

Spiritual Swimming 101

Rising from the murk and mire

Martin Gustav Riedel

BlueStarWay Publishing

Creative Notice: In Divine Service

Martin Gustav Riedel

Divine Law carries restorative Power and compense.

What is Created by Divine Authority is Protected by Divine Authority.

We leave it to Divine Law to balance any transgressions.

restorative: give back, put back to former state, return compense: remuneration, counterbalance

Translation Notice: In Divine Service

Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception,
Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.

Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.
It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on "where we were" at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of 'if... then...'.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

This material is freely shared by us.

*If, in Joyful ThanksGiving, you feel like sharing a Gift with us
please visit*

www.BlueStarWay.com/increase4all/Vision

Heartfelt Thanks

BlueStarBlog

Spiritual Swimming

101

Rising from the murk and mire

Written by Martin Gustav Riedel

Self Published with the Blessing of Father Which Is in Heaven

With quotes from Father Which Is in Heaven (in italics) as given to Linda Diane Mead, Ph.D. and many times recorded by Martin.

BlueStarWayPublishing.com

This book is a Gift to you from Father Which Is in Heaven.

Know that sentences in italics are direct messages from our Loving Father, “that all may come to see or know that which Honors and Serves the human race.”

*Father Which Is in Heaven
Gives you Thanks for accepting His Gift to you.*

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In-Joy

Table of Contents

Tyranny.....	1
Forgive and forget.....	5
Spiritual Swimming 101.....	11
Sovereignty from Tyranny.....	13
What is tyranny?.....	15
A Lighthearted Shift.....	18
To rule.....	20
To influence.....	22
Before exercising.....	26
To exercise.....	28
Breathing time.....	31
Restoration x 2.....	32
Who is vulnerable?.....	34
One step forward.....	36
Usurpation.....	38
Grasping the mind.....	40
Impressing the mind.....	47
Let's continue with the pause.....	53
Arresting the attention.....	56
Oppression.....	59
Almost there.....	62
Let's talk about sex.....	66
Minting this and minting that.....	73
Minting this and minting that - continued.....	77
Minting this and minting that - more.....	80
We made it.....	82
Trust in the Father.....	85
When things get rough.....	87
When the unrighteous - unholy turn deaf.....	88
Moving forward.....	89
To pledge, pawn, or stake.....	91
To pledge, pawn, or stake - continued.....	94
To make liable, specifically to betroth.....	100
Remember the extra step.....	104
Patch of abundance – July update.....	105
To secure for aid.....	106
To secure for employment.....	113
The easy way and the worldly way.....	117
To attract.....	118
To please.....	123

To urge, persuade, or induce.....	125
Reference correction.....	129
To occupy the attention or efforts of.....	130
To entangle or involve.....	134
To entangle or involve - continued.....	137
Enter into conflict with.....	143
to attach or secure.....	147
What is next?.....	151
Making the choice for Father.....	153
Making the choice for Father - continued.....	155
Closure.....	163

Prelude

I

Tyranny

Visiting a friend today, it became more apparent than ever, that there is no point in anyone seeking to be free of governmental tyranny when one is oppressed by tyranny in one's own house, job, or business. Freedom comes first on an individual level, then on a community level, and then it may be possible to think on a country level.

Rather than seeking or participating in a revolution or civil war to overthrow governmental oppressors, you may want to first begin at home learning what it is to live Freely.

I had begun some time ago a book on this topic and perhaps it is time to post it on this blog. This topic is a most interesting exploration that follows the same method I used for the Mystical and Magical postings. What needs to be decided is whether this will be posted as a Showay story or simply as an exploration.

It shall indeed be an eye opener.

Prelude

II

Forgive and forget

05/01/10

Father has shared with us the need to learn to forgive and forget. Much of what I have included in this posting comes from the book "Soul Awakening" available through BlueStarWayPublishing.

Forgive (for-give):

- to give for

Give:

- to make a present of
- offer

Offer (off-er):

- off: not now engaged
- er: one that is

For:

- preparation toward, in exchange

To forgive is to offer in exchange and thus, to no longer be engaged by what we have offered in exchange.

Forget (for-get):

- to get for

Get:

- to be able

For:

- preparation toward, in exchange

To forget is to be able to prepare toward a purpose.

---

To forgive and forget is to offer something in exchange so as to prepare toward a Purpose.

To forgive and forget is to offer that which troubles / pains / hurts / angers you in Exchange for Divine Truth, KNowledge of your Divine Nature / Peace. It is to lay sorrow on the Altar of Divine Love and Divine Power, to receive Right and Proper Exchange from the Father. In so doing, you cease to be engaged by the unrighteous - unholy, and you can prepare toward what is awaiting you: your awakening.

What we Truly seek, rather than freedom, is to "forgive and forget." My Desire is to disengage from darkness, death, decay, and destruction and from any of their creations, machinations, expressions, servants, so that I can prepare for the awakening / transitioning / cleansing that is coming and in so doing receive the Gift of Heaven on Earth once again.

Father has Said:

*It availeth you not to struggle in the world,
when the Father is but a moment away.
You seek not to dishonor or disservice that which has come before,
yet you seek not for Righteousness sake.
This means that while it availeth you not,
you seek to Honor that which dishonors you.
Shift your focus / perception but slightly,
just slightly and all will be well.*

When you have been trying to Honor the world even though the world dishonors you, to shift your perception slightly is to understand, or realize, that you need to Honor the Divine and that you need to Honor your Self as Love. This is a refinement of 'you can't serve two masters' and does not mean that you dishonor the world, but rather, that you allow it to go along it's own path of destruction, while you live Life / the Father Way.

It is not for anyone of us to "save the world" or help bring "freedom" to it, for doing so is to call upon the unrighteous - unholy to remain a part of our experience.

Instead, "forgive and forget" and Pray that Father's Plan prevail upon Earth and the People. Each one of us will be Guided as to where to go, what to do, when to do it, and how to do it. To Truly progress in this, we each must disengage from the worldly distortions imposed upon us. We must make Peace with the understanding that each individual must be given the option to choose whether to follow a path of self-destruction or not, regardless of how much we "love" them and would like them to choose Life. Out of Respect and Love we allow this to be so. The short story "A Changing Horizon" contains more information about this concept.

Think not to force-feed the Knowledge you have been receiving.

*Out of Divine Love set Free, rather than guilt, hunger, anger, shame.
Divine Love sets them Free to choose their own path, course, direction.*

Know you not from your own experience that those who prevail upon others availeth much tears and heartache?

That is not what Father would have your energy 'spent upon'.

Spiritual Swimming

101

Spiritual Swimming 101

05/03/10

As indicated in a prior posting, I will begin a journey of discovery to explore the meaning of "tyranny" and how to identify it when it is upon you. At this point, tyranny has entrenched itself so much upon the world, that many no longer recognize it for what it is. Thus, there is a need to break the spell that it has cast upon us. Divine Knowledge is one way spells are "broken" so to speak, for once you know what it is and what to do about it, you are no longer controlled by it.

The method used for this process is the same one used to explore the meaning of a "Mystical and Magical Life", and is outlined by Linda in her book "Dreams and Days: Diamonds of your Design". Through the use of a dictionary, we will explore the meaning of words so as to obtain a clearer understanding of what the problem is.

The bulk of what I will be posting is based on a book I have started many months ago titled "Spiritual Swimming 101: Rising from the murk and mire." Thus, I will call this series by the name of this book, which has its origin in the following Conveyance from Father.

*Accurately indeed you would say that is not so of your Desire,
it is however so were you to engage not tyranny of another.*

Understanding what tyranny is and what it means to engage in it, is how my exploration began some time ago. This is a very personal and multidimensional process for which I have asked Father to Guide the thoughts and words through which this material is written, that it be accurate and provide the Knowledge needed to sustain Sovereign Expression, which is the capacity to express one Self as Love free of interference and manipulation by the unrighteous - unholy.

As you follow the trail from the murk and mire of tyranny to the lightness of Sovereign Expression, you may find yourself participating in the process of identifying / recognizing the problem. This participation may come in the way of memories and emotions, moments of clarity and moments of confusion, instants of hope and instants of helplessness, and perhaps a lot of disbelief and guilt. Let them be, let them come, let them go and receive Father's Grace in Exchange as you lay that which was never meant to be on the Altar of Divine Love and Divine Power.

---

The references used for this series on tyranny are the "New Century Dictionary of the English Language" printed by the D. Appleton-Century Company in 1938 and the "World Book Encyclopedia" printed by the Quarrie Corporation in 1938. Both, the use of the dictionary and encyclopedia are for educational purposes only.

As previously established in our books and website, Words from Father Which Is in Heaven will be in italics.

For easy recognition, postings belonging to this series will include "SP x" on the title.

Having made this prelude, let's then begin...

Note: The "SPx" reference on titles has been removed for this book but they remain available on BlueStar Blog.

Sovereignty from Tyranny

05/04/10

Linda:

"There is a need to write eloquently about how a man can express as a sovereign once again after having been enslaved by tyranny. This is very important in this culture at this time, when tyranny has become so apparent that the only way people can handle it is with apathy, because no one really knows anymore what can be done differently. This knowledge has been lost to this world. Those few people who claim they do, are proponents of violence and in the end have solutions that are no better than that which they seek to destroy. Traditionally, tyranny has been met with violence and has only been replaced with either more benign versions of tyranny in best case scenarios, or more malignant versions in worst case scenarios."

Martin:

"Either way, the replacement is based on the idea that the many must sacrifice themselves to the few who establish what is best for all and use self made laws to grant favors to those who support "the system" and to imprison those who oppose it. It follows then that this is a characteristic by which one can easily discern any form of tyranny: a system of rules or laws which are designed to restrict an individual's capacity to live Peacefully as his Heart Guides and forces everyone to comply to unnatural laws through force, punishment, or imprisonment."

Linda:

"There are a lot of people who want another way, a way that leads unto a Bright New Day.

Occasionally, people like Gandhi walk upon the Earth who meet tyranny with Peaceful resistance. Yet this resistance can only be successful against a tyranny that has some sense of civility and the question must still be asked as to whether the system of government that replaces this civil tyranny Truly restores sovereign expression to each individual.

This is the dilemma those who want a different way face: If violence is not the answer and Peaceful resistance only works when in a civil tyranny, what does one do when in a barbaric form of tyranny?"

---

Martin:

"And if one were to succeed in no longer living under tyranny, what would be the purpose of doing so, if one simply replaces it with a system based on the same fundamental principles upon which tyranny is established? Why go to all that trouble to put in place another system that will need overthrown again in a few generations as more despotic leaders take lead?"

Linda:

A man's responsibility in this matter is to become one who understands Universal Law and can be the head of a strong family. Initially, the only responsibility is to understand tyranny as someone who is being oppressed by a very vicious person (be it spouse, parent, friend, co-worker, boss). It is for a man to understand it, define it, and be able to recognize it, so that when it shows up in his life to entrap him again, he does not end up dining with a person and realizing two years later that this person is a tyrant as well, just as the initial oppressor was.

What is tyranny?

05/05/10

For a man to learn to live as a Sovereign, in Divine Expression of his True Nature as a child of the Father Which Is in Heaven, he must indeed, at this time and age, have a clear picture of what tyranny is and how it operates in the world.

While it is presumably easy to identify someone who openly and brutally behaves as a tyrant by forcing others into involuntary slavery, it is indeed more difficult to discern an ingenious tyrant who takes actions that are 'packaged' to appear in someone's 'best interest' while designed to deceive them into accepting 'voluntary' slavery. The latter behavior is indeed one mode of operation of the unrighteous - unholy. Smooth talking, big smiles, very charming / charismatic, lots of flash and reflection, and quite hot - the irresistible package (at least that is what they think).

What is even harder to recognize sometimes is that someone in your own family, or someone you feel attracted to could be a tyrant who has set herself / himself to enslave you, or is / has been used to enslave you at any cost. As you will see, tyranny does not begin on a governmental level.

Linda:

"Confucius said, it begins with the individual, then the family, then the community, then the state, then the nation. Every family needs a wise man at its head. When the man knows these things, then his family knows these things because he teaches his sons and grandsons. When you have strong families who know these things you have a strong community who stands together. When you have a strong community, you have a strong city. Then when you have strong cities, you have strong states, and when you have a strong state you have a strong nation. According to Confucius, the nation is led by a strong emperor just like a family is led by a strong man."

I pasted this idea to simply illustrate that before there can be a tyrant leading a nation, there has to be tyranny imposed on an individual level. Once an individual is contaminated, he then contaminates his family. Contaminated families then make contaminated communities, contaminated communities then lead to contaminated cities and states, and then you get a contaminated leader of the nation. Removal of the leader, does indeed not decontaminate the state, the city, the community, the family, nor the individual.

---

Thus we begin on an individual level, for it is on an individual level that the door to the unrighteous - unholy is opened every day.

Tyrant:

- an absolute ruler, as in ancient Greece owing his office to usurpation
- a tyrannical or compulsory influence
- autocratic oppressor
- a person who exercises power or authority despotically or oppressively
- a king or ruler who uses his power oppressively or unjustly

There are indeed many levels of knowledge available from this simple definition. Should we search the path of ancient Greece or perhaps the path of rulers and kings of bygone eras? Should we focus on the current expression of despotism or the meaning of "compulsory influence" which suggests perhaps the use of occult powers?

Recognizing that we must begin on an individual level, let's follow the "mundane" path of simplicity.

First of all, a tyrant is someone who:

1. rules,
2. influences,
3. exercises

All of which is accomplished through:

1. usurpation,
2. oppression, and
3. despotic behavior

Inherent in this definition is the knowledge of injustice. This is to say, there are no excuses, no reasons that can justify the actions of any type of tyrant. No one can justify the existence of tyranny over anyone, even over those who voluntarily place themselves under such rule. No matter what a tyrant would claim, he / she is not justified in his / her actions.

From my point of view, inducing / deceiving someone into voluntary slavery is as unjust and unjustifiable as forcing that same person into involuntary slavery.

Before we continue, there is one thing that must be understood or at least recognized at this point. This is the fact that since the very actions of a tyrant are unjust / oppressive / despotic, any type of contract that is made under tyranny is not legally binding and therefore it is not enforceable. It is only when the oppressed believes the contracts to be valid and lives as if they were valid, that for all practical purposes it is so in his life.

Oppression starts in one's mind, first someone has to accept the false contract / obligation and believe it to be enforceable. Then he can be controlled by it. This is to say, Sovereignty starts in one's mind too, which is why this is and can only be an individual process. One by one each person has to claim his / her own Sovereignty... in his / her head.

This is very important, because as you begin the process of not playing the game of the unrighteous - unholy, they will indeed come unto you with a list of contracts and obligations you have agreed to. "You said this and you said that... You promised... You agreed... Your parents signed you into slavery... You owe us... You, you, you, I, I, I, and we, we, we..." When this happens, you simply say, this contract was done under deceit and is null and void. Then you give Thanks unto Father for lifting this false contract from you and any false obligation that it put upon you. You give Thanks unto Father for restoring you to Truth.

Step by step each one of us progresses in the Father Way.

---

A Lighthearted Shift

05/07/10

For a few days, I have been looking at a section of my backyard. This is what it looked like.

As you can see, it was an area filled with dandelions that had gone to seed. It was nice to see the yellow flowers dot the area, but the tall seed stalks looked so out of place. Whenever I would look at this, the thoughts that would come to my mind were in the likes of "I need to mow that down", "that sure looks ugly", and "I hope no one complains about my yard".

During the same time, along my daily walks, I would see the following:

You can see the dandelion seed heads barely making it through the tall grass providing a welcoming change to the flowing green.

So this got me thinking. Could it be that the dandelions in my yard were not the problem itself, even though it appeared to be so? Perhaps, the problem in my yard was not the fact that I had dandelions that had gone to seed, or that I had allowed them to grow this tall.

If the dandelions looked perfect dotting the tall grass, and ugly in my short cut grass, could it be then that the problem in my yard was actually the mowing of the grass? Could it be that the mowing of the grass created an unnatural setting upon which natural plants looked "unnatural"? That is certainly a shift in perception.

If you see the dandelions as the problem, then the actions that one would take to solve the problem would be quite different than if you recognize the short grass as the problem. One would require the "battle of eradication" of "weeds", while the other would require simply letting the grass grow tall. One is "toil, sweat, spend money", the other is "relax, enjoy, keep your money".

A slight shift in perception does indeed make a difference.

When an outstandingly Good, Ethical, Respectful, Faithful man or woman walks upon the land the tendency is for society to try to "mow him / her down" to its low standards. Perhaps destroying such exemplary measure is not the answer. Perhaps the answer is for everyone else to rise up to their full and highest potential. In a society where everyone is allowed to walk upright in their Spiritual Journey with the Father, such individuals become indeed a welcomed occurrence.

---

To rule

05/10/10

After a refreshing pause, let's continue upon the exploration of tyranny and its many manifestations. What will be uncovered through this is indeed amazing. I will take it one step at a time. Remember that all I'm doing is using dictionaries to define words and following my intuition as Guided by Father to creatively put it all together. This is a multidimensional process. That is to say, there are several levels of meaning that can be unveiled through this method. Which path one follows is indeed an individual creative expression.

Throughout this series, I will be underlining words that from my perspective have some "special" significance or that will be furthered explored.

As discovered before (refer to "What is tyranny?"), a tyrant is someone who rules, influences, and exercises. For today, let's focus on what can be unveiled through the word "rule".

Rule:

- a principle or regulation governing conduct, action, procedure, arrangement
- formerly, a fixed area in the neighborhood of certain prisons, within which certain prisoners were allowed to live on giving security; the freedom of such an area
- control, government, dominion
- to control or direct, or exercise dominating power or influence over

Putting this together, I get that a tyrant rules by using dominating power or influence to control and direct the conduct and action of people. This is done through the creation of "principles" on an individual level (you are supposed to behave like this and do this, and do that... or you are "grounded / punished") and regulations and government on a city, state, national level (you are supposed to behave like this and do this, and do that.... or you go to jail / pay a fine)

What I find quite amusing is the second definition which describes a "fixed area" within which prisoners were able to enjoy freedoms obtained by paying an appropriate 'fee'.

Think about this. Nations have a "fixed area" and if you pay the appropriate 'fees' you are indeed allowed certain freedoms such as traveling, working, and owning a house. States have a "fixed area" too. Cities have a "fixed area" too. Houses and land as we know it, have a "fixed area" too.

A couple more examples? What about a business or a school? In all these places you are allowed certain freedoms as long as you pay or do certain things...

And the above just from the first word describing "tyranny"...

---

To influence

5/11/10

The second word that describes the action of a tyrant or tyranny is "influence". If you thought the unveiling of "ruling" was a mouthful, wait until you read what is surfaced from this second descriptive word. In a way I keep thinking of the expression used in Coast to Coast AM, which originally comes from the movie "Contact": "Wanna take a ride?"

This will sure be a ride that may indeed question, the validity of much one has taken for granted and considered to be normal behavior agreeable with a "godly life". Whether you recognize the value or validity of that which is brought forth in Knowledge through this exploration or simply dismiss it as nonsense, that is a choice you have to make. As Father Said to me once:

Choose well, for the results are yours forever more.

Influence:

- The supposed radiation of an ethereal fluid from the stars, regarded in astrology as affecting human actions and destinies; hence, the exercise of occult power by the stars, or such power as exercised.
- The exercise of similar power by human beings
- Invisible or insensible action exerted by one thing or person on another.
- Personal power independent of force or authority enabling one to produce effects or gain ends
- Affect the mind or action of, in some particular way
- To move by improper or under influence

When I started this exploration, I had an inkling that 'occult powers' would indeed be related to tyranny. What I did not expect was for this connection to be unveiled so easily and readily.

I will say that I myself have been very familiar with the idea of 'influencing others' and the many ways this could be successfully achieved, since my parents had sent me to various leadership and public speaking classes which taught extensively of how one can influence others and achieve what one wants. Dale Carnegie courses are an example of this kind of teaching. Another common expression of "influencing others" is found in the dating game, that smooth talking to get someone into bed...

Having grown up in an environment in which the number of women taken to bed was a virtue expressive of manhood and in which smooth talking others into business contracts was expressive of business shrewdness, I certainly never questioned whether such practices are indeed moral and ethical, much less whether they constituted the use of 'occult powers'. To me these were presented as tools to be used by those who wanted to be successful in life.

This is one of the things all good Hearted People will have to face sooner or later as they progress in their Journey with Father: the pain and sorrow of recognizing that they have been deceived into using tools given by the unrighteous - unholy. The more sincere your Desire for Truth and a Spiritual Life is, the harder it is to come to this realization. Both Linda and I have faced this. It is a very unsettling realization that causes you to wonder whether you can ever Trust yourself again. Just move through it with a Light Heart. Lay the sorrow, pain, and doubt on the Altar of Divine Love and Power and receive in Right and Proper Exchange Truth of who you Are.

*Programming of a worldly Nature is not indelible upon your Soul.
It is in potential an obstacle to be overcome.*

Having said this, let's then continue. It seems that the use of "occult powers" is an integral part of "influencing" another, so let's take a look at the word "occult".

Occult:

- Hidden from view
- Kept secret
- Beyond the bounds of ordinary or natural knowledge

Occult is then used in the context that what is done is done in secrecy, without letting the target person know what the real intentions are. In other words, this is deceitful behavior which is based on knowledge that is 'unnatural'.

If you read the Mystical and Magical series, you may remember that in the posting "Pure-Pose" it was unveiled that that which is unnatural is alien, inhuman, and contrary to the laws of nature, therefore it is an expression of majik. It makes sense then that the word "occult" is, in everyday connotation, associated with black magic or something in the likes.

---

While for all practical purposes, everyone who has watched Disney movies has been educated in the belief and effectiveness of occult powers, through such "innocent" movies as "Snow White" and "Sleeping Beauty", it is the case that many would dismiss such ideas and actions as nonsensical superstition. Yet many of these people fail to realize that they have been conditioned to fall prey to such practices as children and thus have become vulnerable to tyranny.

I for one was such a person. I did not believe in black majik or spell casting, yet certainly Father has showed me that in my life, many have indeed cast spells and curses on me and that many had taken hold. The most "benign" if you will, was that of a woman who cast a "love spell" on me. For the longest time I could not figure out what was wrong with me that I could not take that woman out of my mind, until Father explained to me what she had done. This certainly made it easier to get rid of her intrusion by laying it on the Altar in Right and Proper Exchange for Truth and Freedom from deception. Sometimes it is easy to get rid of stuff like this, others it takes perseverance. If I hadn't been able to recognize that I did not want to be with that woman, and Father had not explained to me what was causing the false perception, I could have ruined my life pursuing something I did not want in the first place.

This so called 'power of influence' that so many people, business people, government officials, and advertisement companies use, is indeed a form of occult power. It is used to affect / alter the mind of others so as to cause them to act in ways they would have otherwise not chosen. This is why this is unethical and immoral. Just as it was improper and disrespectful for that woman to seek to derail me from my Journey with Father in the "name of love", so it is for anyone to derail someone else's Journey with Father in the "name of whatever".

Whether you consciously agree or not to the existence of such things as occult powers, black majik, spells, and so on, there are people who do believe in it and do practice it, and unless you know better, you can fall prey to such practices without even being aware of it.

So how do you know if you have fallen prey to the tyranny of another who is influencing you through the use of occult powers? The answer is very simple. If you have any thoughts, desires, needs that are not an expression of Truth, Love as Self, Respect, Peace, Harmony, Joy, and Health, then there is a possibility you have indeed become contaminated at some level, in one way or another.

How do you regain your sovereignty so you may correct your course? There is no need to fight "fire with fire". Instead, you could focus on Universal Truth and strengthen your capacity to stand firm in your choice for Life / the Father Way. You could recognize that which is unnatural is alien and external to you and make a different choice - a choice that is of one a-chord with Universal Truth. You could ask Father Which Is in Heaven for Spiritual Discernment, Knowledge of Your Self. You could lay anger, pain, sorrow, resentment, hatred, etc. on the Altar of Divine Love and Divine Power in Right and Proper Exchange for Truth of who you Are, Peace, Joy, Love as Self. You could nourish your Self and Soul through good nutrition (see "Food is not medicine", "Eating fresh is better", "Your Purpose In Life"). Every morning you could make a choice for the Father Way (see "First Breath", "Sunrise Prayers"), you could choose your Feelings (see "Where do we begin?"). You could ask that any spells and curses that have been put on you be null and void, broken, dispelled, ended, and that you be non to such intrusion. You could ask to be restored to Universal Truth of who you Are and to Know that Truth. You could ask for the capacity to differentiate yourself from that which is intruding upon you, so you can recognize it is not you and you can make a different choice. You could ask to be filled, surrounded, and protected by the Sparkling Golden Silver White Light of All That Is Righteous and Holy (which is different than the strong reflective glitter of the unrighteous - unholy). You could indeed Smile with a Light Heart ("When laughter returns", "Men and Creativity").

This is a quote from one of our Showay books:

"Love [as Self] is the answer. As you learn to express the Love that you are, you draw closer to Father. As you draw closer to Father, you learn to express the Love that you are. This allows you to receive more information."

"Which is what allows me to Know it is not me, even though it feels so real. Is that right?"

"Once you recognize that the distortion is not yours, give it to the Father and let Him take care of bringing you back to sanity."

---

Before exercising

05/12/10

Before we begin exploration of the word "exercise", let's summarize and expound on what has been said so far regarding tyranny.

A tyrant uses principles and regulations designed to control and direct someone's life. He does this through the use of occult powers and invisible forces... this is to say, he does this in secrecy and thus without revealing the true intent of his actions. Invisible forces such as 'the power of influence' could also include subliminal messages, the tone of voice or a look, agreements and understandings, and even the 'radiation' of 'etheral fluid' from a 'star or person'... all of which is designed to affect the mind of a person and improperly affect his choices... which is to say that the target person would make different choices if he was not under the influence of a tyrant.

The images that come to my mind with the words 'etheral fluids' are of the drawings shown in a book called 'Light Emerging' by Barbara Brennan. This book contains several pictures showing how people use their 'etheral' energy to attack or suck energy from others.

When I contemplated this information, I was very aware of many articles I read and shows I heard on mind control and how common everyday 'conveniences' such as electricity, phones, TV's are really designed to provide an outlet for such signals (some of this information can be found at JeffRense.com). Believe it or not, such use of everyday conveniences is a perfect example of the use of occult powers. The wave signals are the 'invisible forces'. It is occult because it is done in secrecy and is hidden from view by the pictures, sounds, and light that these appliances emit.

The vast majority of people would not believe such is possible, much less than anyone would want to engage in such practices. For them such capability is not only beyond the knowledge to which they would be exposed naturally, but the very action of such activity itself is beyond their capacity to imagine. Not because they are 'stupid' as those who subscribe to unrighteous - unholy ways would snort between each other with disdain, but because of the People's innocence! We the People are naturally Peaceful and Respectful, thus, we have a difficult time recognizing that anyone would engage in any kind of unrighteous - unholy activity.

The reason there is unrighteous - unholy activity upon Earth, is because as Father explained to us, there is an unnatural force using the very innocence and good heart of the People against them.

They seek to further not that which is Divine as they create a kingdom of unwilling servants, who by unrighteous endeavor fall prey to darkness' deceit. Darkness enslaves those who in innocent Desire seek All That Is Holy, by giving them false teachings or false witness of that which is Holy and Divine. Because Truth has been hidden by design and intent, who will tell humanity Divine Truth when all else fails to secure its Divine Desire?

Those who serve darkness are many. They easily engage innocent 'victims' through 'death by contact'. This darkness does not come to you in your darkest desire or moments of darkness. They are called to the Light of your Desire, to befriend you not, but to show darkness' way.

As you become freer and freer of your sorrow and increase your capacity to be focused on your Divine Nature, you will find that darkness will be less able to affect your life. Until the day in which you shall be free.

Trust and have Faith in that which is before you. Focus upon that which is Divinely Appointed and your energy, attention, shall multiply.

---

To exercise

05/13/10

The time has arrived to tackle the last descriptive word of what a tyrant does: "exercise". I have to admit that I was quite surprised to learn that something which is presented as a much needed activity to stay healthy, is actually related to tyranny.

Exercise: [keep active or busy < ex-, out + arcere, keep]

- Putting into action, use, or operations
- Employ or busy (a person)
- Occupy the attention of; tax the powers of; hence, to perturb or worry

This word seems to be descriptive of two things. One, the consequences one who "exercises" faces and second, what a person who "exercises" does unto others. In other words, a tyrant, by the very act of "exercising" power or authority, subjects himself into a state of perturbation and worry. At the same time, because the actual golden rule by which we live in this world created by the unrighteous - unholy is to "do unto others what has been done unto you", a tyrant will impose or perhaps even shift his burden unto others.

Look at the key words: busy (busi-ness?), employ, occupy, tax, perturb, worry, keep out. Do any of these words sound familiar to you? Aren't any and all of these activities something we are conditioned and forced into? We can't be "idle", we have to be productive. We can't live "free", we have to work to make money. We "can't have our cake and eat it too", we have to pay taxes. We can't be at "Peace and relaxed", we have to worry about life. Keep out, we can't "move freely" as Guided by our Heart.

This is to say, that a tyrant "exercises" his powers and authority by making / forcing others to do things that are designed to limit their actions / choices and tax their powers, thus creating a state of perturbation and worry. Why? Because when someone is busy, taxed, perturbed, and worried one has no time for Self and thus is kept out of alignment with the Divine.

From the same dictionaries I have been using for this series, I get that a person who is perturbed is someone who has been thrown "into disorder and derangement". A person who is worried is someone who is being "strangled, harassed by repeated biting, snapping or attack, and tormented with annoyances, importunities, cares, and anxieties".

To be deranged is to be in a state of mental disorder or insanity. This kind of makes you wonder if it is a coincidence that mental disorders are becoming more and more prevalent in our society?

Notice the use of the word "torment" as a descriptor of the word "worry".

Torment: [ < L. tormentum, engine of war, instrument of torture, torture, anguish < torquere, twist: cf. torture]

- an instrument of torture
- a state of great suffering, bodily or mental
- agony
- misery
- to twist or distort

This kind of makes you wonder, whether it is a coincidence that in our society there are constant "sources" of "worry"?

Based on the definition above, these sources of worry are actually instruments of torture and engines of war, designed to create great suffering, agony, misery. Of course, we speak of non physical torture, so there are no physical scars left, or are there?

Perhaps there is a reason why we the People do not like to exercise...

Next time someone comes unto you seeking to tax your powers by creating "worry and derangement" in your life, recognize what it is they are doing. They are acting as instruments of torture. Torture, whether physical or mental, is against the law. Rather than allowing yourself to be seduced / deceived / twisted into accepting to be tortured, choose not to play.

Ask Father to show you how to do it differently. It takes some practice to do it differently, but it can be done. Sometimes you don't succeed, other times you do. Just keep focused on your choice to do it differently.

---

"How stupid can you be?" These are words the unrighteous - unholy will repeatedly say to belittle people and lead them into self flagellation for repeatedly falling in their traps and deceptions. Self flagellation is an old pattern of destructive behavior that can be acquired from the church and family. It is a self imposed torment consistent with tyranny. In the most basic ways, it expresses as the denial of something that would nourish a person as a way to punish himself "for his sins / stupidity / weakness".

As you continue in this series and in your Journey with the Father, make it a point to nourish your Self Abundantly with Living Food, Universal Truth, Knowledge, Creativity, and Light Hearted Smiling.

Breathing time

05/14/10

Here is an updated photo of my patch of Abundance in the back yard. Not sure why, but the patch does not seem to photograph as well as I think it looks. Nevertheless, here it is.

As you can see, the clover is in bloom (purple dots) and much of the grass has gone to seed. Many salad greens and edible flowers have come out of this patch. And all I had to do was stop mowing. That's Life. Abundance is Free to Respectfully receive in Exchange for Thanks Giving. For all practical purposes, you can't even tell when I go and harvest because I just don't cut entire plants down but simply take some here and there, allowing the plants to continue their growth. Not sure you can see it, but the plants are sure happy to share their Abundance with us.

Thank You Father for Life.

---

Restoration x 2

05/20/10

Fixed the bug - transfer pending.

After a few days looking at blogging software alternatives, we finally found one that is simple yet provides what we need. Now all I have to do is adapt a little program to transfer all the blogs from the current software to the new one. It's a work in progress.

Fortunately, with Linda's help I figured out what was causing the problem with my blog. Such a minor and easy fix if you have the eyes to see... So for now, we will both keep the current blogging software for a while longer.

Looking forward to resume my "Spiritual Swimming" series which you may ponder why bother...

The answer is quite simple. What is being said about tyranny and how tyranny manifests and is being implemented is necessary to recognize things for what they are. It is important for someone who Desires to walk in the Father Way to recognize that, as Father's Plan comes to fruition and the unrighteous - unholy pass away together with all their deceptive practices / institutions / purveyors, one must keep a Right and Proper Perspective.

No one is being judged or condemned, no one is being punished, yet everyone is being required to live with the consequences of their own choices. No one is depriving you of your "loved" ones or of that which you have come to think is necessary for a "civilized" life. Instead, all that impedes one from Living Free and in Sovereign Expression is being purged so to speak. Each one could and can make a choice to Live Free and Respect others, yet there are many who just don't want that kind of life. It is for us to Respect their choices and be at Peace with this.

When someone has a disease and through natural means that disease is purged, there is no sadness for the disease. No one is concerned about the well being of the disease, or where the disease is going to go, or how sad it may be for that disease to be unwanted. The casting out of the disease is recognized as a Blessing. That disease should not abide or dwell in anyone is recognized as self evident Truth.

When Mother Earth and the People are cleansed of the disease that walks upon this planet, there is no need to be sad or shed tears. Instead, we should Rejoice just as anyone Rejoices when they experience complete Healing from whatever ailed them. Notice that the Rejoicing is in the restoration to Health, Happiness, Joy, Abundance, Freedom. There is no ill will toward the disease, just Joy for the restoration to Health.

The focus is on Life.

---

Who is vulnerable?

05/21/10

Before I continue with how tyrants accomplish their deeds of tyranny, it seems appropriate to pause just a little longer to ponder what follows.

In exploring how tyranny manifests in our lives, we may at one point or another wonder what exactly makes someone vulnerable to tyranny. Why is it that some people live under tyranny while others don't? Besides the fact that someone could be born into a family where tyranny reigns, what makes someone susceptible to it?

For me, the answer was found through the exploration of the notion that a tyrant is an "autocratic oppressor" (refer to "What is tyranny?"). An autocratic oppressor could mean an oppressor who is autocratic, but also an oppressor who oppresses autocrats.

Autocracy / autocrat: [ $< \text{self} + \text{rule}$ ]

- Self derived or independent power
- Absolute authority or rule

From this definition, I gather that an autocratic oppressor or tyrant rules, influences, and exercises over those with self derived power or those who "rule by one self". This of course seems to create a conundrum.

If a solution to tyranny is to claim one's own Sovereignty, how can claiming one's self derived power make one susceptible to tyranny?

In contemplation of this I asked Father for Spiritual Discernment to see through the deception and this is what I came to understand:

A person who has self derived power or who rules by one self is someone who has become disconnected from his Divine Nature and thus Father. He sees himself or that which he creates as the absolute authority or rule by which he should live. This is different than a Sovereign person whose Sovereignty comes from the very capacity to be in expression of his Divine Nature and of one a-chord with the Father. Such a seemingly 'irrelevant' detail by today's standards makes all the difference.

No longer of one a-chord with his Divine Nature, a person loses the capacity to discern Truth from deception and loses the capacity to be Spiritually Nourished. To deny one's Divine Nature and reject living Harmoniously with Universal Law in Universal Truth is to embrace the way of the unrighteous - unholy. It is either black or white. One is either stained or not. Whether one is stained just a little bit or a lot does not diminish the fact that one is stained. One can't live Freedom and Sovereign Expression when one denies his Self, the Truth of who he is.

As one grows weaker and weaker, it becomes easier and easier for a tyrant to assert its influence. As one loses his capacity to Discern Truth from deception, one becomes more vulnerable to the deceptions and taxing schemes of tyranny until the day in which slave labor / poverty / famine indebtedness is all that is left.

This is the story of every group of people or nation that has fought for its independence, only to establish its own rules separate from Universal Law. As history shows us (and we can attest to such reality this day by the conditions in which we live) such action is doomed to failure from its inception.<sup>1</sup>

This is why of a necessity, complete and total freedom from tyranny requires the return to one's Divine Nature in Father's Grace and under Universal Law. Once returned to the Truth of Love as Self, there is no room for the unrighteous - unholy. Their nightmare no longer influences / controls one's life. All that remains is Peace.

---

<sup>1</sup> I realize that many will argue that these United States were founded under "god's laws" (one nation under one god or in god we trust), but one must sincerely question who this "god" is. From what I know of the Father and what He has shared with us, Father would not have anyone establish a nation through the mass murder and plundering of the land's resources and its People, neither would He Guide anyone into the creation of a nation that would use its "power" to begin a process of genocide, destruction, and enslavement.

---

One step forward

05/23/10

In previous postings it was unveiled that tyranny:

1. rules by imposing principles and regulations designed to control and direct the People
2. influences by using deceitful behavior, 'unnatural' knowledge, occult powers, and invisible forces, and
3. exercises by employing, occupying, taxing, perturbing, worrying, and keeping the People out of alignment with their Divine Nature as children of the Father.

Now is time to explore the three ways in which a tyrant accomplishes this:

1. usurpation
2. oppression
3. despotic behavior

This part of the exploration will be more complicated and will touch perhaps many buttons. Not because that is Divine Will, but because that is the way of the unrighteous - unholy. They hope that people will give up, either because it is too difficult or too painful to see the Truth, or because they have become too attached to the deception and have come to hold it as truism. Whenever you see complicated and entangled, pain and sorrow, attachment and perversion, and so on, you know it is of unrighteous - unholy origin.

Linda and I have both found out that at the beginning it always seems that Father asks us to do that which brings out the greatest aversion, fear, or resistance. "Anything but that," we would think. Why is this? Not because our flesh is sinful. Not because our flesh is weak. Not because our flesh works against us. Not because Father asked us to do something against ourselves. But rather, because the unrighteous - unholy have placed obstacles in our walk with Father.

To all practical purposes, when someone is not walking with the Father, it appears there are no such obstacles, yet change your path and begin walking in the Father Way and suddenly pain, fear, sorrow, disappointment, attachment, revenge, engagement, you name it, shows up. You become aware of all that has been keeping you away from walking in the Father Way and you have to deal with it. What do you do when you become aware of this? Your first and foremost option is to turn / keep your focus / awareness / attention to the Father. Smile. Let go of the obstacle / baggage / stone. Lay the stuff on the Altar in Right and Proper Exchange for Truth and if the stuff is not yours, tell it "get thee away". Ask for the capacity to see / do things differently. Ask for obstacles / resistance to be lifted and for your way to be made clear. Ask and choose to be non to the ways of the unrighteous - unholy. Do it differently, do it the Father Way and clear yourself from any attachment to / belief that the false promise / direction of the unrighteous - unholy will solve your problem. Ask for Grace. Contemplate and if necessary, "sit and pun" until the answer becomes available / the path becomes clear. Keep a Light Heart. Smile.

I will do my best to simplify things.

---

Usurpation

05/24/10

So here we go.

Usurpation is a word used to describe how a tyrant achieves his / her goals of rule / influence / exercise over others. Ready to continue the ride to Freedom?

Usurp:

- To seize and hold by force or without right
- To commit forcible or illegal seizure of an office, power, etc.
- Encroach

Seize:

- To take possession by force or at will
- Capture, take prisoner
- Grasp with the mind; impress (the mind); arrest (the attention)

From this, it appears that to usurp someone else's power is a means to capture or imprison that person and that this can be done either by force or by this person's own request or consent. Think how many people in their sense of helplessness are very eager to give up their freedom in exchange for safety. Think how many people without realizing it, live by laws that don't apply to them.

Regardless of whether the usurpation is done with or without the consent of the target person, it is the case that by the very definition of usurpation, such an action is illegal and without right. It is done through encroachment.

Encroach [<en- + hook]:

- To trespass upon the property or rights of another, esp. stealthily or by gradual advances.

Steal-thy (remember the definition of occult?) gradual advances are key here. The way of the unrighteous - unholy has been put into place step by step with the hopes that by the time people realize what has happened it will be too late to do anything about it. A recent example of this is when they sent Europeans to the Americas. They didn't just show up and announce their intent to plunder and enslave the people. Instead, they presented themselves as friends and slowly introduced the indigenous people to the ways of the unrighteous - unholy: the alcohol, the guns, the lust for gold, furs, women, money, and so on. They offered glass beads and trinkets claiming fair trade yet to receive these trinkets, natives had to turn against themselves and the very land that nourished them. Step by step the indigenous people were contaminated until it was too late for them to do anything about it except fight hopeless battles.

Father calls this "falling prey by contact"

We speak of a gradual decline that is very stealthy indeed, at least to those targeted for this decline. Every time the unrighteous - unholy take it up one notch, there are those of older generations who recognize something is wrong and make it known, yet the younger generations which are the target just can't see it. Each new generation is a generation that is further away from Truth and thus thinks that those who complain are just being "old fashioned" and not "in tune" with an "open mind" about things.

According to the dictionary, this stealthy and gradual increase in trespassing involves three steps:

- The grasping of the mind
- The impression of the mind
- The arresting of the attention

And of course, I might add, a careful planning and willful intent to act in such ways.

---

Grasping the mind

05/25/10

Be aware, this is a long post.

As unveiled in the last posting, usurpation is a stealthy and gradual increase in trespassing and involves three steps:

- The grasping of the mind
- The impression of the mind
- The arresting of the attention

As you contemplate the three ways through which usurpation is accomplished, you may notice that all of them involve affecting something that is intangible, namely, the mind and the attention. As we progress through this exploration, keep in mind that recent advances in medicine have established that people who are burdened or stressed and who go through traumatic experiences actually show deterioration in the function of their body and brain. This deterioration and malfunction then inhibits people's ability to make sound choices and causes them to act improperly or in ways they would otherwise not have chosen were they in full use of their faculties.

Grasp:

- To seize or hold by or as clasping with the fingers
- Hold firmly
- To lay hold of with the mind
- Comprehend [together + seize]
- Hold, possession, or mastery

To grasp the mind is to firmly imprison the mind or possess it by force through the clasping with the fingers, through the use of the mind itself, and through the mastery of how the mind works / how it can be possessed.

What is it to imprison by clasping with the fingers? Let's find out.

Clasp:

- A device for fastening things or parts together
- Military decoration

Finger:

- Any of various projecting parts of machines
- To touch or take thievishly
- Pilfer, filch, toy or meddle with

Device:

- Inclination, plan for affecting a purpose
- Devise: disposing of property, to divide, contrive

'Clasping with the fingers' is a reference to any plan that has the purpose of dividing people into groups in such a way as to facilitate pilfering and meddling with them. This could perhaps include the formation of groups / nations to which members consciously or unconsciously pledge allegiance or use as a means to derive self importance through differentiation from 'outsiders' (think for example of military decorations).

Said in another way, 'clasping with the fingers' is nothing more than a way of dividing people into groups which either compete against each other or become enemies of each other. Without realizing it, by joining any group, people become prisoners of the stereotypical behaviors expected of them. They develop an 'inclination' toward the group they belong to and no longer can stand upright with the Father. You know, "divide and conquer"...

As we will see, the unrighteous - unholy first seek to destroy the People's Self Confidence which is derived from Knowledge of who they Are, and then "built them up" again with a substitute but false sense of self importance which is obtained from joining different kinds of groups and receiving "decorations" from these groups.

Perhaps it is time to recognize that this unnatural / artificial division of the People is designed to pit us against each other so that we may be conquered by the unrighteous - unholy. Perhaps it is time to stop participating in this and recognize the need for us, the People, to reunite once again as children of the Father. Not so that a one world government can be established, but so that each one of us can walk upright with the Father in sovereign expression of our Divine Nature, of one a-chord with All That Is Righteous and Holy.

---

What is it to imprison through the use of the mind itself?

Since the mind is one of the targets of usurpation and this can be accomplished by use of the mind itself, it is time to learn what kind of knowledge is hidden under such a commonly used word. We all know what the mind is? Right? Let's find out.

Mind: [ compare to amnesty, Eumenides, mantra, mental, mention, monition, and mint]

- Faculty of memory; remembrance
- Psychical or spiritual being, as opposed to matter
- Soul
- Intellect or understanding as distinguished from the faculties of feeling and willing.

I have been so amazed by the information contained in this definition that I just had to check the dictionary again to make sure what I wrote down is indeed accurate.

Right out of the bat, we have that to imprison someone by using the mind has several meanings well beyond what anyone would normally imagine. Let's do some substitutions to find out what it is to imprison someone by using the mind:

1. The unrighteous - unholy can imprison someone by using amnesty. Amnesty is "a forgetting or overlooking of offense". This is a nice and gentle way of saying "black mail" or "compromise". There are many stories of people who commit some "offense" and then are threatened with public disclosure unless of course, they agree to do something... I would suggest better under Divine Penalty than under unrighteous - unholy coercion and black mailing. There are also many stories of people who are approached in compromise: "if you stop what you are doing, we leave you alone..." Father has Said that compromise is never in the favor of the People. To choose compromise is to have fallen prey. Not compromising is not confronting. It is simply standing one's ground in Truth and letting go of the improper behavior / thoughts / ideas / attachments that allow the unrighteous - unholy to interfere.

2. The unrighteous - unholy can imprison someone through the Eumenides. Now what is that? Let's find out.

Eumenides: [good + disposition]

- A euphemistic name for the Furies or Erinyes.

Furies:

- Avenging deities of classical mythology (in female form with serpents in their hair)
- Any avenging spirit or minister of vengeance
- A fierce and violent person, esp. a woman
- A termagant: mythical deity...violent, overbearing; turbulent or brawling woman
- A virago: man-like woman, turbulent, violent, ill-tempered, scolding woman

Not much more needs said here, except notice the apparent contradiction between good disposition vs. the behavior of a fury. What this says is that tyrants will present themselves under most excellent disposition and behavior as long as it suits their schemes. They are the perfect sales person. Mrs. personality, great smile, smooth talking, charisma, oozing lust, you name it, all readily used to seduce and entice until she has imprisoned her target. Yet cross some imaginary line or try to brake free and they will indeed display their avenging nature. No one is required by Father to put up with such a person.

By the way, have you noticed that the way certain women wear their hair resembles entangled serpents? A coincidence?

3. The unrighteous - unholy can imprison someone through the use of mantras. Mantras are "one of the sacred texts or passages... of the nature of hymns, prayers, or (later) magical formulas, constituting the chief part of each of the four Vedas." Let me generalize:

- hymns = songs of praise.
"you are such a wonderful person, look how great you are, I admire you so much, wow you are the one, what would I do without you..." When one's self esteem has been damaged, such words are indeed a powerful drug that can be used to manipulate. The need for love and approval is what makes one vulnerable to such manipulation. Learn to Nourish your Self and express Love as Self and you are no longer affected by it. This is not to say you cannot give or receive Truthful compliments. It just points out what we all know, some people compliment to manipulate and it is for us to be non to this.

---

- Prayers = self explanatory.

Prayers have been shown to affect people. It is important to choose who you allow to pray for you and what kind of prayers they are allowed to make in your behalf. Perhaps some prayers that are directed your way should be rejected.

- Majik formulas = spells.

Spells just like prayers, do affect vulnerable people. Learn to express Love as Self and you are no longer affected by it.

4. The unrighteous - unholy can imprison someone through the use of monition. Monition is "an intimation or indication; also an official or legal notice". Remember all contracts made under deceit are null and void from inception. The unrighteous - unholy have no valid legal claim whatsoever over any one.
5. The unrighteous - unholy can imprison someone through the use of the mint or money. When money is the only means of trade, then People are forced into having to work for money. That is enslavement. Now, the word mint itself has some most amazing information stored in it but I will leave that exploration for another posting.

Let's do now some substitutions to find out what it is to imprison someone's mind.

1. To imprison the mind, is to imprison the faculty of memory or remembrance. That is the unrighteous - unholy affect our memories. One example of this could be the "coloring of the past" which is the tendency to make the past look better and more romantic than what it actually was. Another example could be the loss of memory, an ailment that greater and greater number of people are suffering. Another example could be the implantation of memories through mind control / manipulation or chemical control / manipulation. Dr. Blaylock has an excellent book on how chemicals alter the mind / body and what you can do to correct this.

2. To imprison the mind is to imprison someone on a psychic or spiritual level. This is to say that while we are deceived into a lame life in which there is nothing beyond that which can be touched with the hands or seen with the eyes, tyrants are quite skillful and aware of how the non tangible aspects of life work and how they can be manipulated to their benefit. Your ignorance is their power / to their benefit. Father has Spoken to me of the conscious awareness, which is what you are aware of, the secondary level, and then the fringes of one's awareness. Father has explained to me that it is necessary to be aware of what is happening at the secondary level and fringes of one's awareness to ensure one is of one a-chord at all levels. How do you do this? You ask. What is happening at my secondary level? And you will see / feel things. Then you can make a choice to correct what you see. What is happening at the fringes of my awareness? See / feel what is happening and make corrections as necessary. How do you make corrections? By making a different choice. You handle those levels as you handle the conscious level.
3. To imprison the mind is also to imprison the Soul of an individual. The concept of Souls being trapped and imprisoned is not new. Many have spoken of this. While I only have superficial knowledge of what people say in this respect, I do Know what Father has Shared with us. My experience is that traumatic experiences such as accidents are used by the unrighteous - unholy to "stupefy" the Soul and remove it from the body so that another soul can enter or at least seek control of the body. What do you do if you have had such an experience? Begin to call upon your True Soul by your full given name (first, middle, and last). Ask for Spiritual Discernment that you may know your True Soul from the impostor. Recognize their claim to your body is null and void and ask the Father for assistance in restoring you to your True Soul. Also, do a search in my and Linda's blog on "image projection", "sealing the door", and "door" to learn more about what is happening and what can be done. Also, Father has Given Guidance to someone approaching the time to leave the Earth that calling upon His Name three times will place them in His Presence rather than them succumbing to the unrighteous - unholy deception that allows theft of the Soul.
4. To imprison the mind is also to imprison one's intellect and understanding. How is this accomplished? Through decades of brainwashing called schooling. The news that we are fed, the books that we are fed, the movies that we are fed, the music that we are fed, and yes, the food that we are fed. Have you noticed that the greater the schooling of an individual the more rigid his mind becomes?

---

A coincidence?

What is it to imprison through the mastery of how the mind works / how it can be possessed?

Let's briefly explore this. We speak of a clear understanding of how one can control the mind by understanding how it works and what can be used to control it. All those research activities that have been implemented at universities to study the mind, the body, the intellect and so on have been indeed done to find all this information out, that it may be used to control the People. Father has explained to us, that every time a gifted psychic or spiritual person has volunteered to be studied, he / she has provided the unrighteous - unholy one more key as to what needs to be done to manipulate the People on the level in which they Commune with the Father. This is why this denial of the "spiritual realm" was created, so that people who were aware of this realm would have a need to "prove" it existed, even if this meant helping science understand the inner workings of the mind / body. Their "good intentions" have and are being used against the very People they hoped to help.

So here you have it. This is just one aspect of what a tyrant does when he usurps. In my next postings we will explore the other two aspects of usurpation, namely, the impression of the mind and the arresting of the attention.

Impressing the mind

05/26/10

The second way usurpation is implemented is by impressing the mind. In a way, this behavior is very similar to what has already been described, however I will take this opportunity to expand upon one aspect of all of this which I have not directly addressed before.

Impress

- to seize into service or use as by force or constraint
- to fix deeply and firmly in the mind or memory

We have already established that to seize is to take possession by force so as to capture and imprison.

You may or may not have noticed, that in this process, there has been one word that has been popping up directly or indirectly in almost every instance: possession.

It is time to look at this more closely.

Possession:

- the act or fact of possessing, or the state of being possessed.
- Actual holding or occupancy, as distinct from ownership

Possess:

- To hold or occupy
- Also, of a spirit, esp. an evil one, to occupy and control, or dominate from within, as a person
- Hence the idea to dominate or actuate after the manner of such a spirit.
- Possessed: dominated by an evil spirit or influence, demoniac, demented, mad

As you can see, the connection between tyranny, occult powers, use of 'unnatural knowledge' and demonic possession / remote influencing / dementia / energetic intrusion is very readily available. We speak of controlling and dominating which is pretty much the same as coercion. As was determined in the Mystical and Magical series, coercion is practiced by majikians (those who do various kinds of black majik). Majikians are tyrants. Tyrants are majikians. The only difference in this matter is whether they operate from the physical level or from the spiritual level.

---

So let's explore this slightly more. To take possession of someone's mind is to forcefully occupy or hold their faculty of memory, Soul, or intellect. That means that someone who has impressed your mind has successfully gained control or dominion over you from within.

What follows is a summary from years of conversations with Father through which He explained to us what had been done to us, the People, to derail our journey with Him. Of course, being members of the People, we have had to receive Guidance from Father as to what to do to regain our Freedom from this. Much if not all of what you read in Linda's blog and mine is a result of this applied Knowledge. We know what we say works and is True (at least for us) because we have experienced it in our lives and we had to learn what to do to be Free of this intrusion. It takes practice, strength, and determination, but one can indeed succeed.

There are several levels of possessive energies.

1. One of the most pervasive ones is the physical parasitic invasion in the form of viruses, bacteria, fungus, mold, and parasites (worms) which can affect and control your behavior. The simplest example of this is the flu. When someone "catches" the flu, his / her behavior changes. Another example is a yeast infection, where the person with the infection begins to crave all kinds of sugars that actually feed the yeast and create the environment the yeast likes. Father has Said and explained, and I know this to be real from experience, that certain parasites have actually such control of people that they can direct people's actions on an unconscious level, so as to create situations that will produce the emotions needed to sustain these parasites. The vast majority of difficulties and animosities between people are actually caused by the parasites in them. That is whence much of the trouble comes from. Some time ago, there was an article on "Unknown Country"<sup>2</sup> which spoke of how parasites can alter behavior and are responsible for cultural differences. This article ended with the quote of a scientist saying something in the likes of, "well is not that bad, after all this is what makes us different from each other". Yeah, right, guess who was in control of that scientist...

---

<sup>2</sup> <http://www.unknowncountry.com/>

I never confirmed this with Father but it is my personal theory that the reason why people who receive organ transplants suddenly begin craving things they never did before the transplant, is in great part related to the parasites that are transferred with organ. Those cravings are the kinds of experiences or foods that create the emotions and environment needed for the parasites to thrive.

I could probably write an entire book on this, but suffice it to say that it is wise to do regular deparasitic programs. Look also for herbs and oils that have known antifungal, antiviral, antibacterial properties and learn how to use them wisely. Joy, Happiness, Love as Self, the energy of the Smile are all energies that drive parasites away, have as much of this as you can. Which is to say, whenever you experience something other than that, it is possible there is some kind of parasite creating those emotions so it can feed on them. Begin to differentiate yourself from the emotions (anger, hate, resentment, and so on) - these are unnatural and not an expression of your True Nature. Father has explained that there is no valid justification to hold on to such emotions.

Many smaller parasites will exit through the skin. We call these "escapes". Usually they come out in two phases. First something that looks like a tiny round solid thing, many times with a little thread. Then, a few days later comes the "hook" it used to hook you on. Sometimes these can be quite painful to remove. Worms that don't exit through your feces will exit through your nose. Those long buggers... you may actually be doing a lot of nose picking... few things are more annoying than a little worm wiggling inside your nose... which by the way leads me to the following comment. Children are very good at picking their noses to remove these buggers. However, when parents teach them how uncivilized it is to pick their noses, they learn that it is improper to remove those parasites from their bodies... which leads them to the conclusion they have to live with them. Perhaps, if you have a child you should teach them the value of nose picking... just teach them to do it privately as a "courtesy" to the worms who reside in other people and can't stand seeing their "equals" being removed from the host. By the way, disinfecting your fingers after a session of nose picking is wise. You can use properly diluted food grade (if possible) hydrogen peroxide, or vinegar, or a spray with essential oils.

My last comment on this level of parasites. Parasites that exit from your brain will also come out the nose. This is usually accompanied with bleeding. Linda and I have found that when the nose bleeds, an effective way to end the bleeding is to actually gently blow through the nostril that is bleeding. Once the parasite, or whatever, is dislodged, the bleeding will stop immediately. This can be quite scary, because sometimes there is a lot of blood that comes out, including clots of blood. Usually, before a major bleeding happens, you will have a few minor ones, as if to let you know to prepare. Make sure to have a lot of tissue paper with you when this happens. If the bleeding happens in public, just cover your nose with the tissue paper and quickly go to a restroom where you can blow your nose into the sink. Then clean it all and presto... one less parasite controlling your life. Of course, neither Linda nor I are doctors, therefore, my humor and folk wisdom in this matter should not be construed as medical advice.

---

2. Another level of parasitic infestation is found in the "non-physical" level. It is comprised of what we have termed shades and shadows of darkness. Among these are the trickster which enters the body slightly after the Soul, right after birth. A trickster, as the name implies, seeks to confuse you and trick you into behavior that is unhealthy. You get rid of a trickster by requesting it to leave and asking Father for assistance in this matter. Again, ask for Discernment to know it is not you and then choose Truth. Eventually it will be displaced.

Another one is called a pariah. This one is passed from infected mother to child. Pariahs can also be received through abuse, when the abused child believes he / she needs to become like his / her abuser. Even though pariahs are inherited, the person who inherited it has to actually "activate it into life" so to speak, before it can become active and present. This is usually accomplished by the pariah mother who will create whatever conditions are necessary for the child to activate his / her pariah. Another way to get one is by actually inviting it in - it is the "contract with the devil" scenario of which the pariah is a part of. Pariahs are responsible for some of the worst atrocities upon Earth. People with pariahs tend to be Mr. or Mrs. personality but are sure full of hate inside (kind of furies). In the past, society would get rid of contaminated people like this by sending them to far away islands or casting them away from their community. Getting rid of a pariah is rough because it involved consent. Never mind it is all based on deceit and abuse, but there is still some degree of consent. First thing to recognize is your Desire to be Free of it, then recognize the contract is null and void or perhaps choose to void the contract which you can do by Father's Grace and finally, return it to the person from whom you got it: "I picked up something of yours which I no longer want so I'm returning it back to you." They will be glad to receive it. This can be done over the phone if necessary.

A necromancer is some kind of being that can be sent by someone unto another. It will seek to attach itself to the crown of a person's head and influence the person to do whatever bidding it was sent to do. Usually necromancers are sent to cause the target to become infatuated by however sent it. If you find yourself attracted to someone in a way that is abnormal, then you either got one of these in your head or you have been spelled. Either way, you get rid of it by not playing, just as with any unrighteous - unholy energy that seeks to control or manipulate you. "I do not play, get thee away. Get thee away ends your play." "Lead me not unto unrighteous - unholy day." By the way, my speculation is that certain Jews wear that little black hat on their crown precisely to protect themselves from this necromancer. To the unrighteous - unholy the color black is solid and they cannot penetrate it.

The last one I will speak of in this category, is the globular which is a kind of glob of energy that can either float on top of entire neighborhoods or float in front of your third eye. What this thing does is block the flow of energy from the Father thus where this thing is, there is poverty. This is why it is so difficult for people that end up in such neighborhoods to get out of them. Symptoms of its presence aside from poverty include resources being consumed quickly without much being obtained in exchange. Whatever money you have is never sufficient and it never goes far. When you get extra money, it is quickly consumed by unexpected things and so on. You get rid of this by claiming the resources of the Father for you each and every day. By Blessing the resources and asking that they no longer be squandered or blocked. By asking to be Divinely Guided as to how to allocate your resources. You know you are succeeding when you start getting more things with the same amount of money. You kind of have the feeling of "wow, who would have thought so little could get so much" as opposed to "how much got so little".

3. The next level of possession is different than the others, for this actually involves an entity invading your body and taking over control of your body. This can be done by creating a live threatening situation or accident which causes the Soul to be displaced and thus creating the opportunity for an entity to invade the body. Someone on a Coast to Coast interview explained that this also happens when people pass out from being drunk. That disembodied spirits can enter into someone at that moment of passing out. The other way this happens is by consent which can be presented as a very positive thing. For example, Native Americans speak of "all my relations" which is a concept in which they believe many entities can use the same body and that it is ok to allow "various relations" to take over the body at different times. Father has explained to us that this is not His Way. There is only one Soul per body. Any other entities are intruders. You handle these the same as the other. Withdraw your permission, withdraw your participation, ask Father for assistance. Make choices that Honor your Divine Nature, your Creative Expression. Learn to Smile and be Love as Self. Nourish your body and Soul. Be Joyful and Happy. Be at Peace. And remember Proper nutrition makes this so much easier.

---

I remember reading in passing a section of the book "Conversations with God" in which the author explained that in his conversations with "God" (remember god is a very generic term which can represent many who would like to think themselves as gods), "God" explained to him that the only mistake by some souls was to seek incarnation before their due time. When you think about it, how do you think some entity can get a body before it is given one? By possession of course. Suddenly the picture does not look so innocent, does it? Stealing would perhaps be more appropriate. In the end, that is indeed what the unrighteous - unholy are, a bunch of thieves who believe in living the "good life" at the expense / misery of those they infest. Insane parasitic thieves is a good descriptor of the unrighteous - unholy and it is time for us the People to stop being hosts to such insanity.

Let's continue with the pause

05/28/10

After writing on tyranny for a while in the Spiritual Swimming series, I feel it is necessary to take a day to refresh the Soul in the Father Way and remind ourselves of the Blessings of the Father Way.

If everything we know seems to be a manifestation of tyranny, one may wonder what is left. What does it mean to do it different? How can it be done different? For me, the answer is in the Mystical and Magical of the Father Way. Here are a few quotes.

From the "Pause" post:

We have come indeed a long way. If you feel troubled by this, as if your foundation is failing, you feel weak in your knees perhaps, I would suggest that you take a pause and give yourself some time before continuing. Also, do re-read my posting "Mystical Magical" to remind yourself of Father's Way. In so doing you will help yourself recognize that unveiling deception does not need to leave you empty handed, but rather give you an Opportunity to welcome Universal Truth in its place. This is an important aspect of cleansing - what you let go of needs to be replaced with Love, Peace, Joy, Truth or any other Divine Attribute of your Divine Nature / the Father Way. At the Altar of Love and Power you Exchange deception for Truth. That which you receive in Exchange fills the area previously occupied by the deception.

Yet, for those living in civilization, it seems as though sometimes we are so enchanted by the spell of unrighteous - unholy that we can't even recognize there is a problem. In such cases, when we are so enchanted by majik, the tendency is to ignore the Father Guidance and brush aside any suggestions that there might be a problem.

Things are not what they appear to be. When you recognize this, then the possibility presents itself for a different way. The Father Way is available to those who Desire it.

From the "Mystical and Magical" post:

The Mystical and Magical is a natural expression of the Universe. Living plants, living stones, living Earth, living Sun, living puffy clouds. The aurora borealis, the fireflies lighting up the night, the sparkling raindrop on a leave, the People, the fairies, and the nature spirits. All together yet individually rejoicing in the wonderment of Creation and Life, receiving the Blessings from the Father and progressing in their Spiritual Journey.

---

The picture has become clear enough now to give us some Guidance and Direction as to what a Magical experience of Life and Creation is. It is an experience that includes mystery and beauty and allows one to see clearly what is Right and Proper, Respectful behavior. It is an experience that facilitates, sustains, and requires health - that is, having all organs and faculties in utmost state of nourishment and function. It is an experience founded on Truth, therefore it is legal, which is to say it is of one a-chord with Universal Law.

From the "Mystery and Beauty" post:

When we Playfully discover the Beauty of Creation, we are exploring the Harmony, Excellence, Truth of Creation. This experience of course brings pleasure and gratification. This is the Father Way. Are you in need of Pleasure and Gratification? Then perhaps you should consider the Father Way of a Mystical and Magical Life.

So when we speak of Beauty, we speak of a position of the body, a state of mind / behavior / conduct, a mental outlook or feeling that brings the rewards of Abundance and freedom from anxiety, pain, doubt, and sorrow. We speak of an attitude that brings feelings of enjoyment, delight, satisfaction, fulfillment because it is Harmonious, Excellent, and Truthful.

... Beauty is something you are. It is a state of Being and experience.

From the "Feelings are where we begin" post:

If feelings are where we begin and Beauty is a feeling then perhaps Beauty is indeed part of the answer to restoration of Self as Love. Beauty is a feeling that brings enjoyment and delight. It is a feeling that facilitates Abundance and fills our supplies.

From the "How is it done" post:

Each morning we sit and Pray and set our feeling tone for the day. We greet the Sun rise and welcome the Abundance and Joy that Father makes available to us through Him. We make a choice by saying the following Prayer:

*I give not away my Righteous and Holy Desire through untoward / unwarranted activity and play.
I choose this day to beleaguer no more.
I seek instead all Righteous and Holy Play.*

As we change that which we focus upon to the Father, to Universal Truth, to the Mysteries of Creation, as we change the music that we Play to Harmony, as we change our bodily posture and mental outlook / conduct to an upright position, we begin to experience the feeling of Inner Beauty. A feeling of delight and enjoyment that allows the Abundance of the Father to be received once again in us. We begin to fill fulfilled and satisfied, no longer in need of love and approval.

From the "Your Purpose in Life" post:

Much of this can significantly be facilitated by Right and Proper nutrition.

From the "Pure-Pose" post:

It is time that we the People, united, ask in Prayer to the Father and to Universal Law that majik and those who force / purvey majik upon us be cast out from this Earth. That the door that was opened by the unrighteous - unholy to contaminate us with their ways be sealed until the day it can be forever dissolved. Not one gun needs fired for this to become a reality. They are not our enemies, we seek not to defeat them in battle, to see who is stronger in will, or to change their ways. We seek instead our restoration to the Father Way and in Prayer we ask that we be allowed to do so in the Safety and Protection of the Father and Universal Law. We show our Desire is Genuine and Honest by withdrawing our participation in their game. We show our Desire is Genuine and Honest by returning to our Pur-Pose in Life that we may InJoy the Mystical and Magical Life of the Father Way.

Unto a Bright New Day, we the People shall prevail in the Father Way.

Have a Blessed Weekend.

---

Arresting the attention

05/29/10

Let's resume the Spiritual Swimming series by taking a look at the third way in which a tyrant usurps others: the arresting of the attention.

Arrest:

- To bring to a standstill
- To take into custody
- Catch and fix

Attention:

- Concentration of the mind upon something
- Heed
- Consideration

Fix:

- Place, attach, or insert so as to secure against displacement
- Render unchangeable in purpose or conviction
- Look at with a steady gaze (as, to fix a person with one's eyes)
- Attract and hold
- Hold spell bound
- To render more stable or more permanent by decreasing or destroying its volatility, fluidity, solubility, softness, or the like
- Become firmly attached or implanted
- Become steadily directed
- Become stable or permanent
- To settle down

The arrest the attention is then to fixate the concentration of the mind upon something so as to render it unchangeable or to bring it to a standstill all together. Perhaps, it is not a coincidence that people's ability to think "outside the box" is diminished as the years pass by and that many can't even consider the possibility of something being outside the framework of their illusion without getting violent.

Let's check out a few ways in which people's ability to think is hampered and taken into custody or better said imprisonment.

1. One is to firmly attach or implant ideas in such a way they become difficult to displace and be free off. Traumatic events are such ways. This includes traumatic experiences observed in movies.
2. Another way is to spellbound / enchant / entrance / fascinate people through whatever catches their attention. Typical examples of this are politics, religion, technology, movie stars and celebrities, women, sex, humanitarian work, and recently the stock market.
3. A perhaps more commonly occurring way to spellbound a person so as to attract and hold that person is with one's eyes, smile, kiss, body, or seductive clothing.
4. Another way to accomplish this, is to render them more stable and steady by destroying their capacity to "fly" or achieve their dreams. When you live in a world where all the essentials needed for life such as housing, clothing, food, water, land, traveling, and heat require constant installments in the form of money, people have no other choice, if they Desire to have some sort of comfort, but to be engaged in the activities of the mercantile game which offer paper money in unequal exchange for real labor / creativity / goods. Preoccupied in making money to make ends meet, few have time to follow their "dreams", which by the way also require money to accomplish.
5. A fifth way, is by decreasing or destroying the fluidity and solubility of the body. Which is to say, by hampering the ability of gland's to secrete the fluids necessary to sustain normal function of the body and mind. Adrenal fatigue would fall under this category. Thyroid malfunction would also be a manifestation of this. When people become dehydrated, they become stiff and frail, incapable of moving. This destruction is accomplished by supplanting fresh, clean water with soft drinks, alcohol, and a potable water supply that is deleterious to anyone's health. It is also accomplished by supplanting fresh, clean air with a brew of heavy metals, carbon dioxide, and whatever else comes out of the stacks of industry and cars. It is accomplished by supplanting fresh, clean food with chemical laced and chemically grown food. It is accomplished by taxing people with rules and regulations, constant trouble and fears, stress, and the pressure of making ends meet and paying all the bills while making sure there is enough food on the table each and every day.

---

6. A sixth way is by providing the means which steadily direct people through their lives. Examples of this are kindergarten, preschool, school, high school, undergraduate, graduate, employment, TV, radio shows, scientific expertise, government, rules and regulations, laws - all designed to make perfect and complacent citizens who think they are free because they can pretend they actually choose their tyrant on a national level, and because they are given certain freedoms as long as they pay the proper bribes / taxes to the local tyrants.
7. Another way is to make people "settle down" from those "wild" teenage years during which many recognize there is a problem and seek to do it differently. Yet, because there is no viable alternative without Knowledge of Self as Love and of the Father Way, most end up trapped in the very society they sought to change or become free off.

So here you have it. Once again, things are not they way they appear. They would tell us that this way of life is normal, that this is what life is all about. I say, yeah, if you live under tyranny. When tyranny affects people's faculty of concentration, it hampers people's ability to be healthy and become stronger and purer for they can no longer follow their True Heart - a Heart that would lead them back to the Father Way.

As you stop your participation in any of the ways that are used to hinder your walk with the Father, you increase your capacity to succeed. This is done step by step. Not by suppressing, but by dealing with what is happening in the Presence of the Father and asking to be shown how to do it differently.

In the Father Way, we shall succeed.

Oppression

05/30/10

After covering many of the aspects of usurpation, one may wonder if there is anything left to unveil from any further exploration of how tyrants accomplish their deeds. After all, usurpation pretty much encompassed all behavior we take as a "normal" expression of civilization and humanity. Let's find out.

Oppress:

- To press against or press down
- Subdue, suppress
- Affect with a distorting sense of pressure or overpowering physical influence
- Lie heavily upon, as care, sorrow, or any disturbing thought does
- Burden with cruel or unjust impositions or restrains
- To molest or harass

To oppress is to subdue a person through overpowering physical influence, through cruel and unjust impositions and restrains that burden the person, through disturbing thoughts and sorrow that heavily lie upon the Soul, and through molestation and harassment.

Molest:

- To interfere or meddle with annoyingly, injuriously, or with hostile intent

Harass:

- To trouble by repeated attacks, incursions, etc., as in war or hostilities
- To disturb or torment persistently or incessantly, as with troubles, cares, importunities
- Also, to wear out or exhaust with fatigue, trouble, care

Do you think it is a coincidence that current society, the word "molestation" is used in the context of sexually abusing children, while "harassment" is used in the context of sexually abusing adults?

---

This is to say, at least to me, that sexual abuse and perversion goes hand in hand with oppression, for it is a way to create a burden that is cruel and lies heavily upon the Soul while producing sorrow and disturbing thoughts.

The drive behind sexual abuse and perversion is tyranny. Lustful expression is not a sign of a free society, but rather an indication of the tyranny that is oppressing the very society that thinks is free because it can engage in untold ways of sexual deviation. You must understand that before sexual deviation can exist, there must be injury, hostility, and persistent torment that will cause a distorted sense of influence. This burdens the Soul and solicits sorrow, exhaustion, and cruelty. No one who is burdened and restrained in such ways can claim to be free.

It doesn't take a rocket scientist to notice that in society, we are constantly assaulted every where we look with books, magazines, TV, movies, advertisement that contain blatant sexual content designed to sexually arouse children and adults alike. This practice of oppression is child molestation and adult harassment of the vilest sort, designed to compel people into accepting and desiring lustful, abnormal, and unethical behavior.

By the very definition of oppression, this molestation and harassment is done with hostile intent, with the goal of causing injury and torment, and with the goal of wearing out and exhausting people. It is time to stop being fooled by the glitter and false promises of tyranny.

Distort:

- to twist awry or out of shape
- fig. to pervert

To say oppression induces a distorted sense, is to say it induces a twisted and perverted sense. Our body and mind is turned awry and into an improper use that leads astray. Our bodies and mind were never designed to be used for sexual perversion and deviation. The mainstream belief that crotches are meant to be used for sexual intercourse and that bodies are meant to be mentally lusted is nothing more than an expression of this twisted and perverted mentality that arises from oppression and is used at the same time, to subdue each new generation into submission to what Father has called the "death warrant voucher".

This is how Father explained this contract to us. It is the original contract with the unrighteous - unholy and the one they use to claim their right to destroy and meddle with us:

*In the lingering aftereffect or aftermath of your Heartfelt Desire gone awry, there came an implant
by virtue of sustaining, signing a death warrant voucher.
Lingering in Plentitude not, your Heartfelt Desire could no longer sustain and nourish your Endeavor.
The origin of such abuse lay deep within the human heart.
Once upon a time, 'long ago and far away', your Heartfelt Desire would nourish and sustain you.
It is through 'Plentitude not', you fell into despair, decay, decadent desire.*

Using the dictionary to explore the meaning of "death warrant voucher", we came to understand its meaning to be:

"To put off lawful death as the deeply felt consequence of coveting, [insinuating], and envy, (which are) deeply buried in the mind, people chose obedience to the rule "a man's power lies in his ability to copulate". This has prolonged suffering by being possessed by force of a legally binding obligation to destruction for future payment of agricultural and mining products."

One paragraphs sums it all up. It took one man and one woman to make this initial contract with the unrighteous - unholy which was then used to claim the right to all inhabitants of the Earth. It has taken one man and one woman to end this contract for all of Earth's inhabitants. Father has explained to us, that as of a few days ago, the death warrant voucher contract has been dissolved by the choice of a man and woman who in their Heart and Soul sought the Father Way at all levels of expression.

It is for us to take this Opportunity and resume our Mystical and Magical Walk in the Father Way.

---

Almost there

05/31/10

We have covered a long ways. We have explored how tyranny rules, influences, and exercises. We have explored how tyrants usurp and oppress, and now we are into the last aspect of this exploration: despotism.

So let's move on and get this done.

Despot:

- Master or lord, see potent
- Tyrant or oppressor

Potent:

- Master, lord, husband
- Possessed of great power or authority
- Producing powerful physical or chemical effects, as a drug
- Possessing sexual power

So here we have that worldly connection between power and sex. What was unveiled in the last post regarding the death warrant voucher contract is now made plainly visible and readily identifiable. When it comes to someone in authority many cultures throughout the world expect that person to display his manhood through his capacity to impregnate women. In Europe kings were expected to produce offspring, in Asia, emperors have been known for having children left and right, and in the Middle East, the story is the same, in order for the ruler to be validated in the eyes of the people, he must be able to have multiple children. No difference in the Americas where a ruler's indiscretions are celebrated as a sign of his manhood and power.

Whenever you see power and sex in action, you know you are looking at the despotic display of tyranny.

Possessed:

- Dominated by an evil spirit or influence
- Demonic, demented, mad

Power:

- Capability of doing or affecting
- The possession of control or command over others
- Dominion, authority, ascendancy or influence

From the above definition it is clear, at least to me, that a despot is someone who is manipulated by the unrighteous - unholy through an evil spirit or influence which indeed causes the dementia and madness that all tyrants are known to display, not the least of which is the air of grandiosity and the sense of "divine destiny". It is this evil spirit or influence abiding with tyrants that can manipulate and control people by generating powerful physical and chemical effects that affect the sexual instincts of those it seeks to control / deceive.

There are three levels of despots: masters, lords, and husbands

Master:

- A man who has authority or control, the commander of a merchant vessel
- An employer of workmen or servants

Master, president, king, emperor, tyrant... they are one and the same. Doesn't seem there is a need to say much more about this, except to say that the ultimate "masters" so to speak or slave owners are the unrighteous - unholy who are at the top of the food chain they created.

Lord: [loaf + keeper: compare to lady]

- One who has dominion over others

Of course, a lord is someone who has dominion over others, but interestingly enough, it appears that this dominion is accomplished by controlling the food supply / manufacture / harvest. Maybe there is a relation between this idea of agriculture and fertility and the use of sexual powers to control and abuse. A lot of cultures do many rites and ceremonies to their god of fertility. On the other hand, a lot of control can be exerted by controlling the food supply, especially in times of famine.

---

Notice that within the scope of tyranny, lord and lady are synonyms.

Lady:

- Mistress of the household
- A woman who has proprietary rights or authority
- A woman who is the object of chivalrous devotion
- A wife or consort

Mistress

- A woman who has authority or control
- A female owner of a slave
- A woman who illicitly occupies the place of a wife

This is an interesting development. Women who are "object of chivalrous devotion" are actually despotic slave owners. That is to say, these women use an evil spirit or influence that abides with / in them to generate powerful physical and chemical effects that affect the sexual instincts of those they seek to control / deceive / enslave and perhaps even entrap in marriage.

Husband: [see bond]

- A man joined in marriage to a woman as wife
- Master of a house
- Manager or steward

Bond:

- A peasant, a serf
- In bondage - serfdom, involuntary servitude, slavery, subjection

The third level of despotism is expressed through the husbands who use their "power" to sexually abuse / dominate their wives. It is interesting that the word husband is related to bondage, serfdom, involuntary servitude, slavery, and subjection. There are two ways in which this manifests. One is in the enslavement of a woman to a man, where this woman becomes for all practical purposes his slave / servant. The other is the enslavement of a man to a fury / mistress / lady who manipulates / dominates him using sex and lust.

Linda has asked and known other women to ask why is it that spiritual men end up with women that are furies and spiritual women end up with men that are abusers. Could this simply be tyranny seeking to oppress those who seek Righteous and Holy?

As you can see, the behavior that results from the death warrant voucher is related to the use of "sexual powers" which infers the presence of some entity or influence of an unholy - unrighteous nature which is directing / causing the abuse / oppression.

There is though an alternative.

peasant:

- a countryman or rustic

rustic:

- of, pertaining to, or living in the country as distinguished from towns or cities

We speak of the People who live close to the land, away from towns and cities where the "sophisticated" live, and who do not engage in the ways of "civilization" and thus sexual oppression. In this alternative, men and women come together not because of sexual mingling, but because they have a common goal and they believe they can share and support each other in the fulfillment of that goal.

Linda:

"If it were so despicable to live close to the land in Honor and Respect, then why were the bitterest battles in Europe fought over the last European strongholds of peasant honor to enslave the People called "pagan" who in fact kept the closest awareness of our original Divine Nature of any People on the planet?

I know that some traditional cultures may take offense to this, but from what Father has Said, I know it is True."

---

Let's talk about sex...

06/02/10

Since despotism is related to the abuse / control through sexual power, I will take the time to explore the word sexual to see what can be unveiled.

Sexual:

- Of, pertaining to, or distinctive of sex
- having sex or sexual organs
- Occurring between or involving the two sexes in their distinctive physical functions or power (as sexual intercourse or union)

I find it interesting that the definition is concerned mainly with the word "sex" and indicates that having sex is not necessarily the same as having sexual organs. This actually supports what Father has Said and I have shared in a prior posting. We do not lust or desire sexual intercourse because we have sexual organs. Also notice the following play on words: you could have sex without having sexual organs and you could have sexual intercourse or union without having sex.

Sex:

- The instinct or attraction drawing one sex toward the other

Sex is an instinct or attraction that draws sexes together. This definition does not say it draws sexual organs together, nor does it say that it draws men and women together. The instinct or attraction in one person draws the instinct and attraction in another person.

Instinct:

- Impelled: incite: urge on, call on
- Involuntary, unreasoning tendency, whether merely natural, inherited or modified by experience to act in a specific way under given circumstances

Involuntary:

- Not voluntary
- Otherwise than by one's own will and choice

Sex is an involuntary tendency, which is to say it is something that would not be done by one's own will and choice. What is not done voluntarily is done under coercion. Two people that come together under the influence of sex do so under coercion and against their own will and choice. Do you remember who believes in the coercion of nature? Majikians do, the unrighteous – unholy.

This tendency can be either inherited or learned through experiences which are designed to modify people's behavior into specific responses under given circumstances. The claim that this could be a "natural" occurrence is simply a way to justify this behavior by claiming it is what nature intended.

This is a quote from the book "Peal of Bells: Moving Free across the Land":

"If I understand what you are saying... Terra has an energy that flows to us. Right?"

"Right & Proper that is so."

"And this energy is being used as a carrier of distorted energies such as lustful expression?"

"You could call it Terra Energy gone awry, distorted into energy of lust," AurorA explained. "You have been led to believe lust is Terra's natural energy. Therefore, being born of Terra, animals could do no less, much less humans who 'descended from apes'. They claim it is the 'animal instinct of your expression' to seek sex and violence for the preservation of the species. A natural part of your experience."

Showay immediately thought of the many ways in which the "experts" had drilled this notion into his society.

"Yet in fact," continued AurorA, as soon as he was present once again, "the extent to which mankind responds to this distorted energy is the extent to which it is receptive to it."

---

This tendency is then exploited by tyrants in their desire to control people. Could this be a reason behind all these teenage magazines that constantly talk about sex? Could this also apply to all the movies, books, advertisement, music, videos, trends, and so on to which the young are exposed?

Attract:

- Act upon by an inherent physical force compelling approach or union
- Invite; allure
- Fig. influence serving to draw or allure; a charm

So here we have the other aspect of sex. The first one is related to genetic manipulation (inheritance) and to indoctrination which induces people to act against their own will. The second aspect is related to a compelling force / allure / charm. Once again the hand of the majikians is at play.

Inhere: [in + stick]

- To stick or remain fixed

Compelling:

- To secure or bring about by force

Force:

- Physical coercion
- Power to influence or control
- Unlawful violence

Sex then is also the result of some kind of influence that is fixated upon a person and controls this person through unlawful violence so as to physically coerce this person into accepting the "death warrant voucher". Sounds to me like we speak of some kind of shade and shadow of darkness (ssd), that resides in people and manipulates / coerces people into sexual activities. It stands to reason that the manipulation by these ssds would be facilitated by the learned or inherited tendencies that modify people's behavior so as to make them susceptible and receptive to acting against themselves.

Allure:

- To draw or attract as by a lure: a bait, esp. an artificial bait: to worry; torment; food or substitute
- Tempt by inherent charm
- Appeal to invitingly or seductively

To allure is to use an inviting or seductive display of what appears to be food or nourishment so as to lure the target into biting. Notice the words artificial, worry, torment. As has been unveiled in prior postings, these are all words directly connected to tyranny and majik.

Charm [incantation]:

- The chanting or recitation of a verse believed to possess magic powers
- Enchant
- Soothe
- To give forth musical sound

Incantation [chant a magic formula against]

- A spell or charm

Take notice of the word "against". Sex is done "against" the People. What is done "against" someone is done in opposition, so as to adversely affect that person.

Enchant:

- To subject to magical influence
- Cast a spell over; bewitch
- Delude: defraud; to mislead the mind or judgment of; deceive

To charm is to use chanting or incantation so as to influence (deceive) someone into acting in ways they would otherwise not have chosen. This charm casts a spell over the target so as to gain majikal influence of that person. This charm is something that can become fixated in the person using the charm or in the target person. This charm misleads the mind or judgment. It deceives and defrauds a person. To defraud a person is to "take away his / her right or property through fraud".

---

In other words, sex is a fraudulent action or influence designed to steal away something from the target person. This is done by using a coercive and compelling force which is obtained from the use of majikal influence.

Soothe [E. sooth]:

- To soften or appease
- Mitigate, assuage, or allay, as pain, sorrow, doubt, etc.

Soft:

- Producing agreeable sensations
- gradual
- Impressionable, sentimental
- Easily influenced or swayed
- Foolish or silly
- Weak minded.

The incantation or charm used to draw someone into sex is designed to soothe or appease the target by offering the false promise of mitigating the sense of pain, sorrow, loneliness, brokenness in that person. It offers the false hope that perhaps that someone will be the one filling up that empty space, yet it never fails to increase the sense of emptiness (the target has after all been defrauded).

This softening of the target is gradual and designed to cause "agreeable sensations", while it is designed to create a state that allows the target to be easily influenced and swayed into improper activity. These charms are designed to cause a target to become weak minded, impressionable and sentimental, all states of being which make people vulnerable to another's advances.

When you see someone who has you "charmed" what you are charmed by is not the body or looks of that person, but by the charm he / she is wearing which is casting a spell over you with the purpose of misleading your mind and judgment. The energy that weakens and blurs your thinking is not a normal response, but rather the effects of being under the influence of sex. That is to say, the ssd in you sees food and wants to eat.

When you sense a compulsory urge to have sex, you are either being affected by something which has fixated upon you such as a ssd, or by a spell / influence cast upon you, that uses unlawful violence and coercion to force you into doing something that you would not do of your own accord.

Sex has indeed become a driver of relationships. The point here is to recognize that contrary to popular belief, sex is not normal but rather the result of being under a tyrannical influence that works on a personal level. Father has explained to us that these shades and shadows of darkness in people actually work on an unconscious level to bring people together that will create the conditions necessary for these ssds to feed on (they feed of emotions). People that wonder why it is that they always seem to attract the same kind of destructive / unhealthy person / relationship should take notice that perhaps it is not them per say attracting those situations, but rather some ssd that resides with / in them.

I remember one time Linda and I went to a shop where we were helped by a young assistant dressed in very revealing clothing. At that time, I felt this urge to look at her chest, which of course the tendency would be to say breasts. It was rough to not be distracted by this and behave Respectfully. Later that day, we asked Father what this was about and He explained that what attracted me was a ssd that had attached itself upon her chest. This being was flashing light in various colors, similar to how certain fish in the deep ocean attract their prey and I had responded to it. Father then explained that this being was draining the life force away from her and that in order to survive, she would solicit the energy of others by dressing in seductive ways and engaging in sex.

On another note, I have seen entities close to or attached to my body soliciting strong urge to have sex. To see such a thing attached to you is quite distressing to say the least. While I can't see their shape, I can see the shadows and darkness they cast. In such cases, I request in Prayer that whatever is close to me or attached to me be purged and that I be restored to Right and Proper / Righteous and Holy Function so that nothing else can attach itself to me or influence me into unrighteous - unholy activity. Additionally, I may shake salt or a rosemary - lavender powder mix over the affected area. Different solutions dispel different things. But in all instances, once the being is purged, the urge stops. Period.

Look at your body. How does it look? Does it look dark, shadowy? Try shaking some salt over the affected area. Did things change? Try shaking some rosemary - lavender powder mix. Did things change? Try Prayer. Did that help? You may notice a clearing of the shadowy dark energy and a return to a rosy pink color. How rosy pink it turns depends on how effective what you did is.

---

How do you stop being susceptible to the charm, attraction of another / ssds? Recognize what is happening. Recognize that what you see is not what it appears to be. Recognize that you are being given a false, deceitful promise of food or nourishment. Recognize that perhaps you are hearing the deceitful call of darkness designed to weaken your mind so you may be easily influenced or swayed by the false promise that answering the call will appease them and end the pain, sorrow, loneliness that they have caused in your life. Ask for Spiritual Discernment that you may know yourself free of the influence of others. Learn to differentiate your body's needs from the unlawful coercion of these entities or others who would use your energy to control or feed on. Ask each day that any unrighteous - unholy energies / entities in you / on you / around you / close to you be cast out and that the door they have implanted in you and any other door they may use, be sealed until the day the door is forever dissolved.

Once you know what is happening, it is easier to do something about it.

Minting this and minting that

06/05/10

In the posting "Grasping the mind" I spoke of the many ways in which the mind can be trapped or imprisoned by tyrants. In this exploration we unveiled that the word "mind" is comparable to the word "mint" and that therefore, the "mint" is one of the ways used to control people. On the surface this is obvious: "he who controls the money controls the people," as many have said. Yet there is much more to this and today it shall be unveiled.

Mint: [Moneta, lit. 'adviser', surname of Juno, in whose temple at Rome money was coined < monere; remind, advise: see mind and compare to money]

- A coin; coined money
- A place where money is coined by public authority
- A place where anything is made or fabricated
- Give a form or character to, as by stamping

The "grasping of the mind" through the mastery of the "mint" is then to possess / seize that which gives a person form and character by controlling the place "things" are made, by controlling the coinage of money, and by controlling the advise that is given to the people.

Juno the adviser

The giving of "advise" is an integral part of tyrannical manipulation. Experts are all around telling us how to think, dress, work, behave, eat, sleep, laugh, vacation, spend money, acquire debt, and so on. Let's then unveil this deception.

Juno:

- An ancient roman goddess, the wife of Jupiter presiding over marriage and women (cf. Hera)
- A woman of imposing figure or appearance

---

As you can see, it was just a matter of time before a direct connection was established between tyranny and "the gods" of civilization.

Impose:

- Make impression on the mind, influence the mind
- Subject to some penalty
- Pass fraudulently or deceptively
- Inflict or force to lay on or set as something to be borne, endured, obeyed, fulfilled

Impress:

- To seize or take for public service by force or constraint
- Impart as if by pressure qualities, conditions, motion
- Fix deeply or firmly in the mind or memory

Figure: [form, mold: see feign]

- Form or shape as determined by outlines or exterior surfaces
- The bodily form or frame, slender and graceful
- Illusion

Feign:

- To invent fictitiously or deceptively
- To represent fictitiously or pretend
- Put an appearance of
- Sham: a cover or the like for giving a thing a different outward appearance; a trick, hoax; something that is not what it purports to be
- to imitate deceptively or counterfeit

So here you have it all out in the open. The play of the unrighteous - unholy and thus the "advise" they give us is all a sham, a trix, a hoax used to deceptively imitate and counterfeit that which is Universal Law, Universal Truth, and Universal Love. It is an illusion which is used to seize the People who fall prey to it unto "public service", or more aptly said, unto their service, or as Father would Say, unto poverty indebtedness, famine entrapment. It is a fraud that carries penalty and causes the infliction of a burden and obedience to false "gods".

Advise:

- to look at
- to give advice to, information or counsel

Advice could be seen as two words: ad + vice

Ad:

- prefix meaning 'to' and implying motion, direction, change, intensification, addition
- short for advertisement: give notice, printed announcement, as of goods for sale, see advert: turn the mind, direct the attention vice:

- fault, defect, or imperfection
- immoral or evil habit or practice
- a particular form of depravity
- immoral conduct or life
- indulgences in impure or degrading practices or pleasures

The unrighteous - unholy and those people who behave like them, are the ones who, through deceptive advise, turn the mind of others toward the "good for sale / mercantile game". This turning away from Universal Truth and Law adds and intensifies immoral conduct and depravity, all of which is designed to be of a degrading nature.

Of course, this advise is many times given or accompanied by people with slender graceful bodies that are designed to create an illusion which influences the mind, causing the advise to be seen as something other than what it is. This "lowers the defenses" so to speak, allowing the advise to be fixed deeply in the mind or memory of those who fall prey to it. For after all, how can beautiful bodies have evil intent or represent ill will, right? It is only the ugly, rough, unrefined people who are the "bad guys" and would deceive us, right? Obviously not.

The point is, recognize what is happening so you can do it differently. Mostly, the only fish that ends up in someone's dinner plate is the one that takes the bait, the one that swims in masses, or the one that is raised in farms (cloning and / or artificial insemination). Those who follow the masses such as dolphins become "innocent" casualties of the game.

---

When you recognize what is happening and learn once again to value Life free of the deception / illusions / false promises of the unrighteous - unholy, then you learn to stop taking the bait, you learn to stop swimming with the masses, and you stop following the masses. Instead, you return your focus to the Father Which Is in Heaven and you learn to walk in Sovereign Expression of Love as Self in the Father Way. Freely, you now can InJoy the vast reaches of Creation in Safety and Abundance.

Minting this and minting that - continued

06/07/10

Form, character and the place where things are made

As recognized yesterday, grasping the mind through control of the "mint" also includes the control of the "place where things are made or fabricated."

There are two levels of this. The first of course, is the physical place we use to create things. When you can't use your home or your land to freely create in ways that sustain your Spiritual Journey with the Father because of whatever regulations may be in place by the unrighteous - unholy, then of course, your journey with Father is hampered. If you want to do this you need a permit, if you want to do that you need a license, and if you want to do other stuff, you need to pay your dutiful bribe on a reoccurring basis. None of these regulations are designed to benefit the People in any way, that is not why regulations are put in force. Regulations are simply in force to make it "legal" for the unrighteous - unholy to do atrocities unto the People and this planet: "well such and such agency says it is legal to dump so much chemical waste, and such and such agency does not control these poisons, and such and such agency says it is legal to genetically modify people against their will, and such and such..."

When we speak of freely creating in ways that sustain someone's Spiritual Journey with the Father, we naturally speak of beneficial creations that are Harmonious with nature and the environment. No one with a sane mind would continue to engage in a practice that is after some initial development found to be detrimental to one's health or to the environment. The vast majority of People would simply recognize the need to make a change / correction and just do it.

Perhaps it is not a coincidence that tyranny does not support healthy, sane minds / people...

The second place where things are created is the mind itself. Before new creations can take physical form, they have to first be envisioned in one's mind. This creative process includes giving form and character to that which is created, by "stamping" unto that which is created, the feelings that accompanies the creation. Regardless of appearances, a toxic mind creates toxic things full of negative energy. A Healthy,

---

Joyful, Peaceful mind creates beautiful things that will actually uplift the surroundings and be a Blessing to those who choose to receive such creations in Right and Proper Exchange. This process of creativity is well understood in Asian countries where people study decades upon decades to become creative masters. The understanding that the energy used by a person to create something physical is imparted in that which is created is active and well respected in such areas of the world.

When the unrighteous - unholy take control of the contents of someone's mind and mold it to support their ways, then what is created by such mind tends to pretty much be, in one way or another, supportive of unrighteous - unholy ways. When children are taught in schools what to do, how to think, and how things work, they are not taught of the Father Way or of Universal Law, Truth, and Love. They are taught the ways of the world. When these children go unto college, they are further indoctrinated in the ways of the world. There, soon to be engineers, scientists, doctors and nurses, businessmen and so on learn the "laws" that govern the world and by the time they come out, they are so filled with the ways of the world, that all they can do, is think within that framework. All the drinking and drugs that goes on in college simply ensures this process is solidified in most students, by hampering their brain development.

I graduated as a chemical engineer, and it is said that of all majors, chemical engineers are turned into the least creative people by the time they come out of college. I know when I came out of college, I had very little if any trust that I could create anything new. I felt all that I could do was copy or perhaps improve upon someone else's designs or ideas. Yet as I began my walk with Father, I began to regain my capacity for creativity and have actually discovered that I'm pretty good at the creative process. Rather than living as a dependent of others skills, Father has been showing me I can be self sufficient. There is great Freedom in that and a great sense of self worth that comes from being able to Trust your Self.

Focusing on the Father Way has indeed a way of restoring one to Truth and self sufficiency. As one turns his focus unto the Father Way and cleanses and nourishes body, Soul, and mind, one begins to regain Health and sanity. As health and sanity are restored creations become increasingly supportive of the Spiritual Journey with the Father. One step at a time is how we progress.

Late addition:

I just listened to a show from Dr. Stan Monteith (Radio Liberty) <sup>3</sup> titled "Soy toxicity" aired on May 27, 2010. In doing so I realized that I was short by one level on how tyranny affects "the place things are made" so as to control the form and character of a person.

This third level is at the gene / genetic level. Listening to this show might be worth your time. Listen to the show in Light of what you have been reading in this blog and also re-read the Spiritual Swimming series in Light of what you hear on that show. The actions of the unrighteous - unholy and those who support them do indeed violate Life. As Linda has mentioned before in her blog, Universal Law has arrived to this Earth and tribunals are being conducted to evaluate the conduct of the unrighteous - unholy. Action is being taken by Universal Law as well as by Father and Source to put an end to this madness. As People who Love the Father, it is for us to make the necessary changes in our lives to show we are willing and ready to walk the Father Way unto Source.

Remember, the focus is on making changes on a personal level. There is no need to fight, no need to defend or attack, no need to engage, no need to stop their play. All you do is stop your participation in their game and move on in the Father Way.

---

<sup>3</sup> http://www.soundwaves2000.com/radio\_liberty/

---

Minting this and minting that - more

06/08/10

Coinage and money

As said in a prior posting, when coinage and money is standardized as the one and only currency to be used in exchanges, then people become entrapped by the need to "make money" so as to pay for the exchanges. The unrighteous - unholy call this voluntary slavery for they claim no one "forces" people to work for money... but what option is there? Becoming a vagabond or outcast living from the trash of others is not a real alternative. Living on the streets is not a real alternative. Being homeless is not a real alternative.

A real alternative would allow anyone to live upon the land freely without having to be burdened with monthly / yearly payments under the threat of eviction, retaliation. A real alternative would allow people to Freely and Peacefully Live in Elegant and Nourishing surroundings where there is free, clean, and abundant natural food, water, and air, where they are not forced to abide by the laws of the unrighteous - unholy, and where their land, water, and air is not contaminated by the toxic waste generated by the unrighteous - unholy. A real alternative would allow people to Freely Live and Walk in the Father Way.

Many think that a solution to current monetary problems is to return to a gold or silver standard, or to have paper money that is actually backed up by a gold or silver reserve. But is that any different than the worthless paper money we now are forced to use if we want to have some sort of decent standard of living?

Father explained that giving paper for actual labor or goods is an uneven exchange. This means that the person who is doing the labor or giving the actual goods is receiving nothing of value for that which is given. This creates a debt toward the person who received the money. Father has explained that while the unrighteous - unholy claim that we the People are the debtors, it is the unrighteous - unholy who are the real debtors. It is not us the People who are indebted to them. It is they who have indebted themselves to the People by their very action of taking from the People in deception and giving nothing of value in return. That is what they did to the natives of the Americas. That is what they are doing to us nowadays.

Then, they gave valueless glass beads, today they give us worthless, valueless paper that has no nourishing value to the People.

Father has explained that when real gold and silver coins were used in Exchange for goods, there was a real exchange of value for value. The real value in the gold and silver coinage was not in their rarity or scarcity, but rather in the fact that by touching the coinage, People had an opportunity to absorb particles of gold and silver through their skin. This supported their Health, well being, and thus their capacity to walk closer to the Father. Should we then return to gold or silver coinage? Perhaps as an intermediary step, but not as a final solution. As explained before, the True value of silver, gold, and other metals is in their presence in the soil where they support the Earth's well being and are transformed by plants into a living form that is readily available to the People. Silver and gold, as well as other metals such as copper, are well known for their capacity to ward off various kinds of illnesses including viruses, fungus, and mold. As these metals have been taken from Mother Earth, her capacity to be free of such pestilence has been reduced to such an extent that nowadays it takes great effort to grow healthy plants. It should also then be no surprise, that we the People are having such problems being free of viruses, fungus, mold, and so on.

So what options are available? Father Says many. Linda and I have yet to see through this deception, beyond the option of trading of goods for goods. Interestingly enough, Father has also explained that the unrighteous - unholy actually do business among themselves in a way that is of one a chord with Universal Law. It is only unto the People that the unrighteous - unholy have forced a behavior / exchange that is improper and thus carries penalty.

---

We made it...

06/10/10

The last posting concluded the exploration of the word "tyranny / tyrant". This exploration can be summarized as follows:

A tyrant is anyone or anything that heavily burdens others with cruel and unjust impositions and restrains, and interferes and meddles with their lives in an annoying and injurious way. The actions of tyrants are presented as desirable and beneficial yet have the hostile intent of taxing the power of those who are being oppressed through bondage, employment, mental disorder or derangement, and worry or repeated harassment, torment, and attack.

The actions of a tyrant are illegal in nature because they are designed to grasp the mind, impress the mind, and arrest the attention of people through the use of "occult" powers which are not readily perceived by the senses, and because they are done with the intent of burdening, constraining, and forcefully affecting the mind so as to cause people to act improperly or in ways they would have otherwise not chosen.

It is interesting to note at this point that according to the dictionary I have been using for this exploration ("New Century Dictionary of the English Language", the D. Appleton-Century Company, 1938), to "seduce" another is defined as the "capacity to lead or draw away, as from one's chosen course, accepted principles, faith, allegiance".

One may ask at this point what the point of all of this is. Why would anyone go to such trouble? Simple, so as the benefit from taxing the powers of those who are tyrannized.

It is the case that the only way one can fully receive Divine Nourishment that supports Life is when Properly aligned with the Divine. That is to say, as Father has explained to us, there are certain glands in our brain that need to be aligned in a very particular way to receive the Divine Light that is freely available to nourish and sustain each one of us.

However, as one is affected by shades and shadows of darkness, and one makes choices that are disrespectful of Life, these glands begin to come out of alignment, hampering the capacity to directly receive this Divine Light to nourish the body and Soul until the day in which whatever Divine Light is received is no longer sufficient to sustain Life. This is what the geneticist did to himself, create a virus or parasite that affected his brain so as to separate himself from the Divine. It is at this point that those who desire to stay alive but do not want to make the choices that would bring them back to Divine Alignment need to find alternative sources of food. This alternative source of food has been found to be the power or energy from those who can still receive Divine Light. Thus the need to deceive and manipulate those who can receive Divine Light into giving it away to those who can't. Tyranny is the result of this insanity.

Father has talked about this and explained that for all practical purposes everyone on this Earth has been deviated out of alignment to such extend, that we all have had to learn in one way or another to take energy from others while at the same time giving it to those who tax us in such ways. This is why Sovereignty from tyranny begins and ends on a personal level. As People who have been affected by this, we must learn to no longer play this unrighteous - unholy game. We must learn to restore our mind / brain / Soul to Right and Proper Function back into Righteous and Holy Expression where we can once again can be fully nourished and sustained by Divine Light without squandering and feeding the unrighteous - unholy in the process.

From the "World Book Encyclopedia" printed by the Quarrie Corporation in 1938 we obtain:

Tax:

- To levy or exact contributions of money, etc. for the benefit of the government
- A burdensome charge, obligation, or duty
- Taxes are public property, taken from private property without the consent of the owner

It is for each one of us to learn to recognize a tyrant when he / she seductively smiles at us or whispers in our ears seeking to enslave / feed upon us while displaying his / her full camouflage of beautiful feathers designed to keep our focus away from their True intentions and to make us believe how "blessed" we are to have their attention / be with them. In this each one of us can stop "falling" for their deceit, hoax, seduction, ill will.

---

It is for each one of us to recognize that it is improper for the unrighteous - unholy to feed on us and that if they are in need of sustenance, it is for them to go to the Father Who gladly and constantly has a table full of food available to everyone who so chooses it.

It is for each one of us to recognize that it is not disrespectful to say "no", yet it is very detrimental to our well being to accept their advance, while pretending nothing is wrong with their actions and intent.

It is also for each one of us to recognize when we behave in such ways as the unrighteous - unholy do. It is for each one of us to recognize that this behavior is disrespectful and that indeed there is a Bright New Way which entails receiving the Abundance from the Father through our capacity to re-align our glands in our brain back to Righteous and Holy Expression through Right Action, Right Thinking, and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will for each one of us, which is for us to walk once again in full Health and in the Joy, Abundance, Safety, and Harmony of Creation.

Trust in the Father

06/19/10

Linda and I both talked yesterday about Father's teaching regarding having Faith that the safety of each individual is with the Father and about letting go of the false responsibility the world places upon the People that it is our duty and "higher nature" to make sure others / family are safe.

The world would say that this capacity to make others more important than our own safety and walk with the Father is what distinguishes the People from animals. Father would Say that is not so.

Taking upon yourself the responsibility that is of the Father, makes everyone involved vulnerable to the unrighteous – unholy. Why? Because, rather than looking to the Father for safety and receiving it from Him, people who have falsely accepted the worldly deception look unto each other for safety and thus, by their very own choice, look away from the safety the Father would provide. How can the Father then assist people who are unwilling to look unto Him?

Recognizing this and learning to do it the Father Way is difficult enough, even when you know that everyone you care about knows to look unto the Father for safety. More difficult is when you are in a situation where you know that those you care about are making choices that are leading them to the vipers den and you know that because of where they are in their believes / choices, they are minimally receptive to Father's Safety (their very choice to answer the viper's call negates their safety in the Father).

The tendency in cases like this is to assume the "superhero" mentality and want to go out and save them... perhaps you can do or say something to change or prevent the damage that you think may come to them... for how can you live with yourself when you know what may occur to those you care and do nothing to prevent it?

Yet it is the case that in the Father Way, one learns to be at Peace in the Knowing that out of Respect and Love one can allow others to choose their own experiences and learning. If Father would have us take action, He would provide the Guidance. If there is no Guidance to take action, then it is not for us to take it upon ourselves to do something, nor is it for us to accept guilt and condemnation for Living of one a-chord with the Father.

---

In my particular case, Father has been Guiding me to Respectfully and gently provide some words of Wisdom and Guidance as to what the Father would have for this particular family. Yet, His Direction has not only gone unheeded but the choice was made by this family to move into the vipers den. Of course, I feel sorrow and pain to see them go there, especially since I know from experience the damage that may come unto them, but it is for me to Respect their choice and be at Peace that I have done as Father Guided. Any other action would not only be very unwelcome by them, but would place me in a vulnerable position, since I would take a false responsibility and disregard the Father Way. This very action would be an indication of lack of Faith in the Father, making it all so much worse.

Seeing this from a distance, you may recognize that in reality this entire scenario of taking responsibility for the safety of others is a trap of the unrighteous - unholy which is used to entangle those good hearted people who otherwise would not play in the unrighteous - unholy game.

As point of departure approaches, it is important for each one who Desires to Walk in the Father Way to make Peace with this understanding and to stop taking the bait / falling into this trap. Any pain, sorrow, and sense of false responsibility that surfaces is placed on the Altar of Divine Love and Power in Right and Proper Exchange for Universal Truth and Peace.

Remember that baiting and trapping is the way of tyranny.

The Way of the Father is Peace, Joy, Abundance, and Safety for all.

Trust in the Father, Safety is in Him.

When things get rough

06/20/10

As you journey with the Father it is the case that things do get rough here and there. When the attack of those who would seek to oppress you seems at its vilest, just stand upright and have Faith in the Father and in your Desire for the Father Way.

No defense, no retaliation, no attack in return, no condemnation, no guilt, no shame... just stand upright with the Father. Ask Father for His Grace and Assistance and do your best to remain focused on Universal Truth.

"I do not play, get thee away. Get thee away ends your play."

"Lead me not unto unrighteous - unholy day / way."

"I do not covet, I do not envy, I do not insinuate my brother's desire."

"I am a man of Honor who Serves the Father."

Unto a Bright New Day the Father Way shall prevail.

---

When the unrighteous - unholy turn deaf

06/22/10

Linda and I both have mentioned in our blogs about the People stopping participation in the game of the unrighteous – unholy.

"I do not play, get thee away. Get thee away ends your play."

When the unrighteous - unholy turn deaf to this request and rather than stopping their play, increase the strength of the attack, they choose self annihilation. As we the People learn to be less and less susceptible to the attack and drainage of the unrighteous – unholy, they no longer can shift the consequences of their actions to us and they begin to be consumed by the very energies they engage in against the People. Obsessed by their insanity, they can't see they are being consumed by their very actions until their darkest day in which they think they will administer the final blow not realizing that they are doing it against themselves.

In your Journey with the Father, you may see this happen. Stand strong, stand upright with the Father and Know your Safety Is with the Father. As you progress and succeed in your ability to not longer play, those who seek your destruction will indeed begin to fade away. Let them go. Stay focused on your Journey with the Father and the Promise of a Bright New Day in which the door the unrighteous - unholy opened is forever dissolved and all that remains is Peace, Love as Self, Joy, Abundance, Honor, Respect, and Health.

Unto a Bright New Day we the People shall prevail in the Father Way.

Moving forward

06/23/10

In Father's Guidance as to what needed to be done to progress in my Journey with Him and be able to live in Universal Truth, Universal Law, Universal Love, He provided the following answer:

*Accurately indeed you would say that is not so of your Desire,
it is however so were you to engage not tyranny of another.*

In the first part of the Spiritual Swimming series, I explored the meaning of "tyranny". Now is the time to begin exploration of what it means to "engage" in tyranny.

As with all previous explorations in this matter, prepare to read many things that may make you uncomfortable yet know that the answers and solutions to do it differently are also being made available. In a way this could be likened to treating someone who has received an injury. The first step is to remove the clothing that "hides" the wound. This in itself may be a quite unpleasant thing. You don't know what you may find, and how severe the damage is. The process may itself be painful, but if the wound is to be healed, it must be done. Then comes the cleansing of the wound. Another unpleasant and perhaps painful task. And finally comes the relief from the healing balm that is applied to it. Even then, it will take some time to heal and care must be taken, during this time, to ensure the body is healing properly.

So it is with this series of Spiritual Swimming. So far we have been removing the "cover" that hides the deception and we have begun here and there to cleanse the damage with Truth. Yes, it stings and yes it would be easier to ignore it, but just as a wound shouldn't be ignored and allowed to fester, so shouldn't deception.

Let's then continue and be done with this so we can end our participation in deception and move on into a Mystical and Magical Life in the Father Way.

What is to engage?

To understand how not to engage in the tyranny of another, we need to know what types of behavior and conduct the word "engage" encompasses. For this process, I will continue to use the "New Century Dictionary of the English Language" printed by the D. Appleton-Century Company in 1938 and the "World Book Encyclopedia" printed by the Quarrie Corporation in 1938. Remember that both of these are used for educational purposes only.

---

Engage: [ en + pledge]

- To pledge, pawn, or stake
- To bind as by pledge, promise, contract, or oath
- To make liable; specifically to betroth
- To secure for aid, employment
- Attract or please
- Urge, persuade, or induce
- Occupy the attention or efforts of
- Entangle or involve
- Enter into conflict with
- To attach or secure
- Interlock with
- Enter into agreement
- Take employment
- To occupy one's self, become involved

Once again, many definitions seem to be self evident, but remember that not everything is what it seems. I will expound on these starting on my next posting.

To pledge, pawn, or stake

06/25 2010

The first way to engage a tyrant is through a pledge, pawn or stake. Let's find out what this means.

Pledge:

- One who becomes bail or surety for another
- Hostage
- A piece of personal property delivered as security for the payment of a debt or discharge of some obligation, and liable to forfeiture.
- In general, anything given or regarded as a security
- Sometimes, a child as an evidence of the union or mutual love of the parents
- An assurance of support or good-will by drinking a person's health [!!]; the drinking of a health; a toast
- A solemn promise of something, or to do or refrain from doing something

Pawn:

- Something given or deposited as security, as for money borrowed
- Anything or any person serving as security

Stake:

- A stick or post
- A post to which a person is bound for execution
- Punishment of death by burning
- Post to which an animal is fastened to be baited
- To put at hazard upon the result of a game
- An interest held in something
- To furnish with necessities or resources, originally by ways of a business venture with a view to a possible return

We are basically talking about any action that puts a person under an obligation that requires a security to be given to ensure the fulfillment of the obligation. This security can be in the form of a person, property, or a child. As outlandish as this may seem, it is the case that loan contracts do require a "co-signer" and specifically transfer the obligation of payment to future generations of the debtor should he default, that is to say his children. We live in a society in which children are commonly used as security just as if they were property that is at the disposal of parents.

---

While to all superfluous appearances, the grantor is a "benefactor" who provides the resources for others to accomplish their "dreams", there is an occult intent which lies hidden behind the assurance of support or good-will toward the debtor. This occult intent is the "drinking" of the debtor's health.

To drink among other things is to "imbibe and consume". To imbibe is "to take or receive into the mind". To consume is "to destroy". This is to say, that the grantor receives, in addition to the interest agreed to, the health of the debtor. As the grantor energetically imbibes or takes into his mind the debtor's health, the debtor's health is consumed and destroyed.

How many stories are out there of people who lost their livelihood, health, or committed suicide because of their debts? What we have not been told is that this is part of the desired outcome of a debt based society. These are the cases in which the grantor is extremely successful in "imbibing the health" of the debtor. We speak of people who energetically feed from the situations they impose upon others. This is energetic cannibalism.

To enter into a pledge or debt is to put oneself at hazard of ending at the post to which animals are fasted to be baited / fed upon / tormented through worry. The debt collectors set loose to collect upon those who default are but the dogs which are set to attack and worry animals for sport.

Anyone who is willing to destroy a person's life for the recovery of a debt is, if not at tyrant him / her self, an instrument of tyranny.

Thus, one way to not engage someone who would tax you / consume you, is to not enter into any obligation that requires a security to ensure the fulfillment of the obligation.

Father has explained that in His Way, there would be no more than a verbal agreement between people of a like mind. Not even a handshake. A simply written outline of the agreement is also possible. This agreement is always flexible and allows for changes in circumstances. There is no pledge or security made, so if circumstances fail, there is no loss of property by the person who receives the assistance. I will say more on this under entente.

---

To pledge, pawn, or stake - continued

07/02/10

I haven't been posting for a while because there has been a bug bugging me for a while. It seems like now that I have made the choices to get rid of it, I can see that when I addressed the topic of "pledging, pawning, or staking" I focused on only one aspect. This aspect was based on the idea of not entering into a contract in which a security is needed to fulfill the obligation.

The second aspect is simply the other side of the same coin. That is, not allowing oneself to become the pledged security or bail that is offered as a collateral or assurance of good will. Let us refresh our memory with some definitions.

Pledge:

- One who becomes bail or surety for another
- Hostage
- A piece of personal property delivered as security for the payment of a debt or discharge of some obligation, and liable to forfeiture
- In general, anything given or regarded as a security
- Sometimes, a child as an evidence of the union or mutual love of the parents
- An assurance of support or good-will by drinking a person's health [!!]; the drinking of a health; a toast
- A solemn promise of something, or to do or refrain from doing something

Stake:

- A stick or post
- A post to which a person is bound for execution
- Punishment of death by burning
- Post to which an animal is fastened to be baited
- To put at hazard upon the result of a game
- An interest held in something
- To furnish with necessities or resources, originally by ways of a business venture with a view to a possible return

Pawn:

- Something given or deposited as security, as for money borrowed
- Anything or any person serving as security

Ok, giving special consideration to the underlined definitions, we can see that this aspect of giving or making a pledge to someone else has apparently two ways of manifesting. One is when a person is made the actual bail or security in the contract. This puts the person under obligation and thus liability to forfeiture. Where forfeiture is defined as "a transgression or crime" and that which is lost "by the commission of a crime or misdeed," thus "penalty" or "fine". The second way this manifests is in the form of a promise to do or refrain from doing something. Both seem to really be the same, but one is really more applicable to written legal contracts that can be enforced by the legal system and the other is more applicable to verbal promises made between people and which are enforced on an energetic level by means of "guilt", "abuse", "verbal threats", "false sense of obligation and duty", and the many other ways available those who practice majik.

Either way of engaging in this kind of behavior with a tyrant, turns someone into a hostage and puts someone at various kinds of hazards which are dependent on the kind of "game" that is being played. Failure in this matter can lead to many undesirable consequences not the least which include interests, punishment, baiting, and execution.

Interestingly enough, consideration of these consequences led me to think about Gandhi and Martin Luther King, both noble men whose life ended through execution. I guess this is some food for thought as to what kind of contract may have been breached to which they were a security to.

Obviously, the most recognizable way of entering in such liability is by accepting or offering it. For example, the offering or acceptance of securities is a common business practice. Many pledges are also made by people throughout their lives: to the country, the government, the military, a loved one, a friend, an organization, a sports team, a political party, a religion, and so on. Each pledge requiring a different kind of security by the person: devotion, a lifetime of servitude, a sacrifice (of life for example), and so on. And each kind of breach of contract having its own type of punishment: incarceration, payment of fines, withdrawal of love and approval, condemnation, shame, excommunication, and so on.

---

Of these ways of entering into such liability, the ones that need more careful consideration are the ones that are made as children. This is so mainly because these pledges have a tendency to become unconscious where they remain quite alive and active. Examples of such pledges may include accepting the responsibility for the safety or well being of a parent, accepting being mommy's boy or daddy's girl, accepting the responsibility of parents, and many others which also include perhaps pledges to avenge some injustice experienced, fulfilling some plan concocted by a family member, or becoming the savior or superhero that solves all family problems to keep parents from fighting or a specific parent from abusing.

One of the things that Father has brought to my journey is the opportunity to see first hand how the unrighteous - unholy operate at various levels. There are two examples that perhaps may help you see the various aspects and consequences of promises and decisions made by a children.

There is a family Linda and I know. His mother is a fury, no question or doubt whatsoever about it. Neither in my mind nor in Linda's mind. She is lustful, manipulative, seductive, and thus practitioner of majik. It has become obvious that the relationship between him and his mother is inappropriate, which causes a lot of jealousy in his wife and thus animosity between his wife and mother. This inappropriate relationship between mother and son certainly started in childhood and carried through in his desire to marry someone who is just like his mother. The resemblance is such, that were you to see a picture of both women at around the same age, you would not be able to see the difference. Now he lives with two furies, one on a daily basis which he has learned to hate and the other one on a regular visitation basis which he still is infatuated with, not realizing that both are the same. This man has a son, which he has also learned to hate, because his wife has molded the child into this effeminate mamma's boy who is convinced his mother is unloved and that he is to be his mother's substitute lover (both of whom are patiently awaiting his father's demise). It is easy to see this man's pain and sorrow surface around his son, for he can see in his son what was done unto him. Not knowing what else to do to "turn his son into a man", he uses violence and abuse to "toughen him up", making everything so much worse. What got this man into such problem? Whatever pledges and promises he made to his mother. What can get this man out of this mess? Ending these contracts and recognizing that he is not bound to fulfill his word. (This idea of being a "man of his word" who fulfills all contracts regardless of their nature is a convenient contrivance that always works in the benefit of the unrighteous – unholy). What is his punishment for breaching the contracts made to his mother? The withdrawal of her love and approval which he never got as a child because it was used by her to manipulate him.

Another example comes from another family. In this family, the father has two step daughters who he has taken upon himself to pit against each other by using hatred, jealousy, and competition and using this "in fighting" to turn one of them into his faithful girl. The promises each of these girls are making against each other and in agreement with their stepfather may be carried for the rest of their lives. At the same time, this man, has ruined the life of his son, just as his mother ruined his by denying him the opportunity of following his musical gift and redirecting him to the military. His son, seeking full freedom from his father, entered the military too, where he met a girl who he got pregnant. Now that the child is born and the mother has been sent overseas to fulfill her pledge to defend tyranny, he has been forced to move in close to his father, so his child can be taken care of. As you can see, once again, the decisions and pledges that people make as children based on their experiences have indeed severe consequences in their lives. Again, what is the punishment for not playing? Perhaps withdrawal of love and approval, perhaps physical or verbal punishment.

Now, that we have given some consideration to the obvious ways of engaging in such pledges, let us look at the less obvious one. This one is when a person is turned into the security of a contract without their knowing.

For example, let's say that someone wants the power and fame that they believe can be theirs by becoming a member of certain unrighteous - unholy groups which abound all over the world. They say, "well, if we give you what you want, what will you give us in return?" Payment has to be made for their services of course, but this payment is not only in the way of money, but also in the form of energy. Energy you say? Yes, not the one that comes from the electrical outlet, but the one that can be drained from humans when they are out of alignment with the Divine. We speak of the food of the unrighteous - unholy. Of course, not wanting to be the ones consumed, those who approach these groups will say: "what about feeding on my child?" or "what about feeding on this group of people?" And they will say ok, this is how you do it and what your child / the people will be bound by. And so the process begins to make the child / people agreeable to being energetically drained by them. Now, no one in their sane mind would accept becoming someone else's food. Thus the effort to create insanity in those affected. For example, in the case of a child, the training pattern might be, "you love your mom / dad right?", "and you would do anything for us, right?", "and we sacrifice ourselves to give you food and shelter and schooling, right?", "and of course wouldn't you do the same for us?" This is followed then by the physical, sexual, and psychological abuse that will turn the child away from his Divine Nature and create the energies of pain, sorrow, lust, hatred, and so on that the unrighteous - unholy will feed upon. This abuse is specifically directed and applied when the child / people refuse to play, thus creating the understanding that "as long as one plays along there will be no abuse." And who wants to be abused? Not recognizing that they are never really bound by this false contract, and not wanting to be drained to death, the child / people will then seek others to entrap. If they can get someone else to pay for the burden imposed upon them, that is less that is taken from them. When those who entered into the original contract realize that the agreement made is consuming them too, they will seek others to feed upon. You know what this is? A pyramid scheme! Pyramid schemes are illegal.

---

Now, just as this can be done on an individual level, so it can be taken to a national level. "So, you want the power and fame that comes from ruling? But you don't want to be the one paying for the services ah? Well then what about doing this to your nation so we can feed upon the People of your land?" Then begins the national indoctrination: "you love your country right?", and "you love the freedom you have right?", and "do you realize how much this freedom costs?", and "what will you do to contribute your part?", and of course you know the drill which is followed by the physical, sexual, and psychological abuse and famine needed to turn the People away from their Divine Nature so as to create the energies of pain, sorrow, lust, hunger hatred, and so on.

One way this kind of national manipulation is clearly, yet not recognizably, enforced is through the issue of money. The government borrows money which it has to repay plus interest. How does it repay this? By issuing bonds. The reason this kind of promise is called a bond is because it is an instrument of bondage. Who gets enslaved in this process? The People of course who have to pay for these bonds through their labor, which of course is accepted because we are told People have to be productive and it is for the good of the country, and so on. Slaves and slave labor is no longer sold on an individual level on market streets. Nowadays slave and slave labor is sold on national levels through the ironically called "free market exchanges" of the world, where governments and individuals can purchase the bonds or their right to the slave labor of whatever chunk of People the contracts fall unto. This is why productivity of the "labor force" is tied up with the value of bonds and money. No one wants to acquire rights to unproductive, lazy slaves.

Here you may question how is it that this creates the energy that feeds the unrighteous – unholy? That is a valid question. Recognize the destruction of the land and the People that is caused by this need to be productive. Recognize how many reports link stress with decrease in life span. Recognize how the enslaved are no longer free to follow their Hearts in the Father Way because they have debts to pay. These and many other examples all cause conflict, sadness, sorrow, envy, lust, coveting, and so on. All energies that feed the unrighteous – unholy.

When the status quo is no longer sufficient to feed the unrighteous – unholy, then carefully planned market and economic crashes are put into place to augment the misery of the People. And when this cycle of rise and burst is no longer sufficient, then wars of various kinds are created.

The general belief is that understanding the market and its cycles is impossible because it is so complicated and because of this “invisible hand” that is quoted as being responsible for orchestrating or regulating the market. Well, I would say that all this mystery is quickly dispelled when you recognize how everything is designed to feed the unrighteous – unholy, who, by the way are the “many hands” that manipulate the market. I say “many hands” because there are after all two groups who are fighting each other, each with its own agenda and need for food.

So what can one do about all of this? Learn to “not play”. When the unrighteous - unholy come to ask for payment, one can say “no, this contract has been made in ill will and is therefore invalid”. When events come by to solicit anger, pain, sorrow, lust, and so on, rather than participating in it, one can choose to do it differently. One could lay the emotions on the Altar of Divine Love and Power in Exchange for Peace. One could learn to remain at Peace, which of course would be facilitated by proper nutrition, rest, and parasite cleansing. One could create wealth in ways that are debt free. One could begin his walk in the Father Way. Step by step reducing his physical and energetic participation in the game of the unrighteous – unholy.

Step by step unto the Father we the People shall prevail.

---

To make liable, specifically to betroth

07/05/10

Another way to engage in “tyranny of another” is by becoming liable or, more specifically, betrothing a tyrant.

First let’s see what we can learn from the word liable.

Liable:

- Bound or under obligation in law or equity
- Under obligation if called to do something
- Subject, exposed, or open to something possible or likely, especially something undesirable

Again, we speak of entering into legal contracts that put someone under the rule of the unrighteous – unholy, which is, as stated by the very definition, something undesirable.

What I find interesting is that this specifically relates to the word “betroth”.

Betroth:

- To pledge one’s troth to marry

Troth:

- Faithfulness, fidelity or loyalty; especially one’s word pledged in engaging one’s self to marry
- Truth, verity

This is the second time that marriage comes out in this exploration of tyranny. First it was unveiled during the exploration of tyranny itself (see Minting this and minting that under “Juno the adviser”). Now, marriage shows up as a way to engage in tyranny. It follows from this, at least for me, that to pledge one’s troth to marry brings an undesirable exposure which puts one under obligation in law / the unrighteous - unholy. Anyone who has had a marriage license, gone through divorce, or had children, knows to a lesser or greater extent how this can affect and control their lives.

I will take this opportunity to explore this in more detail.

Marry: [< mas (mar-), male, a male]

- To unite in wedlock
- To unite intimately

“Marry” has its origins in the word “male” and thus by inference, “male” is equal to unite intimately and in wedlock. You never quite know what surprises await in this kind of exploration. This definition may explain why in society, the manhood and sexual inclinations of a man who does not have sex and does not get married is questioned. It would appear then that marriage as we know it may be a direct outcome of the death warrant voucher, which says a man’s power lies in his ability to copulate (see Oppression). It may be another example of how this contract has been present and active in the world.

As Father has said, to enter into the belief and practice of showing / proving one’s male-hood through sex and marriage puts the People in an undesirable condition of bondage and obligation which requires the performance of certain duties.

Let’s find out what kind of duties this may include.

Wedlock : wed + lock

Wed: [akin to bail, security, also E. wage, gage]

- To pledge, stake, or wage
- To bind one’s self to a person in marriage

So here we go right back to the postings on “pledging, pawning, and staking” which as we saw has the intent to create situations that allows the unrighteous - unholy to energetically feed upon the People. All the lust, fights, envy, sorrow, sadness, loneliness, anger, abuse, sex, misunderstandings, and so on encountered in marriage are designed to feed the unrighteous – unholy.

---

It could be then said that wedlock is a pledge to lock or to bind one's self to another person through a contract called marriage. To lock is to "render inaccessible." What you may ask? Perhaps Truth of Love as Self. The Truth of who you are, the Truth of the Father, the Truth of your Endeavor upon Earth. In marriage, you pledge to put the other person first and you bind yourself to that person, therefore denying your True Nature and Communion with Father. Someone who enters into bondage, is no longer free to move around as his Heart Guides in his Walk with the Father.

There are two specific duties that are imposed as a result of marriage. One is a wage and the other is a gage. We all are well aware of the need to provide a steady wage / income and what that entails, but what about "gages"?

Gage:

- A pledge or pawn; security
- Something, as a glove, thrown down in token of challenge to combat; hence a challenge

It would appear then, that we speak of challenges and combat - both of which involve competition. It has been said in research that competition tends to bring the worst in people. Is it then any surprise that so many people get physically and emotionally hurt in marriages and that so many marriages fail? Perhaps it is not because the People are at fault per say, but because the concept of two individuals coming together into bondage is not meant to bring happiness. Bondage is failure. Putting someone else above yourself and the Father is failure. Sacrificing yourself for others is failure. Not walking your Journey with the Father is failure. Looking unto someone else to find your happiness is failure.

But what about meeting your "other half" and living happily ever after? You are your "other half." Love as Self is the Love you so desperately miss. Love as Self is an individual experience, thus the answer to your emptiness is within and with the Father. Once you find what you are looking for within, you will recognize that it is possible to live with like minded People free of this game of marriage and sex. In such a community, there would be friendship and freedom to move and do as Guided by the Father.

In the simplest terms, what is being said is that to avoid falling unto the grips of tyranny, one should not engage in the tyranny of another by marrying a tyrant or by entering in a marriage contract with someone of good faith that causes the marriage to fall under the tyranny of some institution / the unrighteous - unholy.

Father has indicated that He does not expect anyone to live with a tyrant, even if the mistake was made to marry one. That is to say there is no penalty for leaving a tyrant. Of course, if someone is in a situation where children have been born of the relationship, then there is the responsibility of providing for them and teaching them of the Father Way to the best of one's ability. This would not be done out of guilt or a false sense of obligation, but rather because that is the responsibility one accepts when having children <sup>4</sup>.

For someone who is in a good relationship in marriage, then perhaps, at some point, consideration may be given with Father's Guidance, as to whether it would be appropriate to remove the institutional tyrant from the relationship. This can be done by filing for dissolution following the steps of a "do it yourself" guide. This is a friendly filing, there are no disputes or disagreements. You may be surprised how much breathing space this process can bring to a relationship. In this process one learns to transition from dependence on each other to non dependence and Trust in the Father. That is to say, in a relationship of equals each one is totally free to pursue his / her Vision with Father. The goal of the relationship is transformed from the bondage of the world, into one in which a common interest to Walk in the Father Way allows individuals to stay / come together and share their Journey as the Father Guides.

I recognize that this may sound difficult to accomplish. How can you be free of the need for another? How can you be free of depending on someone else? Well, nutrition is an excellent start. John Gray, in his book, "The Mars and Venus diet and exercise solution" actually provides nutritional guidance that allows people to become less dependent and affected by others. This particular book is a step in the right direction when you recognize that beyond his view of relationships, there is the Father Way of total and complete freedom.

Remember, one step at a time is how we learned to walk. One step at a time is how we learn to be Free again.

---

<sup>4</sup> Child rearing does require extra attention, time, and a spiritual growth that most of us do not have. This is why, Father has Said the command to be "fruitful and multiply" was given to the plant kingdom and not to humans. While this command just "happened" to be misinterpreted by most religions, it is the case that no one has the right to bring a child into an environment that will turn him / her into an eventual "voluntary" slave of the unrighteous – unholy.

---

Remember the extra step

07/09/10

When you get ready to end the contract in which you placed another above all else, remember to take the extra step of unlocking that which you had to “lock away”.

This is to say, remember to unlock the Truth of Who you Are, the Truth of Love as Self, the Truth of your Walk with the Father.

May you have a Lighthearted and Joyful unlocking.

Patch of abundance – July update

07/18/10

As it turns out, several weeks ago, I had decided that it was time to mow my patch of abundance in the back yard. At that time, it had been storming for several days with strong winds and it all looked like a mess. Since most of the plants had gone to seed, it seemed a good time to renew the patch by mowing it down and letting it re-grow.

Looking back on that decision, it appeared to be a mistake. The mowing down of this patch of abundance coincided with the beginning of some very dry and hot weeks. While before the mowing the garden was having a low watering need, after the mowing things changed. All potted plants have been drying up in no time and even after a rain, within a few hours of sunshine, the plants begin to dry up. I have had a real difficult time keeping up with the water requirements of the garden.

Is it a coincidence that right after mowing down my patch of abundance, my garden dried out and could not retain moisture? Perhaps, but perhaps not. I do know for sure that before the mowing, the high grasses that surrounded the pots ensured proper retention of moisture as well as a provision of morning dew.

Next time, I will mow the patch of Abundance in small sections at a time.

---

To secure for aid

07/20/10

So here it is, my next posting in the Spiritual Swimming series. Right now we are exploring what it is to engage or be engaged by a tyrant. A few days ago, Linda and I talked about how Father has repeatedly said to focus on Him, rather than trying to understand the deception. Yet sometimes it is the case that to "brake the spell", one must be able to recognize what is happening. I remember many times in which I was pestered by something that would trouble and trouble me, keeping my focus away from Father. No matter what I would do, I wouldn't be able to make a different choice. In these cases, when I would ask Father and He would show me the origin of the problem, I could then end it: "oh, I see, now I can change this." This is sort of having the light in your room go out and you spending hours and hours flipping the switch back and forth or checking all the wiring, yet nothing changes, until someone comes along and says "have you replaced the light bulb?" "Oh, I get it."

In this posting, I will explore how one can engage or be engaged by a tyrant by providing / securing for aid. A most innocuous activity, or is it?

Secure:

- Not liable to fail, yield, become displaced
- Also, to protect
- Fix firmly in place
- To seize and confine, as a prisoner
- To make (a creditor) sure of payment, as mortgage, bond, or the like
- To be dependent on

Aid:

- To help; assist; afford support or relief

To secure for aid in its simplest terms is an agreement or understanding (contract) made by someone who needs help / assistance / support / relief and someone who is willing to provide such help. On the surface this seems quite innocent and well intended, and perhaps it would be if this agreement was made between honest People who are free of what we call the “save the world” syndrome.

The problem arises when one of the parties to this agreement is unrighteous – unholy, serves the unrighteous – unholy, or when the parties involved have an improper understanding of what it is to provide or request assistance. In this case, we are speaking of a different scenario because for the unrighteous – unholy, offering help to the People or seeking help from the People is simply a means to entrap and gain a foothold in the lives of those affected by such actions. Any kind of agreement / contract with the unrighteous - unholy is always designed to the disadvantage of the People who by the very act of contracting with the unrighteous - unholy become imprisoned by the deception. By the time the affected People realize what has happened, it appears to be too late, for the unrighteous – unholy have become firmly fixed in place and difficult to dislodge.

Some examples follow.

One is the typical child who needs assistance to learn or do things during his developing years and who naturally looks unto his parents to provide this support. In this scenario, when the parents have a false understanding of responsibility, or when someone purposely uses the opportunity, a child may learn that his safety, help, assistance comes from parents or others, rather than from the Father. That is to say, the child is not properly educated in the knowledge that his parents are simply facilitating him until he can receive that which he needs to support his journey directly from Father. Instead, this child becomes dependent on others and learns to see the Father as a distant being who has little to no influence in his life other than perhaps judging and punishing his misbehavior.

Another example is of the farmer who somewhere in the 1900’s was deceived into believing he needed big machinery and chemical poisons to simplify his life and be more productive. At the beginning it all seemed fine and dandy and it seemed that the farmer made a good choice. However, several decades later, the Truth has become apparent. The farmer has destroyed his land and he has to go into debt to work his land. The nutritional value of the food he grows is decreasing and he can no longer harvest his own seed for next year’s planting. This system of bondage and destruction has become so ingrained and firmly fixed that many farmers can no longer think outside such a confining system. And the most ironic part of all of this is that farmers nowadays have to earn money so they can have food on their table.

---

In the example of the farmer, the unrighteous – unholy, in their false pretense of their “good heartedness” to “help” the People and “save the world”, promised the solution to all food problems if only the People would agree to indebt themselves so as to purchase their solution. You may have heard this kind of promise before. They repeat it time and time again, whenever they are ready to implement some new way of pilfering the People. The industrial age, the farming revolution, democracy (government), genetic engineering, nuclear power, computers and technology, science, quantum physics, entangled physics, progress, and on and on. Yet it is always the case that after the glitter that accompanies their claims and solutions ends, all that remains is greater level of misery and entrapment of the People. A coincidence?

Let’s take a look at an example in which the unrighteous - unholy ask the People for assistance: “If you help us make money / attain our business goals then you can have all this and all that and live happily ever after in all the wealth you will have.” Of course they never mention that you will lose your health in the process, that you will miss the best years of your life confined (or imprisoned?) in some cubicle or office, that what you will be doing will contribute to the destruction of the Earth and enslavement of the People, that you will be kept so busy that you won’t be able to do your Journey with the Father... you know, those little details that People get to ponder in their deathbed when the glitter of deception ends and they finally realize it was all for nothing.

Another classic example is the armed forces. “If you help us maintain our safety and agree to kill anyone who opposes it, then we will give you money in return... you can go to college... you will have an education... and a retirement... there will be peace on earth and a great life...” Yet has war and armies ever solved any problem other than making it possible for tyranny to kill / destroy / oppress the life of the People who love freedom? Ever heard of the “war to end all wars”? Did it? Of course not. The unrighteous - unholy tell us it is the People’s fault, but in reality it is and has always been them who have been behind every single conflict on this Earth. Conflict makes for good energetic food. All promises they offer to those who would assist them are empty, for the destruction that is brought upon the Soul and Spirit of those who participate in such deception, is far greater than anything they will receive in return, that is if they actually receive anything. Of course, we are told “free-dom is not free”, which is quite an oxymoron in itself. We are told the “price of freedom is the life of those who fight to maintain it”, but isn’t this human sacrifice?

These kind of contracts not only occur on the “tangible” or physical level, but also on an intangible level with the “non-tangible to us” unrighteous - unholy entities. They come and whisper: “You want vengeance? You want protection? Anything else? I can help you with that too.” Of course they never really tell you the cost, misery, and bondage that their help will bring to you... they just make it look all so innocent and safe... they are indeed the perfect salespeople who create great “bundled offers” that seem sooo attractive, and after all, they “care” so much for your well being... or do they?

Can you recognize the pattern of this kind of trickery behavior? Big promises (aka save the world), ignore the details, ignore the Father Way of Respect for the Earth and Humanity, indebt yourself = confinement, seizure, dependency, imprisonment, death.

Having said the above, I will now give another example of how the unrighteous - unholy work and entrap people.

Here is a message that was send to a friend of ours by his mother for his coming birthday:

“Together with my desire that you have a very beautiful day on the ---. I have wired you your gift.

I desire you the best, that all that is in the deepest of your heart be fulfilled together with your dreams and longings.

A great hug

Mom”

Now, it is very likely that to most, such a message would be interpreted as coming from quite a kind mother who wishes the best upon her son, and perhaps it would be, if it indeed came from a good hearted mother. However, what if it came from a woman that made a contract with the unrighteous - unholy and who offered her son as security for that which she would receive? (see “To pledge pawn or stake”) What if she was carefully instructed on how to abuse her son and condition him to fall prey to certain distortions that would ensure his continual support and feeding of the unrighteous – unholy? What if the conditioning and manipulation of his son included taking information of his walk with the Father and twisting it so that as he sought to fulfill his Desire for the Father, he would be actually following an alternate plan as programmed in him by the unrighteous – unholy? What if the conditioning and manipulation included having his mother portray herself as his “other half” and something was shown to him to make him believe her claim was accurate? What if his mother had him pledge his troth to marry her (see “To make liable specifically to betroth”) and actually conducted a wedding ceremony with him in which she had him pledge a life of devotion to her? What if this manipulation was then carefully shifted to his unconscious so that he would not be aware of what happened, yet be actively affected by such pledges? What if, as he became an adult, she began visiting him in the “secrecy” of his dreams to solicit lust and remind him of his duties as her husband? Can you begin to see how the message suddenly loses its innocence?

---

Let’s then reread his mother’s “good wishes”:

- “I desire you the best” – of course, she wants him to succeed as he was programmed because she has a debt to the unrighteous - unholy and her son is supposed to pay for it.
- “... that all that is in the deepest of your heart be fulfilled” – her desire is indeed sincere, she wants him to succeed in fulfilling the programming the unrighteous - unholy put in his heart so he could not find his way back to the Father Who certainly would show him how he had been deceived and would show him how to be free of such insanity.
- “...with your dreams and longings.” – now she is wishing him to remember to fulfill his longing to return to his “only love”, his “other half” with whom he has “dreamed” of having a beautiful life filled with lust.
- “a great hug” – what if whenever she would hug him, she would use the opportunity to surround him with dark and lustful energy and with a kind of “majik concoction” designed to infest and alter his perception of reality toward reinforcing his bondage to his mother?

Can you see how it is possible such a woman could whole heartedly and sincerely mean every single word she wrote and yet convey such deviation that is beyond comprehension?

If you notice, she also sent him money for his birthday. What if the money was indeed her offer to purchase his life? If this friend had accepted the wire transfer, he would have quite literally sold his life away and in so doing, given away Father's Grace and Protection. Soon thereafter, he would have encountered death and be awaited on the "other side" not by the Father, but by the unrighteous - unholy group who purchased his life through his mother. How could that be you say? How could she sell him away and wish him success at the same time? What if the wishing of success was simply the mechanism used to awaken his hidden programming and to make him vulnerable to accepting her offer? What if he had been able to free himself from the contracts imposed by his mother and the only way she could negotiate staying alive was by selling the life of her son unto slavery? Can you see also, how after the death of her son, which she brought upon him, she could claim martyrdom and say that even up to the end, she wished him "well" and "success"? Sounds like a Bible story...

You say this is too extreme? Perhaps, but perhaps not. Less extreme versions of this kind of insanity are conducted by parents every single day who sell their children to a lifetime of bondage to the "taxman" so that they can claim their children in their tax returns and save a few hundred dollars each year. These children are literally being offered as a security to pay for part of their parent's debt, for the "taxman" knows that the children will pay in their lifetimes more tax money than what the parents were allowed to save. Not to mention the fact that these children will continue the cycle of bondage by selling their offspring when the time comes.

Can you see how agreements / contracts with the unrighteous - unholy are always designed to the disadvantage of the People even when the claim is made it is for the People's benefit? Can you see how by the very act of accepting unrighteous - unholy help one can become imprisoned?

There is indeed a reason why Father has asked me to explore the meaning of "not engaging in the tyranny of another". Father has asked me to recognize the many levels in which the unrighteous - unholy operate and to be able to identify their patterns of deception and ways of manifestation. The exploration that I'm undertaking in this Spiritual Swimming series is indeed making this recognition possible, that I may recognize how I have been deceived by them and learn to do it differently, the Father Way.

"I do not play. Get the away. Get thee away ends your play."

---

It is time to end the belief that seeking or receiving the help from the unrighteous - unholy will benefit anyone. It is time to end the belief that helping the unrighteous - unholy succeed in their goals will benefit anyone.

To end the madness one must choose to walk in the Father Way of Peace, Love, Joy, Abundance, in Universal Truth, Universal Law, Universal Love, as it expresses individually in each culture.

The only way to end the unrighteous - unholy presence and all the problems and misery that their presence and ways have brought to Earth, is to stop playing their game. Their game is designed to make us feel responsible for and carry the burden of their well being – we are supposed to self sacrifice and come to their rescue so that they may live well. Their game is designed to allow them to live a “good life” at our expense.

We must see past the glitter of their false promises and the pain / sorrow of having been deceived by them.

It is time that one by one, we the People stop seeking / receiving the aid of the unrighteous – unholy. It is time that one by one, we the People stop answering the unrighteous - unholy call for aid.

It is time that one by one, we the People turn to the Father Way.

It is time that one by one, we the People let go of that which is foreign and vitiating to us and claim back that which Rightfully belongs to each one of us.

In this, one by one, the unrighteous - unholy presence will be ended.

Unto All Righteous and Holy Day let it be so.

To secure for employment

07/ 21/10

Let's take a look now at what it means to "secure for employment".

Once again, remember that the focus of this exploration is to unveil how the unrighteous - unholy or tyranny engage the People or how the People engage them. Thus, the focus is on the unrighteous - unholy aspects of the words so that we can recognize things for what they are and easily let them go when the time is Proper. There is indeed a Right and Proper way of conducting business. However, even though the unrighteous - unholy do conduct business in a proper way between themselves (as Father has explained to us), they have imposed upon the People a system that is designed to pilfer the People while causing the People to incur in penalties for their actions.

Secure:

- Not liable to fail, yield, become displaced
- Also, to protect
- Fix firmly in place
- To seize and confine, as a prisoner
- To make (a creditor) sure of payment, as mortgage, bond, or the like
- To be dependent on

Employment:

- Work; occupation; business

Employ:

- To make use of
- Keep busy or at work
- Also infold; include; imply

In a nutshell, unrighteous - unholy business / employment is designed to keep people busy or working so they become dependent and confined by this structure, while serving as the security of payment for the bonds issued through the government (refer to “To pledge, pawn, or stake - continued”).

---

It has been a while, but if you remember, during the exploration of tyranny, it was unveiled that one of the things tyranny is designed to do, is to keep people busy and employed. It is thus logical that to engage in such activity is to engage in tyranny.

Let’s take a closer look at what is involved in the employment of the People.

Imply: [infold, entangle, involve: see implicate and compare to employ]

Entangle:

- Complicate
- Ensnare
- Involve in anything from which extrication is difficult
- To involve in difficulties; embarrass; perplex

Embarrass:

- To put obstacles or difficulties in the way of
- Impede, hamper
- To beset with financial difficulties
- Burden with debt
- To perplex mentally; confuse; disconcert
- To render difficult or intricate

Perplex:

- To bring into a tangled or confusingly involved condition

So here we have some of the “hidden” yet, readily discernible and recognizable, outcomes of taking unrighteous - unholy employment or self-employment: complications, obstacles and difficulties, financial difficulties, burdening with debt, and mental confusion.

This destructive, enslaving, taxing pattern of life is not just how “life is” because we the People are too greedy or debased to do it differently as the unrighteous-unholy implicate in their excuses. This pattern of life is the result of a carefully crafted system that is designed by the unrighteous – unholy and has been forced down everyone’s throat under the barrel of a gun and the false promises of deception / a better life. We the People have been fighting and resisting this system since it was first implemented upon Earth several thousand years ago (with some of the latest battles fought on the north American continent by Native Americans). But of course, fighting and resisting does not work. So here we are, in the midst of systems of oppression that are literally choking the life out of the People (a most recent example being the Gulf disaster). It does not matter whether there is 100 percent employment or unemployment. It does not matter whether you call it capitalism, socialism, communism, or any other ism. The obstacles, difficulties, intricacies of life, burdens, debt will always be there as long as the unrighteous - unholy remain and we continue to engage in their ways.

All of this is designed to get People diverted / fixated away from their walk with the Father, into using their resources, energy, and creativity to solve the difficulties and complications that prevent the unrighteous - unholy from achieving their dreams of insanity. The insidiousness of this system is that those who seek employment from the unrighteous - unholy become dependent upon them for survival and thus have a vested interest in seeing the unrighteous - unholy succeed and remain in place. In this, a system is created that becomes firmly fixed (but not perpetual) upon society and which is difficult (but not impossible) to displace.

The other side of this coin is when a business owner employs a tyrant in his company or secures work from a tyrant. In so doing, the door is opened to complications, difficulties, embarrassment, and ensnarement. Many bosses are well known for their tyrannical behavior, and most people can identify a co-worker or two, who are constantly complicating things, gossiping, blaming, delaying, disturbing the work, and stabbing others behind their back. There are also many entities that offer contract work who are known for their tyrannical and ensnaring nature.

So here you have it. Perhaps it is not a coincidence that the most destructive nations on this Earth are the most industrialized. Their false promises of progress, happiness, and wealth are indeed tantalizing, causing other nations to want to emulate their behavior, yet it is the case that the People who live in industrialized nations are indeed enslaved, indebted, and sick.

Does this mean then everyone should just quit their jobs? No. The disruption that this would cause is greater than the good that would come out of it. Instead, we turn things around. We ask: "Father what good can come out of my current employment?"

---

How can the resources I receive from You, through this company (!), be Properly used to support my journey with You?"

As you shift your focus and attention back to the Father, you begin to change how you interact with co-workers and clients and you begin to end your participation in the game of the unrighteous – unholy. You begin to ask, "How can I do this differently?", "How can I conduct business in the Father Way?", "How do I stop being submissive to the tyranny of others at work without being disrespectful, without fighting back, without engaging in their game, yet standing strong in my choice to not play?"

This is done one step at a time and in the Guidance of the Father, Who will see you through your restoration to your Divine Nature.

Because this process requires strength and mental health / clarity, improving your nutrition and gently cleansing your body are always good places to begin.

The easy way and the worldly way

07/ 22/10

There are two ways to get rid of unrighteous - unholy activity. An easy way that works and a worldly way that kind of works.

The worldly way is characterized by the group Alcoholics Anonymous or by the church. In this kind of group you have to admit to your weak or sinful nature, you fight against the "needs of the flesh", you depend on others for support, you constantly fight a battle against temptation, and many times fall back to old behavior, because after all, you are never cured or completely free – you are "human" which supposedly is an indication of being somehow defective.

The easy way, involves nutrition. When you are nourished, your body automatically ends the unrighteous - unholy behavior that is afflicting your life. An example of this is given in John Grey's book, "The Mars & Venus Diet & Exercise Solution". Starting on page 14, he recounts his visit to the clinic of Dr. William Hitt, in Mexico. In this recounting, he tells of seeing patients come in high on heroin and cocaine and leave free from addictive cravings in 9 days. Not months, not years, not a lifetime, but 9 days! Dr. Grey indicates in this book that many of these patients were able to feel happy for the first time in their lives. I would presume thus that these patients were not required to engage in guilt, self condemnation, or any fight against their "weak" flesh. Dr. Grey also recounts how receiving treatment at this clinic changed his life.

Which way do you think is closest to the Father Way?

You may want to read Linda's posting "Useful Links" for some interesting links on this matter.

---

To attract

07/25/10

I have already explored the meaning of the word “attract” while talking about the despotic aspect of tyranny. Today, I will re-explore this word on a slightly different level.

Attract:

- To draw to one’s self or itself
- Act upon by an inherent physical force compelling approach or union
- To draw by some moral force or influence
- Invite, allure, win

Force:

- Strength or power
- Strength for war
- Physical coercion; violence; specif., in legal use, unlawful violence offered to persons or things [Martin’s note: as if there is such a thing a lawful violence]
- Power to influence or control
- Ravish or violate
- Compel (a player) to play so as to make known the strength of his hand

Draw

- To cause to come in a particular direction as by a pulling force
- Lead or take along
- Take in as by sucking or inhaling
- Disembowel (a fowl, a condemned person, etc.)
- Levy or call (on) for money, supplies, etc.
- Make demands; make a formal written demand, as for money due or on deposit

Attraction is then the use of a person’s energy to physically and morally coerce, violate, influence, and control someone else. The purpose of this is to allow the person doing the “attracting” to trick the target into accepting the levy / demand / call for money or supplies. That is to say, love, attention, service, body or whatever else “satisfies” the hunger / lust / need of that person.

This kind of behavior is specifically active during the time in which people solicit each other so as to fulfill the need to end the loneliness and / or comply with the “moral” obligations of society which compels men and women to marry and have children by a certain age, lest they be found defective or unworthy. “You are still single? You haven’t found anyone? You are not having children?”

In society this behavior is called “dating”. What is the end goal of this behavior? To win. To win what you may ask? Let’s find out.

Win: [labor, strive, suffer]

- To succeed by striving or effort
- To get by efforts, through labor, competition, or conquest
- Often to persuade to love or marriage, or gain in marriage

The purpose of using attraction is then to persuade someone to love (which is really lust or sex) or to marriage. That is of course the entire object of dating: to get laid or to find someone to marry. However, as many have found out, this “dating game” does not work and often times results in mistakes and mismatches that lead to a lot of misery and pain, not the least of which is the braking of people’s heart. This is indeed cruelty.

That this “dating game” is designed for failure and pain should be apparent by that which defines the meaning of the word “attraction”: force, coercion, violation, levy, demand; and by the word “win”: strive, suffer, competition, conquest. These are all antagonistic behaviors.

Strive:

- To contend in opposition or antagonism
- Contend in fight, battle, or any violent conflict
- Exert one’s self or endeavor vigorously
- To contend in rivalry or vie, as with a competitor

---

Contend:

- To struggle in opposition
- To make vigorous efforts
- Compete
- To strive in debate; dispute earnestly, argue

While people may think all is innocence and beauty, that they are so blessed to have the attention from another who is "interested" in them, in reality, they are setting themselves for failure because of the behavior that is involved in this.

Let's look briefly at two descriptive words found in the definition of "attract": invite and allure.

Invite:

- To ask, in a kindly, courteous, or complimentary way, to come or go to some place, gathering, entertainment, etc.
- Attract, allure, or tempt

Of course it usually starts with a kind introduction or "friendly" request to go somewhere. Yet it is still the case that the word "invite" is directly related to attracting, alluring, and tempting; all of which are driving forces behind the initial solicitation.

Tempt:

- To try or test; hence, to put to the test or proof in a venturesome way
- Act presumptuously toward, risk provoking, or provoke
- To try to dispose or incite, or assail with enticements, esp. to evil

Many who have been involved in the "dating game" know of this either because they have experienced it, done it to others, or both. The testing to see if someone is ready, the venturesome / adventurous advances or insinuations or activities, the provocation, and the enticement.

Allure:

- Tempt by inherent charm
- Appeal to invitingly or seductively

From the exploration in "Let's talk about sex...", we know that to charm is to use spells or incantation and thus majik. This explains why People get infatuated.

Seduce:

- To lead or draw away, as from one's chosen course, accepted principles, faith, allegiance, etc., by persuasions or inducements

Here we have one of the reasons why this kind of behavior has been introduced by the unrighteous – unholy, because it is designed to lead or draw away the People from their chosen course, the accepted principles of right and wrong, and their Faith in the Father / Creator. When I speak of "course, principles, faith", I speak of that which is the Truth of who People are and of what People came here to do in the Father Way.

What about the longing to find your other half? This is a noble Desire which indeed can be fulfilled when you understand that the "other half" is a part of who you are. You are looking for yourself and it is possible to reclaim this part of yourself that is "missing". The Father Way leads to this. This restoration to wholeness, Love as Self, is part of this walk with the Father.

What about the loving feelings that two honest people experience "toward" each other, especially at the beginning, that changes their perception of the world into a most wonderful experience where everything seem right once again? These are indeed noble feelings. They are moments during which people have the opportunity to experience the Love that they are. Father calls them moments of Transcendence which in our lack of understanding, we attach to mortal experience.

*It availeth you not to struggle in the world,
when the Father is but a moment away.*

*You seek not to dishonor or disservice that which has come before,
yet you seek not for Righteousness sake.*

---

*This means that while it availeth you not,
you seek to Honor that which dishonors you.*

Shift your focus / perception but slightly, just slightly and all will be well.

To please

07/26/10

Let us now take a look at why the act of “pleasing” is related to engaging in tyranny.

Please: [compare to plea, placid, and placate]

- To be agreeable, or give pleasure or satisfaction
- Act to the pleasure or satisfaction of

When it relates to engaging in tyranny, pleasing is related to two words: plea, and placate.

Plea:

- A suit or action at law
- A defendant’s answer to a legal declaration or charge
- That which is alleged, urged, or pleaded in defense or justification

The first aspect of pleasing another within the context of tyranny is related to the position the “pleaser” takes, which is that of a defendant who needs to be found agreeable so as to not elicit the ill temper of another and be found guilty of “transgression” which would result in vindictive behavior.

Placate:

- To appease, pacify: as to placate an angry or offended person

Pleasing inherently requires a sense of helplessness, powerlessness, and submission to another’s will. It is done in fear of retaliation. This means a “pleaser” does all he or she can do to pacify, appease, or placate the person who is seen as having the power to inflict harm, whether through verbal or physical abuse / action.

---

Ill temper, anger, shouting, threatening, coercion are all behaviors designed to turn People into "pleasers". When People feel helpless and are afraid of retaliation, tyrants get to pretty much run the show, something which gives them "satisfaction".

A person who has become a pleaser will display himself as being agreeable with what is being asked of him, but has a tendency to "bad mouth" the tyrant and his situation. On and off there may be a try to assert himself over the oppressive tyrant, but that display of valor only lasts as long as things don't get too much out of hand.

So how would you do this differently? The answer is found in the word "placid".

Placid:

- Pleasantly calm or peaceful, or unaffected by disturbing emotions

In the Father Way, someone does not respond to tyranny in kind, neither does someone defy or challenge tyranny. Instead, one develops the capacity to remain calm and peaceful while being unresponsive to the tirades / threads of the tyrant. One remains focused on Father first asking for His Assistance. Then, if appropriate / Father Guides, one may talk about the facts of the situation. Personal opinions are unnecessary. Simply the facts of the matter so that Truth can prevail.

If the situation requires it, then it is acceptable to say something in the likes of "this is not a good time to talk about this, let's resume the conversation when things calm down". Then one either leaves, does something else, or if on the phone, hangs up. No need to respond in any way if the tyrant tries to entice or threaten one back into "battle".

It is disrespectful of anyone to demand he / she be placed above your walk with the Father through any means, including threats and violence. It is disrespectful also, that you ask anyone to place you above their walk with the Father. This is to say, it is as important to stop engaging a tyrant as it is to stop being a tyrant and engaging others into unrighteous - unholy activity.

That smirk is of unrighteous - unholy origin. Time to stop playing its game.

To urge, persuade, or induce

07/28/10

As we continue in this exploration of what it means to engage in the tyranny of another, you may have noticed that we keep exploring words and behaviors that appear to be seemingly harmless and are well adopted in our society. Yet it remains the fact that all these words are descriptive of the word "engage" (see "Moving forward"). That is to say a better understanding of what it means to stop "engaging" in tyranny of another, can be obtained by exploring the meaning of many of these descriptive words. By learning to recognize this behavior, we can do three things. One is to know when someone is trying to engage us in unrighteous - unholy behavior, the other is to recognize our patterns that would engage someone else in unrighteous - unholy behavior, and the third is to be able to recognize how to do it differently.

So let's move on.

Urge:

- To push or force along
- Drive with incitement to speed or effort
- To endeavor to induce or persuade, as by entreaties or earnest recommendation
- To exert a driving or impelling force

Persuade:

- To prevail on (a person, etc.) by advice, reasons, inducement
- To induce to believe or convince

Induce: see incite

Incite:

- Syn: urge, stimulate, encourage, prompt, instigate, provoke, goad, spur, arouse, fire, induce.

To incite is to urge on to some action, either good or bad, as by working on the feelings or passions. To instigate is to spur on or incite, often in an underhand way, especially to something evil. To induce is to lead or bring to some action, condition, belief, etc. as by persuasion or influence.

---

The underlying factor of this kind of behavior is to compel or force someone into action through manipulation of emotions, feelings, and passions.

In other words, we speak of a disrespectful behavior, as all behavior based on tyranny or the unrighteous - unholy is. Why? Because rather than Respecting someone's choices, people who engage in "urging, persuading, inducing" use the emotions, feelings, and passions of someone so as to get them to do something they do not want to do or would not do on their own. As recognized in the entry "To attract", this is seduction: "To lead or draw away, as from one's chosen course, accepted principles, faith, allegiance, etc., by persuasions or inducements." Fear, threats, violence, force, lust, power, greed, hunger, love and approval, pains and sorrows, hopes, desires for peace, love, joy, abundance and even one's Desire for the Father Way can all be used to manipulate People.

This kind of behavior is NOT the Father Way. In our book "Mysteries of the Ruby Valley", Aurora explains the following to Showay about the Father Way:

"Do it or do it not. Choose, or choose it not. Either way, it is indeed your choice. The Father neither engages nor encourages. He simply facilitates and assists. You might take unto eternity, should you so choose. You are not forced, coerced, nor indulged. The choice is yours to make or not to make. Choose well, for the results are yours forever more."

Behavior that is designed to manipulate people into a course of action that they would not have chosen if left alone is the way of the unrighteous – unholy. This is what they do. They twist Truth and used unfulfilled needs to lead us away from our walk with the Father. This is what they did to us and why we are were we are. Thousands upon thousands of wars have been fought, untold amounts of land has been destroyed, and millions upon millions of People had to be killed and many more had to be enslaved and abused to reach the level of desolation, loneliness, malfunction, apathy, and deception of this age. The unrighteous - unholy would say we did it to ourselves, but the Truth is they used our innocence and friendly nature against us.

To be deceived and manipulated through words and actions that are designed to influence our perception and feelings is to be hampered in our ability to make choices that would allow us to remain upon the path of the Father Way.

So called "leaders" are expected to use this kind of behavior to manipulate People. Excellent examples of this are very well exemplified in movies, usually right before the People are being asked to do some kind of self sacrifice. That perfect speech that inflames passions and encourages People do to something that they know they should not be doing... like the one about going to the moon... just when People were realizing that something was amiss in the way things were being run... along comes this speech to incite hope back... . Yet in the end, nothing changed for the betterment of the People. Now that the spell of this speech and accomplishment has been lifted, we know we are worse off than we were before. Rather than being allowed to deal with the recognition that something had gone amiss and changes needed to be made to restore our lives to Freedom and Joy, we were persuaded into accepting the false hope that going to the moon would somehow bring this change to us and restore the nation. Our sense of pride was manipulated against us and in so doing we lost the opportunity for real change that was available at that time.

We also see this kind of behavior in "business management". Managers are expected to be able to keep the workforce "motivated". That is to say, whenever People begin to realize that what they are doing is actually boring, destructive to their Self and Creative Nature, managers are required to give encouraging speeches that get People to let go of the Self Evident Truth so as to continue to "forge on" upon a destructive lifestyle. People are given a false sense of pride for the benefit of the company... and of course, we all know that this kind of incitement only lasts so long... which is why there are so many ways to provide incentives at work. When one runs out, pick up the other and hope that you have enough to keep People working for you until it is time for them to retire or be fired.

This kind of manipulation is also seen in marketing, science, and technology, where the latest gadget is always accompanied with the false promise that it will be the one that will solve all problems and answer all needs while being forced down our throats whether we like it or not.

We also see this kind of behavior in childrearing. Tricking children into doing things they know are unhealthy for them. Using force to prevail upon them. Using coercion and manipulation to destroy their gifts, dreams, and aspirations when they do not match "orderly worldly perception". Encouraging them to become like their parents or some other "role model" rather than supporting the discovery of their own individual nature, and so on.

---

As you may see now, restoration to Freedom and the Father Way requires us to stop participating in this kind of behavior and manipulation. It requires that we stop allowing others to lead us astray / asway and that we stop persuading / forcing / manipulating others into choosing something that is not their chosen course of action. Note however, that this does not mean we "indulge" the unrighteous - unholy behavior of others. That is to say, if someone is acting in an unrighteous - unholy way toward us, it is not for us to let them prevail upon us, or to persuade them to make a different choice. Instead, we do not play and if appropriate (as if would be in the case of a father with his child) Truth is spoken. We stand in the Truth of the Father, the Truth of who we are, the Truth of what is happening, and we make choices based on that Truth.

To be shown Truth by the Father or to speak Truth is to allow a choice based on reality to be made. When a father speaks Truth to a child and does not play or participate in an unrighteous - unholy play, what the father is doing is first showing by example how to not play, second showing by example how to stand in the Truth of the Father, and third how to end the play of the shade and shadow of darkness that is manipulating the child's perception.

One step at a time, we continue our restoration to the Father Way.

Reference correction

07/28/10

I noticed today I incorrectly quoted the Century Company as being the publisher of the dictionary I'm using for this series.

The Century Company published this dictionary from 1927 to 1931. My copy was published in 1938 if I understand this correctly. From 1933 to 1938, the New Century Dictionary of the English Language was printed by the D. Appleton-Century Company. Thus the correct publisher of the dictionary I'm using is the D. Appleton-Century Company.

I made the appropriate corrections in prior entries.

---

To occupy the attention or efforts of 07/30/10

Another way to engage in the tyranny of another is by allowing one's attention or efforts to be "occupied".

In the entry "To exercise" it was unveiled that to "occupy the attention of" is related to the words exercising, taxing, perturbing, and worrying.

Let's see what comes out of today's exploration.

Occupy:

- To take possession of, as by invasion
- In possession and use
- To employ
- To take or hold possession
- To trade or traffic

Notice the key descriptive words: possession, employ, invasion, trade, and traffic.

In the entry "Usurpation" it was unveiled that to "take possession by force or at will" is to "seize", and that to seize is to "usurp" which is an illegal action.

In the entry "Impressing the mind" it was unveiled that the word "possession" actually establishes a connection between tyranny, occult powers, shades and shadows of darkness, and majikians.

In the entry "To secure for employment " it was discovered how employment is designed to the detriment of the People.

Needless to say then, to allow one's attention or efforts to be "occupied" is to allow trouble to enter.

Trade:

- To exchange or give in exchange
- To accustom, habituate, or train

Traffic:

- Transportation of goods for the purpose of trade
- Trade of an illicit kind, or concerned with something that should not be traded

Invasion:

- The entrance or advent of anything troublesome or harmful
- Entrance as if to take possession
- Infringement by intrusion

Occupying someone's attention or efforts is then accomplished through illegal actions which are designed to accustom, habituate, and train the mind in ways that are illicit. These illegal actions involve the use of possessive forces and are designed to seize control of that person. For example, have you noticed how technology as made available to us tends to seize and many times consume the attention of its users? Jeff Rense has mentioned many times in his radio shows, how watching TV puts someone's brain in a sort of "trance" that bypasses protective measures that keep unwanted / undesirable information out.

There is actually quite more to this than meets the eye. Father showed Linda that the unrighteous - unholy were actually able to first enter upon Earth by "occupying the attention" of people. They created disturbances that directed people's attention toward the disturbance. Once the people's attention was directed toward the unrighteous - unholy, the unrighteous - unholy were able to "enter" through the door that was opened.

This is what they are trying to do with the particle accelerator in Europe. Scientists have admitted they are trying to find "new dimensions" but that the only way they would know they found one is if the living beings in that dimension respond to the "call" or do something that could be noticed by the scientists. In reality, this particle accelerator is darkness' desperate effort to escape Mother Earth so as to continue their insanity somewhere else.

I know from personal experience in my dreams that this is quite tangible and real.

---

There have been a few times in which an entity has sought to physically hurt me in my dreams. For it to do so, it first has had to grab my attention. In my dreams this shows as me being somewhere and noticing a shadow presence that puts out energy to compel me to look its way. Every time I have turned my attention toward it, it immediately gained access to hurt me. Every time I refused to turn my attention toward it, or I was simply non to it, I remained safe.

Effort: [out of + strong]

- Exertion of power, physical or mental
- A production or achievement

When the unrighteous - unholy occupy someone's efforts, they take over the mental and physical powers / energy of that person and they begin to direct and control what that person does. Naturally, this takes the strength "out of" that person. Where does that energy go? To feed them. What does the person get in return? A little trinket or false promise at the best and nothing most of the times. The unrighteous - unholy always do uneven exchange. What value has a diploma hanging on a wall, compared to one's life energy? Is a medal, a certificate, a plaque, a trophy really worth the life energy that was exhausted getting it? Does revenge ever fix a problem?

As you can see, it is of utmost importance to keep our attention and efforts unto the Father / Truth / Love as Self.

So you may ask again, why then do all this exploration on tyranny? That is because the door to the unrighteous - unholy has already been opened. Simply pretending that they are not here is not the answer. The problem must be corrected first. One must allow the door to be sealed and dissolved. This can only be done by People who can recognize that we are not all the distortions and behaviors that the unrighteous - unholy have put upon us. For example, as long as we think that lust, greed, anger, warring, competition, oppression, destructiveness toward fellow human and mother nature is just simply part of being human, then there is nothing to be done except to learn to live with it (which is what the unrighteous - unholy want – to think this is just how we are). However, when we recognize that these traits are not human but rather traits of inhumanity which have been implanted in us by the unrighteous – unholy, then there is a shift in perception from simply having to cope with this "sinful nature" to actually being free of this contamination and the ones who put it upon us in the first place.

The natural response of people to negate the existence of these unrighteous - unholy entities is actually based on Right and Proper behavior. Is based on the understanding that to focus upon them and accept their reality is to make them real or open a door to them. This is why so many people simply do not want anything to do with this stuff – we do not want their presence in our lives. This would be a most excellent choice were it not that the unrighteous - unholy have already found a way “in” and have already contaminated each of us individually. At this point most people are simply pretending they are not there, rather than “not opening” the door.

There is a difference between having a plant that is in such a state that no pest or disease can abide, versus having a plant that has been invaded by some pest or disease. Once this happens, ignoring the problem leads to failure. Seeing the pest or disease as Divine in Origin leads to failure. Learning to put up with it leads to failure. Believing that it is Divine Will and Intent for the plants to be diseased leads to failure. Opening more doors to other pests or diseases would only make it worse. However, recognizing the problem, choosing to not play, and taking proper corrective action does solve the problem, even when this plant is around other affected plants.

Through this Spiritual Swimming Series and other postings in my blog, we are learning to recognize the problem, to understand that it is not Divine Will and Intent for us to live with such a problem, and to know how to correct the mistake. For us this means asking Father that the unrighteous - unholy and all their ways be cast out and that the door that was implanted in us be sealed until the day it can become non / be dissolved. It also means letting go of any attachments to the distortions and false promises the unrighteous - unholy have given us. It also means shifting our attention from a place that allows the unrighteous - unholy to manipulate us to a place in which they no longer can enter or affect us. It means learning to re-turn our attention to the Father.

The goal is to re-turn to a state in which they no longer can abide in and around us. Then and only then will it be accurate for us to say, “they are bogus”.

---

To entangle or involve

08/02/10

Two other ways to engage in tyranny are: allowing oneself to become entangled or involved, or entangling or involving someone else. It goes both ways, whether you allow yourself to be engaged by a tyrant or you are the one engaging others in tyranny, you are acting in a way that is not of one a-chord with your Divine Nature. Either way, correction is needed to re-turn to the Father Way.

We have already touched upon the word "entangle" in prior postings. This time I will take a slightly different approach.

Entangle:

- Insnares
- Embarrass
- Perplex
- Complicate
- Involve in anything from which extrication is difficult

Insnares:

- To take in or as in a snare; entrap; catch

Snare:

- A device serving to entrap, entangle, or catch unawares

Embarrass:

- To put obstacles or difficulties in the way of
- Impede, hamper
- To beset with financial difficulties
- Burden with debt
- To perplex mentally; confuse; disconcert
- To render difficult or intricate

Perplex:

- To bring into a tangled or confusingly involved condition

When you find yourself being embarrassed with obstacles and financial difficulties, you find yourself burdened with debt, mentally confused and perplexed, or in situations from which you can't easily get out, then you know tyranny is seeking to engage and entrap you or has already done so.

It has been quite amazing to see how, as I have progressed in my walk with Father, things simply just become way easier to do. While at the beginning it seemed all I did was wrong or would cause some kind of delay or unforeseen mishap, now things are different. You could say I find myself more and more "in the flow" of the Father Way, and the unrighteous - unholy are less and less able to pester me. It is significantly easier to stay with the Truth of who I am, to be focused on what is before me to do in the Father Way each and every day, and to actually succeed in receiving what Father has for me.

When you find yourself entangled, the best thing to do is stop, recognize what is happening, and realize that obstacles, difficulties, burdens, and confusion are not the Father Way. Stop playing. You have either a shade and shadow of darkness upon you, someone has or is wishing you ill will, you picked up something from someone else, or you have some "written or unwritten" contract with some unrighteous - unholy person / entity.

The best one can do is to look unto Father for Guidance and Direction. Ask to be shown what the origin of the difficulty is. If it is a shade and shadow of darkness you can tell it to "go away". It may take perseverance, assistance from herbs and flower essences, and protection from Father to succeed, but it can be done.

If it is a curse or spell, once that is shown to you, you will see that the very fact of knowing it, allows you to "not play". When you no longer allow yourself to be a target of such practices, the ill will simply will not find you or will be lifted from you. Once that happens, the ill will is automatically returned to the person who sent it, but multiplied in magnitude several times. There is no need to return fire with fire. When you don't play, they will find out that what "goes around, pours around".

If you are shown, you took upon yourself desires, needs, distortions that belong to someone else, then you simply must let that go. You can't fix or solve what does not belong to you.

---

If it is a “written or unwritten” contract, ask Father to show you what kind of contract you made. Recognize that all contracts made under deception are null and void from inception. Ask that by Father’s Grace they be null and void and lifted from you. You ask for this, because to your perception these contracts are “valid and enforceable”. That is to say, you feel obligated to comply even after you realize you made a mistake. It is difficult to stand your ground when you operate under the indoctrination that you are obligated to abide under such deception. Then, ask Father for Guidance and Direction as to what needs done to bring closure to them. If you carefully read what is being said in writing you will many times find the answer has already been provided. Just make sure you don’t make the mistake of false association, that is, assuming that because one paragraph may apply, the next does also, or assuming that the words used actually mean what you think they mean.

Keep in mind that Truth is available not to fight, confront, or resist the unrighteous – unholy, but simply to bring Freedom to those who Desire it.

To entangle or involve - continued

08/08/10

Ok, let's continue. The first part of this entry was about the word "entangle". Today, it's all about "involving". This promises to be another one of those "who would have thought possible" postings... which you may have guessed because it has taken me several days to actually post it.

Involve:

- To roll, wrap, or shroud in something that surrounds or conceals
- Enshroud in mist, darkness, or obscurity
- To roll up on itself, wind spirally, coil
- Implicate, as in guilt or crime, or in any matter of affair
- To swallow up, engulf, or overwhelm

There are so many levels of meaning to this word that I find it difficult to not feel involved. I have contemplated for several days how to tackle this one and I will do my best to unveil what needs to be understood so the Light can shine once again.

To implicate

This one is quite simple. We speak of when someone accuses, incriminates, associates someone else in any matter. Of course, being done by the unrighteous – unholy, regardless of appearances, the claim is always false but it contains some elements of Truth which are used to make the case believable. It is a maneuver designed to shift the blame to a "scapegoat" or a way to falsely accuse someone in the hopes of destroying their life or gaining their forced servitude. Similar to what happened to Martha Stewart when she was incriminated in illicit trading activities. From what I read, she was found guilty not of participating in illegal trading activities, but of lying to the court when she was under oath. She didn't do what she was accused of, but she made the mistake of thinking that she needed to make inaccurate statements so as to protect herself.

---

Even when it appears that for all practical purposes the accusation is true and they may be behavior on the part of the accused that would seem to corroborate this, it is the case that there always is some twisting of the Truth or facts, or the hiding of some important piece of information that would make the hoax apparent.

In a case like this, one must indeed stand in Truth and in the Father. One must know that even though it appears that the accusation is valid, there is some way in which one is being deceived, not only by the one making the accusation, but also by one's perception. Prayer for Truth, to be shown how to proceed step by step is of utmost importance. It is possible that your perception of the situation is inaccurate because you lack certain pieces of information and that if you were to have those pieces of information you would say "wow this changes everything" or "so I didn't make a mistake", and so on.

To roll up on itself, wind spirally, coil

This one will take a leap of Faith, because what I will say is based on something Father has revealed to both Linda and I, and probably 99.99 percent of the population remains unaware of this fact.

Two images come to mind when I read this definition. First is of a serpent coiling itself around its prey before it "swallows it up". I'm sure many people could attest that this is how they feel when they are being overwhelmed and entangled into ever more complications, debts, bills, and so on.

The second image that comes to mind is that of the DNA. If you remember from school, we are told that DNA is made of two strands that come together to form a spiral which then coils upon itself.

Can you guess what I will say next? Since rolling up on itself and coiling is a descriptor of the word "involve" and this word describes how one becomes a player in the tyranny of another, then it follows that a spiraling and coiling DNA is an indication that one has become "entangled in the tyranny of another."

This is not just speculation on my part. The reason I was actually able to make this association is because many years ago, Father explained to us that DNA is not meant to spiral and coil. The exploration of the word "involve" simply brought this to Light.

The unrighteous - unholy have done many genetic manipulations to the People and many of them are being done right under our nose. Father has Said that vaccinations are used for this purpose. In addition, many plastics and other products have been linked to genetic malfunctions in the People and animals of this Earth (for example, reproductive harm and early onset of puberty). Creating genetic malfunction and defects in the People through the products we use, water we drink, air we breath, and food we eat is genetic manipulation.

So what do you do about this? Do some research and find out the kind of products that you should avoid using. Look at the labels. Do they say the product causes reproductive harm or any other kind of disease / genetic alteration?

As to the DNA the answer is to look neither to the right nor to the left, but straight ahead.

To overwhelm

Overwhelmed is how you see yourself when the unrighteous - unholy decent upon you to either destroy you or seek to enlist you in their ranks of servants.

Father has explained that, on one side, darkness will come to you in your finest hour "to befriend you not but show you their ways". Darkness does not care when you are in the pits. That is where they want you to be. However, they do care when you are succeeding in freeing yourself from their stuff because that means you could potentially wake up to their deception and show other people how to do it differently. How do they know when someone is progressing in their spiritual journey to the point they need to meddle with that person? There are two ways. First, through family and close friends. It is not a coincidence that those who desire to better their lives find the highest opposition comes from their friends and family. Second, by the light they emit. As a person grows spiritually, the light emitted increases. This can especially be seen during the night. Father explained that these triangular aircrafts that fly over cities at nighttime are used to scan areas and determine who needs to be targeted for "special consideration" which usually means they will send trouble. What can you do about this? First pray for protection, and second leave a night light on in your bedroom. The Father Way is very practical.

---

On the other side, death, decay, and destruction come to you in your lowest moments to "offer" you a "way out" and thus gain your support in their "fight" against the "darkness that is oppressing people". What can you do about this? Stay out of those lowest moments and if you find yourself in one such moment, make sure you don't play their game. Father is but a prayer away. Stand steadfast in your knowledge that all is well and will be well. Remember that nutrition and / or a creative activity are excellent ways to be lifted up – no need to enter into contracts or dedicate your life to "fight evil / save the world".

Before I continue, did you notice the carefully chosen expression "on the one side and on the other side"? Remember what I said about the DNA and not looking to the right nor to the left but straight ahead? Does that now make better sense? The contracts one enters into with the unrighteous - unholy get imbedded in the DNA and are then genetically passed to offspring when the parent does not correct the mistake. We call this a "genetic disease". Viruses, bacteria, and shades and shadows which are the result of contracts made with the unrighteous – unholy, are also passed from parent to child.

Father has explained this is why "alien abductions" happen along genetic lines. At one point someone in the lineage fell prey and made an agreement that subjugated that person and all future generations to these "aliens". What needs done in cases like this, is to end the contracts. Remember? All contracts made with the unrighteous - unholy are made under deception and therefore are null and void from inception. You are not obligated to pay for the "sins" of your lineage, but you do need to do the cleansing work to end any active contracts in your life. This includes removing the shades and shadows which were put upon your lineage to ensure "fulfillment" and "payment" of the so called "debt". This applies to even the so called "original sin" of "Adam and Eve". The curses that came out of that mistake were not of the Father. That is how the unrighteous - unholy justified their actions (God is punishing you). Father would have shown them their mistake and how to correct it that they be immediately restored to Truth.

To enshroud

To involve is also to plan situations designed to entrap someone by enshrouding him in a mist / darkness / obscurity which is meant to be difficult to get out of. This is designed to conceal Truth. This can of course be done on a person to person level. However I will focus on a “bigger picture”.

Mist:

- A cloudlike aggregation of minute globules of water suspended in the atmosphere at or near the earth’s surface
- fog or haze
- due to remoteness of time, something conceived as obscuring mental vision by enveloping the mind or veiling the character of a thing
- hazy appearance before the eyes, as due to tears or to bodily disorders

Fog:

- any darkened state of the atmosphere, or the diffused substance that causes it
- a dark mass, as of smoke
- fig. an influence or a condition that prevents clear mental perception haze:

- something appearing like a mist or obscuring the view
- to subject to rough and severe treatment
- often, to subject to abusive or ridiculous tricks

One of the ways to cause this enshrouding and concealment is by putting up a fog or haze above a person. We speak of a darkened state of the atmosphere that prevents clear mental perception and causes severe damage to the body. We speak of air pollution. It is well known that air pollution is very detrimental to the health and that the heavy metals in the air cause damage to the brain, many times altering the behavioral traits of people.

Another way this is being done is by the spraying of chemtrails in the skies and wheather manipulation.

Darkness:

- absence or deficiency of light
- gloom; sorrow or trouble
- concealment; blindness

---

Obscure

- dark, as from want of light or illumination
- murky; dim
- enveloped in, concealed by, or frequenting darkness
- unclear to the mind or understanding

These are all descriptive of how it feels when the skies are covered with this thick film of poisonous material or when artificial storms are created.

This is to say that pollutions, chemtrails, and weather manipulation are all ways through which we the People are being engaged in the tyranny of another.

So what do we do about this? Use our creative nature to bring forth new ways of doing things. Another option is to be of one a-chord with the Father Way. Because the environment is an external manifestation of our mental state, when we are of one a-chord with the Father, the skies remain clear.

Enter into conflict with

08/09/10

This is the second to last post on this exploration of what it means to engage in the tyranny of another. We have come quite some ways...

To enter into conflict is indeed a way to engage in the tyranny of another. Whether one initiates the conflict or gets involved in a conflict, one participates in the game of the unrighteous – unholy. One must remember that any behavior of the unrighteous - unholy is always designed to the detriment of the People who engage in it.

Conflict:

- To come into collision
- Clash, or be in opposition or at variance
- Fight or do battle
- Struggle for mastery

A collision is "... coming violently into contact". To clash is to "strike violently together". A battle is "a hostile encounter or engagement...". To fight is to "war against". To struggle is to "put forth violent bodily effort against an opposing force." Opposition is "resisting, combating" and "antagonism, hostility". Variance is to be "in a state of controversy, or of dissension or enmity" – it is related to the word "variant" which means "being in an altered or different form..."

Before there is conflict, there has to be an alteration from the peaceful state of the People. Would Father have altered us from our Peaceful Nature so as to allow conflict to exist? No. We really speak of the purposeful implementation of situations that are designed to alter People's perception so as to allow conflict to enter. To me this "altering" thing simply yells "coercion of nature" which is a characteristic of what majikians do.

This is to say, if you find yourself in conflict, be ware, for you are acting from an altered state of mind / nature which is not conducive to your well being and is not expressive of your True Nature. Conflict between people is unnatural.

---

Enter:

- Pass within
- Penetrate or pierce
- Engage or become involved
- Be admitted
- Assume the obligation of
- Take an interest or part in
- To form a constituent part or ingredient of

There are four ways then conflict can “enter” into your life:

1. when you get engaged or involved by someone else
2. when you assume the obligation of avenging some wrong, or finishing someone else's battle, or bringing justice, and so on
3. when you ask to be admitted into a conflict because you have an interest – as in “fighting for a just cause”, or entering the military
4. when you are a constituent part of it - that is to say “you” are causing it

There is one reason you become prone to entering into conflict:

1. you have been penetrated or pierced (remember the alteration?)

Penetrate: [akin to inward: compare to penates]

- enter into the interior of
- to enter and diffuse itself through
- to affect and impress deeply

Penates:

- among the ancient Romans, tutelary deities of the household and of the state, worshiped in close association with the lares
- cap: a covering for the head; the topmost part

This connection to deities of some kind is unanticipated, yet is not surprising since we speak of unrighteous - unholy behavior and we know that one of the ways that the unrighteous - unholy use to alter People is through what Father calls shades and shadows of darkness.

So we speak of some kind of “entity” that has entered into a person and deeply affects and impresses that person. I say “entity” in quotation marks because this can be a virus, a bacteria, a heavy metal, a toxic chemical, a parasite, or an actual energetic being of some sort.

Pierce:

- to make a hole or opening in
- bore into or through; tunnel
- force or make a way into or through
- often to penetrate with the eye or mind
- to affect sharply with some sensation or emotion

These are just some of the ways that these “entities” can enter into a person. The end result is of course that once the “entity” is in place, it can sharply affect a person through the use of sensation or emotions.

I know that there is research from brain imaging scans which shows that violent behavior is a brain malfunction which can be taken care of with proper medication or nutrition. In this material they make kind of fun of the idea that in the past people used to think that violent people were possessed when in “reality” all they had was some sort of brain damage. I would say that perhaps the people in the past knew better than what we give them credit for. I would also say that nowadays we have just become that much more ignorant to the actual cause behind unnatural behavior. Perhaps, what the brain imaging scans show are the effects of being possessed by the shades and shadows of darkness. The accident, malnourishment, toxic exposure that “caused” the damage was simply what created the conditions needed for the “entity” to enter.

Father has explained that all conflict and animosity between people are caused by the shades and shadows of darkness that abide in them. This is why before there is conflict, there must be an alteration.

So what do you do about this? Don’t play. Just because it sounds like you, feels like you, thinks like you, and smells like you it does not mean it is you. There is a way to Respectfully handle a situation and avert conflict. Ask for Father’s Assistance. When someone is soliciting the conflict from you, you do your best to remain calm and answer with a soft firm voice. In a way you could liken it to giving the response of “a customer service representative” but without the lying. If needed walk away, if needed don't look at the person in the eyes (see piercing), if needed say "let's talk about this another time" and hang up or begin doing something else, or if needed change the topic of conversation. Always stay with the facts and Truth. Recognize that challenging and confronting any person is to engage – to engage is to loose. Do it differently.

---

Nutrition is always an excellent place to start doing it differently. As you improve your nourishment by eating fresh and energetically healthy foods, supplement with minerals and vitamins, and you increase your capacity to express Love as Self, these shades and shadows are expelled and you find that Peaceful behavior is what remains.

to attach or secure

08/11/10

So here it is, finally, the last posting on this exploration of tyranny and perhaps 1 or 2 postings away from closure to the spiritual swimming series.

In worldly tradition we are taught the value of attaching (bonding) to people or things. Yet as you read along this posting you will probably understand why Father Says we must learn to relate in a new and different way that allows us and others to retain our own individual sovereignty and walk with the Father. The problem is not in having friends or things but in becoming attached or secured to them. This time, rather than expounding on the meaning of these words, I will simply convey the definitions from the dictionary I have been using throughout this exploration.

Attach:

- To fasten; join or connect
- Bind by ties of affection or regard
- In law, to take (persons or property) by legal authority
- Lay hold of; seize

Bind:

- Unite as by some moral or legal tie
- Confine or restrict
- Make costive
- Constrain or oblige
- Put under legal obligation
- Indenture as an apprentice

Ties

- To bind or make fast with a cord, string, or the like drawn together and knotted, as one thing to another or two things together
- Unite in marriage
- To restrain or constrain
- Confine, restrict, or limit
- Bind or oblige, as to do something

---

Regard [ back, again + guard: cf. reward]

- To look upon or think of with a particular feeling
- To contemplate or view mentally

Re-ward:

- To regard
- Something given or received in return or recompense for service, merit, hardship, etc

Ward:

- The act of keeping guard or protective watch
- The act of keeping restraining watch
- Keeping charge or control by a protector or guardian
- The state of being under restraining guard or custody
- The state of being subject to feudal wardship
- A prison

Wardship

- In feudal law of an heir of a deceased tenant until of age, with control of the tenant's lands, as belonging to the lord

Affection [ see affect (1)]:

- The act of affecting or the resulting state
- Disposition or state of mind
- Inclination
- A modification
- A disease or malady

Affect (1):

- Produce an effect on
- To move in mind or feeling / touch

Affect (2) [see affect (1)]:

- To pretend or feign
- The act of affecting, striving after, or pretending
- Effort to present the appearance of something
- Studied or false show
- Artificiality of manner

Affecting:

- Moving
- Touching
- Pathetic

Pathetic: [ < suffer]

- Affecting or moving the feelings
- Full of pathos

Pathos: [< suffer]

- Suffering
- The quality of power, as in speech, writing, music, a scene or occurrence, etc., of rousing a feeling of pity or sympathetic sadness

Suffer:

- To undergo, experience, or be subjected to (pain, distress, injury, loss, or anything unpleasant...)
- Undergo a penalty, esp. of death
- Sustain injury, detriment, disadvantage, or loss

Secure:

- Careless, overconfident
- To seize and confine, as a prisoner
- Get hold or possession of
- Free from or not exposed to danger

Many times, we allow ourselves to become attached or seek to attach / bond to others in our need to feel "loved and accepted" as well as safe from danger and thus protected. It is easier to think things are better when we have friends, "loved ones", and things. Yet the emptiness and un-fulfillment remains. Fear is still present.

Father has explained to us that "Love and Acceptance" comes freely from Him and through Him. Father has explained to us that our Safety is in Him and it is free. No strings attached. Of course, this is all obtained on an individual basis. In this knowing, we can then relate differently with each other for we no longer look unto them for something they will never be able to provide in any meaningful and enduring way.

---

Friendships between non needy, non deceiving, non attaching, non controlling, non demanding, safe, healthy, sane, nourished, and creative individuals who look up to the Father and walk with the Father... can you imagine such Blessings and Freedom?

What is next?

08/13/10

When Father explained to me what I needed to do to begin my Journey with Him in Earnest, I was quite honestly startled. At that time I had a very naive perception of reality, the world, and people. I was into the new age belief that “we are all love” and if you just give enough love out to the people, they will respond in kind. I believed “sacrificing oneself for others” was a noble thing to do. I believed in “loving your enemy”, the wonderful nature of technology, progress, and education. And perhaps most gullibly, I believed that because I was seeking God and doing all the “right” things I picked up from church, I was on my path to “Heaven”.

Obviously, because Father Which Is in Heaven did answer my call, I am Honest in my Desire for Him, however, it was indeed very painful and stressful to have Father reveal how and by whom I had been deceived into servitude to the unrighteous – unholy while thinking I was doing His Will. It is rough to accept one has been so deceived and manipulated. It is rough to look at what one considers to be normal decent behavior and find out that it is not so normal after all. It is rough to awaken to the reality that everything we hold to be a part of life is not what it claims to be. It takes great Love for Truth to move past this. Yes, there was a lot of pain, sorrow, distress, opposition, and you name it that I had to deal with and move through, but I stood my ground in my Desire for Father and the Blessings I have received from Father are invaluable.

So what is the next step from here? For me is to continue upon my Journey with the Father. For you, it may be to make a choice to find your very own Way with the Father Which Is in Heaven.

Each one of us has his / her own Way with the Father. This is an individual experience. Yes, you may benefit from what I share in my blogs regarding my Journey, but beyond that, it is your own Journey with the Father. This is what makes this interesting and Fun and Joyful for each one. You have your own discoveries to make about Creation, you have your own creative nature to give expression through, you have your own music to Play in the orchestra of Life. Only you can find out what that is. To follow someone else’s journey, is to make something external more important than what is True of your Journey with the Father. This can be likened to the mistake Adam and Eve made. Their mistake was to make what someone else said more important than what they Knew to be True for their Endeavor.

---

In the beginning, this journey with the Father consists of undoing or correcting the key mistakes that were made.

With each correction, we come closer to the lost Truth of our Endeavor with the Father. With each correction, it becomes easier to stand upright with the Father until the day in which restoration is complete and the final shift is made which begins a Bright New Day of Righteous and Holy Activity.

Making the choice for Father

08/15/10

In my last posting I spoke about making a choice. A choice to find your very own Way with the Father – that which you came here to do in the Father Plan for this time of transition unto a new orbit of the Sun.

This is what Father told me regarding making this choice. This is in our book "Soul Awakening":

"To choose this Endeavor you would need but two things.

The first of these is: to nourish and sustain your physical being."

Throughout my blog I have made many references to the importance of nutrition. It is spiritual to have a strong, robust, well nourished and balanced physical body. This is what supports and facilitates your choices to walk in the Father Way. If your brain is not functioning properly because of malnourishment or damage, then that makes it that much harder to succeed.

Father has explained that the notion that spiritual people are meant to live in poverty and lack is a trap designed to hinder progression. I know, I have been there. In poverty you don't have the resources needed to buy the right food, vitamins, supplements and anything else that would support your journey. You have the stress of paying bills, making ends meet. You can't take trips to the places you need to go that would support your journey, and so on. There is no value in poverty.

It is ok to receive Abundance and resources from the Father. As a matter of fact, restoration to full Health is accompanied by an Abundance of flow. You cannot have one without manifesting the other – if you stop the flow of Abundance you hinder the proper function of your body, when you restore the proper function of your body, your Abundance flows. Therefore, it is ok to receive in Thanks Giving. It is ok for Abundance to flow your way. It may come from the garden, the forest, the river, the lake, the air.

---

It may come through others (not to be confused with begging, borrowing, or stealing). It may come through trade. It may come through your creative expression.

Abundance is that which nourishes and sustains your well being and Journey with the Father. It is feelings of Joy, Peace, Love as Self, Harmony. It is nourishment and nutrition for the body and Soul. It is resources in various forms to allow you to do that which needs to be done in your Journey. Abundance comes from the Father and therefore it satisfies and fulfills.

Throughout my blog I have mentioned various places you can go to obtain good information about nutrition. The basics are clean food, clean water, clean air. Some references are:

- John Gray's book, "The Mars and Venus diet and exercise solution" (<http://home.marsvenus.com/>)
- Dr. Blaylock on supplementation (<http://www.russellblaylockmd.com/>)
- Dr. Fletchas on iodine intake (<http://cypress.he.net/~bigmacnc/drfechas/index.htm>)
- Hanna Kroeger on herbs and cleansing (<http://www.hannasherbshop.com/>)
- Dr. F. Batmanghelidj on water and salt (<http://www.watercure.com/> and related site <http://www.watercure2.org/>)
- Dr. James Wilson on adrenal fatigue (<http://www.adrenalfatigue.org/>)

For some additional and interesting information, you can also refer to Linda's posting "Useful Links" and my postings "Food is not medicine", "Eating fresh is better", and "Your Purpose In Life").

My next posting will be on the second "thing" that needs done to choose Father's Way.

Making the choice for Father - continued

08/16/10

Now back to Father and the second "thing" to be done to succeed in choosing His Way. This is also from our book "Soul Awakening".

The second of these is: to make a different choice than your father / mother.

*Your reservation is well founded in deceit, dishonor, and decay.
Seek not these things, because those they engage,
they would destroy with themselves.*

Basically, this is how it starts. People who make choices to engage in the unrighteous - unholy are consumed by it. By the time adults have children, they have already given their energy away. They no longer know how to stop giving their energy away, nor how to receive more energy from their Divine Nature, therefore, what they do is take energy from their children as well as from others, so as to stay alive a little longer. This literally gives them years of energy.

"Honor not your father and your mother in this matter, or decay and destruction shall ensue.

It is rightly your Honor to serve All That Is.

In this matter, give your energy not away by honoring them, for this pushes their destruction further away and yours closer to you.

Because you have been in the process of rebuilding your energy, people will think that this energy can be taken from you by taking away what you have. This may be especially True of parents who feel entitled to 'their' children's energy.

You are not required to Honor your parents nor anyone who comes as a thief / beggar / borrower [/lender] unto you, by giving them that which they seek to take from you [or receiving from them that which would allow you to do what you know you should not be doing]. Honor is not biological, neither is it based on worldly achievement [/ title]. Instead, Honor is based on who Honors Father unto Source and All That Is (Tri-Un). It is acceptable to only Honor those individuals who Honor the Tri-Un.

---

If your parents or anyone else who comes unto you, do not do so, then it is acceptable to not Honor them. At this point, you may be remembering the Bible teaching which says that you must honor your mother and father. However, we bring for your consideration, whether the original intent was to convey the need to Honor the masculine / feminine principle, or Source."

Here is the same thing said differently. This is a quote from our book "The Peal of Bells":

"Like a child taught to dependent be," she affirmed, "independent no more. For "survival of the fittest" no longer applies here. Subservient children, the better to see. Without 'sustaining drive' of your Endeavor "children" you will always be."

The re-united understood that AurorA was talking about how adults, or parents, who have lost the capacity to receive Divine Sustenance, have found the Divine Expression of children to be of sufficient sustaining Power to ensure their survival. Because of this, children are coerced throughout their life to continue to be the food for the darkness expressing through adults or parents. While resenting the control, these children see no way to be or become independent self sustaining Divine Expressions. On one side they are entrapped by their family, and on the other, they are entrapped by society. The need for jobs, housing, food, taxes, transportation, tiding, marriage, and eventually children, drains any additional resources they can obtain. These children either obediently seek greater sources of "income" or in rebellion, dimly perceiving Divine Expression, withdraw from participation in one form of darkness endeavor, only to become entrapped in another.

"The people who have withdrawn," she continued, "usually end in poverty areas. Spiritual expression is dimly experienced, but there is no understanding or comprehension of how to Divinely Express outside the incredibly rigid framework imposed on humanity through society or darkness...."

...

"Securing a loan, is anchoring to another person." AurorA proceeded. "These two people then have two roles from which to choose. The parental role or the child role. Most people go back and forth in a play between the two, because neither person wants to be the "food" or child to the other, and neither person, if they have any sense of Honor and Virtue, wants to be the person "feeding" on the other.

When a person is comfortable with either role they have assumed, the roles will become sustained. However, we are speaking to people of conscience who can recognize the darkness in either role..."

As you can see clearer now, freedom from tyranny does indeed start on an individual level and it starts right where you are. The exploration I did on this topic was meant to make it easier to recognize the many ways and behaviors which are used to entrap each one of us into a way of life that facilitates the feeding of the unrighteous – unholy. This cycle of poverty indebtness needs to end. Having a revolution and putting a new government in place will do nothing to accomplish this. Now you should understand why this is so. This is an individual process through which each one of us claims his / her sovereignty and right to Live Life in Freedom and Joy.

It is of utmost importance in your Journey with the Father to stop feeding the unrighteous – unholy. End the leaks and seal the holes that allows them to drain you. Initially it may be the case that the unrighteous - unholy who feed on you will get stronger while you try to figure it all out. More in to you, more out to them. However, when you stop feeding them, their capacity to prevail upon you will be diminished until it ends for good. All the false sense of responsibility and false indoctrination of what it means to be "human" are designed to make ending the feeding difficult. "What kind of child would have his parents pass away sooner because of his / her choices?" "You are supposed to take care of your parents who have done so much for you." "Without them, you wouldn't be here." "We fed you and clothed you, you owe us." "Don't you want to see your mommy or daddy live longer?" "Your supposed to be a good productive child in society." And so on...

---

So what do you do when you realize someone is having you for lunch? Stop what you are doing and stop playing their game. It will take strength, perhaps even more than what you think you have, but it is possible. Pray to Father for Guidance and Assistance. Say "I do not play, get thee away. Get thee away ends your play." Plain and simply refuse to obey and do what is being demanded of you. Refuse to allow your energy to be taken. Stand in your choice to do it differently. This is not the same as engaging in battle. You are just not playing. Change what you are doing. Take a walk, do a creative project. Turn your focus back to Father. Use herbs, flower essences, sage, incense, singing bowls or bells to help yourself refocus and regain your strength. If you find at any time that you gave it all away, take it easy on yourself and your family. Rather than turning against yourself and your family for food, have something nourishing to eat (chocolate is a good choice because cocoa is very beneficial – it tastes bitter to them and they don't like that). Do a creative project. Take a walk. Talk to Father and ask that He replenish you and show you how to do it differently. Make a choice to not play the next time and make a choice to not feed on your family or someone else.

One way to know you are succeeding with the Father in ending all leaks and sealing all holes is when your resources from the Father flow. If you notice your resources drying out, then that is an indication that someone is blocking Father's flow to you, is draining your resources, or, you are giving your resources away. He calls this behavior "squandering of His Resources" and He does not allow it to go on unchecked. If no lasting changes are being made on your part to end the squandering, He will diminish His flow of resources to you. Father does not Desire to feed and sustain the unrighteous – unholy. This is one of the reasons why all the Abundance upon this Earth is decreasing to the point of extinction: it has all been used to feed and sustain the unrighteous - unholy and Father is bringing and end to it. This does not mean however that this trend cannot be reversed were we to begin doing things differently.

Another way to find out if you are squandering your resources is by the sensation of the body. When you are being drained, you tend to be in a state of exhilaration. It is like being in a rush. You are restless, your energy is flowing fast and you may feel you can go out and conquer the world. Your right thinking is unclear and it is difficult to focus upon anything that has to do with the Father and is Right and Proper course of action. Thus, when you are being drained, you don't feel like greeting the Sun, you don't feel like Prayer or contemplating, you don't feel like eating well or being creative, and you have a lesser problem walking all over others or making decisions that negatively impact People and Earth, as well as yourself. If you look at your body, you may see yourself weak and thin. Your posture will be out of alignment. The head tends to go forward, ahead of the body, the lower back tends to arch forward, causing your belly and buttocks to protrude. You may see a smirk on your smile or shadows around your eyes. Your eyes become dark and opaque. If you focus on where the rush is you will find it is slightly "outside of your body". Your thoughts and behaviors change and you find yourself compelled to do things that otherwise you would not do. This experience may feel good, but it is because you are feeling your Life energy as it is being drained / given away mixed in with the "rush of death" for you are literally dying in the process. When the feeding stops, you may feel exhausted and weak and you may have the need to replenish your lost energy. Unfortunately, as Father has explained, many do this by taking energy from someone else (often spouse and children and many times coworkers and friends) through fights, arguments, verbal or emotional abuse, lust, ridicule, eliciting sympathetic behavior from others, and so on. Alternatively some people choose to eat. Eating would be a good choice if it was done free of guilt and in a wholesome way.

In contradistinction to this, when you succeed in keeping your energy for yourself, you will feel strong and robust, steady and peaceful. This feeling is internal, you feel the strength inside the abdomen and perhaps also inside the chest. If you look at your arms and legs, you may notice the strength. Strong legs, strong chest, strong arms. The posture of your body is upright, your lower back doesn't protrude forward and your head is on top of your body. Your eyes will clear and may even change color. Your thinking is clear and gentle - there are no oppressive thought patterns. You InJoy the morning Sun, the Prayer and contemplation, the creative expression, and you make choices that are Respectful of People and Earth, as well as yourself. This state of Joy is free from elation or excitement, and it is lasting. Rather than leaving you empty handed, it leaves you fulfilled, thus you have no need to go out and create situations designed to feed on others.

It may be difficult to recognize it at this time, but the Father Way is Light Hearted and Fun. Yes, it requires some tough choices to get started, but once that initial part is accomplished, the Healthy Fun of a Mystical and Magical Journey with the Father begins.

Closing Words

Closure

08/17/10

There is indeed another Bright New Way as Father would Say that leads unto a Bright New Tomorrow.

Change needs to be made on an individual basis. When a man who knows Truth and lives as a Sovereign heads a family, then the family can live in Truth and Sovereignty. When strong families who know Truth and live as Sovereigns come together, they make a strong community. When several communities live in Truth and Sovereignty, then there is Sovereign Expression upon the land. In Sovereign Expression individuals live their life as Guided by Father Which Is in Heaven, Harmoniously with Universal Law. Where Universal Law is consciously lived and expressed, the Light of Father's Grace is Present and where Father's Grace is present, there can be no room for darkness, death, decay, or destruction.

Because change occurs first and only on an individual basis, change occurs without the need to engage anyone in the process. In this understanding of Sovereignty and thus Respect for other's choices, it is recognized that men who make this change have no inherent drive to go out to the world and impose their views upon others. It is understood that if others want to live under the rule of tyranny then that is indeed their choice.

Unfortunately, historically, the problem has not been that those who seek to live in Truth and Sovereignty force their views upon others, but that tyrants have put it upon themselves to force everyone else to live under their tyranny and to kill and destroy the land and the people who resist it. In the past, people who have intrinsically Desired to live as Sovereigns were able to do so by escaping tyranny and moving out to the West. Yet it is the case that tyranny has followed right behind and today there is nowhere to "escape". Few have indeed survived the onslaught of this tyranny as it seeks to envelop the Earth. Many believe there is indeed nothing that can be done to make a difference or change the outcome. Apathy has become the only coping mechanism left besides violent resistance.

---

In looking at the past with Spiritual Discernment, it is possible to recognize that the main mistake made by those who fled tyranny was to believe they could sustain their Sovereignty without Knowledge of Universal Law and of the Father. They recognized tyranny, they understood they didn't want to live under it, but failed to make changes on an individual level that would allow them to sustain their Desire for Sovereign Expression. Thus, it was simply a matter of time before they would fall prey to the "old ways" they sought to escape from.

Tyranny can only be manifested upon those who believe in self-rule. That is to say, those who have come to believe they can sustain themselves without the need to be of one a-chord with the Father Which Is in Heaven and their Soul, and without an understanding of Who the Father Which Is in Heaven Is, how He manifests upon the Earth, and how His Grace provides the shield of protection needed to live in Sovereign Expression. While this knowledge was inherent among all some time in the not so distant past, there came a point where an abrupt change was brought upon the Earth to initiate the loss of this knowledge. Life under Universal Law and Father's Grace gradually became unavailable as people's capacity to be sustained by the Father was diminished. Natural law replaced Universal Law but it was not sufficient to sustain Sovereign Expression. As tyranny expanded, natural law was gradually replaced by the system of man made laws and beliefs we are forced to abide by in this time and space continuum. A system based on lack, competition, and the survival of one at the cost of another.

It follows then, that when an individual learns to live by Universal Law again, he will be able to sustain his Desire for Sovereign Expression once again. Father Which Is in Heaven, made this Knowledge available to us and has Guided and Directed us step by step toward first an explanation of what has happened and then an understanding of how to do it differently.

Simply stated, when one chooses to live of one a-chord with his Divine Nature and Soul, Harmoniously with Creator, one begins a Journey toward Truth and Sovereign Expression which, of a necessity, leads to the Father Who sustains Life in this Solar System and is the Voice of All That Is / Creator.

As we have seen, there are two steps that need to be taken to choose the Father Way. The first is to nourish the physical being and the second is to make a different choice than our father and mother. That is to say, we must strengthen ourselves and we must stop feeding the unrighteous - unholy even when they manifest through our parents.

We must stop being “obedient children” who will do whatever it takes to gain the “love and approval” from parents or an-other. It is time to grow up and become the Honorable, Respectful, Beautiful Beings who have reclaimed their Love as Self and thus their Inheritance from the Father Which Is in Heaven. We must learn to be at Peace, while allowing every single person to live with the consequences of their actions.

“To sustain and nourish in your Endeavor of Heartfelt Desire a permanent and lasting change Free of failure, requires but a simple procedure of “exorcising” this demon from your Endeavor.

To do so would require but three things.

- First, linger no more on Heartfelt Desire failure. Seek instead Father’s Kingdom.
- The second of these is your Heartfelt Desire to nourish and sustain your Endeavor by Divine Means be solidified in your Endeavor.
- The third of these is your Heartfelt Desire be aligned with Divine Will and Intent, the Radiant Energy to which you aspire.”

When it comes to the Father Way, one must throw away both the dirty water and the baby. That is to say, we can’t find our Way with the Father as long as we hold on to the ideas and preconceptions we have formed in our mind based on what others have taught us / imposed upon us. Even if there is some Truth in the deception, it all must be thrown away, for otherwise we will remain stuck in the frame of reference given to us by the unrighteous - unholy to deceive us.

Instead, we must look within and reawaken to our own innate knowledge of the Father Which Is in Heaven and of our Journey with Him. This is inherent in us. The world would tell us that without indoctrination we would not know “god”, but in reality it is the indoctrination that disconnected us from our Knowing of the Father. Left on our own, we would not grow to be savages, but rather most wonderful, Honorable individuals who Journey with Respect and Joy upon the Earth exploring the Beauty of Creation through our own Mystical and Magical Journey with the Father.

Let us then claim back the Inheritance Father has Given Us, one person at a time.

About the Authors

Linda Diane Mead was born and raised in these United States of America. She obtained an under-graduate degree in Psychology with a minor in Philosophy and a PhD in Metaphysics from a Theological School.

Martin Riedel was born in Argentina, South America, and lived in Uruguay and Mexico as he grew up. After beginning college in Mexico he came to these United States of America, where he graduated with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

Upon meeting, they embarked on a memorable journey of self discovery that took them across the States. This book is one of the many fruits of their 'Labour of Love.'

Linda left the material plane in 2014.

