Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception,
Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.
Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.
It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on "where we were" at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of 'if... then...'.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In-Joy

Mystical and Magical

02/26/10

Early in our journey with Father, He explained to us that His Way allows awareness and participation in the Mystical and Magical. He Said that by closing the door to this, we lost the capacity to nourish our Soul and thus degradation ensued easily.

Such statement may bring two conflicting responses. On one side many people will recognize the Truth of such statement and yet at the same time, they will be aware of all this fear associated with such an idea. After all, in all our experiences of the mystical and magical - which come from the books, movies, TV, and perhaps some participation in it - it is all about the misuse of such "powers" for some evil purposes or perhaps such "benevolent" uses as putting love spells on people. This of course is by unrighteous - unholy design.

By closing the door to the natural, healthy, simple expression of the Mystical and Magical a situation was created in which many people who feel intuitively drawn to this aspect of life, have no other option but to explore it through unrighteous - unholy means.

The Mystical and Magical is not about casting spells and curses unto people, it is not about misusing stones, crystals, metals, herbs to promote unrighteous - unholy activity or goals.

The Mystical and Magical is a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leaf, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

Life on Earth is about experiencing and participating in such Mysticism and Magic.

"The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" (copyrighted 1966, 1968, 1971) explains:

Mysticism:

- the doctrine and belief that through contemplation and love man can achieve a direct and immediate consciousness of God or of the Divine truth, etc., without the use of reason or of any of the ordinary senses.

Contemplation, love, direct and immediate consciousness of God and Divine Truth. These are under the category of Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will. The only refinements that need made to the above definition are replacing "love" for Love as Self and "God" for Father Which Is in Heaven.

Let's look now at "magic". When you take a look at the definition of "magic" in this same dictionary, you will find that there is only a faint hint as to a Right and Proper use of this natural expression of Creation. That is to say, you will need to do a little detective work to get a glimpse of what this means other than its corrupted expression which seeks to "coerce nature by the use of certain rites, formulas, actions, etc.".

Magic:

- mysteriously impressive; beautiful
- [< magikos of the Magi]

Magi:

- The three "wise men from the east" who came to Bethlehem to pay homage to the infant Jesus

Now we are getting somewhere. We have the word "wise" and the indication of Respect and Reverence to the Father. The gifts these Magi brought were frankincense, myrrh, and gold. All natural substances that are very healing and which support a Spiritual Journey with the Father.

Wise:

- seeing clearly what is right and just.
- having sound judgment

Sound:

- having all the organs or faculties complete and in normal action and relation; healthy
- founded in truth; valid; legal

The picture has become clear enough now to give us some Guidance and Direction as to what a Magical experience of Life and Creation is. It is an experience that includes mystery and beauty and allows one to see clearly what is Right and Proper, Respectful behavior. It is an experience that facilitates, sustains, and requires health - that is, having all organs and faculties in utmost state of nourishment and function. It is an experience founded on Truth, therefore it is legal, which is to say it is of one a-chord with Universal Law.

When the door to the Mystical and Magical was closed, we lost our capacity to know the Father directly through our experiences. We lost our health and no longer could see clearly what is right and just. Our lives no longer were founded in Truth and Universal Law.

Can you see what great disservice it is to cut yourself from this aspect of Life? Can you now recognize in which direction Father's Way of a Mystical Magical Life would take you?

Mystery and Beauty

02/27/10

We have established yesterday that Mystery and Beauty is part of the Mystical and Magical experience of Creation. It is then worth at this time to take a closer look at these two aspects that we may know the Father Way in greater Clarity. For this purpose, I refer to the same "Readers Digest Great Encyclopedia Dictionary".

Before I begin with this process, it seems appropriate at this time to acknowledge that this method of understanding Truth through the use of a dictionary was revealed to Linda many years ago and is expounded in her book "Dreams and Days: Diamonds of your Design". I have found this method a most outstanding way of expanding my understanding of Father's Conveyances.

Father has consistently confirmed that the knowledge unveiled by this method is appropriate and accurate and has provided further refinement when asked. This is to say, bring that which you read to the Father and ask for further refinement and clarification. What I post here is many times simply a springboard to greater Knowledge available to those who Desire it. It is easier to reach the Desired Goal of Walking in the Father Way, of one a-chord with Universal Law, Universal Truth, Universal Love, when you are pointing in the right direction.

I will also add that since Linda wrote her doctoral dissertation in 1995, we have realized that words which contain contradictory definitions actually contain both, the problem / distortion as well as the solution. One set of definitions will tell you the unrighteous - unholy use of the word or how they have twisted its meaning. The other will tell you the solution - that is to say the answer as to how to do it differently. A case in point is the word "magic" which we explored in yesterday's posting. This word contains both the explanation of how Magic has been twisted by the unrighteous - unholy into an unrighteous - unholy expression as well as what Magic used to be before the distortion and what it will be once again. Sometimes more detective work is needed than others, but much Truth can be unveiled this way.

So apparently, even though I thought I would speak of Mystery and Beauty this day, it seems appropriate to take the time to exemplify the extent of Knowledge that can be revealed through this method by reviewing the word "magic".

magic revised

02/28/10

In yesterday's posting, I said it would be beneficial to apply Linda's method of using the dictionary to unveil greater understanding, to the word "magic".

Before I start, let's recap. Greater understanding of words can be received by using the dictionary to evaluate the various meanings of chosen words that describe an event. When words have contradictory definitions it indicates both the problem and the solution can be ascertained. In my post "Mystical and Magical" I provided a definition for the word "Magic" that is of one a-chord with Father's Way. How do I know it is of one a-chord with Father's Way? Because it contains Father's Attributes or Characteristics if you will: Respect, Life, Truth, Love, Knowledge, Peace. Anything different is an indication of contamination by the unrighteous - unholy.

So let's begin looking at the word "magic" as defined by "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" copyrighted in 1966, 1968, 1971. This will certainly not be an exhaustive expounding but it shall suffice. There is only so much one needs to know before getting the picture.

I will underline words that I consider key in this process. I will also not expound on definitions 3 and 4 since I already did this in "Mystical and Magical," but will say that 3 and 4 contain the information that give us a hint of Father's Way.

magic:

1. seeming control over or foresight of natural events, forces, etc. by the ritual of invocation of supernatural agencies; also the practice of this control
2. an overpowering influence
3. mysteriously impressive; beautiful
4. [...<magikos of the Magi]

What is even more interesting than the above, is the explanation that follows these definitions, of which I quote for informational purposes only:

" - Syn. (noun) 1. Magic, sorcery, witchcraft, voodoo, divination, and necromancy refer to powers that are considered supernatural. Magic involves the belief that man can coerce nature by use of certain rites, formulas, actions, etc.; it can be found as an element in all primitive religions.

The study of natural phenomena, called white or natural magic, developed into the modern natural sciences.

Distinguished from this was black magic or sorcery, the attempt to use or invoke supernatural powers for personal or sinister purposes. Witchcraft was sorcery as practiced by a woman possessed by a demon. Voodoo is one of many primitive cults, combining elements of religion, sorcery, and witchcraft...."

End of quote.

There is more but this shall suffice. Now comes the fun part. What you will read next is simply my interpretation of what I can see from this.

First, notice the definition of "black magic" or "sorcery". It involves using supernatural powers for "personal or sinister purposes". Now take a look at the words I underlined in the definition of "magic": "control over", "overpowering influence", and "coerce nature". To me, all of these words convey an undercurrent of "personal or sinister purposes". You wouldn't seek control over something unless you had a personal or sinister purpose to do so. You wouldn't seek to overpower someone / something unless you had a personal or sinister purpose to do so. You wouldn't seek to coerce nature unless you had a personal or sinister purpose to do so.

What does this mean? Simple. The definition you are being given for the word "magic" is really just the definition for "black magic" or "sorcery", "witchcraft", and "voodoo". So it should not be surprising that when people hear of the word "magic" they do indeed think about "black magic" or someone creating illusions - a deceiver.

What I found quite interesting too was the indication that "natural science" developed from the practice of "white / natural magic" which is defined as the observation of natural phenomena. Note that in this brief definition there is no indication of manipulation of phenomena, just observation. However, if you take a look at science as we know it today, it is all about the manipulation, coercion, and control of nature or natural phenomena.

Do you see the connection that was just unveiled? If the purpose of "magic" or "majik" as Father calls it, is the control and coercion of nature / natural phenomena, and if the purpose of science is indeed as many would say the "triumph of man over nature", then it most certainly would follow that science and "black magic" are interchangeable words.

Isn't that something? If coercion of nature is practiced by the superstitious, then it is called "black magic". If coercion of nature is practiced by the educated then it is called "science". Yet each are a side of the same coin.

Of course this has very wide implications in everyday life. We will explore some of these in my next posting.

Look around you

03/02/10

Yesterday, we established that "magic" and "black magic / sorcery" are interchangeable since both are based on the idea of the coercion of nature through rites, formulas, and actions, where coercion naturally indicates an ulterior motive that is against the free will if you want of nature. This led to the realization that since science seeks to control nature and it does so through the use of formulas and actions, it is indeed the practice of "black magic".

The next step in this unveiling is to recognize that since the coercion of nature by rites, formulas, and actions is magic / black magic and that this is an element of religion, then it follows that science is indeed religious in nature. Quite a statement, yet something that many have already recognized.

For clarification purposes, Father refers to this "magic / black magic" as "majik" and I will use this term from now on.

With this in mind, I will go even further and take a look at the definition of "coerce". I use the same dictionary as before.

Coerce:

- to compel by force, law, authority, or fear
- to restrain or repress by superior force

To say then that majik is based on the idea that man can coerce nature, is to say that majik is based on the idea that man can compel / restrain / repress nature by force, law, authority, fear, and superior (supernatural?) force.

Let's go even further and find out what "nature" is.

Nature:

- the basic character or disposition of a person or animal; heart
- bodily functions, activities, or powers essential to life
- the entire material universe and its phenomena

This is to say then that the practice of majik is the use of force, law, authority, fear, and superior (supernatural) force so as to compel / restrain / repress:

1. Your basic disposition or character - your heart
2. your bodily functions, activities, and powers essential to life
3. your surroundings

To compel is to "urge irresistibly, to force to yield". To restrain is to "keep in check, to deprive of freedom or liberty". To repress is to "keep under restraint or control."

Having demystified majik, look around you. Is it any coincidence your heart has been seduced, your body is falling apart, your energy is weak, you are full of fear, your surroundings are being destroyed and poisoned?

It is time to stop falling prey to majik.

It is time to stop your participation in the unrighteous - unholy play of majik and to think that any of its ways will solve any problem / provides a viable solution that sustains Life.

It is time to embrace the Father Way once again.

One step further

03/02/10

That was quite an unveiling, wouldn't you say? What? You say too simple and easy? Well that is the Father Way. If we could just be at Peace with Simple and Easy, life would just be so much easier and simpler. Hard work never wins the day.

Let's take a step further with this majik thing which, as we unveiled in the past few days is the coercion of nature through rites, formulas, actions, and so on. That is to say whenever someone uses force, law, authority, fear, or even a superior (supernatural) force to deprive nature of freedom, to force it to yield, and to control it, that someone is practicing majik. You could say he is a majikian.

Of course this goes against everything we hold as true - after all, according to the movies and books, majikians make potions in kettles, talk to crows, put spells upon people, and use stones and crystals, not technology. Technology such as weapons and guns are used by the "good guys" who try to defend / protect themselves from these "primitive superstitious" people.

Well lets see. Scientist cook their potions in laboratories and silica or glass is the main crystal they use to hold their potions. You are right, they don't talk to crows for the answer, but they sure torture animals for it. When their secret formulas go into production, they are actually cooked in big large kettles called reactors. What about spells? Scientists don't put spells on people, right? Well, perhaps you are right. We do live in a very compartmentalized world. They leave that to politicians and marketers. Did you ever buy into the idea that pesticides and fertilizers are good for us? That drinking poisoned water is safe? That nuclear power is the answer? That we should believe in them because they know what is best for us? And what about their latest spells? Lets see, genetic engineering will save the world. Or what about implanting chips on people will make them smarter. Or what about the promise of eternal life downloaded in a robot?

How many people have been spelled by these false promises of glitter? Don't you think it is strange people can't seem to realize non of their promises have solved any problems but rather made life so much more miserable for everyone who implements their solutions? Have you noticed that everyone who is a proponent of such marvels always quotes research done by scientists and that somehow the fact that some scientist is behind the study validates the claim in people's mind? Have you noticed that the potions, I means formulas, scientist come up with affect people's life and have ruined and destroyed many of them? Isn't that what spells are all about? So perhaps, after all, scientist are in the business of spelling.

So what about the technology? Doesn't their use of "cutting edge" technology set them apart from the majikians, just like in the movies? Not really, they still believe in and practice the basic premise of coercion of nature. Remember the unrighteous - unholy are comprised of several groups that fight each other, each with their own way, so to speak, to do their coercion of nature, and in this process destruction / enslavement of the People.

Pause

03/03/10

We have come a long way. When we began looking at the word "magic" we believed we lived in a wonderful non-primitive civilization that had left behind its "religious superstitions" and lived its life based on "f-acts". Now, the study of one single word has revealed that this wonderful "civilization" is founded on the principles of majik: the use of force, law, authority, and fear to coerce our hearts and our surroundings into surrendering to their control. We see now, perhaps in disbelief, that the scientific world is an integral part of this majik, and that it actually is an element of religion. Which one? Certainly not Father's, because the Father Way is not religious in nature.

We have come indeed a long way. If you feel troubled by this, as if your foundation is failing, you feel weak in your knees perhaps, I would suggest that you take a pause and give yourself some time before continuing. Also, do re-read my posting "Mystical Magical" to remind yourself of Father's Way. In so doing you will help yourself recognize that unveiling deception does not need to leave you empty handed, but rather give you an Opportunity to welcome Universal Truth in its place. This is an important aspect of cleansing - what you let go of needs to be replaced with Love, Peace, Joy, Truth or any other Divine Attribute of your Divine Nature / the Father Way. At the Altar of Love and Power you Exchange deception for Truth. That which you receive in Exchange fills the area previously occupied by the deception.

The problem with focusing on how the unrighteous - unholy manifest and affect our lives is that it diverts our focus from Truth. Father has suggested many times that we let go of the need to understand the unrighteous - unholy and focus instead solely in Knowing and Living Truth. This is what many People have been able to do to a lesser or greater extent by keeping themselves separate from civilization. What you focus on is what you become. Yet, for those living in civilization, it seems as though sometimes we are so enchanted by the spell of unrighteous - unholy that we can't even recognize there is a problem. In such cases, when we are so enchanted by majik, the tendency is to ignore the Father Guidance and brush aside any suggestions that there might be a problem. Those who step aside and don't participate are considered "weird" to put it mildly. I remember the first time someone brought to my attention that perhaps my perception of Earth as a rock in space to be exploited was in need of correction. He showed me an article which spoke of a living Earth... I thought he was nuts.

Many voices have come and gone which have raised concern about what has been happening to the People, only to be laughed at and branded as "backward misfits" or as some kind of "religious freaks" who believe in evil. Perhaps, after all, they were / are not that out of place. Perhaps... it has been "us"... who have not been able to see through the illusion.

What you have read in my previous postings is not simply a made up opinion, but rather a simple interpretation of what is clearly stated in the dictionary. I did not make up those definitions and explanations. Just followed the Father Guidance through my Intuition.

As you can see, there is more than meets the eye in the meaning of words. We tend to assign meanings to words and sentences, based on the definitions we know of these words. Considering that many words have several opposite meanings, we must question the real intent of what is being conveyed. It is very possible for someone to stealthily convey that they will destroy us by using wonderful words which to our perception speak of good intentions. Then, when we realize we have been had, they can claim they spoke in truth - it was us who misunderstood their true intention. Believe it or not, it is possible that politicians are not necessarily liars, they just take advantage of our preconceived ideas and use it to convey their true intentions in a way they know we will not be able to hear. Masters of illusion. Who do you think taught them?

Things are not what they appear to be. When you recognize this, then the possibility presents itself for a different way. The Father Way is available to those who Desire it.

Another step

03/05/10

After this brief pause, it feels it is time to make one last posting regarding the unveiling of majik practices against our lives.

As you may remember, majik is based on the concept of coercion of nature, where coercion is the use of force, law, authority, and fear, and nature is understood as our hearts, our bodily functions, and that which surrounds us. I have to admit that when I looked up the definition of nature, I was not expecting to find us, the People, as an integral part of nature. In my mind, humans and nature somehow seemed separate things. I guess this has something to do with the dehumanization of humans. Many, like I had, have drifted so far away from nature / their natural state of being, that they no longer see themselves as being part of nature. To them, nature is out there, where you go when you leave the city and those who live in farms are just strange people that don't know how to have fun in life.

In which other ways then, does this coercion of nature manifest?

1. When we focus on nature as our surroundings, we speak of Mother Earth. In which ways is Mother Earth being coerced through "superior / supernatural" force to yield its bounty? I will give you a hint: mining / drilling, agriculture, and deforestation to name a few. Is it a surprise that law, authority, and (military) force go hand in hand with these practices? It shouldn't by now, for all are an integral part of majik. Of these practices implemented by the unrighteous - unholy, mining is considered by Father to be worse than any other crime the unrighteous - unholy have / are committing against humanity. This is why, Father has explained, there has been little to no intervention to improve the lives of miners.

It is difficult to the western mind to grasp or understand the possibility that mining / tunneling of Mother Earth is such a crime, especially when you are raised to believe Mother Earth is just a piece of rock floating in space to which "god" gave us full right to exploit and destroy at will.

A hint of why mining / tunneling is so destructive, can actually be grasped by the study of the word "environ-mental". This is indeed a study that will be the content of future postings and will lead to a most amazing knowledge of reality and wealth. It is likely though, that the fact I separated the word "environmental" into two parts "environ" and "mental" did not go unnoticed by you. Having already been getting an understanding of how this study of words works, you may have already recognized the implications of such a choice. The word "environ-mental" tells us that our environment is an external expression of our mental state. Thus, when we live in an environment that has been mined and tunneled to exhaustion it follows this is an indication of the internal conditions of our mental state. Don't believe our minds / brains look like Gruyere cheese or worse? Then I invite you to explore the brain scan photography made available by Dr. Amen and others <sup>1</sup>.

2. Lets move on to the next aspect. When we focus on nature as bodily functions, activities, and powers essential to life, we speak of humans, as well as animals, and plant / ocean life. In which way is law, authority, "superior / supernatural" force, and fear being used to deprive us of our freedoms and liberty? In which way is coercion being used to keep us under restraint and control? I'm sure much of this is self evident, however there are a few ways of majik that may go unnoticed in this respect.

First, the restraint of animals, forcing them to yield their genetic material to create superior strands, forcing them into competition or labor, the belief that we humans are superior to them and that this gives us a right to exploit them. What about aquariums or zoos? Isn't this restricting the freedom of ocean life and of animals? Capturing and training dolphins, whales, horses, dogs, and so on to entertain us by acting in ways that are completely unnatural to them? We are doing to them, what the unrighteous - unholy do to us. We must indeed stop participating in this play.

Second, the restraint of the People through viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, parasites, and yes, pollution. Doesn't medicine present these as "superior forces" that can take over your body at any time and even take your life away? Unhealthy people are indeed deprived of their freedom and liberty and kept under restraint and control. Have you ever had diarrhea or the flu? Who was in control? You or whatever was causing this health issue? Have you ever been checked into an hospital? Did you notice you are not quite in control there?

What about pollution? Well, by now it is very well recognized that heavy metal contamination can impair one's ability to live life in many ways. What does this mean? It means that viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, parasites, and yes pollution are but different types of "superior / supernatural" forces that have been created and are used by the unrighteous - unholy so as to coerce / seduce us into their ways. Who needs a doctor when one is healthy and happy? But when one is sick, doesn't the advice and poisons, I mean chemical formulas, doctors offer suddenly seem so appealing and necessary? We must indeed stop participating in this play.

3. The last aspect of coercion of nature I will unveil is next. When we focus on nature as the basic character or disposition of a person or animal, the heart, we speak of who we are / become in life. The question we must ask then is how is majik used to mold us and to seduce our hearts into unrighteous - unholy behavior. What aspects of every day life we take for granted as natural part of civilization are really manifestations of majik designed to control us and take our liberties and freedom away? I will name but a few. Seduction / lust / sex is one. How many people have ruined their lives because of being influenced by this "irresistible urge that forced them to yield"? Alcohol / drugs is another one. How many people have ruined their lives because of being influenced by this "irresistible urge that forced them to yield" and does not let them free? What about education, and entertainment? Doesn't education teach us how to be good slaves, I mean productive workers or purveyors of majik? Doesn't entertainment show us ever more insane, degenerate behavior that alienates us from each other and Mother Earth? What about technology? Aren't we spelled by it! Yet, doesn't technology create an every increasing consumption of energy which needs met with an equal destruction of natural resources? Doesn't technology also alienate us from each other and nature and require our continued enslavement so we can pay the financial burden it brings into our lives? Have you looked lately at all the health warnings that accompany your latest electronic gadgets?

Look around. What do you see?

Now that you can see through the glitter of deception, we will turn our focus to the Father Way.

Mystical and Magical

03/07/10

It is time then to redirect our focus to the Father Way of the Mystical and Magical expression of Life. To do so, we will refresh our minds with some of the initial observations made in my first posting Mystical and Magical.

The Mystical and Magical is a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leaf, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

Life on Earth is about experiencing and participating in such Mysticism and Magic.

From "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" (copyrighted 1966, 1968, 1971) we obtained the following definition of Mysticism:

Mysticism:

- the doctrine and belief that through contemplation and love man can achieve a direct and immediate consciousness of God or of the Divine truth, etc., without the use of reason or of any of the ordinary senses.

Contemplation, love, direct and immediate consciousness of God and Divine Truth. These are under the category of Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will. The only refinements that need made to the above definition are replacing "love" for Love as Self and "God" for Father Which Is in Heaven.

Through some detective work, a clearer understanding of Magic was revealed.

Magic:

- mysteriously impressive; beautiful
- [< magikos of the Magi]

Magi:

- The three "wise men from the east" who came to Bethlehem to pay homage to the infant Jesus

Wise:

- seeing clearly what is right and just
- having sound judgment

Sound:

- having all the organs or faculties complete and in normal action and relation; healthy
- founded in truth; valid; legal

By following these definitions it became clear that Magic is an experience which includes mystery and beauty and allows one to see clearly what is Right and Proper, Respectful behavior. It is an experience that facilitates, sustains, and requires health - that is having all organs and faculties in utmost state of nourishment and function. It is an experience founded on Truth, therefore it is legal, which is to say it is of one a-chord with Universal Law.

When we live a Mystical and Magical Life, the capacity to directly Know the Father Which Is in Heaven and Universal Truth is available through our capacity to contemplate and to express Self as Love. It is an individual experience. A Mystical and Magical Life is lived in the Wisdom that such experience brings - it makes it possible to know what is Right and Just, or as Father would say, Righteous and Holy. In this experience, there is Health - that is to say all organs and faculties are normal and fully nourished. Clean air, clean water, clean soil, and nourishing food are an integral part of a Mystical and Magical Life - these are the basic necessities that support Health.

Having refreshed the mind and gladdened the Heart I shall continue exploration of the Father Way in future postings.

Mystery and Beauty

03/10/10

Focused on Father's Way of the Mystical and Magical experience of Life, we came to recognize that Mystery and Beauty are a part of such experience. Let's now do some exploration of what this means and how it would express in our lives.

Again, using the same dictionary, "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary", we gather the following information.

Mystery:

- any action, affair, or thing that arouses curiosity or suspense because it is not fully revealed or explained
- a truth that can be known only by Divine Revelation
- Syn. A mysterious occurrence contains something unknown but not necessarily unknowable.

In a Mystical and Magical Life, we would each individually experience certain events which would arouse our curiosity. We would naturally feel drawn to investigate and discover, such as children do when they explore their environment. In this, a Greater Truth would become available to us, a Truth that would come from our direct Knowing of the Father.

It is important to recognize that Mystery is a Truth that can be known by Divine Revelation / Knowledge of the Father. That is to say Mystery leads to Greater Truth of Creation and our Selves. As each one receives answers to the Mysteries of Life, each one receives a greater Understanding of Love as Self, Peace, Joy, Harmony, Respect, Honor.

In Father's Way, Mystery is about Life and how to expand our capacity to experience this Life in its fullest. It is a Playful way to discover the Beauty of Creation.

Let's explore then the word Beauty:

Beauty:

- that quality of objects, sounds, ideas, attitudes, etc, that pleases or gratifies as by their harmony, pattern, excellence, or truth

Notice the words in this definition. Harmony, Excellence, Truth. Can you recognize the Pattern of the Father Way?

When we Playfully discover the Beauty of Creation, we are exploring the Harmony, Excellence, Truth of Creation. This experience of course brings pleasure and gratification. This is the Father Way. Are you in need of Pleasure and Gratification? Then perhaps you should consider the Father Way of a Mystical and Magical Life.

Gratification:

- a recompense or reward

Gratify:

- to reward
- see Satisfy

Satisfy:

- to supply fully with what is desired, expected, or needed
- to free from doubt and anxiety

When we speak of Beauty, we speak of that which rewards and satisfies us. That which fully supplies all that is Desired, Expected, or Needed.

Can you see the relationship between Beauty and Abundance? When you live in the Abundance of the Father you are fully supplied, your needs are met - or better said, you no longer have needs for there is nothing lacking in your life. Think of the lilies of the valley who toil not and the Father nourishes and sustains.

When we speak of Beauty, we speak of that which frees us from doubt and anxiety.

Can you see the relationship between Beauty and Peace? Where there is Peace, there is no doubt and anxiety. That is to say Beauty brings Peace to us. It calms us and comforts us. Think of a sunset or a serene landscape.

Pleasure:

- an agreeable sensation
- something that gives a feeling of enjoyment, delight, or satisfaction
- Ant. Displeasure, pain, sorrow

When we speak of Beauty, we speak of a state in which pain and sorrow are non. It is a state of well being.

Can you now better recognize the Father Way of Beauty and distinguish it from the world's distortion?

Attitude:

- position of the body
- state of mind, behavior, or conduct
- Syn. Attitude, position, posture, and pose refer to the physical aspect of a body, and by extension, to a mental outlook. Attitude is a position of body assumed consciously or unconsciously, expressing a feeling of mind; hence it may refer to the feeling itself.

From the dictionary, we learned Beauty is the quality of attitude that pleases or gratifies by its harmony, pattern, excellence, or truth.

So when we speak of Beauty, we speak of a position of the body, a state of mind / behavior / conduct, a mental outlook or feeling that brings the rewards of Abundance and freedom from anxiety, pain, doubt, and sorrow. We speak of an attitude that brings feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, fulfillment because it is Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful.

In the Father Way, Beauty is indeed a most wonderful state of being and of Creation. Abundance, Joy, Peace, Delight, Nourishment all available not through another, but through the attitude we choose.

From the dictionary we also learned that Beauty is the quality of objects and sound that please or gratify by their harmony, excellence, or truth.

Sound, as we discovered in my last posting is to have all organs / faculties complete and in normal action and relation. This is to say then that Beauty is also a state of health that brings the rewards of Abundance and freedom from anxiety, pain, doubt, and sorrow. It is a state of health that brings forth feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, fulfillment because it is based on Harmony, Excellence, and Truth.

Sound can also be found in music and in our surroundings. When we speak of music, think of your inner music, the music you Play. Does the music you Play reward you with a state of Abundance and Peace? Is it Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful? Does it evoke feelings of enjoyment, delight, and satisfaction? Or does it tell you it all depends on that "special someone"? What about your surroundings? What kind of sounds are you surrounded by? What is the sound of progress and civilization?

Let's look at the word "object".

Object:

- One who or that which is the focus or center of thought, action, etc.

When we speak of Beauty, we also speak of the nature of that which is our focus or center of thought. In a Mystical and Magical Life, our focus and center of thought would be Harmonious and based on Truth. The suspense and curiosity the Mysteries of Life would arouse, would certainly make this Lightheartedly easy. Mystery would help us focus on that which evokes feelings of enjoyment, delight, and satisfaction. It would bring Abundance and Peace.

Creation makes it easy and fun to grow in our Spiritual Journey.

As you can see, Beauty is not something / someone you lust or something / someone that is used to seduce / entice you. Instead, Beauty is something you are. It is a state of Being and experience.

Can you see now why we the People are so attracted to Mystery and Beauty? It is an integral part of our Mystical and Magical Spiritual Journey upon Earth.

Rather than seeking Mystery and Beauty through its adulteration of murder / action / violence and lust (the cookie cutter recipe used by the unrighteous - unholy), it is time to wake up from the false promise and return our focus to the Father Way.

Where do we begin?

03/12/10

So here we have it. Father's Way of a Mystical and Magical Life. Who would have thought a Spiritual Journey lived in Truth, Excellence, Harmony, and Peace could actually be fun and enjoyable?

From the perspective of the western mind this is quite a realization to make. I know I was indoctrinated to believe people that live close to nature are boring. In the western mind, fun is what you have when you are not in church performing your Sunday duty as a "Catholic / Christian / your religion here" and enduring the weekly reminder of your sinful, weak nature.

What can I say? When you compare the religious version of a "good life" which is all about repressing your needs, sacrificing yourself, and giving it all away to others with the enticement of the world - "gadgets", money, nightclubs, alcohol, sex, disrespect, theater and operas, concerts, movies, and drugs. Is it any surprise most get engulfed by the false promises of the world? Yet neither is the answer.

By the time most recognize the deception (midlife crises anyone?), most of the damage has already been done. And the worst part is that even when we recognize this, there has not been any real answers. Some go to therapy to get over their mistakes, some try to relive their teenage years by divorcing and hooking up with someone younger, others just sink their sorrows in drugs and alcohol, others get the save the world complex and go out as good Samaritans, and others try a simpler more meaningful life by returning to the land.

Granted, returning to the land for a simpler more meaningful life is by far the wisest choice, but even then, for most people, we speak of a life based on the principle that hard work earns the day and puts food on your table.

Where is there room in this way of life for the Mystical and Magical which indicates all it takes to Live in Abundance, Joy, Self as Love, and Peace is simply holding the proper posture or attitude - that is to say FEELING?

All this is to say, that there is a need to recognize the need to do things differently. There is a need to change the approach we take on life. To embrace the Father Way and begin this Mystical and Magical experience of Life, we need to begin with our feelings. As Linda pondered in her post "Daily Tone" <sup>2</sup>:

"What if my experience of this day is formed by what I say as I begin the day? Perhaps this is why The Father has suggested to begin each day with prayer, choosing my feelings, and thanksgiving.

An interesting thing about choosing my feelings is that this is to bring the feeling forward and experience it. Love – feel it. Joy – feel it. Peace – feel it. To do this upon awaking is the easiest time of day, before events come crowding in and when proper prayer to your guardian angel for protection and direction in your dreams has made arising the most opportune moment of the day.

Make the most of this day. Choose your Way.

On a SunShiny day of abundant resources!"

Feelings are where we begin

03/14/10

If feelings are where we begin and Beauty is a feeling then perhaps Beauty is indeed part of the answer to restoration of Self as Love. Beauty is a feeling that brings enjoyment and delight. It is a feeling that facilitates Abundance and fills our supplies.

Is it then a surprise that we the People naturally recognize the value of Beauty? Is it then a surprise that one of the first things that the unrighteous - unholy do is destroy our sense of Beauty and impose upon us a standard of beauty which many recognize as unattainable?

What makes this standard of beauty unattainable is not, as most think, that the "average" People cannot measure up to the "perfection" of body presented as this standard of beauty. What makes this standard of beauty unattainable is the fact that it is based upon the opposite of what Beauty actually is. When this state of "perfection" is achieved there is no Beauty left. How can you be in Beauty when all the ways that you seek to attain it separate you from Beauty - the feeling that brings enjoyment, delight, Abundance, and Peace?

When you look at a body that is kept slender through starvation or drugs, you are not looking at real Beauty. Beauty as we have seen brings Abundance and a state of well being or Health. A body that is starved lives in famine. When you look at self imposed starvation / famine, you are looking at someone who has chosen to cut themselves from the Abundance of the Father and thus at someone who is in an unnatural state of being - you are looking at a malfunctioning being. There is no Beauty in famine and malfunction.

Incapable or unwilling to receive the Abundance of the Father and have all needs met, a starved body seeks to satiate its hunger by feeding on the energy of others. It is constantly looking for someone to entice and seduce into lust, for lust is a way to trick someone into giving energy away. Yet, lustful feeding leaves everyone involved hungrier, emptier, and with a false sense of Self. When someone has a false sense of Self, that person does not live in Truth and Harmony. If there is no Truth and Harmony, there is no Beauty.

When you look at a body that is used to seduce and entice, you are not looking at real Beauty. Beauty is a bodily posture or attitude that brings feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, and fulfillment because it is Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful. Beauty is free of pain, sorrow, doubt, and anxiety. A body that is used to seduce and entice is full of pain and sorrow. The pain of fitting in shoes that are most uncomfortable, the pain of being strapped in clothing that does not allow it to breathe, the pain of being surgically modified, the sorrow of being chemically laced, the pain and sorrow of starvation and malnourishment. The pain and sorrow of not being allowed to be Harmonious with the Father. It is filled with the anxiety and doubt of not being lustable enough, of being overshadowed by a more "perfect" body. It is in constant competition for "food" and in constant fear of losing its source of "food". Where there is sorrow and doubt, anxiety, fear, and competition, there is no Peace. If there is no Peace, there can be no Beauty.

Is it then any surprise that those who seek to live by worldly standards of beauty actually live miserable lives and make the lives of those around them miserable too? Have you noticed that many who meet this worldly standard of beauty have severe attitude problems? They are irrational, angry, vindictive, and manipulative. Do you know why? Because their brains are malnourished and thus can no longer function normally. While by French standards these traits add the "I don't know what" that makes someone irresistible, they are truly signs of a malnourished and therefore, malfunctioning brain. To allow oneself to be seduced by such behavior is insane - another sign of a malnourished / malfunctioning brain.

Can you see now that the worldly standard of beauty is a coercion of that which is a natural state of Being? Can you recall what the coercion of nature through rites is? What are the rites of worldly beauty? Starvation, pining, self flagellation, exercise, enticement, lust, competition. Can you recognize worldly pursuit of beauty is majik? It is time to wake up from the spell of majik and return to what is natural to us.

Beauty certainly has great Value, but we must stop seeking it in all the wrong places and in all the wrong ways.

How is it done?

03/15/10

We know now that feelings are where it begins, but how do we actually transition to the Mystical and Magical Life of the Father Way? The first steps have already been taken. They were the recognition that our perception of Reality needed to be re-fined and re-tuned and a willingness to embrace the possibility of restoration to our True Nature.

As we continue this individual journey of discovery and restoration to the Father Way, we focus on the Mystical and Magical as a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leaf, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

Step by step we progress in this journey in which we awaken once again to a way of Life that is conducive to Joy, Peace, Abundance, and Harmony, for we re-learn to be Love as Self free of another and free of the intrusion / presence of the unrighteous - unholy.

Each morning we sit and Pray and set our feeling tone for the day. We greet the Sun rise and welcome the Abundance and Joy that Father makes available to us through Him. We make a choice by saying the following Prayer:

*I give not away my Righteous and Holy Desire through untoward / unwarranted activity and play.
I choose this day to beleaguer no more.
I seek instead all Righteous and Holy Play.*

Not sure what the words in the Prayer mean? A Mystery to be solved! Perhaps your dictionary may help.

How do we progress in the Mystical aspect of Life? By seeking a direct and immediate Knowing of the Father Which Is in Heaven and of Universal Truth. We do this through contemplation and Love as Self and by recognizing that this is something available to us right here upon this Earth while we are alive - there is no need to go to Heaven. Instead, through our contemplation <sup>3</sup> and expression of Love as Self, we solidify Heaven on Earth.

As we welcome Knowledge of the Father in us, we remind ourselves of the Attributes or Qualities of the Father. Universal Truth - no room for deception or deceitful behavior. Peace - no enemies to defeat or battles to win. Joy - sorrow and pain are not of the Father. Abundance - lack and famine are not of the Father. Respect - each is allowed to live by the consequences of their own choices, no one to convert or save. Harmony - no room for competition. Love as Self - that which you are and receive from the Father is for your sole use.

Mysticism is a quiet internal process based upon Right Thinking, Right Action, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will.

So, how do we progress in the Magical aspect of Life? By nurturing and developing the various attributes of Magic. As we have learned from previous postings these attributes are:

- Wisdom - the capacity to see what is Right and Just because it is founded on Universal Truth and Universal Law
- Health - having all the organs or faculties complete and in normal action and relation
- Mystery - an individual experiences that arouses our curiosity and invites us to playfully explore the Beauty of Creation with the innocence of a child, that we may receive Knowledge of Universal Truths through Divine Revelation
- Beauty - an inner experience that rewards us with freedom from anxiety and doubt and which fills our store with Abundance. A most wonderful state of Being or feeling which can be nourished and sustained by:
  - ◆ That which you focus upon
  - ◆ The music you Play
  - ◆ Posture of the body
  - ◆ Mental outlook / conduct

As we change that which we focus upon to the Father, to Universal Truth, to the Mysteries of Creation, as we change the music that we Play to Harmony, as we change our bodily posture and mental outlook / conduct to an upright position, we begin to experience the feeling of Inner Beauty. A feeling of delight and enjoyment that allows the Abundance of the Father to be received once again in us. We begin to feel fulfilled and satisfied, no longer in need of love and approval.

This feeling of Inner Beauty is facilitated by / conducive to a state of Health in which our organs and faculties are restored to normal function, with our Head, Heart, and Soul being high on the list.

In a Magical Life, we make choices that support our inner Beauty and Health, not so that we can seduce and entice others into giving us their energy and resources, but rather so that we can directly receive the Abundance of the Father which He makes available for our sole use.

In a Magical Life, we seek Right and Proper nourishment of our Head, Heart, and Soul through the food we eat, the air we breathe, the liquid we drink, and the Creative Endeavors / Expressions we Light Heartedly undertake.

In a Magical Life, we apply the Wisdom obtained to recognize what is Right and Proper action / direction for our lives. The Magi could be used as an example here. To visit Jesus they had to use their Wisdom to recognize the signs of change, to know when to begin the journey (perhaps months or years ahead of Jesus' birth), to know where to go and how to get there, to sustain themselves during the time of travel, and to know what gifts would support Jesus in his Spiritual Journey: frankincense, myrrh, and gold. That is to say a Magical Life lived in Wisdom includes knowledge of the plant / herbal / mineral kingdoms. It includes Right and Proper interpretation of the signs of change that are made available. It includes Right and Proper preparation and planning for what lays ahead.

As you will find, a Mystical and Magical Life is conducive to finding your purpose in Life.

Your Purpose in Life

03/16/10

I indicated in my last post that a Mystical and Magical Life can lead one to find his / her Purpose in Life. How can that be? Let's follow this Mystery by first recognizing that perhaps Pur-pose is a combination of two words: Pure + Pose.

Using the same dictionary as before we shall explore what Divine Revelation can unveil through our Desire for the Father,

Pure:

- free from mixture or contact with that which weakens, impairs, or pollutes
- containing no foreign or vitiating material
- free from moral defilement
- Syn. Pure suggests the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential

Pose:

- the position of the whole or part of the body
- Syn. See attitude

So here you have it again, just as with Beauty, when we speak of Purpose in Life, we speak of a body position, an attitude, a mental outlook, a feeling. Contrary to worldly doctrine which tells us that a purposeful life is lived by doing something called "your calling", I would suggest that to find one's Purpose in Life is to return to a state of Being that frees one from foreign or vitiating material, pollution, defilement, and from that which is alien or nonessential.

It is a shift in perception that restores us to the Truth of Who We Are. It is a shift in perception that can be obtained through shifting our body position and mental outlook. It is a fine tuning of our head back to what Father Calls Righteous and Holy Opportunity of our head. And yes, when we find our Pure-Pose, Abundance of the Father follows.

To find your Purpose in Life is then to return to your Innocence. Wouldn't that be nice?

To return to the Innocence and Purity you had as a child, before the world descended upon you and began its process of deceiving you into believing you are dirty, impure, and worthless, is indeed a Noble Cause. Yet this is not the end goal of Life. In a way, this could be likened to washing laundry. Washing laundry is not the end goal. The end goal is to do things while wearing the clean clothes you washed, and thus feeling comfortable and good. Purpose in Life is then what you get after you do your washing. The end goal is not the return to your Innocence, but rather to go and do things in a state of Innocence, feeling once again clean and comfortable about yourself.

While the idea of a simple shift in perception that will restore us to our Innocence is quite appealing, it is the case that we have drifted so far away, that a time of transition and preparation has become a necessity. Before we can receive this shift in perception and actually keep it, we must make adjustments / corrections to our perception, we must regain our spiritual and physical strength through Right and Proper nutrition and nourishment of our body and Soul, and we must let go of our attachment to the false promises of the world. These false promises include the false perception that our happiness and joy is found through a "special someone", through family and friends, through success in the worldly way.

We cannot be lifted from the murk and mire as long as we remained weighted down by others. Neither can someone else be lifted as long as you weigh them down. That is to say, we must learn to let go of the attachments others have put upon us as well as the attachments that we have put upon others. What we Desire, is to reestablish our connection to our Source and become fully responsible for our own well being, health, and happiness.

Much of this can significantly be facilitated by Right and Proper nutrition. How your head works, affects how you feel and what your perceived needs are. Dr. Blaylock and Dr. Fletchas provide good information on this. John Gray, in his book, "The Mars and Venus diet and exercise solution" provides very interesting information that will support you in this process of restoration. I must however strongly caution you to the fact that his books, as well as many others he makes reference to, are written from the worldly perspective - that is to say: life is about being married, making love, raising children, sacrificing oneself for others, giving yourself / love away to others, and being a productive worker, and therefore, any self improvement is directed toward being better at doing those things. As you read his book(s), keep in mind that the Father Way would have us move past this and step into a Mystical and Magical Life.

Pure-Pose

03/17/10

In my last posting, I proposed that the word purpose could actually be seen as the combination of two words: pure + pose. The combination of different words to form new words is something that Father uses quite frequently. You will read many times in Linda's blog and mine certain words that appear to be misspelled or misused. That is indeed a purpose-full choice.

What I would like to do today is to focus a little bit on the qualities of Pur-Pose, which is mainly determined through the exploration of the word pure.

Pure:

- free from mixture or contact with that which weakens, impairs, or pollutes
- containing no foreign or vitiating material
- free from moral defilement
- Syn. Pure suggests the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential

It is interesting to note that in this definition we are given to know that 'pure' is the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential. This is to say then, that that which is foreign, vitiating, and defiling is alien or / (and) nonessential to us on Earth. It also says that, that which is weakening, impairing, or polluting is also alien or / (and) nonessential to us on Earth.

As established from the same dictionary I have been using, 'The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary', when we speak of that which weakens, we speak of that which

- drains our physical strength, energy, and vigor
- drains our mental and moral strength, causing us to err or fail

When we speak of that which impairs, we speak of that which

- makes us worse
- reduces our power, quality, value

When we speak of that which pollutes, we speak of that which

- corrupts and defiles
- makes impure and dirty

When we speak of foreign material, we speak of

- that which affects the body and sensual appetites in a way that is not normal or common
- alien

When we speak of that which vitiates, we speak of that which

- impairs the use of
- corrupts

When we speak of moral defilement, we speak of that which

- corrupts our capacity to distinguish between right and wrong

When we speak of that which corrupts, we speak of that which

- contaminates
- perverts
- changes from the original

When we speak of that which perverts, we speak of that which

- turns to an improper use or purpose
- distorts the meaning of
- leads astray
- turns you away

When we speak of that which is alien, we speak of that which is

- unnatural
- contrary to the laws of nature
- inhuman
- artificial

The reword the above. That which drains our physical and moral strength, that which causes us to err and make mistakes, that which makes us worse, that which affects the body and sensual appetites in an abnormal way, that which corrupts our capacity to distinguish between right and wrong, that which contaminates, distorts Truth and turns that which was intended for our good into an improper use, that which leads us astray and turns us away from our True Nature is unnatural, it is contrary to the laws of nature, it is inhuman, it is artificial. If all of this is unnatural and against the laws of nature, and majik is the coercion of nature which is action taken against the laws of nature, then it follows that when we speak of returning to our Pur-Pose in Life, we speak of stopping our participation in the ways of majik.

Of course, scientists, experts, and perhaps even our own conclusions based on what we see of "human nature" would tell us that this kind of behavior is natural to humans, that we are destructive, aggressive, perverse, lustful, and oppressive. They tell us that pollution, sickness, famine, viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, death, decay, destruction, darkness are a normal part of life, and that we just have to learn to cope with this. Yet Father would Say this assessment is inaccurate.

Pollution, sickness, famine, viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, death, decay, destruction, darkness are unnatural to this Earth and to Creation. We the People are naturally Peaceful, naturally expressive of Self as Love, naturally kind to each other. All spiritual seekers and travelers who have taken the time to talk to the People in various cultures have come to the same conclusion: we all Desire the same - Peace, Abundance, and the Opportunity to Live Life. We the People stand united in our Desire for the Father Way.

It is time that we the People, united, ask in Prayer to the Father and to Universal Law that majik and those who force / purvey majik upon us be cast out from this Earth. That the door that was opened by the unrighteous - unholy to contaminate us with their ways be sealed until the day it can be forever dissolved. Not one gun needs fired for this to become a reality. They are not our enemies, we seek not to defeat them in battle, to see who is stronger in will, or to change their ways. We seek instead our restoration to the Father Way and in Prayer we ask that we be allowed to do so in the Safety and Protection of the Father and Universal Law. We show our Desire is Genuine and Honest by withdrawing our participation in their game. We show our Desire is Genuine and Honest by returning to our Pur-Pose in Life that we may InJoy the Mystical and Magical Life [in] the Father Way.

Unto a Bright New Day, we the People shall prevail in the Father Way.

Father, Father Christmas, and Mystical and Magical

10/17/10

Recently, Father explained to us how it is that we loose our Knowing of Him. This is specific to the western cultures who believe in Christmas and Santa Claus. We have no idea what kind of deception is used in other cultures to end their Knowledge of the Father.

What you say? You do believe in the Father or God? I used to think so too, that is until Father showed me different. So brace yourself for this ride.

I have spoken about the Mystical and Magical aspects of Creation and of Life. As children, this Knowledge of the Mystical and Magical is inherent and quite active, even though it is disregarded by adults as plain "child fantasies". In a way, it can be said that there is, so to speak, a "Circuitry" in our physical expression that allows us to perceive the Mystical and Magical aspects of Creation and that allows us to Know and Commune with Father Which Is in Heaven.

You may have heard people or scientists talk about humans being "wired" to believe in God. In reality, it is not that we are "wired" to believe in God as if someone just implanted some kind of program in us to make us believe in the Father whether He is real or not and thus cause some kind of mass delusion of the human race. Instead, it would be more accurate to say, that we have been Created in such a way that allows us to perceive Creator and the Truth of Creation. You cannot know Love unless you have the means to be that Love. In the same way, you cannot Know Father unless you have the means to Experience and Know the Father. Or in a more mundane example, you cannot taste food without taste buds. The taste buds are not in your body to deceive you into thinking that what you eat has flavor, but rather to allow you to taste the flavors of the food you eat.

In other words, this Mystical and Magical "Circuitry" is not there to deceive us into believing in something that does not exist, but rather to allow us to experience what does Exist and is Real. Without it we can't Know Creation just as without taste buds we can't know flavor. The problem does not arise from having this Mystical and Magical "Circuitry" but from the tampering the unrighteous - unholy have done to it.

Let's follow the story of a little boy.

As a child, this little boy's capacity to experience the Mystical and Magical was active and present to various extents, probably depending on how much his brain was affected by all the vaccinations he received at birth and the type of nourishment his mother received during his gestation. This little boy didn't just believe in the Mystical and Magical, but Knew it to be True. He knew the Mystical and Magical because he could sense and experience Father's Presence and he could see such things as fairies and guardian angels. This little boy also knew something else was going on because he could see strange beings hiding in his house or attached to people.

During this time when this little boy Knew of these things, he was introduced to the story of Christmas and Santa Claus. The story of a fat guy in a red dress that could see everything the boy did and that would bring presents at the end of the year if the boy behaved. A guy that could fly in a sleigh pulled by reindeers and place his presents under the tree after sliding down a chimney. A time of the year when candles would be lit and lights would be placed in houses and trees, turning everyday life into a magical scene.

To this little boy's innocent perception, this kind of story with the lights, presents, ornaments, and glitter fit right in with some of his Mystical and Magical Experience of Life. Therefore, this whole illusion of Santa Claus became entangled with his Mystical and Magical "Circuitry". In other words, the belief in the illusion portrayed by his parents and society at large became enmeshed with his Mystical and Magical "Circuitry". Watching Santa movies, sending letters to Santa, visiting Santa in a mall, and receiving presents portrayed to be from Santa, helped to further blur the differentiation between illusion and reality.

You must remember that at that young age, this little boy was still in touch with the Father and thus had an innate knowledge of the benign nature of Creation. He was not able to understand or conceive that anyone, much less his parents, would deceive him in such an elaborate way.

So his little life goes on until the day arrives... the day in which he is told or finally accepts that Santa Claus is fake. The day in which he realizes that he has been deceived by his parents and everyone else who participated in this sham.

This is a very shocking experience to this little boy. He feels great sorrow and pain and in his sorrow and pain makes the choice to stop believing in Santa Claus and in deception. There is a problem though this little child is not aware of. First, the illusion of Santa Claus has become enmeshed with the Mystical and Magical "Circuitry", and second, because this child does not have his Spiritual Discernment sufficiently developed, he can't recognize this. Thus, instead of just removing the deception of Santa Claus from his Mystical and Magical "Circuitry" and retaining Truth, this little boy ends his belief in the deception by shutting down the "Circuit" all together. Suddenly everything he Knew to be Real becomes a deception: Father Which Is in Heaven, fairies, guardian angels, the intangible, his Soul. In his little mind, if Santa was a deception, then everything else must be too. His parents were right when they would tell him that he was just fantasizing about things and should give it all up to become a grown up.

Everything this little boy Knew to be Truth has now been turned into a deception. The door to the Mystical and Magical has been shut. He can no longer experience his Soul, he no longer experiences the Father, he no longer see fairies and guardian angels, and even if he did, he now knows better than to believe in the deception or in the fantasy of his mind.

In a way, it is possible to say, that this little boy died that day he shut down his Mystical and Magical "Circuit". From now on, Life no longer has inherent meaning or value. He no longer Knows Truth. He becomes the "great pretender", pretending all is well. Pretending he has no pain and sorrow for having lost the Mystical and Magical Experience of Life.

From here on this boy usually has two choices: to become a believer or non believer.

- For believers, the desire for something "greater" or the Mystical and Magical is still alive even though it is no longer considered to be Real. This desire is no longer based on Truth, but rather fueled by parents and preachers who purvey the restrictive / constrictive "realm of god" which incorporates the deception of Santa Claus and oddly enough Disneyland, yet denies and condemns the Reality of a Mystical and Magical Life. This desire is also fueled through books and movies. Yet in their Hearts, believers know that these words, books, and movies come from the very same system used to deceive them into believing in Santa Claus. Thus, believers go about their lives pretending that what they are told, and what they read, and what they watch about the "intangible" and the "realm of god" is True, even though they know it is all a deception (a knowledge which by the way is accurate). Those few believers who are not satiated by the restrictive view of religion and still hold some hope of a Mystical and Magical Life, easily fall prey to the dark / distorted expression called majik which is, of course, a false depiction of Truth and Creation.

- Non-believers are those who gave up even the hope for something "greater" to exist. For them nothing is real unless it can be touched, smelled, heard, or measured with technology or the physical body. They go around pretending nothing intangible is Real and that there is no such thing as Creator. They can see how believers are being deceived by religious babble, yet do not realize that they themselves have been deceived and disconnected from Reality the day they shut down their Mystical and Magical "Circuitry".

As you probably know, this is indeed a very traumatic event for this boy. It is an event that seriously affects the rest of his life for he knows himself to be a pretender. Life no longer has meaning and in his despair he will one day do unto his children that which was done unto him.

Father has explained to us that from this damaged perception this individual would no longer be able to Experience and Trust the Mystical and Magical of Life and therefore Father.

This is where I was before this understanding from Father. Yes, I would seek the Father and yes, Linda and I would talk to Him and record His Conveyances, yet in my Heart, I could not believe in the Reality of the Father. For me, deception was real and Father was fake, just like Santa. I had more faith in the world than in the Father. Father has explained that even if He had manifested right before my eyes, I would have still doubted the veracity of what I saw and just think that I had imagined the event.

It wasn't until Father explained this and helped us understand the need to Discern and separate the deception of Santa Claus from the Mystical and Magical "Circuitry" that I was able to correct my mistake. I tossed the deception and made the choice to restore the function of my Mystical and Magical "Circuitry". Now, I could begin once again to Know the Reality of the Father and the Mystical and Magical Life. I did not receive full restoration overnight but certainly things are changing. In a way you could say my resuscitation is taking a while...

Thus, to answer Virginia's question in Truth is:

No Virginia, there is NO Santa Claus, but a man who is known as Father Christmas did walk upon the Earth. His name was Saint Nicholas and Father explained to us that this man sought to keep the Knowledge of the Father alive by giving People presents that met their need for Abundance, just as the Father does to all who look unto Him.<sup>4</sup>

Yes, the Mystical and Magical is True and Real.

A different perspective

10/18/10

Here is a different perspective on what I shared yesterday. This comes from Linda's posting "a look at christmas in July" <sup>5</sup>:

"A look at christmas in July

Do you have "hardwiring" in your brain regarding Christmas? Do Santa Claus, SugarPlum Fairies, Elves, Father Christmas, the christ child, god, gifts, good and bad, love, romance, warm fires (northern hemisphere), intimate exchanges, mistletoe, all connect in one continuous path? If one falls, do they all fall?

When you were a child and were told Santa Claus / Father christmas wasn't real, and fairies weren't real, and elves weren't real, did the whole circuit become "fried"? Did god or Father Which Is In Heaven become "unreal" to you? Did Love become unreal? Did the possibility you are "good" become unreal? Was all that remained a tiny sliver of hope and faith that they were real? But which were real? Was there a conflict between Santa Claus and Father Christmas, Father Which Is In Heaven and god, who receives gifts and who doesn't, a child who brought Love to the world or a child who is Love, a Person who receives romantic love or a Person who IS Love in the world?

Perhaps it is time to return our brain circuit to Truth. When we ask to be re-pathed to the original diagram (plan), we are free to experience the fullness of The Father's Presence, our expression of Love / Rapture, Truth and Goodness, perhaps even elves and fairies.

On a SunShiny Day of a cool-balmy breeze, crystal blue skies, and clouds of puffy white cotton !"

With this posting, I terminate my blogging musings. You are welcome to InJoy all of my prior postings.

Mistake corrected

10/22/10

As it turns out, after a few days of contemplation, Father confirmed that He would have me continue with this blog, so here I am.

A few days ago, Father explained to us that the unrighteous - unholy have programmed / implanted in us a desire to please them above the Father and that this includes an energy that denounces the Father Way "each and every day".

To denounce is to attack or condemn vehemently, to announce as a threat, or proclaim menacingly.

Last Monday I was given an Opportunity to experience this denouncing energy against the Father in full blown manifestation. As it turns out, Father was providing the Opportunity to recognize the programming that they had put in me regarding pleasing them and boy they sure did not like it. By the time this event ended, they were in the most vehement attack and condemnation against the Father. We speak of course of "non tangible" beings that manipulate the thoughts and emotions of the People so as to control their actions.

This is not the first time I had experienced something like this, however, it is the first time that I could distinctly recognize that I was being "stoked" so to speak by someone / or something outside of me. In the past, they would derail me for weeks with this, but this time, I had enough presence to get out of it within a few hours, though not before I posted that I was ending my postings. After a few days of sorting things out, I realized it is Right and Proper for me to continue blogging. I asked Father and He confirmed this.

It wouldn't surprise me if this energy that denounces the Father Way is what gets engaged in People when they hear or see Truth that will set them Free from whatever bondage has been placed upon them. It wouldn't surprise me at all, if many of the burnings and torturing the unrighteous - unholy have done through the People was instigated through this programming / implant.

Linda is developing in her blog, the understanding Father brought to us about this implant to “please and desire” the unrighteous – unholy above the Father. From my point of view and experience, this is what explains why psychologists have shown in experiments that People will inflict harm unto others when directed to do so by someone perceived to be in authority. Again, the Truth remains, it is not natural for the People to act in this way, neither is the behavior shown through these experiments an indicator of People’s Nature. These experiments simply surfaced the implant / manipulation the unrighteous - unholy placed upon the People so as to control their behavior. While many have found the strength to rise above this, many others have yet to find their strength. It is for each one of us to simply recognize that this implant / programming has been put in us and to take the steps to let go of it. Refer to Linda’s posting “Strength in Truth” <sup>6</sup> for more on this (she will continue this understanding in future postings).

I may elaborate some more on this topic, but not before I finish my writings on the Mystical and Magical “Circuit”.

Until my next posting,

Martin

Father Desire – part 1

In my posting “Father, Father Christmas, and Mystical and Magical” I spoke about the Mystical and Magical “Circuit” that is available to each of us to experience, perceive, and know the Truth of Creation. I also explained how we are tricked into shutting this “Circuit” down and what happens when we do. Today, I will write about this from a slightly different perspective. Perhaps I should say, from the perspective of a “believer”.

For the longest time (years) Father would tell me how I really did not believe in Him and how this affected my capacity to receive from Him. The first issue Father had me address was my belief that those who abused and manipulated me were more powerful than Him – after all, they were able to do what they did and of course to my perception, Father was not there to stop them. Thus dealing with this meant dealing with the anger and pain of “Father not being there” as well as with the anger and sense of abandonment that resulted from my biological father ignoring the abuse under the logic that as long as the unrighteous - unholy were focused on destroying me, he would be “safe” and out of their minds.

Father Guided me out of this mess by focusing on three issues.

- One was mending my hurt with my biological father. This was a necessity because biological fathers are meant to be Father’s representatives on Earth. Biological fathers are meant to support a child’s capacity to recognize and strengthen his / her ability to commune and be sustained by the Father until the child’s mind and body becomes sufficiently developed to walk in solitude in the Father Way. This means that a child’s relationship with his / her biological father becomes a blueprint that establishes the relationship between the child and the Father. When a child develops grudges with his / her biological father, then this false witness and the resulting grudges are taken to the relationship with the Father. In other words, how we see and relate with our biological father is how we perceive and relate with the Father.<sup>7</sup> This mending included learning to differentiate Father from my biological father by recognizing the many ways in which my Communion with Father had been affected by this relationship with my biological father and asking Father to restore me to Truth at those levels.

- The second issue was to learn to recognize that Father had been with me even during the difficult times, and to recognize that He has held the Truth of who I am safe, that I may be restored to this Truth once again. One could argue why He allowed it to happen in the first place, but this has more to do with the circumstances of our choices and beliefs at any given moment. The more we look unto our parents for our safety, the less active can Father be in our lives (see "Trust in the Father" <sup>8</sup>). So one has to come to terms with this and once again ask Father for restoration to Truth as we Exchange all sorrows, fears, pains on the Altar of Divine Love and Divine Power for Truth of who we are.
- The third aspect was to recognize that the unrighteous - unholy are not "gods" who have power over Father. It was to recognize that the particular person who chose to become their instrument was not "speaking for god", so to speak, and was therefore not this all powerful, all knowing godlike person.

So for many years I diligently did my "work" on these issues, yet as Father would continue to refine my understanding of what had happened, the theme continued to be "you still go to them rather than the Father" and "you still believe in them rather than your Father". And for the longest time I couldn't get it. How could it be that after doing all that I was doing to move past these issues, Father would still say things like:

*While you implicitly believe not in your Father Desire you do indeed accurately believe in your desire for another.
Where you to exchange your believe in another, for that of your Heavenly Father...*

So, it wasn't until the understanding of the Mystical and Magical "Circuit" that I started to recognize the mistakes and how to correct them. I will write about this in my next posting.

(Posting has been updated on 110210 to Properly convey refinement given by Father. See "Refinement – Mystical and Magical")

Father Desire – part 2

10/25/10

In the posting “Father Desire – part 1” I explained that for the longest time Father was providing the Knowledge and Understanding that I needed to get over the idea that the unrighteous - unholy were more powerful than Him and that this particular abuser was some kind of “god like” person.

For years I did my part on dealing with these issues based on Father’s Guidance, yet it still remained the case that time and time again, Father would continue to say that I would be leaning unto the unrighteous - unholy and trusting them more than Him.

Eventually, I was finally able to obtain enough clarity of mind to recognize the problem. Perseverance in my Desire for Truth yielded its rewards. The problem in a nutshell was that when I would seek the Father in private mediation, I was actually going to this image of “god” that I had. In other words, rather than Communing with Father as I thought I was during these times, I was actually seeking the advice of the unrighteous - unholy who I believed to be “god”. I wanted to talk to Father, but I was certainly dialing the wrong number... and those who would answer, never cared to tell me so.

As you can imagine, this led to a lot of confusion and consternation. How could Father Say one thing through Linda and then me have this complete opposite understanding of what needed to be done?

With this understanding it made perfect sense why Father would Say I was not Trusting Him or placing Him first. I really wasn’t. I was placing these false gods above the Father, not consciously realizing I was doing so. Having recognized this, I naturally stopped looking unto them and cleaned up my act. Yet shortly thereafter Father told me once again that I was still having the same problem. I still did not believe in Him or His Reality.

How could that be? Well, there was one more layer to this deception.

As I contemplated Father's Words that day regarding my "belief in another" and "not in my Father Desire", I came to understand the following:

1. If I recognize that my Father Desire is natural and in me, this means that, as a child, I would have naturally and inherently Known of the Father and of my Journey upon this Earth.
2. This then means that the religious idea that a child will become a lost soul if not taught of "god" and taken to church, is false. My Knowledge of Father is not due to my parent's efforts to take me to church and teach me about "god", but a result of my inherent and natural Father Desire.
3. If I would have known of the Father on my own because of my Father Desire, then all these teachings about "god" and the church have to be a deception. They didn't teach me about my Father Desire and how to develop my capacity to know Father through it. Instead they drilled in me who "god" is, what he does to those who sin, and why I should not sin and go to hell when he comes down from heaven to judge me.
4. This means then that I am not indebted to my parents or abuser for having introduced me to "god". As a matter of fact, what they did was divert me from the Father and cause me to accept worship to something else.
5. In a strange way of sorts, the claim that the church puts out, that a child will not believe in "god" if not taught of "god" is accurate. Instead of believing in "god" children would Know of the Father, because of their Father Desire.
6. Just like with fairies. Children don't believe in fairies or hope they are real. Instead, they Know they are Real because they can see them. So when Santa Claus is thrown into the picture and then taken away, children loose the fairies and the Father. All that remains is the "god" of the church.
7. That is to say the "god" of the church is not the Father. To the church those who have an inherent Knowledge of the Father are pagans at best, who need converted and saved.
8. Natives grew with the Knowledge of the Father and supported this Knowledge to various extends. This is why they could recognize the sacredness of Nature and of Creation and why they are now lost. Their Mystical and Magical "Circuit" has been shut down through forced assimilation by the Western culture. Their Father Desire no longer has validity. They are as lost as we are in the western world. All we both have is church verbiage and the pretense this verbiage is real.

As I wrote that day about this, I came to understand that even though my faith was real, it was indeed directed to "god" as taught to me by the church. While I had ended my perception that this unrighteous - unholy entity I was communing with was the Father, I was still retaining the basic notion of Father being the "god" as given to me by the church. Even though my perception of "god" contained some Truth of the Father as Jesus is said to have taught in the Bible, it was still based on this structure of deception, rather than on recognition of the Reality of my Father Desire. Does that make sense? I hadn't realized that in this particular instance, I needed to throw away not only the dirty water, but also the baby (pun intended). It all had to go.

As I said in my "Closure – SP 29" <sup>9</sup> posting, "we can't find our Way with the Father as long as we hold on to the ideas and preconceptions we have formed in our mind based on what others have taught us / imposed upon us. Even if there is some Truth in the deception, it all must be thrown away, for otherwise we will remain stuck in the frame of reference given to us by the unrighteous - unholy to deceive us."

So I threw it all away and for a moment things got scary. My entire "god" structure and belief system crumbled into nothingness. What was left? The lust of darkness.

I will talk about this in my next posting.

(Posting has been updated on 110210 to Properly convey refinement given by Father. See "Refinement – Mystical and Magical")

Father Desire – part 3

In my previous posting I wrote about throwing away the dirty water and the baby so as to be able to embrace the Truth of the Father. I also said that when I did this, I became aware of this intense lustful energy. The false witness of this energy being that if someone doesn't have to follow the preachings of the church, then sex, drugs, and rock and roll... well, roll.

You see, we really speak of the two groups here. On the one side there is darkness who brought lust to this Earth through the use of genetic manipulation, shades and shadows of darkness, and transmission of an artificial energy designed to elicit / solicit lustful desire in everything living. On the other side, is death, decay, and destruction who tell you that you will burn in hell if you do not repent of your sins and follow their mandates. In a way, when you get rid of one, there is still the potential to get trapped / deceived by the other.

Fortunately for me, Father had been sharing Truth and Knowledge of the two unrighteous - unholy groups upon this Earth and thus, I was able to recognize that this energy was external to me. Otherwise, I would have probably been caught in the prevalent new age deception that spiritual people are "enlightened" enough to go around having sex with any consenting adult that causes them to "light up like a Christmas tree" <sup>10</sup>.

As I contemplated the meaning of this and began to be shown how I had been affected by this energy, I realized that it was time to also end this unexpected play with darkness. Rather than falling into the deception that it is normal to experience this lustful energy and be lustfully stoked by it, I choose to stop playing their game and closed my mind to it. (see "If it quacks like a duck, walks like a duck..." <sup>11</sup>)

"I do not play, get thee away ends your play."

Father has explained to us that when we consciously make a choice to not engage in lustful energy, our body is able to simply filter it out allowing us to not be controlled or ruled by this artificial energy. This does not mean however that our bodies will no longer have a need to move accumulated energy every so often. What it means though, is that we don't confuse and entangle what Father Says is a natural bodily need, with the artificial signal broadcast to turn this energy into lust and deviate behavior.

This difference in behavior is most noticeable in native cultures that have lived in some kind isolation. From what I have read and the pictures I have seen of such people, I can tell they are not perverted or driven by lust as the Western, Asian, and African cultures are. They live simple lives with few children, and respect their environment, surroundings, and each other. They have not turned their bodies into lustful commodities nor are they plagued by inhibition / repression. This doesn't mean they have remained fully uncontaminated, but certainly lust is not a widespread disease that drives them to insane behavior.

By cleansing and "turning on" my Mystical and Magical "Circuit" I was able to recognize the Reality and Validity of my Father Desire. This in turn allowed me to identify my belief in the false witness the unrighteous - unholy had given me and to end my play in such deception. In so doing, I was then able to choose for my Father Desire to become active and present in my life. Father is no longer relegated to a false fairy story. The unrighteous - unholy are no longer "gods" that have "power" over Father. Instead, Father is becoming a Reality once again, and the reach of unrighteous - unholy is beginning to fade into nothingness. My Faith is now Properly placed in the Father. My Life is ceasing to be an intellectual pursuit and is becoming the music I'm meant to play in the orchestra of Life.

Refinement – Mystical and Magical

11/01/10

Last week Father had an opportunity to explain that I have been confusing the relationship between the Mystical and Magical and the Father Desire. This is what Father Said:

*...unto all Righteous and Holy Day,
the Mystical and Magical is not your Father Way.
You could accurately say it is but the Play of the Mystical and Magical in the Father Way.*

This means that what I have been describing in this blog is the Play of the Mystical and Magical in the Father Way. Any reference to the idea that the Mystical and Magical is the Father Way, is erroneous and needs corrected by this refinement.

... you could indeed go out not to play in a mystical and magical way were you to ensure yet your Father Desire.

Father also explained that the Mystical and Magical "Circuit" is different than the Father Desire. That is to say, one can secure one's Father Desire yet not Play in a Mystical and Magical way. At the same time, one can secure the Mystical and Magical "Circuit" and not know of the Father Way.

I will be reviewing my postings titled "Father Desire" shortly to see whether I need to make further clarifications on this matter.

Father Desire Refinements

11/02/10

I have read my three posting on the “Father Desire” and found some few changes that needed made to Properly convey the refinement in understanding Father shared with me (see “Refinement – Mystical and Magical”).

The changes are as follows:

- Father Desire – part 1: last paragraph
- Father Desire – part 2: last itemized paragraph and the paragraph immediately following
- Father Desire – part 3: last paragraph

I have updated these postings accordingly.

About the Authors

Linda Diane Mead was born and raised in these United States of America. She obtained an under-graduate degree in Psychology with a minor in Philosophy and a PhD in Metaphysics from a Theological School.

Martin Riedel was born in Argentina, South America, and lived in Uruguay and Mexico as he grew up. After beginning college in Mexico he came to these United States of America, where he graduated with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

Upon meeting, they embarked on a memorable journey of self discovery that took them across the States. This book is one of the many fruits of their 'Labour of Love.'

Linda left the material plane in 2014.
