

Respect

A Different Perspective

Martin Gustav Riedel

BlueStarWay Publishing

Creative Notice: In Divine Service

Martin Gustav Riedel

Divine Law carries restorative Power and compense.

What is Created by Divine Authority is Protected by Divine Authority.

We leave it to Divine Law to balance any transgressions.

restorative: give back, put back to former state, return

compense: remuneration, counterbalance

Translation Notice: In Divine Service

Father Which Is in Heaven:

"In Right and Proper Exchange of Information there is but one conveyance in Right and Proper Order of Divine Expression.

The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each unto its own way of perception.

It matters not what others may say or think, it matters always only that which is Divinely Appointed each day.

It was Given unto your perception,
Right and Proper Orderly Progression of Divine Nomenclature each and every day, step of your way.

Those who transpire to subvert your words and direction shall Penalty pay, for that which is Divinely Authorized Nomenclature, subsides, subsists in Grand and Glorious Scheme.

Let no man put asunder that which is Divine in Nature.

As to exact literal translation, there can be none.
It is, would be, a departure from that Divinely Authorized Conveyance should you undertake to do so.

Yes, the gist would remain intact, however, the nuances, reflections, inflection would no longer convey the subtle multidimensional unrefracted Nature.

It is by Divine Appointment this Conveyance comes in your time, in your way.

Let not those who would put asunder Direct Divine Conveyance do so, at Penalty of perjury of Divinely Authorized material."

nomenclature: system of names used as a science or art transpire: seek to bring about subvert: ruin, corrupt

subsides: descends

subsist: as means of maintaining life

asunder: separate into pieces perjury: voluntary violation of an oath to tell the Truth oath: a solid appeal to the Divine to witness to the Truth of a statement or the sacredness of a promise.

NOTICE TO READER

This book provides a means by which we can share what we have experienced and come to Know in this journey toward awakening. It was created based on "where we were" at the time of its conception.

Future material will show Spiritual Progression in Awakening.

This material is for individual use only.

It is intended to spark creative contemplation and consideration of 'if... then...'.

It is intended to provide a means by which you can enhance your experience of that which is Divine (rather than to provide a means by which you are told or taught what to believe, how to behave, and what is right or wrong).

Because this material brings Light, you may find some of it very unsettling.

It is ultimately you who, through your Spiritual Awareness and Prayer for Discernment and Guidance, must establish the Divine Truth of what IS.

As you do so, Know that Divine Truth is a Progression of ever expanding refinement.

Divine Answers Respect all living things.

Should you choose to do so, any incorporation of this material into your life is at your discretion and your sole responsibility.

Know that the Divine / Father Which Is in Heaven is available to provide additional support in understanding, learning, or applying this material in your own life.

In Our Words

We want to make it perfectly clear, especially to the young who have not been raised in the way of Respect, that we have posted the requirement Father has placed for the material presented to be and remain accurate, unaltered, and fully True to the context of His Teachings.

The Penalty He has clearly outlined for subverting this material is not something that would be implemented on an individual level, but by Universal Law. This carries its own retribution.

To those who would scoff at this, thinking themselves immune to Universal Law, we can only say, please be aware that these are not empty words. Ignoring Universal Law and the Father's Way does not bring absolution from the consequences of one's actions. Anyone focused on the Father Knows the Truth of this.

This is a free e-book. You may freely distribute this material and file only in its complete and unaltered format. This includes printed material. All material shall retain the "In Divine Service" notice and the Words that Father has Spoken regarding His Authority in Universal Law for the Protection and retribution of violating His Word.

You may freely reference this material only if you correctly "cite your source". That is to say, to make reference to information from Father's material you will appropriately credit BlueStarWay and the name of the material from which the reference was made. References and quotes may not be taken out of context. Sentences in italics shall remain in italics to indicate direct Conveyance from Father Which Is in Heaven. No referenced or quoted commentary by Martin, Mister, or Linda is to be given or presented as direct information from the Father, but rather as having been shared by their understanding at the time the material was written.

This material is freely shared by us.

If, in Joyful ThanksGiving, you feel like sharing a Gift with us

please visit www.BlueStarWay.com/increase4all/Vision

Heartfelt Thanks

BlueStarBlog

Respect

A Different Perspective

Written by Martin Gustav Riedel

Self Published with the Blessing of
Father Which Is in Heaven

With quotes from Father Which Is in Heaven (in italics) as given to Linda Diane Mead, Ph.D. and many times recorded by Martin.

BlueStarWayPublishing.com

This book is a Gift to you from Father Which Is in Heaven.

Know that sentences in italics are direct messages from our Loving Father, “that all may come to see or know that which Honors and Serves the human race.”

*Father Which Is in Heaven
Gives you Thanks for accepting His Gift to you.*

Side note by Martin

The Father Which Is in Heaven referred to in all of the material Linda and I have created is the Father Jesus taught us to pray to in the Lord's Prayer. 'Living God,' 'Father Within,' and 'Father' are used interchangeably and refer to the same Father Which Is in Heaven.

Please take note that the concepts we have "inherited" in regards to Who and What the Father Is, His Desires, Goals, and Aspirations, as well as how He Manifests on Earth and in Humanity are very limited, constricted, and quite frankly suffocating. Please do give yourself room for expansion in this regard and do not be put off by the use of this terminology. The information contained in this book is neither patriarchal, religious, spiritualist, scientific, dogmatic, atheist, shamanic, new age, worldly, alien, nor any other modality. It just Is what it Is.

Also be aware that while there is only one Father Which Is in Heaven and no one else can "claim" this Name, the words 'god,' 'father,' and 'lord' in and of themselves seem to not carry this type of restriction. Therefore, unless one makes it clear that the use of words such as 'God', 'Living God,' or 'Father' specifically address Father Which is Heaven, it is possible for any number of entities floating around with a 'god' or 'lord' complex to answer the call.

That this is not an issue to be taken lightly is shown for example by the vast numbers of people throughout history who have gone to war, plundered, and taken human life presumably under 'god's' direction as well as by the number of people who still subscribe to this day to the divinity of such guidance. It is also shown by the vast number of people who deny, sacrifice, and flagellate self or others in the name of 'god.' Father Which Is in Heaven would never incite such actions. He has made this very clear to Linda and I again and again.

Obviously, there is a great need to be very Discerning in this matter and while it would be easy to get lost in terminology and arguments, this is really a matter of the Heart and of Intention. For the western or 'christianized' mind, the term 'Father Which Is in Heaven' together with the refinements included in this book can be a helpful aid to hone one's Heart and Intention in the right direction.

I specifically say 'western' or 'christianized' mind because Father has Conveyed and made it very clear to us that:

*The Divine manifests in multiple ways, in multiple cultures.
It is each to its own way of perception.*

And while different cultures do have different terminology and ways of relating to the Father, it is the case that all those who successfully commune with the Divine share common traits such as Harmony and Oneness with Nature, Peaceful disposition, Respect of Self and others, and Sovereign Expression. To these cultures and people the notion of destroying, killing, debasing, conquering, subduing, converting, ruling, dominating, or profiting from their fellow men and Earth is incomprehensible and alien indeed.

Whatever you do and whichever way you Honor and Develop your Relationship with the Divine just remember that Divine Answers Respect all Living Things and that the Divine isn't engaged in any battles.

Something else that needs briefly explained is the convention we adopted to capitalize certain words that have various, and often times opposing, meanings and therefore are prone to being misinterpreted or misused because of this. In short, when we capitalize words within a sentence we do so to specifically refer to the 'healthy' and thus benevolent interpretation of these words that supports a Life and Sovereign Expression Harmonious with Creation and the Good Will and Intent of the Father Which Is in Heaven. When we write the same words without capitalization we do so to denote the misunderstandings associated with these words.

For example, in our writings, lower case 'l,' love, refers to the common misconception that associates this 'love' with sexual passion (which is a word derived from the Latin word 'pati' which means 'to suffer'), sexual arousal, and / or physical attraction and requires such things as putting others first, attachment, control, self denial, (self) sacrifice, compromise, duty, etc., etc..

Capital 'L,' Love, on the other hand, refers in our writings to a Feeling that Elevates, Respects, Cares, Appreciates, brings Well Being and Comfort, and supports such states of expression as Health, Humor, Kindness, Peace, and Benevolence. An experience that is innate to our Being or Who We Are and is independent of others although its expression in us may be facilitated in their presence just like being in Nature facilitates us getting in touch with our inner Peace.

Similarly, little 'p' play denotes doing things in the way of the world and from the perception of the world. It includes slabor, fighting, resisting, profiting, ruling, destroying, abusing, killing, warring, saving, converting, and trying to defeat or overcome the 'bad guys,' whoever they may happen to be at any given time, so we can be 'safe.'

While, big 'P' Play indicates what we came here to Earth to do: Play in Father's Garden in a Light Hearted, Respectful, Joy-full, Constructive, Edifying Way through which we manifest our Divinity and expand our experience, KNowledge, and Understandings of Creation and Father Which Is in Heaven's Good Will and Intent for us.

As you can see, this convention, while seemingly simple, is of utmost significance to facilitate a Proper interpretation of our writings.

Obviously we can't nor haven't applied this convention to every word we use for that would be too cumbersome. Neither does this convention apply to proper names, though many times we purposely 'downgrade' a proper name to lower case to emphasize the point we seek to convey.

Occasionally we may miss a capitalization, however the concepts being conveyed within the sentence and paragraph will make it perfectly clear whether we are referring to the 'unhealthy' or 'healthy' meaning of the word.

In-Joy

Table of Contents

Respect.....	1
respect - the improper way.....	2
A conversation.....	4
Respect - a Right and Proper Way.....	5
Inviolable.....	6
Observation.....	8
Inviolable - part 2.....	9
Inviolable - part 3.....	11
To avoid intruding upon.....	12
Putting it together.....	14
In perspective.....	15
To recount.....	17
One step further.....	18
Ending vulnerability.....	19
Clearing some confusion.....	20
What does it mean?.....	21
A precious Gift.....	23
There is more.....	25
A few quick notes.....	27
More notes.....	28
A good day.....	29
Movie time.....	32
Humanity.....	33
What's music got to do with it...?.....	34
A way of.....	35
Key understanding.....	36
A distinction.....	38
Pertinent Quote.....	39
Important note.....	42
Another word.....	43
Notes, notes, and more notes.....	44
Our Humanity.....	46
There is more to learn.....	48
Ending automation.....	49
Let the Light shine.....	50
Ending the spell.....	51
Ending the spell - continued.....	53
Leisure time.....	55
Another quote.....	57
To be.....	58
One thing to recognize.....	59
Some literary fun.....	60
Matter of Kings.....	62

Have dignity?.....	63
A note about Peace.....	65
One more aspect.....	68
One more aspect... continued.....	69
Closure.....	72
Summary - Part 1.....	74
Summary - Part 2.....	77
One may wonder.....	80
Summary - Part 3.....	82
Summary - Part 4.....	83
Summary - Part 5.....	85
Summary - Part 6.....	86
Summary - Part 7.....	91
Summary - Part 8.....	92
Quick Note.....	95
Practical Application - an introduction.....	96
Practical Application - a few examples.....	98
Practical Application - more examples.....	100
Practical Application - a conclusion (part 1).....	102
Practical Application - a conclusion (the end).....	104

Respect

072612

Early in our journey, Linda raised the question: "how can you know when you are being disrespected if you don't know what it is to be Respected?" Point well taken. So let's take a look at the concept of 'Respect' using the Dreams and Days method developed by Linda. I will be using "The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary" published in 1971. As usual, its use is for educational purposes...

The first thing I noticed when reading the various definitions for respect is that, as is the case with many words, these definitions contain both the answer and the problem. Or said differently, a Right and Proper Way to be Respectful and an improper way. As I have done with other words for clarifications purposes, I will use lower case "r" to reference the improper way of respect and upper case "R" to reference a Right and Proper Way of Respect.

I will begin exploring the improper way of respect so as to facilitate the "clearing of the table" so to speak. As Father has made it clear many times and is well recognized by many traditions, to receive Truth one must first toss out deception.

Be ready for some interesting eye openers...

respect - the improper way

072812

respect:

- to have deferential regard for
- syn., see admire
- honor and esteem
- conformity to duty or obligation
- compliance
- undue inclination or bias of mind

First, notice the improper association between honor and respect. Based on what Father has taught us, Honor is one step above Respect. That is to say, one needs not Honor a person to Respect him / her. As we will learn later, Respect does not have to be earned.

Let's continue with this in mind.

deference:

- submission or yielding to the will, opinion, etc. of another

In the synonym clarification for the word deference, it is explained that "deference, respect, and regard characterize our attitude toward a person whom we honor".

Once again, notice the false premise that one must honor a person first before respect is shown to that person. This is opposite to how it actually should be.

Let's continue.

Respect

This dictionary further explains that "we give deference to one we consider to be superior in position, ability, or attainment", while "respect is shown to those who are felt to be worthy, and regards to those who are admirable".

Since the first definition in this dictionary defines respect as "deferential regard" it is now possible to recognize that when the unrighteous - unholy speak of respect, they are really telling us to be submissive and yielding to their perceived superiority while demanding we do so with an energy of admiration toward them - hence the undue inclination or bias of mind.

I find it an even greater eye opener to read the synonym clarification found under the word "defer": "defer, submit, and yield agree in referring to the setting aside of our own views or wishes in favor of those of another. We defer to those whom we respect, and submit to those who have superior power and authority. We may yield for any reason, as from affection, persuasion, or compulsion."

In my opinion, the above definition reads as if it was taken from some instructional book written to indoctrinate People into becoming "the perfect slave / victim". This is the kind of behavior most People are taught. It is the kind of respect parents demand of their children. It is the kind of respect the school system demands of children. It is the kind of respect religions demand of their followers. It is the kind of respect government demands of their subjects.

Of course, in this deception, those of us who are strong willed and refuse to submit / yield to another / the unrighteous - unholy and elevate them into "godhood" are branded as "rebellious" and "disrespectful" to say the least, but are we?

A conversation

073012

Remember the improper association found in the dictionary between honor and respect? Some time ago, I had the following conversation with one of my parents who was upset because I was being "disrespectful" in their perception.

Parent: "the bible says that children must honor (respect) their parents."

Me: "what about parents respecting their children?"

Parent: "that's not in the bible."

I make reference to this conversation to point out the unspoken assumption that respect is supposed to be a one way road - from the inferior to the superior, but never from the superior to the inferior.

This one way street then generates the need in People to develop whatever sense of superiority they can so as to justify their need to do unto others as it is done unto them by their perceived superiors. No one likes to be at the short end of the stick all the time... Thus we have the educated who scoff at the uneducated, the wealthy at the poor, the beautiful at the ugly, the elite at the masses, the pure at the impure, the strong at the weak, the techies at the primitives, the ones who wear name brand clothing at those who don't, humans at animals, parents at children, the unrighteous - unholy at People, and the list goes on and on at nausea.

This kind of mentality of course, is to the benefit of those who want to control and abuse us, for it creates a false sense of inequality and therefore division / separation and self-justification.

Respect - a Right and Proper Way

080212

Having identified the false witness of lower case "r" respect, let's continue the exploration of what upper case "R" Respect is. I say continue because I have touched on the concept of Respect before when I wrote about Father's Teaching that a strong Foundation is based on Truth, Integrity, and Honor ("More on Foundation" ¹).

Respect:

- to treat with propriety and consideration
- to regard as inviolable
- avoid intruding upon

First, let's recognize that in these definitions there is no hint whatsoever of having to submit or yield to anyone, regardless of their perceived status. Neither is there a hint whatsoever as to the need to determine whether someone is or is not worthy of admiration and therefore Respect.

In reality, to be Respectful is to recognize the inviolable Nature of Creation and thus People, Earth, and Nature and to conduct ourselves in a way that is non intruding upon Creation and each other.

Imagine how different things would be if we reawakened to this basic principle of Creation...

¹ Published 091210 and available in BlueStar Blog Book ??

Inviolable

080412

As determined in the last entry, to be Respectful is to regard someone or something as inviolable. What does that mean? Let's find out.

Inviolable:

- not to be profaned, defiled
- sacrosanct
- not to be violated and broken

sacrosanct:

- sacred
- holy

This is to say, that to Respect Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature is to recognize the sacred and holy nature of Life and to act in a manner that does not profane, defile, violate or break this Truth.

sacred:

- entitled to respect

holy:

- having a divine nature or origin
- spiritually pure
- having great spiritual and moral worth
- completely devoted to the service of God

Life, and therefore People, Earth, and Nature are all of Divine Origin - a fact that all societies across the Earth recognize. What has been lost to many however, is the fact that this very Divine Origin or Nature not only entitles Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature to Respect, but also establishes the spiritual and moral worth of Life. This is a fundamental recognition. Respect does not have to be earned by anyone. Worthiness does not have to be proven or gained by anyone.

Respect

entitle:

- to give the right to receive

The very fact that animals are of Divine Origin entitles them to Respect. The very fact that Nature is of Divine Origin entitles it to Respect. The very fact that the Earth is of Divine Origin entitles her to Respect. The very fact that us People are of Divine Origin entitles us to Respect. It is that simple.

I don't think I would be stretching it to end this entry by saying that this right to be Respected is Universal Law.

Observation

080612

In contemplating the knowledge that has been coming forward regarding Respect, it became apparent why the unrighteous - unholy are so adamant about eradicating all perception of the Divine Origin of People, Earth, and Nature. On one hand they have science telling us that People, Earth, and Nature are nothing more than a - far from Divine - chance event resulting from some explosion and random interactions. On the other hand, they have religion doctrine telling us that after the fall of Adam and Eve, not even "god" considers us to be of "Divine Origin" and therefore worthy of Respect.

As long as us People loose sight of the Divine Nature / Origin of Life, we loose sight that by Universal Law, we are entitled to Respect and therefore to not be violated nor intruded upon by anyone, including the unrighteous - unholy. We also loose sight that is it improper for us to violate or intrude upon others.

This serves only the unrighteous - unholy.

Of course, their claims are false and are therefore a fraud perpetuated against Creation. To paraphrase a line in a movie Linda and I like very much: "Us People are Divine in Nature / Origin and all the shit of the world cannot change that."

We are Divine in Origin, the Earth is Divine in Origin, animals are Divine in Origin, Nature is Divine in Origin.

To violate and intrude upon People, Earth, and Nature is a transgression of Universal Law. We have a Divinely given right for this transgression against Life to end. It is time to re-claim our True Inheritance as Divine and behave once again with Respect toward Self and others.

Inviolable - part 2

080812

It has been established in previous entries that Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature (including animals) are entitled to Respect by their very Divine Origin or Nature. No ifs, ands, or buts. It's just the way it is.

Inviolable:

- not to be profaned, defiled
- sacrosanct
- not to be violated and broken

Let's take a brief look at the words that describe disrespectful behavior toward Life:

profane:

- to treat (something sacred) with irreverence or abuse
- desecrate: to diver from a sacred to a common [vulgar - obscene (lust), indecent] use
- pollute

defile:

- to make foul or dirty
- corrupt the purity of
- violate the chastity of break:

- to destroy the order
- to reduce in spirit or health, as by toil
- to make bankrupt or short of money
- to part the surface of; pierce or wound: to break ground
- to change from one quality of tone to another [as in Love to fear] violate:

- to break or infringe
- to treat irreverently
- profane
- to do violence to
- to treat roughly [violent action, brutal]; abuse
- to ravish; rape

Inviolable - part 3

081012

Holding Life as inviolable conveys the knowledge that Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature are of Divine Origin and therefore sacred and holy. It conveys the knowledge that Life is Pure and of great "spiritual and moral worth" and that Life is entitled by its very Nature to Respect.

Additionally, this concept also conveys the understanding that to be Respectful by holding Life as inviolable is:

- not being abusive
- not diverting Life to obscene, lustful, indecent behavior
- not polluting and contaminating
- not corrupting the purity and innocence
- not being offensive and evil in principle and practice
- not being mischievous or causing trouble, petty vexation, disturbance, or irritation under the pretense of playful conduct
- not being noxious or causing "injury to health or morals"
- not destroying, injuring, killing, or hurting
- not altering the True Natural Order of Life as established by Creator (not to be confused with what the unrighteous / unholy have taught us or turned things into)
- not toiling, laboring, and working hard or causing such unto others
- not being weak of spirit and health or causing such weakness unto others
- not taking money and resources, not bankrupting, not shorting, not living in poverty
- not breaking ground or digging into the Earth
- not changing the natural harmonic music of Life into disruptive noise

I don't know about you, but what I was taught as a child and had come to consider as "normal" and therefore "respectful" behavior was sure out of alignment...

To avoid intruding upon

081212

Let's now take a look at what it means to "intrude" so way may know what it is to be Respectful by "not intruding upon".

intrude:

- to thrust or force in
- to come in without leave or invitation thrust:

- to pierce or stab
- to put (a person) forcibly into some condition or situation
- a vigorous attack.

force:

- power or energy
- coercion
- the quality of anything that tends to produce an effect on the mind or will
- any moral, social, or political power or influence
- a body of individuals belonging to or comprising one of a nation's military, naval, or air divisions: the armed forces
- any body of individuals organized for some specific work or action: police force
- Law: binding effect: the force of a contract forced, forcing:

- to compel to do something
- to assault and capture
- to rape
- to stimulate the growth of artificially

Respect

attack

- to begin battle or conflict with
- to assail with hostile words; criticize; censure: hostile criticism; reprimand; condemn; blame

Putting it together

081412

As done before, let's put what we have learned together.

To not intrude upon is, among other things:

- to not harm or wound (self or others)
- to not pierce or damage (self or others)
- to not compel, assault, capture, or rape
- to not misuse power and energy
- to not alter the mind or will
- to not use coercion, moral / social / political power or influence, armed forces, police forces, or binding contracts
- to not engage in battle or conflict
- to not assail with hostile words (self or others)
- to not criticize (as in passing judgment), reprimand, condemn, or blame (self or others)
- to not stimulate artificial growth (for example, as is generated by genetic engineering, hormone altering products, cancer inducing products / pollution)
- to not trespass (body / mind / soul / spirit / personal space / Universal Law / Earth / Nature)

How much of the above behavior have we been taught to perceive as a normal and perhaps even desirable / necessary part of life?

In perspective

081612

Many years ago, Father explained to Linda and I how to establish a personal "buffer zone" of safety (see "if it quacks like a duck"). His instructions included the following Knowledge:

It is a simple matter to Discern.

*Is this matter / material of Source, or is it opposite / unlike All That Is?
When it is so, you of course Know,
as a matter of hand, its origin.*

Anything unlike Source belongs not in your mind or unto you.

This simple tool of Discernment can be very effectively used together with what we have been learning about Respect to establish the origin of what we experience. Does this Respect Life or does it violate and intrude upon it? Is this of Source or opposite / unlike All That Is? What would the answer be if you were to apply this test of Discernment to:

- friends
- family members
- society
- school system
- government
- armed forces / police
- current business model
- current monetary system
- religion
- sports

-
- entertainment
 - science
 - conventional farming / agriculture
 - conventional medicine
 - current legal system
 - your perception of how life should be
 - what you were taught is right and wrong
 - your daily conduct toward Self
 - your daily conduct toward others

Now you know...

To recount

081812

The false witness of Respect, namely little "r" respect or the false teaching purveyed by the unrighteous - unholy, would have us believe that Respect is shown by yielding or submitting to another's will / beliefs and by holding a sense of admiration or worship attitude toward a "superior" person / entity.

This false witness of Respect is based on inequality or unequal standing between the parties where the "inferior" bows to the wishes of the "superior" and the "superior" is justified thus in violating and intruding against those deemed "inferior" or undeserving of respect.

However, as we have uncovered, a more Proper understanding of capital "R" Respect for / of Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature conveys knowledge of the sacred and holy nature of Life, Life's entitlement to Respect, and Life's inherent great spiritual and moral worth. In this exploration it was also uncovered that to be Respectful is to act in a manner that does not profane, defile, violate or break the holy and sacred nature of that which was Created by Creator or All That Is.

Capital "R" Respect is based on equality or equal standing.

As Father once Said:

*It is neither a small matter,
nor a great matter.
It is just matter.*

One step further

082012

So we know that Respect entails recognizing the sacred and holy nature of Life. We know that it entails behaving in such a manner that supports and facilitates this inherent Truth. We recognized that Respect is based on an equal standing within Creation and that therefore, there is no superior nor inferior, no oppressor nor oppressed, no predator nor consumer. Just equal to equal or as Father has Said a few times here and there "mano a mano" (hand to hand). I have also gone as far as saying that capital "R" Respect is a most basic principle of Universal Law if not an Universal Law itself.

If one were to fully and completely understand the implications of the basic principle of Respect, it would bring a total and complete change in one's perspective of Life. But before I attempt to give a few hints in this regard, I would like to dedicate some time to defining Respectful behavior in terms of what it is (so far we mostly have long lists of what not to do).

While I thought this would be an easy task, I quickly realized that was not the case. As Linda noted when I began reading her the definitions of selected words and I'm paraphrasing here: "there is a lot of misdirection into conveying the notion that Respectful behavior is dependent upon dressing nicely, speaking nicely, and being beautiful. This is not what Respect is about".

So, as Linda suggested, rather than getting diverted writing volumes about the deception, I will just focus on what brings us closer to a Truer understanding of Respect.

Ending vulnerability

082212

Recently, Father explained to Linda that in addition to leaning (or making someone else more important than Self), there are three kinds of behaviors that make us vulnerable to the unrighteous - unholy. These behaviors are:

- attack
- defense
- imposing one's will on someone else

These three actions actually summarize very nicely all the behaviors identified as being part of violating and intruding upon someone or in other words, being dis-Respectful of Life.

This is a key understanding: being dis-Respectful makes People vulnerable to the unrighteous - unholy. ²

Concurrently, being Respectful makes the unrighteous - unholy null and void for it ends People's participation in the deception.

² Note though, that this is not to say that the reason People fell prey to the unrighteous - unholy in the first place was because People were dis-Respectful toward them.

Clearing some confusion

082412

In seeking to identify how to end my vulnerability to the unrighteous - unholy, I realized there was plenty of room for confusion in me. Why? Because I was trying to find the answer by determining what is the opposite behavior of attacking, defending, and imposing.

If I'm to stop attacking, does that mean then I need to surrender to the unrighteous - unholy or befriend them? No. Does that mean I just run away and hide from them? No. Does that mean I support them? No.

If I'm to stop defending (myself or others), does that then mean I let them prevail against me? No. Does it mean I need to yield and submit to them? No. Does that mean I need to resign myself? No. Does it mean that I need to abandon mySelf and let them take over? No. Does that mean I need to become the attacker? No.

If I'm to stop imposing my will on others, does that mean I need to ignore another's transgression? No. Does that mean that I have to condone another's behaviors? No. Does that mean I have to excuse another's behavior? No. Does that mean I have to support another's choices? No.

So what does it mean?

What does it mean?

082612

So what does it mean to stop attacking, defending, and imposing our will upon others?

It means that we stand in Truth and affirm this Truth. Truth of who we are, Truth of Creation, Truth of the Father, Truth of Universal Law. It means that we act to the best of our ability based on this KNowledge. We look neither to the left nor to the right, but rather straight ahead.

It also means that we clear our table from all the emotions and distortions that would justify attack, defense, and imposing, so we may welcome Truth of our True Nature and therefore Respect.

For example, fear, anger, abhorrence, loathing, pain, revenge, vengeance, "honor", competition, parasites, mold, malnourishment, toxicity, and the perception someone needs to be defeated for us to "win / be safe", all incite or justify attack.

Fear, malnourishment, frailty, toxicity, sense of disconnection / separation from Self and Father, parasites, mold, perception that we are vulnerable and mortal, the notion that the unrighteous - unholy can do whatever they want, and the belief that someone else can injure / harm / kill us at will, all justify or incite the need for defense.

The idea that we know better than Creator, that we can't Trust in the Father, that it is our responsibility to tell others what to do (if Father doesn't then we must), and that without government / control / education / religion we would be savages or self destruct, all incite or justify imposing our will upon others. Lust and greed, parasites, mold, hunger, the need for control, the need to be right and save others, dependence on others, the current economic models, the perception that we need to be productive and active, and the need for money, love, and approval also incite and justify imposing our will on others.

All this stuff interferes with our capacity to be Respectful because it clouds our Vision and no longer lets us see Truth. Clearing the table makes it possible for Respect to become, once again, a natural way of Life.

A precious Gift

083012

Now that we have a better idea of some of the things that interfere with our Vision, let's take a look at what supports our capacity to Live in Truth.

When it comes to Respect, we already know that:

- Respect is to recognize the sacred and holy nature of Life
- Respect conveys the knowledge that Life is Pure and of great "spiritual and moral worth"
- Respect is based on an equal standing within Creation
- Life is entitled by its very Nature to Respect

From the dictionary definition, we also know that Respect is to treat with propriety and consideration. Let's explore this.

propriety:

- the character or quality of being proper

Proper:

- specially suited or adapted for some end

The first thing to recognize is that being Respectful is a quality that is specially suited and adapted for supporting our own capacity to Live in Truth.

Proper:

- naturally belonging to a particular person

Also noteworthy is the fact that to be Respectful or to treat with propriety (whether Self or other) is a behavior or way of Life that is natural. It is a way of Life that belongs to us.

Could it be perhaps said that... Respect is a precious Gift, the value of which we would be wise to once again awaken to?

There is more

090112

The definition of the word Proper also provides some insight into the qualities of a Respectful person and therefore Respectful behavior. Said differently, it provides insight into the qualities that allow our Vision and capacity to Live in Truth to function correctly.

Proper:

- modest modest:

- pure in speech, manner, dress, etc.
- having an unexaggerated regard for oneself or one's abilities

The exploration of the word "pure" was already undertaken in the "Mystical and Magical" Series, specifically in the entry titled "Pure-Pose" ³ Here is its definition:

Pure:

- free from mixture or contact with that which weakens, impairs, or pollutes
- containing no foreign or vitiating material
- free from moral defilement
- Syn. Pure suggests the absence of any element felt to be alien or nonessential

From this it can be concluded that that which weakens, impairs, pollutes, defiles, or, said differently, that which is vitiating, foreign, and alien, all interfere with our capacity to be Respectful. In other words, we cannot be Respectful and hold on to the very way of life that is designed to destroy the very capacity to be Respectful.

³ Published on March 17, 2010 and available in BlueStarBlog Book 1.

This is one of the reasons many Europeans who fled Europe in search for freedom in the Americas have failed. Rather than changing their focus and leaving the deception behind, they brought with them the very way of life that was imposed on them to destroy them. In this, they facilitated the destruction and enslavement of the native People.

We have got to break the curse put upon on us by the unrighteous - unholy.

If we are to succeed in restoring ourselves to a way of Life that is Respectful, we must of a necessity recognize the deception for what it is, turn away from it, and re-focus on Truth. It is this re-alignment that restores the Gift of Respect to its Right and Proper Function.

The capacity to be Respectful is facilitated by that which strengthens us, heals us, cleanses us, improves us, supports our True Nature as sacred and holy, and returns us to a natural way of Life. This shift in perception includes letting go of the false perception that being "civilized and educated" in the way of the unrighteous - unholy somehow makes us superior to "those" who embrace their native / aboriginal nature. Contrary to popular scientific doctrine, the answer to our problems cannot ever be ascertained within our "gray matter".

A few quick notes

090312

After hearing my last entry, Linda recognized that just because someone puts a curse on a person, this person does not have to accept the curse. When one does not accept the curse, there is no contract and it cannot enter into effect. Had Adam and Eve recognized this, they would have turned their back to this "god" that cursed them, return their focus to Father, and move on with life in paradise.

It is indeed a mistake to assume that just because someone curses us, we have no other choice than to allow it to become binding upon us, just as Adam and Eve did.

More notes

090512

In a recent conversation, Linda and I realized that Respect should not be confused with Trust. While Respect does not have to be earned, Trust has.

Just because one is Respected, does not mean one should be Trusted.

A good day

090912

Fortunately, there is more to be learned from the definitions of "Proper" as it pertains to our exploration of what it means to be Respectful and act with Respect. KNowing this, facilitates not only recognizing what supports our Vision and capacity to Live in Truth, but also our Injoyment of Creation.

As always, all dictionary quotes are for educational purposes only.

Proper

- good, excellent, pleasant

Good:

- virtuous
- righteous
- genuine

Lots of loaded words, so let's take a look at them.

The word "virtue" is perhaps best defined by the word "rectitude" which conveys a Love of that which is Right and a conscious Desire to live by this.

The word "righteous" has its origin in two words: right + wise

That is to say, to be Respectful is to do what is Right in a Wise manner.

The word "wise" speaks of sound judgment, practical knowledge, mystery, and the capacity to clearly see what is right and just.

Right:

- conformable to truth or fact
- most desirable or preferable; also fortunate
- sound in mind or body
- healthy, well

I have to admit it never ceases to amaze me how much information is available by following such simple steps as revealed to Linda and recorded in her Ph. D. dissertation Dreams and Days: Diamonds of your Desire.

Through the definition of the word "right" we are being shown several things.

- First, that to know what is Right one must first know Truth. It is the Knowledge and experience of Universal Truth, not the false witness within the deception, that allows us to know what is Right action.
- Second, being able to do what is Right requires a sound and healthy mind, body, (and Soul I would add).
- Third, one who succeeds in doing what is Right is actually considered to be a fortunate individual. To be fortunate is to have good fortune. To have good fortune is not only to be favored but also prosperous. We speak of True Wealth.

Respect is actually a most Desirable thing.

The word "genuine" comes from the word "innate", which is to say, Respect and all the qualities associated with Respect are an inherent part of People's nature ⁴.

genuine:

- authentic; real
- not adulterated or counterfeit
- not affected or hypocritical
- frank; sincere

⁴ Vaccination of newborns is designed to interfere with this.

Respect

sincere: [without + decay]

frank:

- completely honest
- free
- to obtain immunity for

One cannot be Respectful when one seeks to become someone or something else. That is to say, People who reject their True Nature and "aboriginal / barbarian ancestry and way of life" become deceivers and pretenders. Yes, perhaps the unrighteous - unholy are more sophisticated than we are, perhaps they are more technologically advanced than we are, perhaps they are even more knowledgeable than we are. Yet, their way is NOT our way, and the moment we seek to become like them or identify ourselves with them, we transgress against ourSelves. In so doing we loose sight of Universal Truth and we loose our immunity to them and therefore our Freedom. Adulterated, affected, and counterfeited, all we can do is see ourselves decay with every passing year until our impoverished and ransacked body and mind can no longer sustain life.

I don't know about you, but I think that today is a good day to end little "p" playing in the deception and begin capital "P" Playing in Universal Truth unto a Different Way.

As Mister is so fond of reminding me:

"A Different Way is a Better Way"

Movie time

091112

Many People have a lot of (programmed) attachment to the need to be superior to their "primitive" nature or ancestral origins and way of life ⁵. Schooling and society in general make sure to inculcate such thinking and need to distance ourselves from our "roots". For after all, we are told, that is where the "root of all evil resides" and it is only "culture and education" that allows us to "rise" above it.

The movie "ThunderHeart" with Val Kilmer and Graham Greene is a fun way to take a look at this.

⁵ Note that even "whites" descent from aboriginals and "barbarians" that lived of one a-chord with the Earth.

Humanity

091312

Now that we know what else it means to be Respectful as uncovered by the word "good", let's take a look at another word, namely "excellent".

excellent:

- the very best quality
- exceptionally good quality:

- that which makes something such as it is
- distinguishing element or characteristic
- the basic or essential character, nature, etc, of something

That is to say, Respect is the very best distinguishing characteristic that establishes our essential character and nature. This is an exceptionally good thing.

Many People have pondered, debated, and theorized what makes humans "human". Well, based on this exploration, I would say what makes humans "human" is the inherent and natural gift of Respect bestowed upon us by All That Is. It is that simple.

Contrary to common doctrine, the word inhuman is not descriptive of animals, but rather of those who are dis-respectful. It is descriptive of those who willingly and purposefully inflict pain, hardship, and mental suffering on others (or self) and those who enjoy seeing others (or self) suffer whether for entertainment, pleasure, or profit.

Perhaps the most important point about this entry is to recognize that to be Respectful includes the ability to welcome and accept not only our own humanity, but that of other living beings as well.

What's music got to do with it...?

091512

Apparently quite some important part. It turns out that "quality" is also a reference to the timbre of a voice or musical instrument.

Timbre is tone and tone is sound. Whose sound you may ask?

Your sound. My sound. The sound of Creation. The music that we are. As Linda says "the music, the melody, the rhapsody we are".

A way of...

091712

In contemplating the relation between Respect and our own sound or Feeling Tone, it follows that because each person's Feeling Tone is unique to that person, the Gift of Respect is also expressed and experienced uniquely by each individual.

The Gift of Respect is part of experiencing who we are. That is to say, Respect is not an intellectual pursuit founded on the overcoming or suppression of "our dark side" or on false pretense. Instead, Respect is a "hands on" experience of our True Nature.

Respect is a way of Life, a way of Living, a way of Being.

Key understanding

091912

A Gift... the sound of our very own Being... a way of Life... a way of Being... a most excellent and desirable thing... what am I referring to? Respect of course. But this is not all, there is more to understand...

There is another word that defines "Proper" and therefore "Respect", namely the word "pleasant".

pleasant:

- merry
- welcome

The word "welcome" is defined as "producing satisfaction", "made free to use or enjoy", and being "under no obligation". That is to say, the Gift of Respect is / has been freely given to us by All That Is for our enjoyment and satisfaction. Acceptance and enjoyment of this Gift does not create any kind of obligations or binding contracts. No tricks, no traps, no bondage, no subservience to All That Is.

This is a key understanding and recognition, for it is common misperception that if we were to align or harmonize with the Divine, we would somehow lose our individuality and become some kind of subservient borgs.

satisfaction: see satisfy satisfy:

- to supply fully with what is desired, expected, or needed
- cause to have enough

Respect

Isn't that interesting? It is in being Respectful that we find our capacity to Live in Abundance fully met. Respect and True Wealth go hand in hand. One cannot receive Abundance without being Respectful and experiencing the merriment that such way of Life brings.

A distinction

092112

One thing to keep in mind when speaking of the relationship between Respect and Abundance is that we speak of inner Wealth. This inner Wealth then translates into external Abundance.

This is different than worldly opulence derived from the mercantile game. In this system there is no inner wealth, but, as we have explored previously, only increasing levels of inner famine. This inner famine is then represented by the ever increasing consumption, destruction, and pilfering of the external environment.

This is a key distinction.

When we reawaken and learn to live once again in the True Knowledge of inner Wealth, the unrighteous - unholy will no longer be able to consume, destroy, or pilfer our internal / external environment. They can't take away what we don't give away... and this includes our Life.

Pertinent Quote

092312

Here is a quote from Linda which I think is pertinent to this series.

"In reference to Father Saying that, rather than contaminated, the whole planet is radioactively polluted.

Contaminated:

- make impure
- to touch together

polluted:

- make unclean, corrupt, profane
- make dirty, impure, worthless

The beginning of this process is contamination: partially or temporarily unsafe. The end result of the process is polluted: impure because of foreign substances.

Polluere:

- to defile

Defile:

- malicious or thoughtless dirtying or profaning of that which should be pure, clean, and held in reverence.

Very clearly I believe that in the majority of cases the willful defiling of the planet, the polluting with radiation, is done intentionally by the unrighteous – unholy and those who serve them in their quest for greed (or lust). It is done unintentionally by the People who want food, warmth, and security for their family.

Profane:

- to treat something sacred with irreverence or abuse; desecrate; pollute
- to put to an unworthy or degrading use; debase
- irreverence, disrespect toward sacred things
- not initiated into the inner mysteries
- before or outside the temple, hence unsacred

Clearly if we had not lost our sense of the mystery and the sacredness of what is mystical and magical in the experience of coming to this planet, we would still recognize the sacredness of ourselves, the planet, and our being here (being: pun may be intended).

The radiation - pollution of this planet is by willful and malicious intent of the unrighteous – unholy and by the deception and ignorance of the People who live in deception.

Malicious:

- malice

malice:

- an intention or desire to injure another
- ill will, spite
- willfully formed, designed to do another injury
- syn: malevolent, malign, malignant
- the intention to produce or inflict evil malevolent:

- has a more sinister connotation

malign:

- having an evil disposition toward others

malignant:

- tending to do great harm
- having an evil disposition toward others

What we see here is one of the utmost evil (evil seems to be an insufficient word) implementations of destruction of the planet and her People. There is no mistake. There is no negligence. There is no kindness or goodness in this blatant and wanton disrespect of Life – all in the name of power / energy thievery.

Amazingly the indigenous People of this country are surviving on some of the most decimated lands and drinking waters in the area of South Dakota. Amazingly also, People are surviving in one of the areas indicated by a major unrighteous – unholy facility, called Los Alamos, to be radioactively polluted at one of the highest levels in this land.

When do the People wake up and recognize they can in fact turn away from what is unrighteous – unholy and turn toward the Father? Toward the restoration of the sacredness of this planet with balanced temperatures which require no heating or cooling and the new plant and animal life that will be forthcoming. This is a very real possibility awaiting our choice.

This choice is made by shifting to the awareness and commitment that will allow the restoration of balance, purity, and sacredness of this planet and us the People.

I have heard someone who has claimed to have once served the unrighteous – unholy (whose service, by his own word, can never be left) claim that it is possible to process the radioactive materials from the nuclear facilities to render them minimally harmful as we would close all nuclear facilities on this planet. This process might entail some hardship and difficulty, some redistribution, and population reduction through voluntary birth reduction. However, it is a choice we can make as a People indigenous to this planet.”

Important note

092712

In exploring the word "welcome" in relationship to Respect, it was uncovered that the Gift of Respect is / has been freely given to us by All That Is for our enjoyment and satisfaction. No tricks, no traps, no bondage, no subservience to All That Is.

The three definitions of the word "welcome" that brought this to the Light were:

- producing satisfaction
- made free to use or enjoy
- under no obligation

Indoctrination would make it easy to assume, that to be Respectful toward others also means one must take responsibility to meet their needs, desires, and expectations, while allowing them free access to use our "stuff". Not so. This is incorrect logic introduced by the unrighteous - unholy to make us think that unless we satisfy their needs and desires and give them free access to our "stuff", we are being disrespectful toward them and in transgression of Universal Law. Not so.

It is not our responsibility to satisfy others nor to freely give them what is Rightfully ours.

To welcome someone is perhaps best described as cordially receiving a person or, said differently, receiving a person with "sincerity of feeling". That is to say, Respect allows one to welcome someone by saying "I do not play. Get thee away. Get thee away ends your play." Honesty is all that is required. This is not about a "holier than thou" attitude, but rather about a "common ground" issue.

Being Respectful does not place anyone under any kind of obligation to put up with unrighteous - unholy activity or entities / purveyors.

Another word

092912

We have come a long way in our understanding of Respect and while it may seem there cannot possibly be any more to say about it, there is indeed more.

From the entry "Key understanding" we know that the word "pleasant" as it relates to Respect can be defined by two words. One is "welcome" which we have already explored and the other is "merry".

merry:

- full of mirth and laughter
- joyous

A while ago we unveiled the connection between Respect and Inner Wealth. Today, we are unveiling the relationship between Respect and Joy.

We speak of inner Joy, the Joy of Being which surfaces and expresses Naturally in a person when Living Harmoniously with Creation. This is non dependent on another. This is to say, lack of Joy is not an indication that we haven't met the right person or we don't have the right friends, but rather, that we have walked away from a Respectful Life - we are no longer being True to OurSelf.

To re-awaken to the Gift of Respect is to reawaken to the Joy of Being Alive. Is it then any wonder that Respect is described as a most Desirable experience?

Notes, notes, and more notes

100112

Again, indoctrination would make it easy to take what we have learned about Joy and Respect and make a false assumption. Which one? The one that would say because Respect and Joy are related, it follows that to be Respectful one needs to take responsibility for making others laugh and be happy. This is of course not so.

Each person is responsible for their own Joy and Respect respects this (pun intended).

Having said this, it is worth noting that walking in Respect creates an inner condition which allows Father's Presence to be actively Present. Father's Presence then facilitates others getting in touch with their own Divine Nature and therefore inner Joy.

Three things to keep in mind about this are:

1. one who desires Respect out of a need to please or help others misses the point. The choice to live Respectfully is born out of a "Love of that which is Right and a conscious Desire to live by this." This choice is not made for others or because of others. This choice is made for and because of Self.
2. worldly conditioning would have a person who experiences Father's Presence not recognize the True Source of their experience. This causes them to make the mistake of attaching that experience to either an external event or another person. Thus, the utmost care must be taken by someone who chooses to walk in Respect to remain unsympathetic to this.
3. similarly to the second point, worldly conditioning would have a person who experiences Father's Presence because of someone who walks in Respect mistakenly attach that experience to the person rather than recognizing the True Source of their experience. This again necessitates that someone who chooses to walk in Respect diligently remains unsympathetic to this.

Respect is, of course, the key here.

Our Humanity

100312

The word "Proper" as it pertains to "Respect" has one more definition that I would like to point out and explore.

Proper:

- honest

Respect and Honesty go hand in hand. Someone who is not honest does not understand the foundation of Respect and therefore misses the point of what it is to be Respectful. This may be a tough one to understand for many People, since so many of us have been raised to believe not only that we can get away with being dishonest, but also that it is a necessary acumen of everyday life... ever heard of "white lies"?

honest:

- not given to lying, cheating, stealing
- acting honorably (keen sense of what is right) and justly (upright)
- trustworthy
- not characterized by falsehood or intent to mislead
- truthful

When Father Says "Divine Answers Respect all living things", He Conveys among other things (as I understand it now) that the Divine does not lie, cheat, steal, nor mislead. Instead, the Divine has a keen sense of what is Right and Just and acts accordingly. He also Conveys that the Divine can be Trusted for it is based on (Universal) Truth. When one makes the choice to reawaken to his / her Divine Nature, of a necessity one must come to terms with recognizing the value of Honesty and the fact that anything unlike it is NOT of Divine Origin and therefore does NOT belong in one's Life.

Respect

The willingness to see and speak Truth and therefore be Trust-Worthy, the willingness to do what is Right and Just and therefore not lie, mislead, cheat, or steal, are a natural expression of our Humanity.

To behave in any other way than this is to have lost sight of our Humanity.

There is more to learn

100512

In the entry "A precious Gift", I began exploration of what it means to be Respectful by taking a look at the dictionary definition which defines Respect as "to treat with propriety and consideration". Having extensively explored the meaning of propriety, let's take a look at what can be ascertained from the word "consideration".

Again first and foremost we learn to be Respectful toward Self. This then facilitates being Respectful toward others.

Consideration:

- careful thought

Careful is perhaps best understood as "watchful of one's thoughts or actions" and "cautious".

That is to say Respect requires a certain awareness that allows us to monitor what is happening and what we are doing throughout the day to ensure that what we do and think is of one a-chord with our daily choice (see First Breath).

<http://bluestarway.com/bluestarblog/index.php?post/2012/08/30/A-precious-Gift>

<http://bluestarway.com/bluestarblog/index.php?post/2010/04/07/First-Breath>

Ending automation

101112

watchful

- wakeful: alert: lively and bright

Being aware of where we are throughout the day does not make us "boring" and "dull". Instead, it facilitates our capacity to wake up. Yes, it does take effort, and yes, it may appear at times that one loses "spontaneity" in the process. However Proper consideration will allow one to recognize that it is not Self who loses "spontaneity". How so? Because it is possible for one to realize in this process that the impulses and desires one was acting upon prior to becoming "watchful", were never really initiated by Self, but rather by unrighteous - unholy manipulation of one's senses and experiences.

Spontaneous:

- done or resulting from one's own impulse, prompting, or desire

In Truth, it is by regaining one's capacity to act upon one's own Desire that one regains True spontaneity.

Thus it can be said that being Respectful allows one to stop being an "automaton" suffering from the self-delusion of free will or freedom ⁶.

⁶ An apparatus that appears to function of itself by the action of a concealed mechanism.

Let the Light shine

101312

bright:

- full of light
- splendid
- full of gladness or hope
- auspicious
- clear and translucent

To treat ourselves with consideration is also to conduct ourselves in such a way that allows our inner Light to shine and fill our Being. It is to conduct ourselves in a way that favors manifestation of Father's Good Will for us and therefore brings prosperity, gladness, and hope to our lives. It is to have Clarity of Vision and to be free of impurity or anything that dims or darkens our perception and expression.

Ending the spell

101512 lively:

- keen

keen:

- able to cut or penetrate readily
- mental acuteness
- refined perception

Here we seem to have reached a contradiction. If, as we have seen earlier, Respect entails not harming or wounding, how can it be said that it also entails cutting and penetrating? Simple. We speak of different things.

To not harm and wound is in relationship to Life.

To cut and penetrate is in relationship to the cloud of deception. That is to say, Respect requires we develop the mental discernment and refined perception that allows us to quickly and readily cut, penetrate, or see through the deception and end our play. In other words, Respect makes it possible to "cut through the bull".

A good way to do this is to paraphrase what is being put upon us.

Sometimes what the unrighteous - unholy would compel us to do is so despicable and unspeakable that one may feel lots of shame about it. "How can I possibly be wanting to do that?", one will ask in dismay. Yet if one would simply put this compelling action into words, one will find the spell broken. "Oh, it's not me, thank You Father for Restoring me to Truth and being none to this deception." The resistance is over.

This also works with people. If you are in a conversation with someone and that person makes some unrighteous - unholy statement, then, if applicable, you can take what that person said and paraphrase it back in the form of a question. "Are you saying that?" "Did I hear you say...?" If they respond with a "no", then ask "what is it that you really want to say?" If they respond with a "yes" then carefully evaluate your situation and take Proper action to ensure you don't play.

Ending the spell - continued

101712

There is another way in which it is Right and Proper to be able to "cut through the bull" so to speak. It is in relation to improper relationships and connections to others.

Early in our journey, Father explained the following as a necessary condition to progress in our Walk with Him:

You must sever your endearment to those who would bind your process to theirs.

Even though we did not understand it at that time, Father was Giving us foundational KNowledge that would facilitate our capacity to walk in Respect.

Sever:

- to cut
- to break off; dissolve, as a relationship or tie

Endear:

- to make dear or beloved
- to make higher in price

bind:

- to tie or fasten with a band or chord
- to constrain or obligate, as by moral authority
- to subject to a definite legal obligation
- to constipate
- to make stiff or hard

The reference to constipation and stiffening / hardening (as in arthritis and hardening of arteries) is probably an indication of the side effects that endearing oneself to another causes. After all, it is through these improper connections that we are literally sucked dry by others.

To reawaken to Respect allows us to cut through the cloud / spell of deception that has given us the false romantic notion that it is not only desirable but perhaps even our duty to allow ourselves to become bonded and subservient to those who actively seek our destruction while pretending to have only "our best interest at heart".

Leisure time

101912

There is yet some more to be learned about Respect from our exploration of the word "consideration". Let's take a look at another definition of this word.

Consideration:

- deliberation

deliberation:

- slow and cautious in determining or deciding
- unhurried

To walk in Respect is to allow ourselves the needed time to make a Proper decision, rather than acting on impulse. This is not to be confused with procrastination or deliberately delaying / using it as an excuse to interfere.

unhurried:

- leisurely

leisurely

- free from exertion or pressure

Giving ourselves the time to make a Proper decision provides a buffer against urgent demands and oppressive influences. We don't respond based on the "latest fire" but rather based on what is Right Action and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will.

leisure

- freedom from the demands of work or duty

duty:

- that which one is morally or legally bound to do
- that which is owed or due

To walk in Respect includes also the capacity to free ourselves from the constraints of worldly demands, by recognizing that we have no allegiance to the unrighteous - unholy and any of their machinations to entrap us. Whether it be work related, duty related, family related, religious related, civic related, charity related, and so on, it matters not. We have no allegiance to them. As Father has Said:

*It matters not what others may say or think.
It matters always only That Which Is
Divinely Appointed each day.*

We are HUMANS and therefore HUMANE.

Humane:

- BENEVOLENT: marked by good will

It is a mistake to think that we must leave our humanity behind the moment we step out of bed so as to become whatever is expected of us by family, friends, religion, work, and duty. We did not come to Earth to be "great pretenders".

Respect facilitates expression of our HUMANE Nature.

Another quote

102112

Here is a pertinent quote from Father:

You seek too hard (too intensely) to be that which you are not.

Be that which you are.

*While worldly endeavor ensnares you not,
you are radically free and available to be that which you are.*

*It matters not what others may say or think.
It matters always only That Which Is Divinely Appointed each day.*

It is so.

Go Now in Peace.

To be...

102312

The word "consideration" has more in store for us. Actually, way more...

Consideration:

- thoughtful or kindly feeling or treatment kind:

- goodhearted
- benign
- in accordance with nature, natural, appropriate, lawful
- the distinguishing nature or character of something
- the ordained and proper course of things

Here again we have confirmation that being Respectful and therefore goodhearted and benign is natural, lawful, and of one a-chord with Nature / Creation. It is the way Creation was set out to be.

As Father Said:

Be that which you are.

One thing to recognize

102512

Here is another quote from Father which helps bring a clearer perspective as to how to approach awakening to our True Nature.

So it is in your standard structure, that you shall see that which is Grand and Glorious come to be when you seek not perfection of a Divine Nature.

Seek instead manifestation of that which is but already Divine.

In spite of church doctrine, we are not sinful, worthless, degraded, deteriorated beings trying to become Divine.

We are reawakening to that which we already Are.

Some literary fun

102712

I mentioned earlier that the word "consideration" has "way more" in store for us... are you ready for the ride?

benign:

- gentle

gentle [Doublet of genteel, gentile]:

- noble

Noble:

- having or indicative of excellence or dignity
- characterized by or displaying superior moral qualities
- of or pertaining to the nobility nobility:

- a class in society composed of persons having hereditary title, rank, and privileges

Because Respect is a natural expression of who we are, and to be Respectful is to be benign, and to be benign is to be gentle, and to be gentle is to be noble, then it follows that us the People, yes, the everyday People, are the True Nobility of this Earth.

When the unrighteous - unholy and their purveyors separated themselves from their True Nature by rejecting to be Respectful of Life, they abdicated all their privileges, titles, and rank that would have otherwise been bestowed upon them by Creator (assuming they ever had any). They chose to become the underclass - which is why they depend on thievery and deception to stay alive.

Respect

It is a mistake for us the People, the True Nobility of this Earth, to be in the service, oppression, and "leadership" of the underclass of Creation.

It is indeed a mistake for us the People to think that becoming like them makes us superior in any way.

Matter of Kings

102912

The understanding that us every day People are the True Nobility of this Earth gives perhaps a greater meaning / appreciation to these words from Father:

The Kingdom is your Desire for Heaven made manifest.

Heaven of your Desire is Right and Proper Function of your Divine Expression in a Kingly, Right and Proper, straightforward manner.

Have dignity?

103112

Recently we learned that Respect conveys the understanding of being benign. We also learned that benign conveys the understanding of gentleness and therefore uncovers the Nobility of us, the People.

To be Noble is to have excellence or dignity.

dignity:

- serenity of demeanor
- the state or quality of being excellent, worthy, honorable

From this simple definition, it can be observed that a society and way of life that is designed to destroy the serenity of People, Nature, and Earth, is a system designed to destroy their dignity and interfere with their capacity to be excellent, honorable, and to recognize their True worth.

serenity:

- peacefulness
- repose

Peace:

- freedom from mental agitation or anxiety
- in a state or condition of order and harmony

Repose:

- that which conduces to rest or calm

calm:

- not excited by passion or emotion passion: [< passus pp. of pati, to suffer]

suffer:

- pain or distress
- to be affected injuriously (abusively, lessening health, strength, value, beauty, etc.)
- to undergo punishment

Father has explained:

By Design, you are that which is merciful and delicate.

It is alien or foreign to your Nature to engage in, or obtain that which is heartless and deceitful by design.

It is a great distortion on a grander scale that humankind should come to this moment of desolation.

Want to stop the suffering in your life?

Want to return to a state of serenity?

Want to find your dignity again?

Perhaps you should leave the ways of the unrighteous – unholy behind and take a look at Respect...

A note about Peace

110612

In exploring the meaning of the word "dignity", we came across the definition of "serenity" and "peace". I thought it important, at least for myself, to make a separate entry just to clearly point out the additional understanding that I received in relationship to Peace and therefore Respect.

Up until now, I have always presumed that Peace is simply the absence of war. Where there is no war there is Peace. However, thanks to my last entry, I can see how incorrect this presumption has been.

Peace:

- a state of mental or physical quiet
- freedom from mental agitation or anxiety
- a state or condition of order and harmony

This is to say, for Peace to exist there needs to be not only a lack of war, but also freedom from mental agitation, anxiety, disorder, and disharmony. Said differently, a society that does not support a way of Life that allows People to have a state of physical and mental "quietness" is not a Peaceful society... even when not at war.

People who live in disharmony and therefore mental and physical anxiety do not know Peace.

But there is more to this.

Peace:

- calm

calm:

- not excited by passion or emotion

passion: [< passus pp. of pati, to suffer]

- intense sexual desire or lust
- an outburst of strong [emotion], especially of violence and anger

To know mental and physical quietness and therefore Harmony and Peace, one must not only learn to let go of violence and anger, but also of lust.

It is an incorrect assumption to think that Peace can exist in a society that engages, promotes, elicits, or solicits lust ⁷. Contrary to popular belief, "make love not war" does not lead to Peace, instead, it simply shifts how the aggression is expressed. Either way, suffering follows.

suffer:

- pain or distress
- to be affected injuriously (abusively, lessening health, strength, value, beauty, etc.)
- to undergo punishment

Just as violence and anger destroy People's well being, so too does lust. These are all facets of abusive behavior.

To walk in Respect and therefore know Peace and Harmony once again, one must not only be willing to let go of violence and anger, but also of the romantic perception that lust is harmless and desirable.

affected:

- acted upon as by a drug
- influenced
- attacked, as by disease
- diseased
- assumed falsely

⁷ Because greed is a variant of lust, the same thing can be said of a society that engages, promotes, elicits, or solicits greed.

Respect

Just as with anger and violence, lust is the result of an injurious attack that was perpetrated by the unrighteous - unholy against the People. It is literally a disease that influences People's perception as drugs do.

Lustful behavior is not the expression of the "morally liberated" but rather of the diseased. It has been a mistake for People to falsely assume that there is anything natural about lust.

What is one way to restore Peace and Harmony back to one's life? Ask Father to lift from you the disease / influence / drug that acts upon you and affects your perception. Ask Father to undo any damage caused by this injurious attack against you. Ask Father that any harm that may have come to yourself or others as a result of your participation in this deception be undone. Ask Father that you may KNow yourself once again as the True Loving, Respectful Human Being that you are.

One more aspect...

110812

There is one more aspect that I want to explore with regard to the word "consideration" and therefore "Respect".

From earlier entries we uncovered that "consideration" is "thoughtful or kindly feeling or treatment". In exploring the word "kind" we uncovered that this behavior is benign and therefore in accordance with natural law.

benign:

- gentle

gentle [Doublet of genteel, gentile]:

- noble

gentile:

- of or pertaining to a gens, tribe, or people
- of or pertaining to Gentiles

Consideration = Kind = Benign = Gentle = Gentile = Tribe / People = Noble = Lawful

Father has Said this about our Divine Nature:

...that which is by Divine Nature inherent in humankind, humans, is that which is Noble...

Isn't it interesting that following the tree of Respect brought us to this understanding?

One more aspect... continued

111012

Now, let's take a look at what we can learn from the word "Gentiles" as it relates to our Divine Nature ⁸.

Gentiles:

- see heathen

heathen:

- a member of a tribe or people that has not adopted Christianity, Judaism, or Islam
- an irreligious or uncultivated person

Ready to connect some dots?

Because Respect is a natural expression of who we are...

and...

because to be Respectful is to treat with consideration...

and...

because consideration is to feel or treat in a benign way...

and...

because what is benign is lawful and therefore in accordance with natural law

⁸ The Reader's Digest Great Encyclopedic Dictionary, which I have used extensively in my blog for educational purposes only, is still the one being used for this exploration.

and...

because what is benign is gentle

and...

because gentle is a doublet of Gentile which is a heathen

and...

because a heathen is one who is irreligious and uncultured then it follows that ...

it is the irreligious and / or uncultivated who are the gentle, benign, and Respectful People who live Life in accordance with their Divine Nature and therefore with natural law.

Said differently:

Because to be irreligious and / or uncultivated is in accordance with natural law, then it follows that religion and culture are not. It also follows that that religion and culture are not of a benign nature nor natural to Creation.

Of course, the unrighteous - unholy blame People's "animalistic nature" for the violence that religion and culture has brought to the Earth, but in reality, both religion and culture have been violently and forcefully introduced by the unrighteous - unholy to separate us from our True Nature and utilize us to desecrate each other, Nature, and the Earth all in the "name of god, progress, and / or culture" (pick your choice, makes no difference).

Father has Said to us many times, His Way is neither to the left, nor to the right. Neither in religion, nor in the world. Instead, His Way is straight ahead.

Respect

To reawaken to Respect is then to stop looking to the right or to the left for answers. It is to straighten our Walk and Life with the Father and return to that which is Natural, Lawful, and Noble.

Closure

111212

The exploration of the concept of Respect has been a most enlightening one, full of interesting surprises. It has certainly made it easier, at least for me, to have a fuller understanding of what it means to be Divine in Nature and how such Divinity is meant to be expressed and experienced.

You may recall that I started this exploration by identifying the false witness of respect. This false witness would have us believe that respect is about submitting and yielding to those perceived to be "superiors", "worthy", or "desirable" to be with (such as parents, "loved ones", and so on).

With this in mind, let's take a look at the word irreligious:

irreligious:

- lacking in religious faith or piety

piety: [doublet of pity]

- reverence toward god or the gods
- honor and obedience due to parents, superiors, etc

obedience:

- submission

pity:

- grief or pain awakened by the misfortune or sorrows of others

If to be irreligious is to lack in religious piety and piety is pity, then it follows that to be religious is to be full of the grief and pain that is awakened by the misfortune or sorrows of others.

Respect

Could it be that this causes the religious to unconsciously bring misfortune and sorrow unto others? After all, how could the religious be strong in religious pity if everyone is happy and fortunate?

Isn't it interesting that by looking at what it means to be irreligious we find the clue that lets us recognize more clearly why religion is unnatural and therefore unlawful?

Religion is all about submitting and yielding to someone perceived to be "superior" to us. Whether it is "god" who gets elevated to superior status, another person, or an institution, the mantra of religion is: "Thy will be done, not mine". This serves only the unrighteous – unholy who would like to turn the People into their "perfect slaves / servants".

As we have uncovered, this is not what Respect is about.

Father has never asked us to elevate Him into "godhood" nor demanded we set aside "our will" for His. Instead, Father has been Guiding us into reawakening to our True Divine Nature that we may recognize once again our True Desires and let go of the false witness that was put upon us by the unrighteous - unholy.

It is in this reawakening that one realizes that Father's Will for us happens to be just what our True Will for ourselves is. As it turns out, Respect facilitates this reawakening and realignment with our True Will.

Summary - Part 1

I thought it appropriate to make a summary of what we have uncovered regarding Respect.

little "r" respect – the improper way

The improper way of little "r" respect is plain and simple dis-Respectful behavior. Therefore, it is a transgression of Universal Law. It is that simple.

In other words, when one engages in the false witness of little "r" respect, no matter appearances to the contrary, one is really being dis-Respectful to himself and others while disregarding Universal Law.

Why is this so? Simple, because this false witness against the Good Will and Intent of All That Is disregards the Sacred and Holy nature of Life and produces a distorted perception of self-righteousness that justifies and condones the violation and intrusion against Life.

In this false testimony against Creation, Life is declared broken and unworthy of "respect" unless it is earned through worldly achievements that are meaningless and irrelevant to a person's Spiritual Journey and degrading / destructive to the Soul and environment.

This fraud against Creation purports the false presumption of inequality or unequal standing between the parties. It is a one way street, for in this distortion, the "superior" never "respects" the "inferior".

This fraud against Creation demands blind and submissive obedience of the "inferior" to the "superior" and requires of a necessity that the "inferior" set aside their very own views or wishes in favor of those of the "superior". This of course generates a sense of unworthiness, pain, hatred, envy, and / or helplessness, especially when done under fear of retaliation.

This fraud against Creation purveys the false witness the "superior" was given "divine" dominion over the "inferior", while at the same time negating the very existence of All That IS and branding Universal Law as either non existent or irrelevant to worldly affairs. Thus, it falsely conveys the mistaken perception, that this is the way things were created to be and that nothing can be done to change this, unless of course, the "inferior" resort to the same abusive behavior they are being subjected to and thus do unto others as it was done unto them.

This of course is only to the benefit of those who want to control and abuse.

Some key identifiers of dis-Respectful behaviors as identified from dictionary definitions are:

- it profanes, defiles, violates, brakes, desecrates, and intrudes
- its abusive and oppressive
- diverts Life to obscene, lustful, indecent behavior
- pollutes and contaminates
- corrupts the purity and innocence
- is offensive and evil in principle and practice
- includes mischievous actions or the causing of trouble, petty vexation, disturbance, or irritation under the pretense of playful / benevolent conduct
- is noxious or causes "injury to health or morals"
- destroys, injures, kills, or hurts
- alters the True Natural Order of Life as established by Creator (not to be confused with the "worldly order" the unrighteous / unholy have beaten us into)
- causes Life to toil, labor, and requires hard work
- produces weakness of spirit and health
- drains / consumes money and resources, bankrupts, and produces poverty
- breaks ground or digs (with irreverence) into the Earth
- changes the natural Harmonic music of Life into disruptive noise
- harms or wounds (self or others)
- pierces or damages (self or others – for example body piercing)
- compels, assaults, captures, or rapes
- misuses power and energy

-
- alters the mind or will (hunger, sickness, dehydration, manipulation, seduction, drugs, marketing, and so on)
 - uses coercion, moral / social / political power or influence, armed forces, police forces, or binding contracts
 - engages in battle or conflict
 - assails with hostile words (self or others)
 - criticizes (as in passing judgment), reprimands, condemns, or blames (self or others)
 - stimulates artificial growth (for example, as is generated by genetic engineering, hormone altering products, cancer inducing products / pollution)
 - trespasses (body / mind / soul / spirit / personal space / Universal Law / Earth / Nature)
 - interferes with Serenity, Peace, Harmony, Nourishment, Abundance, and Balance

Contrary to common doctrine, the word inhuman is not descriptive of animals, but rather of those who are dis-Respectful. It is descriptive of those who willingly and purposefully inflict pain, hardship, and mental suffering on others (or self) and those who enjoy seeing others (or self) suffer whether for entertainment, pleasure, profit, or any other excuse.

This fraud against Creation, which is designed to weaken, impair, degrade, pollute, defile, intrude, and so on is vitiating, foreign, and alien to us HUMANS. It is designed to interfere with our capacity to express our Divine Nature and Live a Peaceful, Harmonious Life enjoying the Blessings of Creation. From this it follows that we cannot hold on to the very way of life that is designed to destroy us and expect a change for the better.

Perhaps the most important understanding regarding this fraud is to realize that because it is a transgression against Universal Law and therefore illegal and unnatural, we don't have to put up with it nor participate in it. As Father has been teaching us, there is a way to do things differently.

Summary - Part 2

112112

Not putting up with dis-Respectful behavior should NOT be confused with rebellion, nor with attack, defense, or imposing our will on others. Father has explained to us that together with making someone else more important than Self, these behaviors make us vulnerable to the unrighteous – unholy. Why? Very simple. They all constitute a transgression of Universal Law. One cannot end dis-Respectful behavior by engaging in dis-Respectful behavior.

This is a key understanding worth repeating many times: transgressing against Universal Law to end transgression against Universal Law simply perpetuates transgression and keeps us vulnerable to the unrighteous – unholy who masterminded the deception.

So what is one way to do things differently?

We clear our table from all the emotions and distortions that would justify attack, defense, and imposing, so that we can clear our Vision and welcome a Different Way.

We stand strong in Universal Truth and affirm this Truth. Truth of who we are, Truth of Creation, Truth of the Father, Truth of Universal Law.

We act to the best of our ability based on this KNowledge. We look neither to the left nor to the right, but rather straight ahead. In so doing, we end our participation in the deception and no longer become an excuse for others to justify their little “p” play (in the deception).

Here is a quote from “A Simple Answer”:

Father has always, from the very beginning of our Journey in Pojoaque, asked us to choose a Different Way. Father has always Said we have the capacity. However, up to now all most of us could perceive was either the unrighteous / unholy armageddon or the cleansing of the Earth through Earth changes. Visions of a Different Way have been momentary and undefined. It is through "inordinate activity of [our] Heartfelt Desire", a Different Way becomes stronger and more likely. A Different Way is the Way [Mister] spoke of and Father has indicated is an Enlightened Peaceful state of Creative Earthly Expression.

On our BlueStarWay ⁹ home page, under "civil conflict" we Conveyed a Message from Father in which he described a Different Way.

"Father has proposed a different, immediate response to this potential plan of the unrighteous-unholy.

The Father has Said through "inordinate activity of your Heartfelt Desire", the Father's Plan will prevail upon this land. Were we the People to Desire the Father's Plan to prevail, the unrighteous-unholy will indeed pass away — not to the structures they have prepared for their survival, but indeed from this Earth.

As the People Pray and Desire for the Divine Plan to prevail, they must realize Father's Plan is one of Love, one of Peace, one of Abundance. As the unrighteous unholy pass away, through the Desire and Prayers of the People, all violence passes away with them. All death, decay, destruction passes away with them. What remains is a land that is fresh and pure / a new Earth / a new Heaven.

While it seems as though this is "way too simple" and that the only possibility of ending the unrighteous-unholy oppression is through violent measure, it is the Truth that "the Prayer of a Righteous Person availeth much". Violence has always failed the People. When many Righteous and Holy People Pray of one a-chord for the Divine Plan upon this land / this Earth, there must of one a-chord be a passing away of all unrighteous-unholy activity."

⁹ <http://www.bluestarway.com>

Respect

Re-awakening to a greater understanding of Respect and incorporating this Knowledge in our Lives facilitates our capacity to do things differently and welcome a Different Way.

One may wonder

112312

After reading the quote from "A Simple Answer", one may wonder, if all we have to do is ask for Father's Plan to prevail upon the Earth, why then any need to get glimpses of this Different Way?

Here is what Father has Said about such matters during our visit to the Ruby Valley many years ago:

*The human ego functions better to perceive the induction of energy through tangible, explainable, human endeavor.
Were Father to manifest before your eyes that for which you cannot conceive / are not ready in consciousness to perceptually accept, it would degrade / devalue your human endeavor.*

In other words, when we Properly expand our awareness beyond the prophesied, programmed, limited, restrictive, suffocating, stiffening, destructive world view forced upon us by the unrighteous - unholy, we make it possible to accept a Greater Manifestation of Father's Good Will and Intent.

If you think Magic is evil, how can you welcome a Mystical and Magical Life?

If you think you have to work hard to earn your day, how can you welcome the Abundance Father makes freely available without the need to toil and labor?

If you think there needs to be armageddon, how can you receive Father's Plan which is one of Love, Peace, and Abundance?

If you think yourself broken and unworthy, how can Father restore your Divine Inheritance and Heritage back to you?

All the writings in my blog are meant to facilitate this Proper expansion of one's awareness so a point can be reached in which we can Truly say "Father, I am ready to perceptually accept Heaven upon Earth in my consciousness. I am ready to perceptually accept Your Presence in my consciousness. I am ready to perceptually accept a Different Way in my consciousness. Let it be so."

Summary - Part 3

112812

Us the People of this Earth are HUMAN and therefore HUMANE.

Humane:

- BENEVOLENT

Benevolent:

- marked by good will

By definition of our very Nature, us the People of this Earth are Benevolent and therefore of Good Will. Anything unlike this is a deception and false witness against our True Nature.

As we have learned through this exploration, to re-awaken to our Humanity and begin expressing this Truth once again is to re-awaken to a greater understanding of Respect and incorporate this Knowledge in our Lives.

Respect not only facilitates understanding of our True Nature, but also the Knowledge needed to end our little "p" play in the deception.

Summary - Part 4

113012

Respect – a Right and Proper Way

A more Proper understanding of capital "R" Respect for / of Life and therefore People, Earth, and Nature conveys knowledge of the Sacred and Holy Nature of Life, Life's entitlement to Respect, and Life's inherent great Spiritual and Moral Worth. This is not simple conjecture on my part, but rather information that is encoded in the English language.

Respect:

- to treat with propriety and consideration
- to regard as inviolable
- avoid intruding upon

Creation, and therefore Life, is of Divine Origin. This not only entitles Life to Respect, but also establishes the Spiritual and Moral Worth of Life. I consider this a most basic principle of Universal Law, if not an Universal Law itself.

The Gift of Respect is / has been freely given to us by All That Is for our enjoyment and satisfaction. Acceptance and enjoyment of this Gift does not create any kind of obligations or binding contracts. No tricks, no traps, no bondage, no subservience to All That Is.

This Gift of Respect and all the qualities associated with it are an integral part of Life. That is to say, Respect is not only a Natural expression of Life but at the same time, it also establishes its essential character and nature.

This Gift of Respect is especially suited and adapted for supporting Life's own capacity to Live in Truth, Harmony, Peace, and Abundance. It is a Way of Life that is Natural. It is a Way of Life that belongs to us. It is a Way of Life that is Lawful.

The capacity to be Respectful and therefore In-Joy this Gift is facilitated by that which supports our True Nature as Sacred and Holy, and therefore strengthens, heals, cleanses, and facilitates the expression of Heaven on Earth.

To Know and Experience Respect is to Know and Experience our Divine Nature and therefore Humanity.

Summary - Part 5

1202212

What is Respect?

The short version is simple:

Respect is to recognize the Sacred and Holy Nature of Life and therefore ourSelves.

It is to recognize our inviolable Nature and to disengage from anything that would tell us otherwise.

It is to act in a manner that supports and facilitates expression of our True Nature and to conduct ourselves in a way that is non violating and non intruding upon Creation and therefore each other.

Summary - Part 6

120412

What is Respect? – The long version

The long version, is... well, longer.

Respect...

... is an exceptionally Good and Desirable Gift.

... is to embrace and express our own Divine Nature.

... is an expression of Who We Truly Are and therefore a "hands on" experience.

... establishes our basic or essential character and Nature.

... facilitates expression of our HUMANE and therefore benevolent Nature.

... is to welcome and accept not only our own Humanity, but that of other living beings as well.

... does not have to be earned by anyone. Worthiness does not have to be proven or gained by anyone.

... is to recognize that we and others are Whole and Complete notwithstanding the false witness against this.

... is based on equality or equal standing. There is no superior nor inferior, no oppressor nor oppressed, no predator nor consumer, no abuser nor victim. Just equal to equal or, as Father has Said a few times here and there, "mano a mano" (hand to hand).

Respect

... is to recognize that because we are entitled to Respect, it is our Right to ask [Father] that anyone who chooses to interact with us do so with Respect or simply be non to us / we be non to them.

... is to not play with and to not support those who seek to dis-Respect us.

... is to remain centered, and focused on our Divine Nature when others loose theirs. It is to not play.

... is to Respect others.

... is to monitor what is happening within us and what we are doing throughout the day to ensure that what we do and think is of one a-chord with our daily choice (see First Breath ¹⁰).

... is to regain and maintain our capacity to act upon our own (TRUE) Desire.

... is to treat and conduct ourselves in such a way that allows our inner Light to shine and fill our Being.

... is to welcome our Feeling Tone.

... is to conduct ourselves in a way that favors manifestation of Father's Good Will and Intent for us and therefore brings Peace, Prosperity, Gladness, and Hope to our lives.

... is to have Clarity of Vision and to be free of impurity or anything that dims or darkens our perception and expression.

... is to choose that which supports our capacity to Live in Truth and supports our Vision and Injoyment of Creation.

... is to be Joyous and Light Hearted.

¹⁰ <http://bluestarway.com/bluestarblog/index.php?post/2010/04/07/First-Breath>

... is to develop the Discernment and refined perception that allows us to quickly and readily cut or see through the deception and end our play. In other words, Respect makes it possible to "cut through the bull" and stand in Truth.

... is to regain our Divine Sovereignty and to stop making ourselves subservient to others / deception.

... is to be True to ourSelves and our Divine Sovereignty without leaning, attacking, defending, or imposing our will on others.

... is to not allow ourselves to be victimized by others and to do so without leaning, attacking, defending, or imposing our will on them.

... is to recognize that just because we Respect others, it does not mean we should Trust them nor welcome them in our lives.

... is to receive a person with "sincerity of feeling" and allows someone to be greeted with "I do not play. Get thee away. Get thee away ends your play". Honesty is all that is required. Respect is not about a "holier than thou" attitude, but about a "common ground" issue.

... is to recognize we need not accept or live under anything other than Father's Good Will and Intent for us and to recognize His Good Will and Intent for us is Benevolent.

... facilitates our realignment with our True Self and True Will. It is to be True to ourSelves.

... allows us to reawaken to the realization that Father's Will and Intent for us happens to be just what our True Will for ourselves is.

... is to give ourselves the needed time to make a Proper decision, rather than acting on impulse. It is to not respond based on the "latest fire" / urgent demands / oppressive influences, but rather based on what is Right Action and Right Manifestation of Father's Good Will and Intent.

Respect

... is to free ourselves from the constraints of worldly demands, by recognizing that we have no allegiance to the deception and any of its purveyors.

... is to recognize that, as Father has Said:

It matters not what others may say or think.

It matters always only That Which Is

Divinely Appointed each day.

... is a way of Life, a way of Living, a way of Being.

... is to allow Father's Presence to be actively Present.

... is to express our inner Joy.

... is to be Good-Hearted and Benign. It is Natural, Lawful, and of one a-chord with Nature / Creation. It is Harmonious with the way Creation was set out to be.

... is Noble and is an expression of our Nobility and therefore moral excellence.

... is to stop looking to the right or to the left for answers. It is to straighten our Walk and Life with the Father and return to that which is Natural, Lawful, and Noble.

... is to recognize that it is a mistake to think that we must leave our Humanity behind the moment we step out of bed so as to become whatever is expected of us by family, friends, religion, work, and duty. It is to understand we did not come to Earth to be "great pretenders".

... is to be Authentic, Real, and completely Honest. It is to be True to our Divine Nature.

... is to Properly and Abundantly Nourish our body and Soul, not only with food, but also with clean air, water, sunshine, natural surroundings, creative undertakings, and the Mystical and Magical.

... is to create a Natural, Soul Nourishing, Joy conducive inner and outer environment.

... is to maintain and support Purity and Innocence of Mind, Heart, and Soul.

... is to Live Harmoniously with the Natural Order of Life as established by Creator.

... is LightHearted and Simple and therefore strengthens Soul, Spirit, and Heart.

... increases inner Wealth and natural resources.

... is Harmonious with the Natural Harmonic music of Life.

... is to use Power and Energy Properly.

... supports and facilitates a sound mind and allows others the space to make their own choices free of moral, religious, contractual, and energetic manipulation / coercion.

... supports that which is Peaceful and serene, Harmonious and Balanced, and therefore physical and mental "quietness".

... is to allow others to follow their own path and let Universal Law balance any transgressions.

... is to understand that, as Father has Said, "Divine Answers Respect all living things". That is to say... that which is Divine does not lie, cheat, steal, mislead, nor harm. Instead, that which is Divine has a keen sense of what is Right and Just and acts accordingly. That which is Divine can be Trusted for it is based on Universal Law and Universal Truth.

Summary - Part 7

120 612

Qualities of Respectful People

As you read this list, keep in mind that all the qualities and characteristics of Respect are inherent or natural to Life and therefore us People. Why? Because we are Divine in Nature.

Anything other than expression of these qualities is abnormal, it is a sign that something has gone awry and therefore needs corrected. If we were to instantly receive cleansing from all interference and welcome our Divine Nature, we would, without any effort at all, be Respectful. Respect is as Natural as breathing. Until that shift in consciousness occurs, we do the best we can to create the conditions that facilitate expression of our Divine Nature. In Father's Words:

*Let Father work in you.
Be Joyous, happy, and do not try to figure anything out.*

Just Know that Father is working in you.

Summary - Part 8

120 812

Qualities of Respectful People – continued

Here is the list, which I checked more than twice...

Respectful People Honor their Sacred Walk upon this Earth.

Respectful People are Virtuous. That is to say, they have a great Love of that which is Right and a conscious Desire to Live by this.

Respectful People are Righteous. That is to say they do what is Right in a Wise manner.

Respectful People understand that to know what is Right one must first know Truth. Therefore, they seek the Knowledge and Experience of Universal Truth, Universal Law, and Universal Love as Self. That is to say, they don't look to the false witness of the deception to determine their actions or find their answers.

Respectful People understand that to do what is Right one must have a Sound and Healthy mind, body, and Soul. Therefore, they Create and Live in environments and surroundings that support their Well Being and Health. This results in a state of Well Being that ends the need for the "rush of excitement".

Respectful People let go of that which weakens, impairs, pollutes, defiles, and vitiates. This allows them to be Naturally modest and Pure in speech, manner, dress, thought, Desire, action, as well as in other aspects of their lives.

Respectful People understand that Health is Natural and illness unnatural.

Respectful People understand that to do things in a Wise manner, they need to develop their Spiritual Discernment so as to Clearly see what is Right and Just.

Respect

Respectful People understand that Inner Joy or Joy of Being surfaces and expresses Naturally in those who Live Harmoniously with Creation. Thus they are non dependent on others for happiness.

Respectful People know their Worth and Sacred Nature, therefore, they have an unexaggerated regard for themselves or their abilities. They are free of the need to win / earn love and approval from others. They have no need for competition.

Respectful People do NOT give away their energy or Love to others nor take / receive energy or Love from others. They intrinsically understand that all Exchange is between them and Father.

Respectful People are Free from bondage. They elevate no one or no thing into "godhood". Therefore, they have no "god" or "gods" and do NOT sacrifice themselves or others.

Respectful People are at Peace with being or returning to an irreligious and uncultivated Life. This allows them to Know Father unto Source and All That Is Free from deception and in a new and elegant way.

Respectful People are Authentic, Real, and completely Honest. They are Genuine and True to their Divine Benevolent Nature.

Respectful People are Trustworthy and Truthful.

Respectful People are Lawful (as in Universal Law) and Benign. They are simple.

Respectful People are Noble and therefore the True Nobility of this Earth. They behave with Dignity and Serenity of demeanor.

Respectful People are Pleasant, Calm, and Good Hearted.

Respectful People are gentle yet strong. They recognize the strength of Respect.

Respectful People are Creative. The Beauty and Harmony of their Creations are an outward manifestation of their inner Beauty and Harmony.

Respectful People are in Tune with the Natural Frequencies of Creation.

Respectful People understand that because each person's Feeling Tone is unique, the Gift of Respect expresses uniquely in each individual.

Respectful People understand that one cannot receive True Abundance without being Respectful and experiencing the merriment that such way of Life brings.

Respectful People are fortunate. They do not squander their resources neither do they have to take / steal resources from others.

Respectful People understand that to re-awaken to the Gift of Respect is to reawaken to the Joy of Being Alive.

Respectful People understand each person must be allowed to find and follow their own path.

Respectful People understand they are not victims. Thus they do not allow themselves to be victimized – they do not play.

Respectful People leave it to Divine / Universal Law to balance any transgressions.

Respectful People have reawakened or never lost, as eloquently stated by Linda, "... [the] sense of the mystery and the sacredness of what is mystical and magical in the experience of coming to this planet".

Quick Note

121012

To complete this summary, you may find it beneficial to re-read the entry "A note about Peace" (see page 24).

Practical Application - an introduction

121212

As pointed out in an earlier entry, when us People loose sight of the Divine Nature / Origin of Life, we loose sight that by Universal Law, we (and all of Life) are entitled to Respect and therefore to not be violated nor intruded upon by anyone, including the unrighteous – unholy.

Concurrently, when us People reawaken to a more Right and Proper understanding of Respect and therefore begin to welcome Universal Law into our Lives, we realize that it is improper to go around mistreating and abusing Creation. We also realize that we are not powerless victims in a merciless universe. The “power” of deception begins to crumble right in front of our eyes and Universal Truth begins to re-emerge in our experience.

When we reawaken to a more Right and Proper understanding of Respect and recognize that All That Is Gifted us with Respect to facilitate our InJoyment of Creation we make it possible to understand that it is impossible for that which intrudes / violates Life to be a natural experience of Life.

When someone puts a roof over his house, he does not go around drilling holes into the roof to create leaks. That defeats the very purpose of having the roof in the first place. Similarly, after All That Is Created all that is and endowed it with the Gift of Respect, He didn't go about creating that which would violate Life and give it power over Life itself. That would have been self defeating.

In other words, that which violates and intrudes upon / against Life is unnatural to Creation and it has no “power” over Life – except that is, for whatever power we give away to it. That is to say, when we are tricked into accepting that which is unnatural as natural we are being tricked not only into giving substance to that which does not exist but also into “powering” it. Thus it can be said that we have been transformed into “living transformers” that transform Divine Energy into energy that feeds, generates, and gives substance to the deception. The extent to which we experience and become vulnerable to deception is determined by the the extent to which we (as well as the lineage we descent from) have accepted and surrendered power and resources to it.

Every time we engage in activities that allow our Divine Resources / Energy to be transformed into hatred, anger, violence, sorrow, pain, greed, lust, stress, fear, adrenaline, and so on we are supporting and giving substance to the deception.

Every time we choose to not play and instead focus on the activities that facilitate expression of our Divine Nature and Feelings of Love, Joy, Peace, and so on we stop supporting the deception. As we progress in our ability to stop our play we diminish the amount of power and resources we give away to support the deception. At the same time, we strengthen our capacity to Live in Universal Law, Universal Truth, and Universal Love as Self. Deception begins to fade away until all that remains is "a land that is fresh and pure / a new Earth / a new Heaven" ¹¹.

¹¹ Quote from "A Simple Answer".

Practical Application - a few examples

121512

Let's begin to take a closer look at the practical application of Knowing Respect and therefore welcoming Universal Law in our Lives.

For example, we take disease and vulnerability to disease as a normal experience of life. Yet in Light of our understanding of Respect, we now know that intrusion into our body and manipulation of our senses is a transgression of Life / Universal Law. Therefore, disease is unnatural and there is no way it can have any power over Life – unless that is, we give it power – (something the medical establishment is so good at doing).

Another deception we take for granted upon Earth is the existence of biting and blood sucking insects many of which are also carriers of disease (or deception / false information). Yet in Light of our understanding of Respect, we know that piercing, harming, wounding, stealing, and so on are a transgression of Life / Universal Law. Therefore, biting insects such as lice, ticks, mosquitoes, fleas, and so on are unnatural and do not have any power over Life – unless that is, we give it to them and accept them in our environment.

Another deception we take for granted on Earth is that varmints such mice, or insects such as cockroaches, or mold and fungus can contaminate our dwelling places and food at will. In the same category we also take for granted that animals such as deer or rabbits can decimate gardens, or that predatory animals can kill livestock and even People. Yet in Light of our understanding of Respect, we know that intrusion, contamination, harm, hunger, death, thievery, and so on are all a transgression of Life / Universal Law. Therefore, this kind of behavior and activity is unnatural and cannot have any power over Life – unless that is, we give it power and accept their presence in our environment.

Are you beginning to get the picture? Right here, right now, on this very Earth you walk upon, you have the Right and the capacity to experience Life free of disease, pests, and pestilence. All it takes is a slight shift in perception and then doing that which supports and strengthens you in Truth.

As Mary Baker Eddy wrote in her book "Science and Health with key to the Scripture":

Never fear the mental malpractitioner, the mental assassin, who, in attempting to rule mankind, tramples upon the Divine Principle of metaphysics, for God ¹² is the only power.

¹² Note that Mary Baker Eddy Properly defines her understanding of God as "Divine Principle, Life, Truth, Love, Soul, Spirit, Mind."

Practical Application - more examples

121712

There are of course many more examples of things and conditions we have taken for granted as part of everyday life on Earth which fall apart in Light of what we have learned about Respect and the Sacred and Holy Nature of Creation and therefore Life.

Here are some additional “worldly conditions” which, notwithstanding the false evidence to the contrary, are unnatural and therefore constitute a transgression of Universal Law:

- famine and hunger
- economic cycles that destroy People's wealth
- technology and industry that consumes and pollutes
- killing, destroying, spelling, cursing, possessing, and thieving at will and in total disregard for Life
- People being victims
- People being powerless
- things getting dirty or breaking
- parasites and the likes
- hard and toiling
- accidents
- polluted air, water, and food
- the seasons as we know them
- darkness of night
- emotions such as anger, hatred, ill will, lust, greed, and so on
- war and prostitution
- having to pay for the right to live upon the land and to do commerce
- aging and dying

Is your picture of Truth expanding? Right here, right now, on this very Earth we walk upon, we have the Right and the capacity to experience Life free of the false witness of deception. All it takes is a slight shift in perception and then doing that which supports and strengthens us in Truth.

When we wake up from the spell and reach the point in which we refuse to tolerate unrighteous – unholy activity, then of a necessity, deception must end. No attacking, no fighting, no defending, no imposing our will on others. Just a slight shift in perception and the willingness for Father's Plan to prevail.

Practical Application - a conclusion (part 1)

121812

When the false witness of deception shows up in its many ways, we simply do not play and do NOT give it permission to enter, influence us, and become part of our experience. We make a conscious choice to not harbor it in our Being nor make our resources available to it. We recognize we are entitled to Respect and therefore to be free of intrusion and violation. We acknowledge our Sacred Nature and the Sacredness of the land we walk upon and ask that anything other than that be simply non to us.

When deception has already entered, then we simply state that we no longer consent to its presence in us and that any agreements, false witnesses, false beliefs, false contracts, or needs that made us receptive to it be nullified and lifted from us. In Exchange we Welcome Universal Truth, Universal Law, Universal Love as Self and the Good Will and Intent of Father Which Is in Heaven. We acknowledge our Sacred Nature and the Sacredness of the land we walk upon and ask that anything other than that be simply non to us.

Concurrently with these choices, we strengthen our capacity to manifest Truth of Who We Are through the use of herbs, minerals, hydration, essential oils, flower essences, and other natural products. We do this not because we believe in their "curative powers", but because we recognize that in a way, they are carriers of the Knowledge and Truth we have forgotten and which needs restored in us.

At the same time, we go about creating the conditions that facilitate the dissolution of deception. We mentally or verbally state our Desire for the deception to depart and if necessary use traps, fencing, herbs, plants, and yes, even guns to facilitate this.

Father has explained to us that until we reach the point in which we can turn an army around with the simple utterance of a word, the use of guns facilitates getting the message that we "don't play" across to the unrighteous – unholy. Keep in mind though that safety is not in the gun, but in the Father and ultimately in the capacity to not give our power away. This is not about defending nor about attacking, but rather about facilitating the message getting across. It is about an attitude and a Proper perspective... after all, there are a lot of dead People who were killed while using their guns...

Respect

Practical Application - a conclusion (the end)

122012

Once we wake up from the spell and give ourselves permission to allow the deception to end, we allow Truth to enter, fill our Being, and become an experience of our daily Life. With this understanding we can ask on a recurring basis:

- How would I see things differently now that I know about the Sacred and Holy Nature of Creation and Life?
- How would my perception of Life upon Earth change if I were to allow myself to experience and see the Sacred and Holy nature of Life and allow all else to end?
- What would things look like if I would allow myself to see only that which is Sacred and Holy?
- What would my backyard / garden look like if I were to allow the land to express its Sacred and Holy Nature?
- What would my house look like?
- What would my body look like?
- What would my actions be?
- How would animals behave if I were to welcome expression of their Divine Nature? How would I relate to them differently?
- What would that state of mind called Heaven feel like if I were to welcome it in my Life? How would it express?

Then we go about transforming the “intangible” Visions we receive from pondering these questions under the Guidance and Tutelage of All That Is Righteous and Holy into a tangible Reality.

This is how change is made: by our focus and actions.

This is where change is made: in us.

About the Authors

Linda Diane Mead was born and raised in these United States of America. She obtained an under-graduate degree in Psychology with a minor in Philosophy and a PhD in Metaphysics from a Theological School.

Martin Riedel was born in Argentina, South America, and lived in Uruguay and Mexico as he grew up. After beginning college in Mexico he came to these United States of America, where he graduated with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

Upon meeting, they embarked on a memorable journey of self discovery that took them across the States. This book is one of the many fruits of their 'Labour of Love.'

Linda left the material plane in 2014.

