". Consider today, what do you want to prove? I seek Truth this day. What about you?

is deception "romantic"?

I remember, as a child seeing a television replay of the old movie, "death takes a holiday". A "romantic deception" that a really wonderful person could see the unrighteous - unholy for who they truly are and still give love to them. This "romantic deception" continues today.

The blog topic has often been to BE Love, rather than giving away who you are and needing your sense of Self replaced by another's gift of their love. In the giving away process a person no longer knows who they are, because they are filled with deception when giving their love to those who make choices for unrighteous - unholy. In this exchange it then appears the person seeking The Father is unrighteous - unholy. A split mind then is created in the person. They seek The Father, but believe they are "sinners" needing redemption.

In Truth, The People are Love. How much of this day can you "see" the Truth of who you are? How much can you turn from the deception that your mistakes were founded in? How much of today, can your choices be founded in Truth? One small choice today, or one big choice today. Either is a beginning.

The People not only have The Father's Permission to Know in Truth, they are Love not deception, The Father will show you that is how He sees you if you ask to Know Him. It is Truth that "to Know the Father is to Know your Self".

May Truth Light your day.

who is betrayed?

What would it feel like to know you are not loved by someone more than any other person is loved? We expect this of Father Which Is In Heaven, but what of your "significant other"? If you were giving your love / self away to them, would you feel betrayed if they weren't doing the same? How would you as a child feel if your parents didn't set you before others?

In our society this is unthinkable. It is right, it is proper, it is necessary to set some above others.

But consider that this is the problem with expressing Universal Love / Rapture. Putting some above others is the sure trap to keep you from expressing your Self as Love. The false commitment to spouse, children, family, lover is designed to keep all The People in deception, because it is religiously dictated to be proper conduct.

Today, I invite you to consider what it would be like to walk in the Truth of this. Who is betrayed? Are you betraying your Self or those who would have you stay in the deception?

about you

I'd like to write about you today:

You are faithful.

You are optimistic.

You seek answers everywhere.

You seek enlightenment a bit every day.

You have glimpsed the spark of Divine Love.

You carry the fire, so that spark lives.

Your music dances.

You respect those who don't recognize respect.

To walk beside you is warm--energetic.

You are patient.

Your day has arrived.

On a Sun filled day of Joy-full Thanksgiving !

change is innate

This week, J listened to a few minutes of a radio show from ~14 years ago. On the surface of public deception, it appeared only the names changed. Well, perhaps some didn't. It recalls the old adage: If something works don't change it. And they don't.

The resistance to change is not innate in The People. Change is an innate part of our "design". For there to be progress to our Desire, there must be change. When we recognize each piece of deception, we must change our thoughts and actions to Truth.

Even those living in a portion of the country that was inundated with a wave of apathy causing energy must find the Strength and Wisdom of the Father active in them for change. As Confucius said, Strength begins at the head of the family, then the community, then the city, then the state, then the country. I might say Strength is an individual spiritual characteristic. It begins right where you are.

Attachment to the deception of weakness must be recognized and remedied. It matters not what they have done. Painful, perhaps, but The Father will lift your pain and give you Peace and Love. And remember to give Thanks for Truth and The Father's gift of exchange in you. It does matter when you Desire to Know the Truth of your Self and to Know The Father. Know your Strength as The Father Knows it in you.

chile anyone?

When we talked to Father about His skipping Chile in the order of EarthEvents coming as purification / Universal Law in action, He said the Chilean People had been making a choice for progression to Righteous and Holy living. The loosely called "weather modification" taking place there is not in the Divine Plan. One indication is the small number of lives lost. I was sad to see today, the country has been under continued attack to include a psychological attack of power outage in Santiago.

The unrighteous - unholy are persistent in their attack on The People of Chile I am sure there will be continued protection from the Divine as they choose to hold fast to their Truth.

On the other hand, things are stirring in the Pacific Area. Father still said the Philippines are next, by Universal Law. I had to place my desire to "save" on the altar, and Know that those who choose to stay for the "storm" have every right to have their choice respected.

Whether "earned", or not, these are difficult times. Prepare as The Father guides you. Purge all unrighteous - unholy energy from you. Pray to be shown Truth. Desire to Know The Father, before all else. Pray to Know your Self. Pray to walk in Strength that respects the choices of others and to respect your own choice for Life.

ego or Father?

How much guidance do you seek on any given day? How much do you ask is this the Right and Proper thing to do, money to spend, food to eat? That old stubborn ego (read parasite) never wants to ask. After all it knows best. Has your child told you of a need for school you won't listen to, and later you find out, (much to your sorrow) you should have listened?

That feeling we talked about not long ago, is there to guide you in the little things of daily activity as much as the big things. You are given the ability to Know the Divine Plan in your life through the feelings you receive. Admittedly the deception makes that more difficult, but a strong Desire for Truth will get you through.

You have the Strength and Wisdom to make a choice for asking, in Prayer, each and every day, in each and every way. It is amazing to me the choices I would have made in good faith, that were not the Divine Plan for me. Through times of painful learning, I could see the parasites plan have less impact and Father's Plan strengthen to a point where I believe Father's Plan is attainable. This included lots of putting the pain and sorrow on the Altar in Right and Proper exchange for Truth, Love, and Joy.

May your day be Blessed with ease and Joy in following the feelings guiding the Father Way.

With lots of SunShine on warm Spring day !

blog books

As I began preparing the first Rhythm as "RoseNoel BlogBook One" I was thinking how much I'm looking forward to Martin's first BlogBook. I really anticipate reading his current thread as a whole presentation.

Martin has taken the teachings of Father and found his own inspiration active in the ideas he is creatively expressing in his blog writing. Martin is "living proof" that one does not have to hear the "Voice of The Father" to be inspired of Him. Martin quickly related to the Divine Angel he was given to feel the direction of The Father and was moved to write his inspired understanding. If you haven't read Martin's blog you can find it on a link to the right, or at:

BlueStarWay.com/BlueStarBlog or at BlueStarWay.com and click the button for BlueStar Blog.

You can find the whole thread there and continue to view his "work in progress".

The "RoseNoel BlogBook One" will be a 1/4 page book and DVD set. The plan for the DVD is to present the book as text with an audio reading of the book by Linda (that's me). Learning the process for such a creative venture may take longer than I would like but it has begun.

talk is free (sometimes)

Lots of talk is available, sometimes for free. Sometimes it costs a little or a lot (on the internet or cable). However, the old adage: talk is cheap, is to say it doesn't take much to talk about "what to do", but it takes a lot to act in accord with your words.

Sustaining action of one accord with the Divine Plan seems to be the greatest difficulty. Not because it is a difficult thing to do, but because Truth is difficult to discern when deception has become so subtle. On those free, or costly radio shows there is a lot of "buzz" about the low frequency manipulation of many things to include people.

When one has given their all to succeed with the Father, how can one discern the Truth of their progress? When things seem worse than ever, how does one discern the Truth of their progress? Ask. Ask to be shown the Truth. Stand firm in Truth. The Father will show you the Truth of your Self. Trust your Self. And when you have been shown the Truth of your Faith-full-ness, but things don't seem to change, hold on to Truth and give the deception to the Father to be cast out from you and the space filled with Love.

Those radio shows explain in a haphazard manner, how the unrighteous - unholy do things. But who is explaining how the Father is active in our lives? Who Knows the Truth?

Who is progressing with the door fading to NON? Is it you? Do you care? Do you Desire Truth? I believe many people do. That is why they listen to the radio shows. But all they receive is deception. Why not re-assign some of that time spent listening to radio to The Father. If you do seek Truth go to the ONE place it can be found and listen to the feeling you get, the new perspective that finds you. Test it for Truth, Love, Peace, Joy, Abundance, Life, Respect. In your heart you Know what is Divine. Have the Strength and Wisdom to cast out unrighteous - unholy deception that would claim to be "god". The Father NEVER tells one to injure, hurt, attack others. Seek the end of subtle deception and you shall receive.

In Joy this SunShiny day of Love !

location and preparation

Snow, flood, tornado, earthquakes, the cycles are intensifying. As the Sun experiences the "pull" of Point of Departure, there will be increased activity. It is hard to "forage" for food when everything is under water. It is hard to harvest a garden when a tornado or storm has slashed through.

This is where location and preparation meet. Where do you locate your provisions? Where do you locate your family? Only The Father Knows what is right for you. Only you and The Father Know your heart. Truth and Pure Desire are the Way to The Father. Casting out all that is not Righteous and Holy and receiving Truth and Love in its place brings The Peace of The Father.

The most significant part of your preparation is your Trust and Relationship with The Father. Have you noticed that the most significant voices for preparation are People who have a "relationship with The Father"? Perhaps that is because He is leading the way for those who hear Him.

A Sunny Day with a warm breeze is the best time to prepare. Joyful, calm, at Peace with everything brings inspiration active in creative preparation.

On this SunShiny day may bubbles of Joy dance your way !

MARCH 20, 2010

what do they have in common?

What do rocket fuel, perchlorates, and plastic have in common? YOU ! They are all toxic contaminates of our water and food supply which wreck havoc in our bodies and make any iodine our body needs unavailable to be used. Have a thyroid problem? It is likely you don't know, if you are using the standard blood test. A new guy sprang onto the scene in the last few weeks, called Dr. Starr. He adds his voice to Drs. Blaylock, Fletchas, Abrams, and more, regarding the "epidemic" of hypothyroidism in this country.

Perhaps these toxic substances are "treats" to the unrighteous - unholy. Perhaps it nourishes them. But for us, we are being fattened like (toxic) livestock for slaughter.

OK - OK ! I know The Father has told me to stop focusing on them and focus on Truth. But that is really hard when your body is so contaminated and nutritionally deficient that each day is a struggle, and walking is so painful.

So how would I focus on Truth? Some would call it denial, but it seems I could affirm my body is healthy, robust, agile, mobile. And know that if my vision were clear, this Truth would be my experience. What more is required to make Truth a reality? Hopefully this will be revealed. I have seen affirming a beautiful day at SunRise turn a scummy sky into blue, many, many times.

So on a SunShiny Day may blue skies come your way !

confusing

Father clarified something not long ago, that has been very confusing to me. I had the perception that there was a difference between concern for a "special person" who looked to The Father and concern for someone who chooses the unrighteous - unholy. This was to say that giving one's love away to one who is good was more acceptable than giving it to one who is not.

Father told me that either way, a Person is turning their attention away from Truth / the Divine Way and giving energy / resources to the unrighteous - unholy, thereby making the unrighteous - unholy active and present.

The "goodness" of another is not at issue. What you do is what matters to you. If you knowingly put the opinion, false contract, desirability of another before Knowing your Self and The Father, you are choosing unrighteous - unholy. Even if you do this unknowingly, you must live (or would you say decay) with the results of that choice.

There is indeed a Divine Way, which is to stop putting another before the Father and Self. When someone has been made a false "god" of, by "coming first or before all others" and being put in this position of "power", you might find they resent / resist your talking it away by your choosing to Know The Father and Self. This creates a situation requiring resolution. Quiet, firm, quick.

May your day be Blessed with progress in Truth.

On a brilliant SunShiny Day !

think Spring

We missed it ! Not yesterday or today, but the 17th, by my internet SunRise / SunSet map, in the midwest was Spring Equinox. Just one of the little things they don't let us know.

So I looked at Summer Solstice and it comes and goes, comes and goes. Rather than the regular pause days as we turn back around the Sun, we have a two, two, two, three. pattern. Then a rather normal Fall Equinox and a rather lengthy 9 day pause at Winter Solstice.

What is all this and what does it mean to you? The first thought I had is that it looks like a stone skipping or slipping at Summer Solstice and it looks like we have slipped further out and are being pulled back in at Winter Solstice.

But perhaps this is a sign of the Sun's nearness to Point of Departure. These seem like small variations, but small variations in Celestial patterns can create big results.

InJoy the mystery !
